5. Governing Law

The Securities shall be governed by English law. The JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. Guarantee is governed by the laws of the State of New York.

6. Issue Price, specified denomination and form of the Securities

- (i) The issue price shall be 100 per cent. of the nominal amount per Security (being GBP 1.00).

Warning: The issue price may be more than (a) the market value of the Securities as at the issue date of the Securities (being 23 December 2011) or any other date and (b) the amount, if any, at which J.P. Morgan Securities Ltd. (as dealer) or any other person is willing to purchase the Securities in the secondary market, and may take into account amounts (x) with respect to commissions relating to the issue and sale of the Securities and (y) relating to the hedging of the Issuer's obligations under the Securities. - (ii) Each Security shall have a denomination of GBP 1.00.
- (iii) The Securities will be represented on issue by a temporary global security in bearer form exchangeable upon certification of non-U.S. beneficial ownership for a permanent global security in bearer form.

7. Issue date, maturity date and potential for early redemption

- (i) The issue date is 23 December 2011.
- (ii) The maturity date is 27 December 2017 (subject to adjustment for non-business days) or, if the Calculation Agent determines that an Autocall Redemption Event (as defined in paragraph 10(ii) of this Summary below) has occurred on a valuation date (other than the final valuation date) for the Reference Asset, the Autocall Redemption Date for the Reference Asset corresponding to such valuation date.
- (iii) The Securities may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer prior to the maturity date for taxation reasons or for reasons of illegality under the Conditions of the Securities. See General Conditions 5.7 and 17 of the "General Conditions" in the 2011 Base Prospectus incorporated by reference in this Prospectus. In such case, the amount payable on early redemption shall be, for each Security (of the Specified Denomination of GBP 1.00), an amount determined by the Calculation Agent as the fair market value of the Security taking into account all relevant factors (but ignoring the event which resulted in such redemption) less all costs incurred by the Issuer or any affiliate in connection with such early redemption determined by the Calculation Agent in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner.

8. Information on the Reference Asset

Reference Asset	Initial Preference Share Value	Underlying Index	Initial Index Level	Final Index Level	Barrier Level
Class 2011-AD FTSE™ 100 Index linked Autocall Redeemable Preference Shares issued by J.P. Morgan International Derivatives Ltd., due December 2017	GBP 1.00	FTSE™ 100 Index (Bloomberg Code: UKX <Index>)	5,552.29	Official closing level of the Underlying Index on the final valuation date for the Reference Asset	3,331.37, being 60 per cent. (60%) of the Initial Index Level (rounded to two decimal places with 0.005 being rounded upwards)

9. Interest on the Securities

No interest shall be payable on the Securities.

10. Final redemption amount of the Securities

- (i) The final redemption amount payable in respect of the Securities is linked to the performance of the Reference Asset, which is in turn linked to the performance of the Underlying Index. See "Description of the Preference Shares" and "Form of Statement of Rights in respect of the Class 2011-AD FTSE™ 100 Index linked Autocall Redeemable Preference Shares of JPMIDL" in this Prospectus. Holders of the Securities shall have no rights in relation to the Reference Asset (or the Underlying Index).
- (ii) An Autocall Redemption Event shall have occurred where the official closing level of the Underlying Index on any valuation date (other than the final valuation date, scheduled to fall on 4 December 2017, subject to adjustment) for the Reference Asset is greater than or equal to the Redemption Level corresponding to such valuation date as set forth in the Autocall Redemption Table below. If such an event occurs, the Reference Asset will be redeemed on the Autocall Redemption Date corresponding to such valuation date for the Reference Asset as set forth in the table below.

Unless the Securities have previously been redeemed under the Conditions of the Securities, the maturity date of the Securities will then also be such Autocall Redemption Date, and the final redemption amount for each Security (of the Specified Denomination of GBP 1.00) will be an amount in GBP calculated by the Calculation Agent as the product of (a) GBP 1.00, multiplied by (b) the quotient of (I) the final preference share value, divided by (II) the Initial Preference Share Value, provided that the final redemption amount in respect of each Security (of the Specified Denomination of GBP 1.00) shall not be less than GBP 0.01.

The final preference share value in these circumstances will be the value of the Reference Asset on the Autocall Redemption Date corresponding to such valuation date, as determined by the Calculation Agent by reference to the Preference Share Autocall Redemption Amount (as set forth in the table below) corresponding to such valuation date, as may be adjusted downwards by the Calculation Agent to take into account any risk or possibility of such Preference Share Autocall Redemption Amount not being duly paid on the relevant Autocall Redemption Date.

Autocall Redemption Table
Valuation Date scheduled to fall on	Redemption Level	Preference Share Autocall Redemption Amount	Autocall Redemption Date
3 December 2012	4,997.06, being 90 per cent. (90%) of the Initial Index Level (rounded to two decimal places with 0.005 being rounded upwards)	GBP 1.08	24 December 2012
2 December 2013	4,997.06, being 90 per cent. (90%) of the Initial Index Level (rounded to two decimal places with 0.005 being rounded upwards)	GBP 1.16	23 December 2013
2 December 2014	4,719.45, being 85 per cent. (85%) of the Initial Index Level (rounded to two decimal places with 0.005 being rounded upwards)	GBP 1.24	23 December 2014

2 December 2015	4,441.83, being 80 per cent. (80%) of the Initial Index Level (rounded to two decimal places with 0.005 being rounded upwards)	GBP 1.32	23 December 2015
2 December 2016	4,164.22, being 75 per cent. (75%) of the Initial Index Level (rounded to two decimal places with 0.005 being rounded upwards)	GBP 1.40	23 December 2016

- (iii) If the Securities have not already been redeemed, the maturity date of the Securities will be 27 December 2017 (subject to adjustment for non-business days), and the final redemption amount for each Security (of the Specified Denomination of GBP 1.00) will be an amount in GBP calculated by the Calculation Agent as the product of (a) GBP 1.00, multiplied by (b) the quotient of (I) the final preference share value, divided by (II) the Initial Preference Share Value, provided that the final redemption amount in respect of each Security (of the Specified Denomination of GBP 1.00) shall not be less than GBP 0.01.

The final preference share value in these circumstances will be the value of the Reference Asset on the final valuation date, scheduled to fall on 4 December 2017 (subject to adjustment), as determined by the Calculation Agent by reference to the preference share redemption amount. The preference share redemption amount will be determined by the Calculation Agent as follows (as may be adjusted downwards to take into account any risk or possibility of such preference share redemption amount not being duly paid on the preference share redemption date (being 27 December 2017)):

- (a) if the official closing level of the Underlying Index is less than the Barrier Level on the final valuation date (such event, a "Barrier Event"), the Preference Share Redemption Amount will be an amount in GBP calculated by the Calculation Agent as the product of (I) GBP 1.00, multiplied by (II) the quotient of (A) the official closing level of the Underlying Index on the final valuation date, divided by (B) the Initial Index Level;
- (b) if a Barrier Event has not occurred and the official closing level of the Underlying Index on the final valuation date is less than 70 per cent. (70%) of the Initial Index Level, the Preference Share Redemption Amount will be GBP 1.00; or
- (c) if a Barrier Event has not occurred and the official closing level of the Underlying Index on the final valuation date is greater than or equal to 70 per cent. (70%) of the Initial Index Level, the Preference Share Redemption Amount will be GBP 1.48.

A HOLDER MAY SUSTAIN A LOSS OF SOME OR ALMOST ALL OF THE AMOUNT INVESTED IN THE SECURITIES.

