THE ROYAL BANK OF SCOTLAND N.V.

Registration Document

1. This Supplement dated 9 February 2010 (the Supplement) constitutes the sixth supplement to the Registration Document dated 30 June 2009 (the Registration Document) published by ABN AMRO Holding N.V. (Holding) and ABN AMRO Bank N.V. (now renamed The Royal Bank of Scotland N.V.) (RBS N.V. or the Demerging Company) approved by the Netherlands Authority for the Financial Markets (Stichting Autoriteit Financiële Markten, the AFM) on 30 June 2009, as supplemented on 8 July 2009, 11 August 2009, 28 August 2009, 19 October 2009 and 27 November 2009.
2. This Supplement constitutes a supplemental prospectus to the Registration Document for the purposes of Article 5:23 of the Financial Supervision Act (Wet op het financieel toezicht).
3. This Supplement is supplemental to, and should be read in conjunction with, the Registration Document and any other supplements thereto issued by Holding and/or RBS N.V.
4. Each of Holding, the Demerging Company and ABN AMRO Bank N.V. (previously named ABN AMRO II N.V.) (the Acquiring Company) accepts responsibility for the information contained in this Supplement. To the best of the knowledge of Holding, the Demerging Company and the Acquiring Company (having taken all reasonable care to ensure that such is the case), the information contained in this Supplement is in accordance with the facts and does not omit anything likely to affect the import of such information.

5. It is an intention of this Supplement that by virtue of this Supplement, the Registration Document shall be applicable to the Acquiring Company, as well as to Holding and RBS N.V. during the period between the legal demerger and legal separation.
6. On 8 February 2010, Holding, RBS N.V. and the Acquiring Company published a press release announcing the completion of the legal demerger containing substantially the information set out below. As used herein, the term 'ABN AMRO' refers to Holding and its consolidated subsidiaries:

ABN AMRO completes legal demerger of Dutch State acquired businesses and associated legal renaming

On 6 February 2010 ABN AMRO successfully executed the deed of demerger in accordance with the demerger proposal filed with the Amsterdam Chamber of Commerce on 30 September 2009, thereby demerging the majority of the Dutch State acquired businesses. Additionally, as part of the overall separation process, some subsidiaries and assets and liabilities were separately transferred to the new legal entity ahead of the execution of the legal demerger. Furthermore, some further assets and liabilities will be separately transferred to the Acquiring Company around the same time or shortly after the execution of the legal demerger.

Effective at the same date, the existing legal entity ABN AMRO Bank N.V., from which the Dutch State acquired businesses were demerged, was renamed The Royal Bank of Scotland N.V. The legal entity into which the Dutch State acquired businesses were demerged was also renamed, from ABN AMRO II N.V. to ABN AMRO Bank N.V. Both the Demerging Company and the Acquiring Company will remain wholly owned by Holding until the latter is legally separated from ABN AMRO.

The demerger proposals (excluding the description of assets and liabilities) and pro forma financial information as of 31 December 2008 and 30 June 2009 reflecting the impact of the legal transfers and demergers on ABN AMRO are available at www.abnamro.com. The complete demerger filing, including a description of assets and liabilities to be transferred, was filed with the Amsterdam Chamber of Commerce on 30 September 2009.

This represents the successful execution of the first step in a two step process ABN AMRO chose to effect the legal separation of the assets and liabilities acquired by the Dutch State. The second step, "legal separation", will result in the transfer of the shares of the Acquiring Company from Holding to a new holding company fully owned by the Dutch State and independent of Holding. After the legal separation, Holding will be renamed RBS Holdings N.V.

Holding was acquired by a consortium of banks through RFS Holdings B.V. on 17 October 2007. The consortium consisted of The Royal Bank of Scotland Group plc (38%), Fortis SA/NV (34%) and Banco Santander S.A. (28%). On 24 December 2008 the Fortis Bank Nederland (Holding) N.V. stake in RFS Holdings B.V. was transferred to the Dutch State, following the acquisition by the Dutch State in October 2008 of Fortis Bank Nederland (Holding) N.V., including its stake in RFS Holdings B.V.

Until legal separation, ABN AMRO will continue to be governed by Holding's managing and supervisory boards and regulated on a consolidated basis with capital adequacy, liquidity measures and exposures being reported to and regulated by the Dutch Central Bank (De Nederlandsche Bank). ABN AMRO's capital ratios continue to exceed the minimum tier 1 and total capital ratios of 9% and 12.5% respectively (as set under Basel I by the Dutch Central Bank during the separation period of ABN AMRO) and are adequate to cover for stress scenarios. ABN AMRO continues to comfortably exceed the regulatory liquidity requirements. ABN AMRO and its shareholder have taken steps to ensure that at legal separation each individual, separating bank will be adequately capitalised and has a sound liquidity position.

Further information on the separation of ABN AMRO, which information Holding, RBS N.V. and the Acquiring Company do not consider to be material for the purposes of Article 16 of Directive 2003/71/EC (the Prospectus Directive), is available on www.abnamro.com and www.rbs.com.

RBS N.V. will be an integral part of the RBS Group and will principally contain international lending, international transaction services and equities businesses of the RBS Group. These remaining activities will continue to be subject to Dutch Central Bank supervision and on a consolidated basis as part of the RBS Group be subject to UK Financial Services Authority supervision. Due to the change in the operating model of RBS N.V. compared to pre-acquisition ABN AMRO Bank N.V., a licence renewal was granted by the Dutch Central Bank on 3 February 2010.

The majority of the businesses acquired by the Dutch State, consisting of the Dutch commercial and retail banking, Dutch and international private clients and diamond businesses, were transferred to the Acquiring Company at or shortly before the legal demerger. However, during the period between the legal demerger and legal separation a small 'tail' of predominantly international businesses will continue to be transferred to the Acquiring Company. The exact timing of these transfers will be determined by, amongst other things, the granting of regulatory approvals in the countries in which the businesses operate. The Acquiring Company was granted a banking licence on 13 January 2010.