- * Classification of structured products into categories is not intended to guarantee particular results or performance.
-  Any amount that would otherwise be payable in accordance with the redemption formula described above on early or final redemption of the Securities, is subject to (a) insolvency of the Issuer and Guarantor, (b)(I) prior sale or (II) early redemption of the Securities for certain events (e.g., illegality) and (c) adjustment made to the terms of the Securities.

12. Key Risks

The risks described below are provided to highlight certain of the essential categories of risk only, and are by no means comprehensive. You should read "Risk Factors" in the Prospectus for a fuller description of certain risks in relation to the Securities.

Investing in the Securities puts your capital at risk. You may lose some or almost all of your investment.

(i) Risk that the Securities are not suitable or appropriate for you

The Securities are structured products which include embedded derivatives, and before deciding to purchase Securities you must understand their terms including (a) the potential risk of the loss of some or almost all of your investment and (b) the relationship of the potential payout on the Securities to the performance of the underlying Reference Asset, including the characteristics and risks inherent in the Reference Asset.

You should reach an investment decision only after careful consideration, with your own tax, accounting, legal and other professional advisers, of the suitability of the Securities in the light of your particular financial circumstances and investment objectives and risk profile, and the information set forth in this Prospectus.

You should not invest in the Securities unless you can withstand a loss of almost all of your invested amount.

(ii) Risk relating to the ability of the Issuer and the Guarantor to make all payments under the Securities or to fulfil their respective obligations under the Securities to Holders

It is possible that the Issuer and the Guarantor could go bankrupt or otherwise be unable to make the payments owing under the Securities or to fulfil their respective obligations under the Securities to Holders. If that happens, you will not have the protection of any deposit insurance scheme and will not be secured, and may lose some or almost all of your money.

(iii) Risk from having no interest in the Reference Asset

You should be aware that holders of Securities will have no interest whatsoever in the underlying Reference Asset, and the Issuer may apply your purchase moneys for any corporate purposes. Therefore, if the Issuer and Guarantor fail to make the required payments under the Securities, you will not be able to claim against any assets.

(iv) Risk as to the market value and payout of the Securities

Purchasers of the Securities will be exposed to the performance of the Reference Asset: the past performance of the Reference Asset is not indicative of future performance. The market value of the Securities may be highly volatile and may be adversely affected by a number of factors, such as (a) the credit rating of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. or JPMorgan Chase & Co. (which credit ratings may move independently of each other), (b) the performance of the Reference Asset and (c) various other factors.

(v) Risk that there will not be a liquid secondary market into which the Securities may be sold

An active trading market for the Securities is not likely to develop: the Securities may have no liquidity or the market for the Securities may be limited and this may adversely impact their value or the ability of a Holder of the Securities to sell them.

(vi) Risk as to return linked to Preference Shares

The return on the Securities is linked to the value of the Reference Asset, being the Preference Shares, whose value in turn depends on the performance of the Underlying Index and on the creditworthiness of the issuer of the Preference Shares. Under the terms and conditions of the Securities, if there is any risk or possibility (as determined by the Calculation Agent) that the redemption amount of the Preference Share will not be duly paid by the issuer of the Preference Shares on the redemption date of the Preference Share, the Calculation Agent may take such risk or possibility into account and adjust downwards the value of the Preference Share which is used to determine the return of the Securities. If J.P. Morgan International Derivatives Ltd. defaults in its payment obligations under the Preference Shares, an investor in the Securities may lose up to the entire amount invested in the Securities, irrespective of the performance of the Underlying Index. For the avoidance of doubt, the Preference Shares are not guaranteed by JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates, and may therefore have a lower value than an equivalent guaranteed instrument on the insolvency of J.P. Morgan International Derivatives Ltd. Such an outcome would have a negative impact on the value of the Securities.

(vii) Conflicts of Interest

J.P. Morgan affiliates are subject to certain conflicts of interest between their own interests and those of Holders of the Securities. You should read "Conflicts of Interest" below.

(viii) Risk factors relating to the Issuer and Guarantor

Certain factors may affect the ability of the Issuer and Guarantor to fulfil their respective payment or other obligations under the Securities, such as the following:

- JPMorgan Chase's results of operations have been, and may continue to be, adversely affected by U.S. and international financial market and economic conditions
- If JPMorgan Chase does not effectively manage its liquidity, its business could be negatively affected
- The financial condition of JPMorgan Chase's customers, clients and counterparties, including other financial institutions, could adversely affect JPMorgan Chase
- Concentration of credit and market risk could increase the potential for significant losses
- JPMorgan Chase's framework for managing risks may not be effective in mitigating risk and loss to it
- JPMorgan Chase's operations are subject to risk of loss from unfavourable economic, monetary, political, legal and other developments in the United States and around the world
- JPMorgan Chase's power generation and commodities activities are subject to extensive regulation, potential catastrophic events and environmental risks and regulation that may expose it to significant cost and liability
- JPMorgan Chase relies on its systems, employees and certain counterparties, and certain failures could materially adversely affect JPMorgan Chase's operations
- JPMorgan Chase operates within a highly regulated industry and its business and results are significantly affected by the laws and regulations to which JPMorgan Chase is subject
- JPMorgan Chase faces significant legal risks, both from regulatory investigations and proceedings and from private actions brought against it
- There is increasing competition in the financial services industry which may adversely affect JPMorgan Chase's results of operations

- JPMorgan Chase's acquisitions and the integration of acquired businesses may not result in all of the benefits anticipated
- Damage to JPMorgan Chase's reputation could damage its businesses
- JPMorgan Chase's ability to attract and retain qualified employees is critical to the success of its business and failure to do so may materially adversely affect JPMorgan Chase's performance
- JPMorgan Chase's financial statements are based in part on assumptions and estimates which, if wrong, could cause unexpected losses in the future
- JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. is affected by risks affecting its parent company
- The Issuer is partly dependent on other J.P. Morgan affiliates

13. Calculation Agent

The Calculation Agent shall be J.P. Morgan Securities Ltd. The Calculation Agent has broad discretion in certain circumstances to make certain determinations, including to make adjustments to the terms of the Securities and/or to cause early redemption of the Securities, any of which may be adverse to Holders of the Securities.

The calculation agent in respect of the Reference Asset (the "Reference Asset Calculation Agent") shall also be J.P. Morgan Securities Ltd. The Reference Asset Calculation Agent has broad discretion in certain circumstances to make certain determinations, including to make adjustments to the terms of the Reference Asset which may be adverse to Holders of the Securities.

This Summary (including this Key Investor Information) is published on 20 June 2012.

RISK FACTORS

Capitalised terms used in this section and not defined herein shall have the respective meaning ascribed to each in the Contractual Terms of this Prospectus, or, if not defined in the Contractual Terms, the meaning ascribed to each in the General Conditions and Specific Product Provisions (as specified to be applicable by the Contractual Terms below) of the 2011 Base Prospectus.

Purchase of these Securities involves substantial risks: Investors should ensure that they understand the nature of the risks posed by, and the extent of their exposure under, the Securities. Investors should make all pertinent inquiries they deem necessary without relying on the Issuer, the Guarantor, or the Dealer. Investors should consider the suitability of the Securities as an investment in light of their own circumstances, investment objectives, tax position and financial condition. Investors should consider carefully all the information set forth in this Prospectus along with all the information incorporated by reference into this Prospectus, including, for the avoidance of doubt, the risk factors that may affect the relevant Issuer's and Guarantor's ability to fulfil their respective obligations under the Securities, as specified in the table set out in the "Documents Incorporated by Reference" section.

1. "Fundamental risks" of the potential loss of investment and potential lack of suitability in relation to an investment in Securities

1.1 Investors in Securities may receive back less than the original invested amount

Investors in Securities may lose up to the entire value of their investment in the Securities as a result of the occurrence of any one or more of the following events:

- (i) the Issuer and Guarantor of the Securities are subject to insolvency proceedings or some other event impairing the ability of each to meet its obligations under the Securities;
- (ii) due to the performance of the Reference Asset, which in turn is linked to the performance of the index underlying the Reference Asset (the "Underlying Index"), the redemption amount payable under the terms and conditions of the Securities is less than the original invested amount;
- (iii) the investor seeks to sell the Securities prior to their scheduled maturity, and the sale price of the Securities in the secondary market is less than the investor's initial investment; and
- (iv) the Securities are subject to certain adjustments in accordance with the terms and conditions of such Securities that may result in the scheduled amount to be paid upon redemption being reduced to or being valued at an amount less than a purchaser's initial investment.

The obligations of the Issuer and Guarantor of the Securities are not secured. Notwithstanding that the Securities are linked to the performance of the Reference Asset, which in turn is linked to the performance of the Underlying Index, investors in such Securities do not have and shall not receive any rights in respect of the Reference Asset and shall have no right to call for the Reference Asset to be delivered to them. Neither the Issuer nor the Guarantor of the Securities shall be required to hold the Reference Asset.

1.2 The Securities may not be a suitable investment for all investors

Each investor in the Securities must determine the suitability of such investment in light of the investor's own circumstances. In particular, each investor should:

- (i) have sufficient knowledge and experience (if necessary, in consultation with the investor's own legal, tax, accountancy, regulatory, investment or other professional advisers) to evaluate the Securities, the merits and risks of investing in the Securities, all information contained or incorporated by reference into this Prospectus;
- (ii) have access to, and knowledge of, appropriate analytical tools to evaluate, in the context of the investor's particular financial situation, an investment in the Securities and the impact the Securities will have on the investor's overall investment portfolio;
- (iii) have sufficient financial resources and liquidity to bear all of the risks of an investment in the Securities, including where the settlement currency is different from the currency in which such investor's principal financial activities are principally denominated;

- (iv) understand thoroughly (if necessary, in consultation with the investor's own legal, tax, accountancy, regulatory, investment or other professional advisers) the terms of the Securities, including certain agreements and representations that any person who purchases Securities at any time is required to make, or is deemed to have made, as a condition to purchasing such Security or any legal or beneficial interest therein, and be familiar with any relevant financial markets;
- (v) understand thoroughly (if necessary, in consultation with the investor's own legal, tax, accountancy, regulatory, investment or other professional advisers) the nature of the Reference Asset and the Underlying Index and how the performance thereof may affect the pay-out and value of the Securities; and
- (vi) be able to evaluate (either alone or with the help of a financial adviser and/or other professional adviser) possible scenarios for economic, interest rate and other factors that may affect the investment and the investor's ability to bear the applicable risks.

The Securities are complex financial instruments and may include embedded derivatives. An investor should not invest in Securities unless it has the expertise (either alone or with a financial adviser) to evaluate how such Securities will perform under changing conditions, the resulting effects on the value of those Securities and the impact that such Securities will have on the investor's overall investment portfolio.

None of the Issuer, Guarantor, Dealer or any J.P. Morgan affiliate has given, and will not give, to any investor in the Securities (either directly or indirectly) any assurance or guarantee as to the merits, performance or suitability of such Securities, and the investor should be aware that the Issuer is acting as an arm's-length contractual counterparty and not as an advisor or fiduciary.

2. Risk factors that are generic to Securities to be issued under the Programme

2.1 The Issue Price of the Securities may be more than the market value of such Securities as at the Issue Date and the price of the Securities in secondary market transactions

The Issue Price in respect of the Securities may be more than the market value of the Securities as at the Issue Date, and more than the price, if any, at which the Dealer or any other person is willing to purchase such Securities in secondary market transactions. In particular, the Issue Price in respect of the Securities may take into account amounts with respect to commissions relating to the issue and sale of such Securities and amounts relating to the hedging of the Issuer's obligations under such Securities.

2.2 The market value and the amount payable on redemption of the Securities may be adversely affected by a number of factors, and the price at which a Holder of those Securities may be able to sell such Securities prior to maturity may be at a substantial discount to the market value of such Securities on the Issue Date, and a Holder may suffer a loss of some or nearly all of the entire invested amount of the Securities on redemption

- (i) The Securities are subject to the credit risk of the Issuer and the Guarantor. The credit ratings and credit spreads of these entities may adversely affect the market value of the Securities, and any default by the Issuer and Guarantor on its payment obligations would reduce the amount an investor would receive on the Securities, possibly to zero

The Securities are subject to the credit risk of the Issuer and the Guarantor, and their respective credit ratings and credit spreads may adversely affect the market value of the Securities. Investors are dependent on the Issuer's and the Guarantor's ability to pay all amounts due on the Securities, and therefore investors are subject to the credit risk of the Issuer and the Guarantor and to changes in the market's view of the creditworthiness of the Issuer and the Guarantor. Any decline in such credit ratings or increase in the credit spreads charged by the market for taking credit risk on the Issuer and the Guarantor is likely to affect adversely the value of the Securities. If the Issuer and the Guarantor were to default on its payment obligations, an investor may not receive any amounts owed to it under the Securities and could lose its entire investment.

As described in the section "JPMorgan Chase & Co. – Trend information / Business Outlook" at pages 344 to 346 of the 2012 Base Prospectus, which is incorporated by reference into this Prospectus, the Chief Investment Office (which is part of the Corporate segment) of JPMorgan Chase & Co. has had, since the end of the first quarter of 2012, significant mark-to-market losses in its synthetic credit portfolio, partially offset by securities gains. These and any future losses may lead to heightened regulatory scrutiny and additional regulatory or legal proceedings against JPMorgan Chase, and may continue to adversely affect the credit ratings and credit spreads of JPMorgan Chase entities (including the Guarantor and Issuer) and, as a result, the market value of the Securities. See the sections entitled "JPMorgan Chase & Co. – Trend information / Business Outlook" and "Risk Factors" – "6. Risk factors that may affect the relevant Issuer's and Guarantor's (if any) ability to fulfil their respective obligations under the Securities" – "6.7 Risk Management – JPMorgan Chase's framework for managing risks may not be effective in mitigating risk and loss to JPMorgan Chase" in the 2012 Base Prospectus, which are incorporated by reference into this Prospectus, and the JPMorgan Chase & Co. March 2012 Form 10-Q incorporated by reference in the 2012 Base Prospectus, for further discussion.

- (ii) The market value of the Securities is expected to be affected, in part, by the credit rating of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. or JPMorgan Chase & Co., as well as J.P. Morgan International Derivatives Ltd. as issuer of the Reference Asset

The value of the Securities is expected to be affected, in part, by investors' general appraisal of the creditworthiness of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. or JPMorgan Chase & Co., as well as J.P. Morgan International Derivatives Ltd. as issuer of the Reference Asset. Such perceptions may be influenced by the ratings accorded to outstanding securities of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. or JPMorgan Chase & Co. by well-recognized rating agencies, such as Moody's Investors Service Inc. and Standard & Poor's, a division of The McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc. A reduction in the rating, if any, accorded to outstanding securities of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. or JPMorgan Chase & Co., by one of these rating agencies could result in a reduction in the trading value of the Securities.