Following the legal demerger and until legal separation, the managing and supervisory boards of RBS N.V. and of the Acquiring Company will be the same as the managing and supervisory boards of Holding.

Following the legal demerger the managing board of RBS N.V. is unchanged and is constituted as follows:

EU Remedy

ABN AMRO Bank N.V. and Deutsche Bank AG signed the Share Purchase Agreement confirming the agreements reached for the sale of NEW HBU II N.V. (NEW HBU II) and IFN Finance B.V. (IFN Finance) on 23 December 2009. The sale price agreed upon for NEW HBU II and IFN Finance, including a guarantee provided for 75% of the credit losses ('credit umbrella') and an amount for other liabilities and costs, is EUR 700 million.

With the signing, the sale is now closer to completion. The final steps in the process prior to the closing thereof are the transfer of the NEW HBU II shares to the Acquiring Company, the legal demerger of the majority of the businesses acquired by the Dutch State into the Acquiring Company and the legal separation of the Acquiring Company. The closing of the NEW HBU II and IFN Finance transaction is expected to take place thereafter in the early spring of 2010. ABN AMRO has considered the impact of the transaction on results and capital ratios and considers that the transaction will have a negative impact of between EUR 800 and EUR 900 million on results. The total loss on the transaction includes a provision for the credit umbrella. The new ABN AMRO Bank N.V. expects to account for these losses when, after legal separation, the conditions for effecting the closing have been met.

Banking license

On 13 January 2010 the Dutch Central Bank granted a banking license to the Acquiring Company for engaging in universal banking business in the Netherlands.

On 3 February 2010 the Dutch Central Bank granted RBS N.V. a continuation of its existing banking license.

Capital ratios

The following table shows the pro forma capital ratios as at 30 September 2009 on the basis of the Basel I capital accord for both Holding and the Acquiring Company, both after the effect of the legal demerger and including the effect of capital actions executed on 23 December 2009 and the planned capital distribution as described below.

	Pro forma ABN AMRO Holding N.V.	Pro forma ABN AMRO Holding N.V. excluding the Acquiring Company	Pro forma Acquiring Company
Tier 1 capital ratio	13.44%	18.95%	10.56%
Total tier capital ratio	19.14%	27.33%	14.85%

Capital actions - Acquiring Company

The capital actions of the Dutch State for the benefit of the Dutch State acquired businesses to be transferred to the Acquiring Company, executed on 23 December 2009, consisted of the issue of two Mandatory Convertible Securities. The first of these was issued by the Demerging Company in the amount of EUR 967 million and has been demerged together with the assets and liabilities of the Dutch State acquired businesses in accordance with the legal demerger filing dated 30 September 2009 to the Acquiring Company. The second of these was in the amount of EUR 833 million and was issued directly by the Acquiring Company to cover expected losses in respect of the EU Remedy business disposal as described below. The latter issuance did not contribute to the capital ratios as of 31 December 2009, since a banking license was granted to the Acquiring Company in 2010.

As a consequence of the capital actions described above, the capital position of the Acquiring Company will exceed the current regulatory minima as set by the Dutch Central Bank for ABN AMRO (Tier I capital ratio 9%, Total capital ratio 12.5%) under the agreed Basel I transitional regime during the period of separation of ABN AMRO. These capital actions are also aimed to adequately satisfy the Dutch Central Bank regulatory requirements in accordance with Basel II.

Capital actions - RBS N.V.

The capital actions completed by the RBS Group for the benefit of the future RBS N.V. consisted of the inclusion of assets in the UK's Asset Protection Scheme through a guarantee agreement between The Royal Bank of Scotland plc and RBS N.V., and an equity capital contribution of EUR 3.6 billion. As a result, the RBS acquired businesses are more than adequately capitalised under the current Basel I transitional regime and are aimed to be adequately capitalised at a level commensurate with the requirements of the future RBS N.V., post legal separation, under Basel II.

Capital distribution

The completion of the capital actions described facilitated the execution of the legal demerger and supports the future legal separation of the Acquiring Company from Holding planned to be completed approximately two months after the legal demerger.

The boards of Holding have approved and have obtained necessary approval from the Dutch Central Bank for the distribution of EUR 7.5 billion of capital to the parent of Holding, RFS Holdings B.V., for the benefit of Santander. This distribution was effected on 5 February 2010. The boards of Holding have furthermore resolved to make a further distribution for an amount in the range of EUR 1.2 to 1.5 billion for the benefit of Santander, subject to Dutch Central Bank approval, immediately before legal separation. After such further distribution, the indirect interest of Santander in ABN AMRO will have decreased to its share in the remaining Shared Assets.

Standard & Poor's: A+ (long term) / A-1 (short term).

Fitch Ratings: AA- (long term) / F1+ (short term).

Moody's Investors Service: Aa3 (long term) / P-1 (short term).

Debt allocation

The allocation of debt instruments to Consortium Members has been finalised as part of the legal demerger process. The debt instrument allocation list is available at www.abnamro.com/investors/investors.cfm.

As part of the finalisation, the USD 150 million 7.13% subordinated notes 2093 (previously reported in Central Items) have been allocated to the RBS acquired businesses and will therefore, continue as an obligation of RBS N.V.

The USD 250 million 7.75% subordinated lower tier 2 notes 2023, while economically allocated to the Dutch State acquired businesses, remain a legal obligation of RBS N.V. until their intended transfer in the second quarter of 2010 to the Acquiring Company. These notes can not be transferred to the Acquiring Company as part of the Dutch legal demerger process, because they are governed by US law.

"Set forth below are certain risk factors that could have a material adverse effect on the future business, operating results or financial condition of Holding, the Demerging Company and/or the Acquiring Company. These risk factors and the other information in this Registration Document should be carefully considered before making investment decisions. Additional risks not currently known to Holding, the Demerging Company and/or the Acquiring Company or that they or any of them now deems immaterial may also harm Holding, the Demerging Company and/or the Acquiring Company and affect your investment."

Each of Holding, the Demerging Company and the Acquiring Company confirms that, despite being drafted as being applicable to "ABN AMRO", each of the Risk Factors, which appear in the below section is, save where specifically mentioned, applicable to all of them.

- 7.4 The following paragraphs are hereby inserted into the Registration Document at the end of the section titled "Risk Factors":

"Recourse of investors due to legal demerger and cross liability

Following the legal demerger, ABN AMRO has demerged into two entities, being the Demerging Company and the Acquiring Company with effect from 6 February 2010. After that date, in principle investors will only have recourse to the entity to which the relevant assets and liabilities have been transferred for payments in respect of the appropriate securities.

However, under article 2:334t of the Dutch Civil Code, the Demerging Company, after legal demerger, remains liable to the creditors for obligations which transferred from the Demerging Company to the Acquiring Company in the event that the Acquiring Company cannot meet its obligation to those creditors.

Similarly, after legal demerger, the Acquiring Company is liable to the creditors for obligations that remain in the Demerging Company, in the event that the Demerging Company cannot meet its obligation to those creditors.

In each case, the liability of a party for the obligations of the other party and vice versa relates only to obligations existing at the date of legal demerger. The liability will cease to exist upon expiration of the obligations. Furthermore, the Demerging Company's liability for (in short) monetary obligations is limited to the equity retained at legal demerger, amounting to EUR 4.0 billion. The Acquiring Company's liability for (in short) monetary obligations is limited to the amount of equity acquired at legal demerger, which amounts to EUR 1.8 billion.

The Demerging Company will put in place arrangements to mitigate the risks of its liability to the creditors which transferred from the Demerging Company to the Acquiring Company. The Acquiring Company will also put in place arrangements to mitigate the risks of its liability to the creditors which remain with the Demerging Company. Such arrangements include the provision of collateral upon the occurrence of certain events, which will be put in place by legal separation. Each of the Demerging Company and the Acquiring Company will hold the regulatory capital agreed with the Dutch Central Bank for any residual risks.

Revocation of statement of joint and several liability of Holding in respect of the Acquiring Company

Holding has deposited a statement pursuant to Section 2:403 of the Netherlands Civil Code (a 403 Declaration) with the Commercial Register of the Chamber of Commerce in Amsterdam in respect of ABN AMRO Bank N.V. (in its form prior to the legal demerger) in which it has declared to be jointly and severally liable for the debts resulting from legal acts of that entity. See the section titled 'Guarantee of Holding' below.

On 1 May 2009 Holding deposited a further 403 Declaration with the Commercial Register of the Chamber of Commerce in Amsterdam in respect of the Acquiring Company.

Following the legal demerger, each of these 403 Declarations continues to be applicable.

Upon the legal separation, the 403 Declaration in respect of the Acquiring Company, the demerged and transferred subsidiaries and partially in respect of the Demerging Company will be revoked, provided that all of the relevant conditions of Section 2:404 of the Dutch Civil Code are met. Consequently the joint and several liability of Holding for the debts resulting from legal acts of the Acquiring Company (including remaining liability for legal acts of the Acquiring Company which arose prior to the date of revocation of the 403 Declaration), the demerged and transferred subsidiaries and of the Demerging Company to the extent it relates to the split-off to the Acquiring Company pursuant to the legal demerger, will be terminated.

Holding filed its intention to terminate any such remaining liability with the Amsterdam Chamber of Commerce on 2 December 2009. By filing the intention to terminate the remaining liability, a creditor objection period of two months was initiated, which ended on 2 February 2010.

Additionally, a proposal for a second legal demerger has been filed and is planned to be executed as per the legal separation to further effect the transfer of the Dutch State acquired businesses to the Acquiring Company at the time of, or after, legal separation.

This subsequent legal demerger relates to the demerger from Holding to the Acquiring Company of an amount of cash and, to the extent not terminated as set out above, any liability pursuant to the 403 Declaration in respect of the Acquiring Company, including the remaining liabilities as referred to in section 2:404 of the Dutch Civil Code, to the extent it concerns liabilities arising out of legal acts from the Acquiring Company, the demerged and transferred subsidiaries and the Demerging Company to the extent it relates to the split-off to the Acquiring Company pursuant to this demerger.

Neither the revocation of the 403 Declaration in respect of the Acquiring Company, nor the termination of remaining liability, nor the subsequent legal demerger by Holding as set out above should pose additional risks for investors or creditors of Acquiring Company and/or the demerged and transferred subsidiaries, as the Dutch State has expressed its intention to have a new 403 Declaration issued by the Acquiring Company's holding company, ABN AMRO Group N.V., in respect of the Acquiring Company and the demerged and transferred subsidiaries. The expressed intention is that such new 403 Declaration would be issued upon legal separation, with retrospective effect to cover the terminated remaining liabilities as referred to in section 2:404 of the Dutch Civil Code as well.

ABN AMRO's legal demerger and legal separation process creates additional risks for ABN AMRO's business and stability

ABN AMRO is going through a period of transition and change, which poses additional risks to ABN AMRO's business including (i) ABN AMRO's ability to manage the break up of the ABN AMRO in a controlled manner while minimising the loss of business, (ii) ABN AMRO's ability to retain key personnel during the transition and (iii) enhanced operational and regulatory risks during this period. During this period of transition and change and as a result of the legal demerger and upcoming legal separation, the Demerging Company and the Acquiring Company will remain interdependent with respect to certain business areas, for which they will inter alia provide certain services to each other.

Integration of the Acquiring Company with Fortis Bank (Nederland) N.V.