- (iii) The credit rating of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. and JPMorgan Chase & Co. may move independently of each other

JPMorgan Chase & Co. is the holding company of JPMorgan Chase. As such, JPMorgan Chase & Co. and its subsidiaries (other than JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A.) are generally permitted to undertake a wider range of activities than JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. and its subsidiaries. As a result, while the credit rating of JPMorgan Chase & Co. and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. are closely related, those credit ratings are usually different and, in the event of any change in those credit ratings, those ratings may move independently of each other. JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. is likely to be rated more highly than JPMorgan Chase & Co. but investors should check the relevant rating at the time of considering any investment in Securities.

The creditworthiness of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. is more likely to affect the trading value of Securities issued by JPMSP, which are guaranteed by JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A.

- (iv) The market value of the Securities at any time and/or the amount payable on redemption of the Securities is dependent on the performance of the underlying Reference Asset and may be less than the original amount invested

The Securities will represent an investment linked to the economic performance of the Reference Asset and investors should note that any return on their investment in such Securities will depend upon the performance of such Reference Asset. The Securities are not principal protected instruments. The Securities do not pay interest and the investor may lose some or substantially all of the invested amount to purchase the Securities. Investors should not invest in any Securities if they do not fully understand how the performance of the Reference Asset may affect the pay-out and value of the Securities, including (a) the potential to lose substantially all their investment, (b) any limit on potential profits, and (c) the effects of any leverage.

As the amounts payable in respect of the Securities are linked to the performance of the Reference Asset, whose value in turn depends on the performance of the Underlying Index and on the creditworthiness of the issuer of the Reference Asset, an investor in such a Security must generally make correct predictions as to the direction, timing and magnitude of an anticipated change in the value of the Reference Asset or other basis which may be specified in this Prospectus. However, it is impossible to make such predictions with any degree of certainty, and investors in Securities must be aware that the historical performance of the Reference Asset should not be taken as an indication of future performance of such Reference Asset during the term of such Security.

In contrast to a direct investment in the Reference Asset, Securities represent the right to receive payment of amounts which will be determined by reference to the performance of the Reference Asset. Investors should also note that whilst the market value of such Securities linked to such Reference Asset will be influenced (positively or negatively) by such Reference Asset, any change may not be comparable or directly proportionate to the change in value of such Reference Asset. The price at which an investor will be able to sell Securities to the Issuer or its affiliates prior to the Maturity Date, if at all, may be at a substantial discount from the invested amount to purchase the Securities, even in cases where value of the Reference Asset has appreciated since the Issue Date.

Investors should also note that the value of the Reference Asset which is used to determine the Final Redemption Amount payable for each Security on the Maturity Date may be adjusted downward by the Calculation Agent to take into account any risk or possibility (as determined by the Calculation Agent) of the redemption amount in respect of the Reference Asset not being duly paid on the Redemption Date or an Autocall Redemption Date for the Reference Asset. Where this occurs, the value of the Securities may be less than if any such downward adjustment had not been made by the Calculation Agent. Holders of the Securities are thus also exposed to the risk of default by the issuer of the Reference Asset of its obligations under the Reference Asset. If the issuer of the Reference Asset defaults in its payment obligations under the Reference Asset, an investor in the Securities may lose up to the entire amount invested in the Securities, irrespective of the performance of the Underlying Index.

INVESTORS MUST REVIEW THIS PROSPECTUS TO ASCERTAIN HOW THE PERFORMANCE OF THE REFERENCE ASSET WILL AFFECT THE AMOUNT PAYABLE ON THE SECURITIES.

- (v) The market value of the Securities at any time is dependent on other matters in addition to the credit risk of the Issuer and the Guarantor and J.P. Morgan International Derivatives Ltd. and the performance of the Reference Asset (including the performance of the Underlying Index)

The market value of the Securities at any time will be affected by a number of factors independent of the creditworthiness of the Issuer, the Guarantor and J.P. Morgan International Derivatives Ltd. and the performance of the Reference Asset (including the performance of the Underlying Index), including:

- (a) market interest and yield rates;
- (b) the time remaining to the Maturity Date; and
- (c) numerous other economic, political and other factors.

The amount payable in respect of the Securities at any time prior to redemption is typically expected to be less than the trading price of such Securities at that time. The difference between the trading price and such amount will reflect, among other things, a "time value" for the Securities. The "time value" of the Securities will depend partly upon the length of the period remaining to final redemption and expectations concerning the value of the Reference Asset.

Before selling Securities, Holders should carefully consider, among other things, (a) the trading price of the Securities, (b) the value and volatility of the Reference Asset (and the Underlying Index), (c) the time remaining to expiration, (d) the probable range of amounts payable on the Securities, (e) any changes in interim interest rates, (f) any changes in currency exchange rates, (g) the depth of the market or liquidity of the Reference Asset and (h) any related transaction costs.

- (vi) The market value of Securities may be highly volatile

Holders of the Securities are exposed to the performance of the Reference Asset (including the performance of the Underlying Index). The price, performance or investment return of the Reference Asset and the Underlying Index may be subject to sudden and large unpredictable changes over time and this degree of change is known as "volatility". The volatility of the Reference Asset and Underlying Index may be affected by national and international financial, political, military or economic events, including governmental actions, or by the activities of participants in the relevant markets. Any of these events or activities could adversely affect the value of the Securities.

(vii) The amount payable on redemption of the Securities may be less than the purchase price

The pay-out formula of the Securities does not provide for full "principal protection". Investors in the Securities may risk losing virtually their entire investment if the value of the Reference Asset does not move in the anticipated direction and may still be subject to loss of some or almost all of their investment in the circumstances described in risk factor 1.1 (Investors in Securities may receive back less than the original invested amount) above and may not receive any value for the time for which their money is invested.

2.3 An active trading market for the Securities is not likely to develop

Unless otherwise communicated by the Issuer or any J.P. Morgan affiliate to the investor in the Securities, or to the extent that the rules of any stock exchange on which the Securities are listed and admitted to trading require the Issuer or any J.P. Morgan affiliate to provide liquidity in respect of such Securities, the Securities may have no liquidity or the market for such Securities may be limited and this may adversely impact their value or the ability of the investors in Securities to dispose of them. Subject to the rules of any relevant stock exchange, the Issuer or the Guarantor may seek in its reasonable commercial discretion the delisting of any Securities without notice to the Holders of such Securities.

A secondary market is unlikely to develop and, even if a secondary market does develop, it is not possible to predict the price at which Securities will trade in such secondary market. Neither the Issuer nor any J.P. Morgan affiliate is under any obligation, and none of the Issuer, the Guarantor or any J.P. Morgan affiliate makes any commitment, to make a market in or to repurchase the Securities. If the Issuer, the Guarantor or any J.P. Morgan affiliate does make a market for the Securities, it may cease to do so at any time without notice.

2.4 There may be price discrepancies with respect to the Securities as between various dealers or other purchasers in the secondary market

If at any time a third party dealer quotes a price to purchase Securities or otherwise values Securities, that price may be significantly different (higher or lower) from any price quoted by any J.P. Morgan affiliate. Furthermore, if any Holder sells their Securities, the Holder will likely be charged a commission for secondary market transactions, or the price may reflect a dealer discount.

2.5 The Securities may be redeemed prior to their scheduled final maturity

In certain circumstances, the Early Payment Amount payable on the redemption of a Security prior to its scheduled maturity may be less than its original purchase price and could be as low as zero.