On 21 November 2008, the Dutch State announced its intention to integrate the Dutch State acquired businesses of ABN AMRO with Fortis Bank (Nederland) N.V. (FBN) after completion of the legal demerger and legal separation process. The integration of the Acquiring Company with FBN is subject to the completion of the sale by the Acquiring Company to Deutsche Bank AG of NEW HBU II N.V. and IFN Finance B.V.

The integration process of the Acquiring Company with FBN could be delayed due to inter alia delays regarding the structuring of the legal merger of the two entities or delays in approval or additional terms and conditions of supervisory and regulatory bodies. Failure or delay in this integration may adversely affect the stand alone operation of the Acquiring Company and may therefore adversely affect the Acquiring Company's results and financial condition."

There has been no significant change in the financial position of the Acquiring Company since its incorporation, other than as a result of the legal demerger. There has been no material adverse change in the financial position or prospects of the Acquiring Company since its incorporation.

Conflicts of interest of members of administrative, management and supervisory bodies

In 2009 and in to date in 2010 there were no actual or potential conflicts of interest with members of the managing board or supervisory board of the Acquiring Company which were of material significance to the Acquiring Company. As far as the Acquiring Company is aware, in 2009 and in 2010 to date there were no actual or potential conflicts of interest with the senior executive vice presidents of ABN AMRO or with the members of the Executive Committee of the Acquiring Company, other than members of the managing board of the Acquiring Company. Except for the dependencies noted above, and except as described in the CVs of the managing board, the managing board members of the Acquiring Company do not perform principal activities outside the ABN AMRO group of companies.

However in respect of Principle II.3 of the Dutch Corporate Governance Code, an exception is noted. Principle II.3 states that any conflict of interest or apparent conflict of interest between the company and management board members shall be avoided. Prior to the legal demerger, several members of the managing board also served in a number of capacities at the various Consortium Members and as from the date of the legal demerger, the managing board and supervisory board of the Acquiring Company is the same as the managing board and supervisory board of Holding and RBS N.V. The members of the managing board of the Acquiring Company have taken part in discussions or decision making that involved a subject or transaction relating to the separation and transfer of the ABN AMRO businesses to the respective Consortium Members. This could constitute a conflict of interest within the scope of best practice provision II.3.2. of the Dutch Corporate Governance Code. In this respect the Acquiring Company does not apply best practice provision II.3.3 of the Dutch Corporate Governance Code with respect to these subjects and transactions, but otherwise the Acquiring Company reports that best practice provisions II.3.2 to II.3.4 of the Dutch Corporate Governance Code inclusive have been complied with where applicable.

Major Shareholder and change of control

As at the date of the legal demerger, Holding is the sole shareholder of the Acquiring Company.

As a consequence of and as from the legal separation, the shares of the Acquiring Company will be transferred from Holding to a new holding company fully owned by the Dutch State, named ABN AMRO Group N.V., and independent of Holding, which will after separation be renamed RBS Holdings N.V.

The Dutch State has announced its intention to integrate the Acquiring Company with FBN after completion of the legal separation process.

The Dutch State is not involved in the day-to-day management of the Acquiring Company, and has expressed the intention not to be involved in the day-to-day management of the combined entity once the Acquiring Company has merged with FBN.

The Dutch State has stated its intention to privatise the combined bank not earlier than 2011.

403-Declaration

Set out below is an English translation of the guarantee (referred to below as a ‘403 Declaration’) given by Holding in respect of debt obligations of the Acquiring Company:

“The public company with limited liability ABN AMRO Holding N.V., established at 1082 PP Amsterdam, Gustav Mahlerlaan 10, herein represented by Mw. M.L.G. van Tunen and mw. Drs. P.H.M. Hofste RA, hereby declares that with effect from 9 April 2009, it will be jointly and severally liable for all debts resulting from juridical acts performed by ABN AMRO II N.V., established at Amsterdam and registered with the Trade Register under no. 34334259.

The above declaration can be revoked at any time by the undersigned by the filing a notice to that effect at the office of the Trade Register in accordance with Article 2:404 of the Dutch Civil Code

Amsterdam 1 May, 2009

ABN AMRO Holding N.V.”

A copy of the 403 Declaration can be obtained from the Trade Register of the Amsterdam Chamber of Commerce at De Ruyterkade 5, P.O.Box 2852, 1000 CW Amsterdam, The Netherlands.

The 403 Declaration is part of the Dutch company law provisions designed to enable subsidiaries of parent companies which publish consolidated annual accounts to obtain an exemption from the requirements to separately publish their own annual accounts. One of the conditions for obtaining such exemption is that a 403 Declaration is issued by the parent company and deposited with the Trade Register of the Chamber of Commerce in the place where the subsidiary is established. The statutory provisions relating to 403 Declarations are contained in Article 2:403 and following of the Dutch Civil Code. A 403 Declaration is an unqualified statement by the parent company that the parent company is jointly and severally liable with the subsidiary for the debts of the subsidiary. The 403 Declaration set out above constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of Holding, enforceable in accordance with its terms. Thus, the effect of the issue and deposit by Holding of its 403 Declaration is that Holding and the Acquiring Company have become jointly and severally liable for all debts of the Acquiring Company arising from transactions entered into by the Acquiring Company after the date of the deposit. The 403 Declaration accordingly constitutes a guarantee by Holding for any debt instruments issued by the Acquiring Company. If the Acquiring Company should default under the debt instruments, holders concerned may claim against both or either of the Acquiring Company and Holding. The liability of Holding under the 403 Declaration is unconditional and not limited in amount, nor is it limited to certain specific types of obligation. Legal defences available to the Acquiring Company against the holder concerned will likewise be available to Holding. A 403 Declaration may be revoked by the giver at any time. If the 403 Declaration is revoked by Holding, the situation under Dutch law would be as follows:

- (1) Holding would remain liable in respect of Notes issued by the Acquiring Company prior to the effective date of revocation; and
- (2) Holding would not be liable for debt instruments issued by the Acquiring Company after the effective date of revocation.