Following early redemption of the Securities, the Holders of such Securities may not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds at an effective interest rate as high as the interest rate or yield on the Securities being redeemed and may only be able to do so at a significantly lower rate. Investors in the Securities should consider such reinvestment risk in light of other investments available at that time.

The Securities may be redeemed prior to maturity for any of the following reasons:

- (i) the occurrence of a mandatory early redemption event (e.g., the price or level of the Underlying Index is equal to or rises above a pre-determined barrier level), as specified in the terms and conditions of the Securities;
- (ii) the occurrence of certain events or other circumstances in relation to the Reference Asset at the discretion of the Calculation Agent (see the Specific Product Provisions);
- (iii) the Issuer determines that its performance under any Security has become unlawful in whole or in part for any reason (see General Condition 17.1 (Termination Event));

- (iv) in certain circumstances where the relevant Issuer determines that it will become subject to withholding tax on payments made to it as a result of holders failing to provide information required by new U.S. tax legislation or that there is a substantial likelihood that it will otherwise violate any agreement it may reach with the U.S. taxing authority with respect to the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Provisions (see General Condition 17.2 (Tax Termination Event));
- (v) the occurrence of certain taxation events (see General Condition 5.7 (Redemption for Taxation Reasons)); or
- (vi) following an Event of Default (see General Condition 16 (Events of Default)).

With regard to early redemption due to any of the above events (other than (i) above), including illegality or tax, the Early Payment Amount in respect of each Security shall (unless otherwise specified in this Prospectus) be an amount determined by the Calculation Agent as representing the fair market value of such Securities immediately prior (and ignoring the circumstances leading) to such early redemption, adjusted to account fully for any reasonable expenses and costs of unwinding any underlying and/or related hedging and funding arrangements (including, without limitation any equity options, equity swaps or other Securities of any type whatsoever hedging the Issuer's obligations under the Securities). An investor in the Securities should be aware that this Early Payment Amount may be less than the investor's initial investment, and in such case see risk factor 1.1 (Investors in Securities may receive back less than the original invested amount).

2.6 JPMorgan Chase is subject to various potential conflicts of interest in respect of the Securities, which could have an adverse effect on the Securities

- (i) JPMorgan Chase & Co. or any of its consolidated subsidiaries (each a "J.P. Morgan affiliate") may take positions in or deal with the Reference Asset

The Issuer, the Guarantor and/or other J.P. Morgan affiliates may:

- (a) in the ordinary course of business, effect transactions for their own account or for the account of their customers and hold long or short positions in the Reference Asset (or the Underlying Index or its constituents) or related derivatives;
 - (b) in connection with an offering of Securities, enter into one or more hedging transactions with respect to the Reference Asset (or the Underlying Index or its constituents) or related derivatives; and/or
 - (c) in connection with such hedging or market-making activities or with respect to proprietary or other trading activities, enter into transactions in the Reference Asset (or the Underlying Index or its constituents) or related derivatives which may adversely (or positively) affect the price, liquidity or value of the Securities and which could therefore be adverse to the interests of the Holders.
- (ii) The Calculation Agent of the Securities, which is a JPMorgan Chase affiliate, has broad discretionary powers which may not take into account the interests of the Holders

As the Calculation Agent is a JPMorgan Chase affiliate, potential conflicts of interest may exist between the Calculation Agent and the Holders, including with respect to the exercise of the very broad discretionary powers of the Calculation Agent. For example, the Calculation Agent has the authority (i) to determine whether certain specified events and/or matters so specified in the conditions relating to a Series of Securities have occurred and (ii) to determine any resulting adjustments and calculations or substitutions as described in such conditions. Investors should be aware that any determination made by the Calculation Agent may have an impact on the value and financial return of the Securities. Any such discretion exercised by, or any calculation made by, the Calculation Agent (in the absence of manifest or proven error) shall be binding on the Issuer and all Holders.

- (iii) JPMorgan Chase and its affiliates may have confidential information relating to the Reference Asset and the Securities

Certain JPMorgan Chase affiliates may from time to time, by virtue of their status as underwriter, advisor or otherwise, possess or have access to information relating to the Securities, the Reference Asset, the Underlying Index and any derivative securities referencing them. Such JPMorgan Chase affiliates will not be obliged to disclose any such information to a purchaser of the Securities.

- (iv) A JPMorgan Chase affiliate may act as a hedge counterparty to the Issuer's obligations under the Securities

Certain JPMorgan Chase affiliates may be the counterparty to the hedge of the relevant Issuer's obligations under an issue of Securities. Accordingly, certain conflicts of interest may arise both among such affiliates and between the interests of such affiliates and the interests of purchasers of Securities.

- (v) The Reference Asset is the preference share of a J.P. Morgan affiliate

J.P. Morgan International Derivatives Ltd. is an affiliate of the Issuer and the Guarantor and therefore all are J.P. Morgan entities which are subject to a conflict of interest in terms of the performance of the Reference Asset and the amount payable under the Securities.

- (vi) The calculation agent of the Reference Asset, which is a J.P. Morgan affiliate, has broad discretionary powers which may not take into account the interests of the holders of the Reference Asset and the Holders

As the calculation agent of the Reference Asset (the "Reference Asset Calculation Agent") will generally be a J.P. Morgan affiliate, potential conflicts of interest may exist between the Reference Asset Calculation Agent and the Holders, including with respect to the exercise of the very broad discretionary powers of the Reference Asset Calculation Agent. For example, the Reference Asset Calculation Agent has the authority (i) to determine whether certain specified events and/or matters so specified in the conditions relating to the Reference Asset and the Underlying Index have occurred and (ii) to determine any resulting adjustments and calculations or substitutions as described in such conditions. Investors should be aware that any determination made by the Reference Asset Calculation Agent may have an impact on the value and financial return of the Securities. Any such discretion exercised by, or any calculation made by, the Reference Asset Calculation Agent (in the absence of manifest or proven error) shall be binding on the Holders.

- 2.7 Any consequential postponement of, or any alternative provisions for, valuation following a Market Disruption Event may have an adverse effect on the value of the Securities

Provisions dealing with the occurrence of a Market Disruption Event on a Valuation Date for the Reference Asset or other date, whereby the Calculation Agent determines that a Market Disruption Event has occurred or exists on such date, and which give rise to any consequential postponement of, or any alternative provisions for valuation provided in the Security, may have an adverse effect on its value.

- 2.8 There may be regulatory consequences to the Holder of holding Securities linked to a Reference Asset

There may be regulatory and other consequences associated with the ownership by certain investors in certain Securities linked to the Reference Asset. Each investor in such Securities must conduct its own investigation into its regulatory position with respect to the potential investment in Securities, and none of the Issuer, the Guarantor, the Dealer or the Arranger assumes any obligation or liability whatsoever to such investor in such regard.

- 2.9 Securities may be amended without the consent of the Holders or with the consent of only some of the Holders binding all of the Holders of Securities

Subject as provided below, the terms and conditions of the Securities may be amended by the Issuer without the consent of the Holders if the amendment:

- (i) is of a formal, minor or technical nature; or

- (ii) is made to cure a manifest or proven error; or
- (iii) is made to cure any ambiguity or is made to correct or supplement any defective provisions of the Securities or the Agency Agreement (as applicable); or
- (iv) is made to correct an error or omission such that, in the absence of such correction, the terms of the Securities would not otherwise represent the intended terms of the Securities on which the Securities were sold and have since traded; or
- (v) will not materially and adversely affect the interests of the Holders of the Securities.