The law of The Netherlands provides for one instance (i.e. the situation in which the Acquiring Company would no longer be a subsidiary or group company of Holding) where revocation of the 403 Declaration is under certain conditions capable of releasing Holding from all obligations under the 403 Declaration; however, in such event, there are elaborate statutory provisions to protect the rights of creditors of the Acquiring Company. The 403 Declaration constitutes a statement of joint and several liability governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of The Netherlands.

Upon the legal separation, the 403 Declaration in respect of the Acquiring Company, the demerged and transferred subsidiaries and partially in respect of the Demerging Company will be revoked, provided that all of the relevant conditions of Section 2:404 of the Dutch Civil Code are met. Consequently the joint and several liability of Holding for the debts resulting from legal acts of the Acquiring Company (including remaining liability for legal acts of the Acquiring Company which arose prior to the date of revocation of the 403 Declaration), the demerged and transferred subsidiaries and of the Demerging Company to the extent it relates to the split-off to the Acquiring Company pursuant to the legal demerger, will be terminated.

Holding filed its intention to terminate any such remaining liability with the Amsterdam Chamber of Commerce on 2 December 2009. By filing the intention to terminate the remaining liability, a creditor objection period of two months was initiated, which ended on 2 February 2010.

The Dutch State has expressed its intention to have a new 403 declaration for the Acquiring Company and the demerged and transferred subsidiaries issued by the Acquiring Company's holding company, ABN AMRO Group N.V. The expressed intention is that such new 403 Declaration would be issued upon legal separation, with retrospective effect to cover the terminated remaining liabilities which would no longer be covered by the 403 declaration provided by Holding.

Legal and arbitration proceedings

The ABN AMRO Group is involved in a number of governmental, legal and arbitration proceedings in the ordinary course of its business in a number of jurisdictions. On the basis of information currently available, and having taken legal counsel with advisors, the Group is of the opinion that it is not, nor has it been, involved in any governmental, legal or arbitration proceedings (including any such proceedings which are pending or threatened of which the Group is aware) during the 12 months preceding 9 February 2010 which may have, or have had in the recent past, significant effects on the Group's consolidated financial position or consolidated profitability.

The various proceedings have been allocated to the consortium shareholders. On the basis of the proceedings allocated to the Acquiring Company, the Acquiring Company is not, nor has it been, involved in any governmental, legal or arbitration proceedings (including any such proceedings which are pending or threatened of which the Acquiring Company is aware) during the 12 months preceding 9 February 2010 which may have, or have had in the recent past, significant effects on the Acquiring Company's financial position or profitability.

Material Contracts

On 23 December 2009, the Acquiring Company and Deutsche Bank AG signed the Share Purchase Agreement (SPA) confirming the agreements reached for the sale of NEW HBU II N.V. (and IFN Finance B.V.). The sale price agreed for NEW HBU II and IFN Finance, including a guarantee provided for 75% of the credit losses ('credit umbrella') and an amount for other liabilities and costs, is EUR 700 million.

With the signing, the sale is now close to completion. The final steps in the process prior to the closing thereof are the transfer of the NEW HBU II shares to the Acquiring Company and the legal demerger of the majority of the businesses acquired by the Dutch State into the Acquiring Company and the separation of the Acquiring Company from the ABN AMRO Group. The closing of the NEW HBU II and IFN Finance transaction is expected to take place thereafter in the early spring of 2010. ABN AMRO Group has considered the impact of the transaction on results and capital ratios and considers that the transaction will have a negative impact of between EUR 800 and EUR 900 million on results. The total loss on the transaction includes the impact of a provision for the credit umbrella. The new ABN AMRO Bank N.V. expects to account for these losses when, after legal separation, the conditions for effecting the closing have been met.

Background

At the date of demerger, ABN AMRO Bank N.V. was renamed to The Royal Bank of Scotland N.V. (hereinafter RBS N.V.) and ABN AMRO II N.V. was renamed ABN AMRO Bank N.V. Until legal separation both RBS N.V. and ABN AMRO Bank N.V. will be governed by the ABN AMRO Holding N.V. managing and supervisory boards and regulated on a consolidated basis with capital ratios, liquidity measures and exposures being reported to and regulated by the Dutch Central Bank. For an overview of the liabilities issued by ABN AMRO Bank N.V. that have been allocated to Dutch State acquired businesses and a list of the liabilities remaining as legal obligations of RBS N.V., refer to www.abnamro.com.