In addition, other changes may be made to the terms and conditions with the consent of the Holders. In order to make such changes, the Issuer requires the consent of 50 per cent. of the Holders (in the case of minor amendments) or 75 per cent. of the Holders (in the case of more fundamental amendments). Any dissenting Holders will be bound by such changes. Therefore the Issuer may be able to make a change which certain Holders have voted against if 50 per cent. or 75 per cent. (as the case may be) of the Holders of the entire series of Securities have approved the change.

2.10 The Issuer or the Guarantor of Securities may be substituted without the consent of the Holders

The Issuer or the Guarantor of Securities may be substituted (subject to the Issuer or the Guarantor having become obliged (due to a change in law) to pay Additional Amounts in accordance with General Condition 18 (Taxation)) as obligor under such Securities in favour of any company from JPMorgan Chase & Co. and its consolidated subsidiaries. Whilst the new issuer will provide an indemnity in favour of the Holders of such Securities in relation to any additional tax or duties that become payable solely as a result of such substitution, Holders will not have the right to object to such substitution. A notice of any substitution in accordance with General Condition 27 (Substitution) will be published in accordance with General Condition 26 (Notices).

2.11 Payments to Holders in respect of Securities and payments received by the Issuer may be subject to U.S. withholding taxes, which may give rise to a right for the Issuer to redeem or terminate the Securities early

Under recently enacted U.S. tax legislation commonly known as the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act ("FATCA"), the Issuer or an intermediary may be required to withhold a U.S. withholding tax of up to 30 per cent. on payments including principal and gross proceeds, made on or after 1 January 2014 to certain Holders in respect of the Securities. In particular, the withholding tax may apply to payments in respect of Securities made to (i) a non-U.S. Holder or beneficial owner that is a foreign financial institution (an "FFI") and that does not have in place an effective reporting and withholding agreement with the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and (ii) other Holders or beneficial owners that do not comply with the Issuer's or any intermediary's requests for ownership certifications and identifying information or, if applicable, for waivers of non-U.S. law prohibiting the release of such information to the U.S. Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") (such Holders and beneficial owners, "Recalcitrant Holders"). In the event that the Issuer is required to deduct a withholding tax under FATCA, no additional amounts will be paid to the Holder of the Security.

Under FATCA, JPMSP (the "Non-U.S. Issuer") may also be subject to a withholding tax of up to 30 per cent. on payments of U.S. source interest, U.S. source dividends and gross proceeds from the sale of certain U.S. assets made on or after 1 January 2014 if the Issuer does not have in place an effective reporting and withholding agreement with the IRS. In the event the Non-U.S. Issuer determines that there is a substantial likelihood that payments made to it would be subject to withholding tax under FATCA or that it otherwise will be in violation of an agreement entered into with the IRS in connection with FATCA, it is possible that a portion or all Securities of a series issued by the Non-U.S. Issuer will be redeemed or terminated at the Early Payment Amount (which amount may be less than the purchase price paid by the Holder, depending on the fair market value of the Securities at the relevant time).

It is anticipated that the Non-U.S. Issuer will comply with the new reporting requirements and, thus, will be required, among other things, to agree to withhold 30 per cent. of "passthru" payments made to any Recalcitrant Holders. A payment with respect to a Security may be treated as a passthru payment to the extent of (i) the amount (if any) of the payment that is treated as U.S. source income (generally, U.S. source interest or U.S. source dividends, and gross proceeds from the sale of assets that can produce U.S. source interest or U.S. source dividends) plus (ii) the remaining amount of the payment multiplied by a ratio equal to the Non-U.S. Issuer's average U.S. assets to its average total assets, based on specified testing dates. Should the Non-U.S. Issuer withhold on payments to its Recalcitrant Holders, there will be no "gross up" (or any other additional amount) payable by way of compensation to such Holders for the amounts deducted.

3. Risk factors that are generic to Securities that are linked to the Reference Asset

3.1 No rights of ownership in the Reference Asset

Investors in Securities should be aware that the Reference Asset will not be held by the Issuer for the benefit of the investors in such Securities, and as such, investors will not obtain any rights of ownership, including, without limitation, any voting rights, any rights to receive dividends or other distributions or any other rights with respect to the Reference Asset (or Underlying Index) referenced by such Securities. For the avoidance of doubt, no J.P. Morgan affiliate is under any obligation whatsoever to acquire and hold the Reference Asset.

3.2 The performance of the Securities is linked to the performance of the Reference Asset

As the Securities reference the Reference Asset, whose value in turn depends on the performance of the Underlying Index, investors in the Securities are exposed to the performance of the Reference Asset and the Underlying Index.

3.3 The past performance of the Underlying Index with respect to the Reference Asset is not indicative of future performance

Any information about the past performance of the Underlying Index with respect to the Reference Asset at the time of the issuance of the Security should not be regarded as indicative of the range of, or trends in, fluctuations in the Underlying Index with respect to the Reference Asset that may occur in the future.

3.4 Postponement or alternative provisions for the valuation of the Reference Asset may have an adverse effect on the value of the Securities

If the Calculation Agent determines that any scheduled valuation date (i) falls on any day which is subject to adjustment in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Securities and/or (ii) any form of disruption event in relation to the Reference Asset has occurred which affects the valuation of either Reference Asset, the Calculation Agent has broad discretion to make any consequential postponement of, or any alternative provisions for, valuation of such Reference Asset provided in the terms and conditions of the Securities, including a determination of the value of such Reference Asset by the Calculation Agent in its reasonable commercial discretion, each of which may have an adverse effect on the value of the Securities.

3.5 The Calculation Agent has broad discretion to make certain determinations and adjustments, and/or to cause early redemption of the Securities, any of which may be adverse to Holders

The Calculation Agent may in certain circumstances adjust the terms and conditions of the Securities (without the consent of the Holders) or may procure the early redemption of such Securities prior to their scheduled maturity date where particular adjustment events specified to be applicable to such Securities occur, in each case, in accordance with such terms and conditions. In the event of such early termination the Issuer will repay such Securities at the Early Payment Amount, which will be determined on the basis of an amount determined by the Calculation Agent equal to the fair market value of such Securities immediately prior to such early redemption, less any cost to the Issuer or any affiliate of the Issuer which is hedging the Securities on the Issuer's behalf of unwinding such hedging transactions. Investors in the Securities should be aware that it is likely that such Early Payment Amount will be less than the investor's initial investment, and in such case see risk factor 1.1 (Investors in Securities may receive back less than the original invested amount) above. Following any such early redemption of the Securities, the investors in such Securities will generally not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds at an effective interest rate as high as the yield on the Securities being redeemed and may only be able to do so at a significantly lower rate. Investors in the Securities should consider such reinvestment risk in light of other investments available at that time.

4. Risk factors associated with the Reference Asset

4.1 Risks associated with Shares as Reference Assets

An investment in Share Linked Securities such as the Securities entails significant risks in addition to those associated with investments in a conventional debt security.

(i) Factors affecting the performance of Preference Shares may adversely affect the value of the Securities

The performance of Preference Shares is dependent upon macroeconomic factors, such as interest and price levels on the capital markets, currency developments, political factors and company-specific factors such as earnings position, market position, risk situation, shareholder structure and distribution policy.

(ii) No claim against the Share Issuer or recourse to the Preference Shares

Share Linked Securities do not represent a claim against or an investment in any Share Issuer and Holders will not have any right of recourse under the Securities to any such company or the Preference Shares. The Securities are not in any way sponsored, endorsed or promoted by any Share Issuer and such companies have no obligation to take into account the consequences of their actions for any Holders. Accordingly, the issuer of a Share may take any actions in respect of such Share without regard to the interests of the purchasers of the Securities, and any of these actions could adversely affect the market value of the Securities.

(iii) Determinations made by the Calculation Agent in respect of Potential Adjustment Events, Extraordinary Events and Additional Disruption Events may have an adverse effect on the value of the Securities

Upon determining that a Potential Adjustment Event, Extraordinary Event or Additional Disruption Event has occurred in relation to an underlying Share or Share Issuer, the Calculation Agent has broad discretion to make certain determinations to account for such event including to (a) make adjustments to the terms of the Securities and/or (b) (in the case of an Extraordinary Event or an Additional Disruption Event) cause early redemption of the Securities, any of which determinations may have an adverse effect on the value of the Securities.

Potential Adjustment Events include (a) a sub-division, consolidation or re-classification of the Preference Shares, (b) an extraordinary dividend, (c) a call of the Preference Shares that are not fully paid, (d) a repurchase by the issuer, or an affiliate thereof, of the Preference Shares, (e) a separation of rights from the Preference Shares or (f) any event having a dilutive or concentrative effect on the value of the Preference Shares. Extraordinary Events include (a) an insolvency (where all the Preference Shares of the Share Issuer are transferred to a trustee, liquidator or similar official or may not be legally transferred) or bankruptcy of the issuer of the Preference Shares, (b) a merger event entailing the consolidation of the Preference Shares with those of another entity, (c) a nationalisation of the issuer of the Preference Shares or transfer of the Preference Shares to a governmental entity, (d) a tender offer or takeover offer that results in transfer of the Preference Shares to another entity or (e) an adjustment or early redemption of the terms of the Preference Shares in accordance with their terms. Additional Disruption Events include (a) a change in applicable law since the Issue Date that makes it illegal to hold, acquire or dispose of the Preference Shares or more expensive for the Issuer to hedge its obligations under the Securities or (b) if specified to be applicable in this document, (I) an insolvency filing by or on behalf of the underlying Share Issuer or (II) Hedging Disruption.

4.2 Risks associated with the Class 2011-AD FTSE™ 100 Index linked Autocall Redeemable Preference Shares of J.P. Morgan International Derivatives Ltd. as Reference Asset

An investment in the Securities entails significant risks in addition to those associated with investments in a conventional debt security. Capitalised terms used in this Risk Factor 4.2 and not defined herein shall have the respective meaning ascribed to each in this Prospectus or in Annex A below, or, if not defined in this Prospectus or Annex A, the meaning ascribed to each in the 2011 Base Prospectus.

(i) The Reference Asset is illiquid

The Reference Asset is not listed on any exchange, and so is illiquid and may not be sold to third parties without the consent of the issuer thereof, J.P. Morgan International Derivatives Ltd. The only return a holder of the Reference Asset may obtain is through the redemption of the Reference Asset. Such redemption of the Reference Asset may only be effected at fixed times, and as set out in the Articles of Association of J.P. Morgan International Derivatives Ltd. Holders of the Securities are also subject to the creditworthiness of J.P. Morgan International Derivatives Ltd., and thus are exposed to the credit risk of J.P. Morgan International Derivatives Ltd. The obligations of J.P. Morgan International Derivatives Ltd to pay the redemption amount on the Redemption Date or Autocall Redemption Date of the Reference Asset is not guaranteed by JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. or any other entity.

- (ii) Postponement or alternative provisions for the valuation of the Underlying Index may have an adverse effect on the value of the Securities

If the calculation agent for the Reference Asset (the "Reference Asset Calculation Agent") determines that (a) a scheduled valuation date falls on a day which is not a Scheduled Trading Day for the Underlying Index or any other day which is subject to adjustment in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Reference Asset and/or (b) any form of disruption event in relation to the Underlying Index has occurred which affects the valuation of such Underlying Index and/or (c) any form of modification, cancellation or disruption event in respect of the Underlying Index has occurred which affects the valuation or composition of such Underlying Index, the Reference Asset Calculation Agent has broad discretion to make any consequential postponement of, or any alternative provisions for, valuation of such Underlying Index provided in the terms and conditions of the Reference Asset, including a determination of the value of such Underlying Index by the Reference Asset Calculation Agent in its discretion, each of which may have an adverse effect on the value of the Reference Asset, which in turn may have an adverse effect on the value of the Securities.

- (iii) The Reference Asset Calculation Agent has broad discretion to make certain determinations and adjustments, and/or to cause early redemption of the Reference Asset, any of which may be adverse to Holders

The Reference Asset Calculation Agent may in certain circumstances, for example, following the occurrence of any form of modification, cancellation or disruption event in respect of the Underlying Index, adjust the terms and conditions of the Reference Asset, or may procure the early redemption of the Reference Asset prior to its scheduled redemption date, in each case, in accordance with such terms and conditions. In the event of such early termination the issuer will repay such Reference Asset on the basis of an amount determined by the Reference Asset Calculation Agent equal to the fair market value of such Reference Asset, which may have an adverse effect on the value of the Securities.

- (iv) Exposure to the risk that returns on the Securities do not reflect direct investment in underlying shares or other asset comprising the Underlying Index

Holders may receive a lower payment on final redemption than they would have received if they had invested in an asset directly linked to the Underlying Index, the component stocks of the Underlying Index or contracts related to the Underlying Index. Holders will not have voting rights or rights to receive cash dividends or other distributions or other rights that holders of the shares comprised in the Underlying Index would have. The Final Redemption Amount of the Notes is linked to the closing index level of the Underlying Index on the relevant Valuation Date. The closing index level of the Underlying Index at various times during the term of the Securities (including dates near the Valuation Dates) could be higher than the closing index level on any Valuation Date. This difference could be particularly large if there is a significant decrease in the level of the Underlying Index on any Valuation Date, or if there is significant volatility in the level of the Underlying Index during the term of the Securities (especially on dates near the Valuation Dates). Furthermore, even if the closing index level of the Underlying Index on the relevant Valuation Date has significantly increased relative to the Initial Index Level, the Final Redemption Amount is subject to the creditworthiness of J.P. Morgan International Derivatives Ltd.

- (v) A change in the composition or discontinuance of the Underlying Index could adversely affect the market value of the Securities

FTSE International Limited (the "Index Sponsor") is responsible for calculating and maintaining the Underlying Index. The Index Sponsor can add, delete or substitute the stocks underlying the Underlying Index or make other methodological changes that could change the level of the Underlying Index. The changing of companies included in the Underlying Index may affect the Underlying Index as a newly added company may perform significantly better or worse than the company it replaces. Additionally, the Index Sponsor may alter, discontinue or suspend calculation or dissemination of the Underlying Index. Any of these actions could adversely affect the value of the Reference Asset and of the Securities. The Index Sponsor has no obligation to consider investors' interests in calculating or revising the Underlying Index.

(vi) Factors affecting the performance of the Underlying Index

No J.P. Morgan affiliate is affiliated with the Index Sponsor or any of the other companies whose stock is represented in the Underlying Index. As a result, no J.P. Morgan affiliate has the ability to control the actions of such companies, including actions that could affect the value of the stocks underlying the Underlying Index, the value of the Reference Asset and, in turn, the value of the Securities. None of the investor's investment in the Securities will go to the Index Sponsor or any of the companies included in the Underlying Index and none of those companies will be involved in the offering of the Securities in any way. Neither they, nor the Issuer, nor any J.P. Morgan affiliate will have any obligation to consider the investor's interests as a holder of the Securities in taking any corporate actions that might affect the value of the Securities. Additionally, the Index Sponsor may adjust the Underlying Index in a variety of ways which may affect its level adversely to investors' interests. Any information about the past performance of the Underlying Index with respect to the Reference Asset at the time of the issuance of the Security should not be regarded as indicative of the range of, or trends in, fluctuations in the Underlying Index with respect to the Reference Asset that may occur in the future.