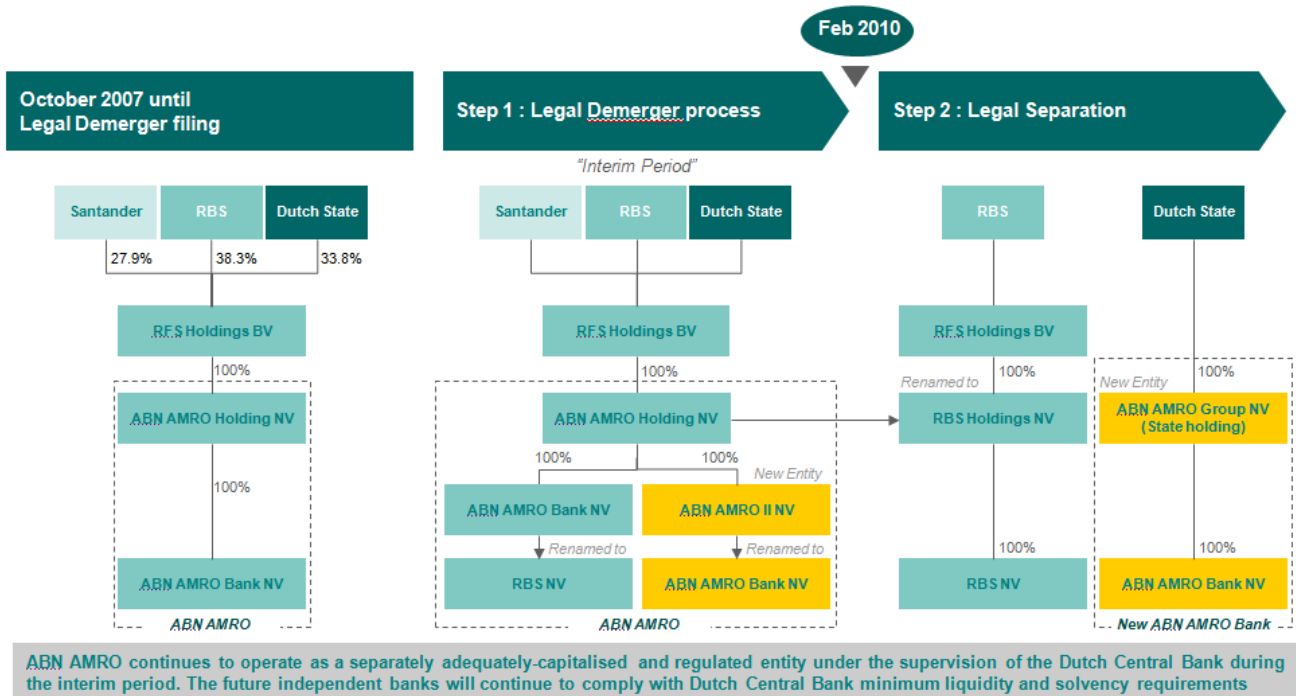

The Royal Bank of Scotland Group plc ('RBS Group') and the State of the Netherlands ('Dutch State') continue to work towards the legal separation of the Dutch State acquired businesses from the residual RBS acquired businesses into two separate viable banks, each with its own banking license and each adequately capitalised at the time of legal separation. On 13 January 2010 the Dutch Central Bank granted a banking license to ABN AMRO Bank N.V. for engaging in universal banking business in the Netherlands. On 3 February 2010 the Dutch Central Bank granted a continuation of its existing banking license to RBS N.V.

After legal separation, ABN AMRO Holding N.V. will be renamed RBS Holdings N.V. RBS N.V. will remain a wholly owned subsidiary of RBS Holdings N.V., which in turn will remain wholly owned by RFS Holdings B.V. RFS Holdings B.V. will be substantially owned by the RBS Group after separation. RBS N.V. principally contains international lending, international transaction services and equities businesses of the RBS Group.

ABN AMRO Bank N.V. will become a wholly owned subsidiary of a newly incorporated entity ABN AMRO Group N.V. which in turn will be wholly owned by the Dutch State. ABN AMRO Bank N.V. serves Dutch commercial and retail banking clients, Dutch and international private clients, and diamond businesses.

For information on events subsequent to the 9 months to 30 September 2009, please refer to item 6 of the sixth supplement to the registration document.

The diagram below shows the demerger and separation process in steps.

1. The Dutch State's part of the assets and liabilities that are not yet allocated to any of the Consortium shareholders, the so-called Shared Assets, are not included in this overview.
2. The structure shown represents the position after a transitional phase, during which the Dutch State and Banco Santander S.A. will continue to hold a stake in RFS Holdings B.V. commensurate to their holding in remaining Shared Assets and any other businesses subject to later separation.

The purpose of this document is to provide pro forma financial information to supplement the Dutch Registration Document of ABN AMRO Holding N.V. and ABN AMRO Bank N.V. with updated information about the new legal structure of ABN AMRO. The legal demerger is a significant event and therefore the update is required to provide investors with relevant historical financial information on a pro forma basis allowing an assessment of the impact of the demerger. The pro forma financial information has been prepared for illustrative purposes only on the basis of estimates and assumptions which are preliminary. The pro forma information addresses a hypothetical situation and does not represent the actual position or the results of either ABN AMRO Holding N.V. or ABN AMRO Bank N.V.

The pro forma financial information includes the following pro forma information for both ABN AMRO Holding N.V. and ABN AMRO Bank N.V. (i) a pro forma Statement of Financial Position as at 30 September 2009, (ii) a pro forma Income statement for the nine months ended 30 September 2009, (iii) a pro forma Statement of Financial Position as at 31 December 2008, (iv) a pro forma income statement for the year ended 31 December 2008, and (v) Notes to the pro forma financial information. This pro forma financial information should be read in conjunction with the financial information and the related notes for the 9 months ended 30 September 2009 published in the press release of ABN AMRO Holding N.V. on 25 November 2009 and the financial statements and the related notes thereto for the year ended 31 December 2008.

The unaudited pro forma financial information may be subject to change because management has not finalised their detailed assessment of key estimates and judgements which is part of the preparation process of the consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2009. Management is not aware of any matters that could impact ABN AMRO Holding N.V.'s results and financial position as presented in the pro forma financial information. The audited consolidated financial statements of ABN AMRO Holding N.V. for the year ended 31 December 2009 will be available at the end of March 2010.

The pro forma financial information has been prepared on the following basis:

- The pro forma condensed consolidated statement of financial position of ABN AMRO Holding N.V. at 30 September 2009 and 31 December 2008 is presented to show the effect of the legal demerger of ABN AMRO Bank N.V. and is based upon the respective consolidated balance sheets at 30 September 2009 and 31 December 2008 of ABN AMRO Holding N.V. and ABN AMRO Bank N.V. as if the proposed transaction had occurred on 30 September 2009 and 31 December 2008.
- The pro forma condensed consolidated income statement of ABN AMRO Holding N.V. for the nine months ended 30 September 2009 and the year ended 31 December 2008 is presented to show the effect of the legal demerger of ABN AMRO Bank N.V. and is based upon the respective consolidated income statements for the nine months ended 30 September 2009 and the year ended 31 December 2008 of ABN AMRO Holding N.V. and ABN AMRO Bank N.V. as if the proposed transaction had occurred on 30 September 2009 and 31 December 2008.
- The pro forma condensed consolidated statements of financial position at 30 September 2009 and 31 December 2008 for ABN AMRO Bank N.V. assume that all assets acquired by the Dutch State are demerged with no residual assets (see note 3 for information on assets to be transferred after the demerger). Consequently the pro forma total for ABN AMRO Holding N.V. does not include these residual assets.

2 Central Items

The pro forma financial information for ABN AMRO Holding N.V. includes not only the RBS acquired businesses but also other items as detailed below, the so-called "Central Items".

a) Shared Assets

ABN AMRO Holding N.V., after the demerger, continues to include assets and liabilities that have not yet been settled between the consortium shareholders, the so-called "Shared Assets", in which each of the consortium shareholders has a joint and indirect interest. The net value of the assets and liabilities that are currently expected to remain for an interim period in ABN AMRO Holding N.V. amounts to EUR 6.9 billion negative at 30 September 2009. As part of the legal demerger, capital related to the demerged businesses transferred to ABN AMRO Bank N.V. However sufficient capital remains in ABN AMRO Holding N.V. to cover the Dutch State interest in the Shared Assets.

b) Other Central Items

The pro forma for ABN AMRO Holding N.V. includes some remaining assets and the results thereon as well as profit from discontinued operations allocated to the Banco Santander S.A. (Santander) acquired businesses. These are reported as part of the Central Items and remain in ABN AMRO Holding N.V. until any remaining balances with Santander are settled and remaining capital distributed for the benefit of Santander. Sufficient capital will also remain in ABN AMRO Holding N.V. for the Santander interest in the remaining Shared Assets until such time that these are sold, redeemed or otherwise settled.

3 Assets and liabilities to be transferred after demerger

A number of assets and liabilities included in some Private Clients and International Diamonds & Jewellery Group businesses in branches and subsidiaries are not part of the legal demerger. These assets and liabilities are part of the Dutch State acquired businesses and will be transferred to ABN AMRO Bank N.V., as soon as possible after the effective date of the demerger, when all required technical and regulatory separation activities are complete and approvals obtained.

At the date of legal demerger, EUR 4.2 billion of EUR 203.0 billion of assets and EUR 4.1 billion of EUR 196.1 billion liabilities, which are included the pro forma financial information of ABN AMRO Bank N.V. at 30 September 2009 remain in ABN AMRO Holding N.V. The remaining assets are adequately funded and capitalised until they are transferred. The majority of these assets will transfer during the interim period between legal demerger and legal separation once the necessary consents have been obtained.

It is expected that at the date of legal separation, EUR 0.6 billion of these EUR 4.2 billion of assets and EUR 0.5 billion of these EUR 4.1 billion of liabilities will remain in ABN AMRO Holding N.V. and will be transferred as soon as possible after legal separation. The remaining assets are adequately funded and capitalised until their transfer after legal separation.

The assets and liabilities that will be transferred at a later stage are presented as part of ABN AMRO Bank N.V. in the pro forma income statement and statement of financial position as they are not significant.

4 Accounting policies

The same accounting policies and methods of computation are followed in the pro forma financial information as were applied in the preparation of the ABN AMRO Holding N.V. financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2008, except for the impact for the adoption of IAS 1 (revised 2007) Presentation of Financial Statements as disclosed in the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for the six months period ended 30 June 2009. Please refer to pages 99 to 118 of ABN AMRO Holding N.V.'s 2008 Annual Report for a description of the accounting policies.

5 Cross liability

Notes to pro forma financial information for ABN AMRO Bank N.V. (formerly ABN AMRO II N.V.)

1 Basis of preparation

The financial information of ABN AMRO Bank N.V. as at 30 September 2009 and 31 December 2008 has been based on IFRS and IFRS as adopted by the European Union. The pro forma financial information does not include events subsequent to 30 September 2009.

The pro forma financial information has been prepared on the following basis:

- The pro forma condensed consolidated statement of financial position of ABN AMRO Bank N.V. at 30 September 2009 and 31 December 2008 is presented to show the effect of the legal demerger of ABN AMRO Bank N.V. and is based upon the respective consolidated balance sheets at 30 September 2009 and 31 December 2008 of ABN AMRO Holding N.V. as if the proposed transaction had occurred on 30 September 2009 and 31 December 2008.
- The pro forma condensed consolidated income statement of ABN AMRO Bank N.V. for the nine months ended 30 September 2009 and the year ended 31 December 2008 is presented to show the effect of the legal demerger of ABN AMRO Bank N.V. and is based upon the respective consolidated income statements for the nine months ended 30 September 2009 and the year ended 31 December 2008 of ABN AMRO Holding N.V. as if the proposed transaction had occurred on 30 September 2009 and 31 December 2008.
- The pro forma condensed consolidated statement of financial position at 30 September 2009 and 31 December 2009 for ABN AMRO Holding N.V. does not include residual assets left behind after the legal demerger (see note 2 for information on assets to be transferred after the demerger). Consequently the pro forma information for ABN AMRO Bank N.V. includes these residual assets.

2 Assets and liabilities to be transferred after demerger

A number of assets and liabilities included in some Private Clients and International Diamonds & Jewellery Group businesses in branches and subsidiaries of the current ABN AMRO Bank N.V. are not part of the demerger. These assets and liabilities are part of the Dutch State acquired businesses and will be transferred to ABN AMRO Bank N.V. as soon as possible after the effective date of the demerger, when all required technical and regulatory separation activities are completed and approvals have been obtained.

At the date of legal demerger, EUR 4.2 billion of EUR 203.0 billion of assets and EUR 4.1 billion of EUR 196.1 billion of liabilities, which are included the pro forma financial information of ABN AMRO Bank N.V. at 30 September 2009 remain in ABN AMRO Holding N.V. The remaining assets are adequately funded and capitalised until they are transferred. The majority of these assets will transfer during the interim period between legal demerger and legal separation once the necessary consents have been obtained.

It is expected that at the date of legal separation, EUR 0.6 billion of these EUR 4.2 billion of assets will remain in ABN AMRO Holding N.V. and will be transferred as soon as possible after legal separation. The remaining assets are adequately funded and capitalised until their transfer after legal separation.

The assets and liabilities that will be transferred at a later stage are presented as part of ABN AMRO Bank N.V. in the pro forma income statement and statement of financial position as they are not significant.

3 Accounting policies

The same accounting policies and methods of computation are followed in the pro forma financial information as were applied in the preparation of the ABN AMRO Holding N.V. financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2008, except for the impact for the adoption of IAS 1 (revised 2007) Presentation of Financial Statements as disclosed in the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for the six months period ended 30 June 2009. Please refer to pages 99 to 118 of ABN AMRO Holding N.V.'s 2008 Annual Report for a description of the accounting policies.

4 Cross liability

Under article 2:334t of the Dutch Civil Code ABN AMRO Bank N.V., after legal demerger, remains liable to the creditors of RBS N.V. that remain in RBS N.V., in the event that RBS N.V. can not meet its obligations with those creditors.

The liability relates only to obligations existing as at date of legal demerger. The liability will cease to exist upon expiration of the obligations. ABN AMRO Bank N.V.'s liability to creditors is limited to the amount of equity acquired at legal demerger, which amounts to approximately EUR 1.8 billion.

ABN AMRO Bank N.V. will put in place arrangements to mitigate the risks of the liability to the creditors which remain with RBS N.V. by legal separation. ABN AMRO Bank N.V. will after legal separation hold the regulatory capital agreed with the Dutch Central Bank for any residual risks.

Similarly under Article 2:334t of the Dutch Civil Code, New HBU II N.V. is under certain circumstances liable to the creditors of RBS N.V. following the demerger from RBS N.V. to new HBU II N.V. on 7 August 2008. This liability amounts to approximately EUR 0.9 billion at 30 September 2009.

To the holders of debt instruments issued by ABN AMRO Holding N.V. and ABN AMRO Bank N.V.

Assurance Report on the Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Financial Information

Introduction

In accordance with Commission Regulation No. 809/2004 (the “Prospectus Regulation”), we report on the unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial information (the “pro forma information”) for the periods ended 31 December 2008 and 30 September 2009 of ABN AMRO Holding N.V. (to be renamed RBS Holdings N.V. and including RBS N.V., hereafter “ABN AMRO Holding N.V.”), and ABN AMRO Bank N.V. (formerly ABN AMRO II N.V., hereafter “ABN AMRO Bank N.V.”) which is supplemented to the Registration Document dated 30 June 2009. This Registration Document was filed at the Netherlands Authority for the Financial Markets on 30 June 2009.

The pro forma information has been prepared on the basis described on pages 9 and 15 respectively and for illustrative purposes only. The pro forma information has been prepared to illustrate how the legal demerger of ABN AMRO Holding N.V. and ABN AMRO Bank N.V. might have affected the financial information for the period ended 31 December 2008 and 30 September 2009 as if such demerger has occurred on 31 December 2008 and 30 September 2009 and because of its nature addresses a hypothetical situation and, therefore, does not represent the actual financial position or results of ABN AMRO Holding N.V. and ABN AMRO Bank N.V.

It is the responsibility of the management of ABN AMRO Holding N.V. and ABN AMRO Bank N.V. to prepare the pro forma information in accordance with the requirements of the Prospectus Regulation. It is our responsibility to provide the conclusion as required by Annex II item 7 of the Prospectus Regulation. We are not responsible for expressing any other opinion on the pro forma information or on any of its constituent elements. In providing this opinion we are not updating or refreshing any reports or opinions previously made by us on any financial information used in the compilation of the pro forma information, nor do we accept responsibility for such reports or opinions beyond that owed to those to whom those reports or opinions were addressed by us at the dates of their issue.

Scope

We conducted our examination in accordance with the Dutch law and COS 3000 ‘Assurance Engagements other than Audits or Reviews of Historical Financial Information’. Our work, which involved no examination of any of the underlying financial information, consisted primarily of comparing the column unadjusted financial information in the pro forma information with the source documents, considering the evidence supporting the adjustments and enquiries with the management of ABN AMRO Holding N.V. and ABN AMRO Bank N.V.

We planned and performed our examination so as to obtain all the information and explanations we considered necessary in order to provide us with reasonable assurance that the pro forma information has been properly compiled on the basis stated and that such basis is consistent with the accounting policies of ABN AMRO Holding N.V. and ABN AMRO Bank N.V.

Solely on the basis of the foregoing procedures we noted and draw to your attention that ABN AMRO Holding N.V. (the “Company”) is finalising its consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2009. As part of the process, common with other organisations, ABN AMRO Holding N.V. performs a detailed assessment of key estimates and judgements as at its financial year end. In completing these detailed assessments, matters may arise which could impact the Company’s results and financial position as presented in the pro forma information. However, management have informed us that they are not aware of any such matters at this time.

We believe that our examination provides a reasonable basis for our conclusion.

Conclusion

In our opinion:

- a. The unaudited pro forma information has been properly compiled on the basis described on pages 9 and 15 respectively; and
- b. The basis is consistent with the accounting policies of ABN AMRO Holding N.V. and ABN AMRO Bank N.V. referred to on page 10 and 16.

This report is required by the Prospectus Regulation and is provided for the purpose of complying with that Prospectus Regulation and for no other purpose.