5. Risk factors that may affect the Issuer's and Guarantor's ability to fulfil their respective obligations under the Securities

Investors are advised to review the information contained in the 2012 Base Prospectus Risk Factor 6, "Risk factors that may affect the relevant Issuer's and Guarantor's (if any) ability to fulfil their respective obligations under the Securities" that has been incorporated by reference into this Prospectus, together with the information in relation to the Issuer and the Guarantor incorporated by reference below. Investors are exposed to the credit risk of the Issuer and the Guarantor (and J.P. Morgan International Derivatives Ltd).

PERFORMANCE SCENARIOS

The scenarios presented below are examples and are purely indicative and are presented for illustrative purposes only. The examples shown below will not have an equal likelihood of occurrence. The redemption amount in respect of the Securities will be calculated in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Securities as set out in this Prospectus.

The denomination per Security is GBP 1.00 and the initial index level is 5,552.29 (for the purposes of this section, the "Initial Index Level"). The Barrier Level is 3,331.37, being 60 per cent. of the Initial Index Level (rounded to two decimal places, with 0.005 rounded upwards).

Investors should note that as the final redemption amount payable per Security on the relevant maturity date may be adjusted downward by the Calculation Agent to take into account any risk or possibility of the Preference Share Redemption Amount not being duly paid on the relevant Autocall Redemption Date or Redemption Date for the Reference Asset, investors will always be at risk of sustaining a loss of some or almost all of the amount invested in all the scenarios below.

(i) Autocall Redemption Event - The following five scenarios all assume that an Autocall Redemption Event has first occurred on the valuation date referred to below, i.e., the official closing level of the Underlying Index on such valuation date is greater than or equal to the Redemption Level corresponding to such valuation date.

(a) Scenario 1: The official closing level of the Underlying Index on the first valuation date (scheduled to fall on 3 December 2012) is greater than or equal to the Redemption Level corresponding to such valuation date (being 90 per cent. of the Initial Index Level).

In this scenario, the maturity date for the Securities will be the autocall redemption date corresponding to such valuation date in the Autocall Redemption Table on page 6 and the final redemption amount payable per Security (of the Specified Denomination) will be GBP 1.08 (as may be adjusted downward by the Calculation Agent to take into account any risk or possibility of the Preference Share Redemption Amount not being duly paid on such autocall redemption date, but will not be less than GBP 0.01). In this scenario the return is capped.

(b) Scenario 2: The official closing level of the Underlying Index on the second valuation date (scheduled to fall on 2 December 2013) is greater than or equal to the Redemption Level corresponding to such valuation date (being 90 per cent. of the Initial Index Level).

In this scenario, the maturity date for the Securities will be the autocall redemption date corresponding to such valuation date in the Autocall Redemption Table on page 6 and the final redemption amount payable per Security (of the Specified Denomination) will be GBP 1.16 (as may be adjusted downward by the Calculation Agent to take into account any risk or possibility of the Preference Share Redemption Amount not being duly paid on such autocall redemption date, but will not be less than GBP 0.01). In this scenario the return is capped.

(c) Scenario 3: The official closing level of the Underlying Index on the third valuation date (scheduled to fall on 2 December 2014) is greater than or equal to the Redemption Level corresponding to such valuation date (being 85 per cent. of the Initial Index Level).

In this scenario, the maturity date for the Securities will be the autocall redemption date corresponding to such valuation date in the Autocall Redemption Table on page 6 and the final redemption amount payable per Security (of the Specified Denomination) will be GBP 1.24 (as may be adjusted downward by the Calculation Agent to take into account any risk or possibility of the Preference Share Redemption Amount not being duly paid on such autocall redemption date, but will not be less than GBP 0.01). In this scenario the return is capped.

(d) Scenario 4: The official closing level of the Underlying Index on the fourth valuation date (scheduled to fall on 2 December 2015) is greater than or equal to the Redemption Level corresponding to such valuation date (being 80 per cent. of the Initial Index Level).

In this scenario, the maturity date for the Securities will be the autocall redemption date corresponding to such valuation date in the Autocall Redemption Table on page 7 and the final redemption amount payable per Security (of the Specified Denomination) will be GBP 1.32 (as may be adjusted downward by the Calculation Agent to take into account any risk or possibility of the Preference Share Redemption Amount not being duly paid on such autocall redemption date, but will not be less than GBP 0.01). In this scenario the return is capped.

- (e) Scenario 5: The official closing level of the Underlying Index on the fifth valuation date (scheduled to fall on 2 December 2016) is greater than or equal to the Redemption Level corresponding to such valuation date (being 75 per cent. of the Initial Index Level).

In this scenario, the maturity date for the Securities will be the autocall redemption date corresponding to such valuation date in the Autocall Redemption Table on page 7 and the final redemption amount payable per Security (of the Specified Denomination) will be GBP 1.40 (as may be adjusted downward by the Calculation Agent to take into account any risk or possibility of the Preference Share Redemption Amount not being duly paid on such autocall redemption date, but will not be less than GBP 0.01). In this scenario the return is capped.

- (ii) No Autocall Redemption Event – The following three scenarios assume that the official closing level of the Underlying Index on each valuation date (other than the final valuation date scheduled to fall on 4 December 2017) is less than the Redemption Level in respect of each such valuation date, i.e., no Autocall Redemption Event has occurred.

- (a) Scenario 1: The official closing level of the Underlying Index on the final valuation date (scheduled to fall on 4 December 2017) is greater than or equal to 70 per cent. (70%) of the Initial Index Level.

In this scenario, the maturity date for the Securities will be 27 December 2017.

The final redemption amount payable per Security (of the Specified Denomination) on the maturity date will be GBP 1.48 (as may be adjusted downward by the Calculation Agent to take into account any risk or possibility of the Preference Share Redemption Amount not being duly paid on the Redemption Date, but will not be less than GBP 0.01). In this scenario the return is capped.

- (b) Scenario 2: The official closing level of the Underlying Index on the final valuation date (scheduled to fall on 4 December 2017) is greater than or equal to the Barrier Level but less than 70 per cent. (70%) of the Initial Index Level.

In this scenario, the maturity date for the Securities will be 27 December 2017.

The final redemption amount payable per Security (of the Specified Denomination) on the maturity date will be GBP 1.00 (as may be adjusted downward by the Calculation Agent to take into account any risk or possibility of the Preference Share Redemption Amount not being duly paid on the Redemption Date, but will not be less than GBP 0.01). In this scenario the return is capped.

- (c) Scenario 3: The official closing level of the Underlying Index on the final valuation date (scheduled to fall on 4 December 2017) is less than the Barrier Level.

In this scenario, the maturity date for the Securities will be 27 December 2017.

The final redemption amount payable per Security (of the Specified Denomination) on the maturity date will be less than GBP 0.60 (as may be adjusted downward by the Calculation Agent to take into account any risk or possibility of the Preference Share Redemption Amount not being duly paid on the Redemption Date, but will not be less than GBP 0.01). In this scenario, an investor in the Securities who purchased the Securities at the Issue Price will sustain a loss of some or almost all of the amount invested in the Securities.

IMPORTANT NOTICES

Investing in the Securities puts your capital at risk. You may lose some or almost all of your investment.

Each of JPMS and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. (together, the "Responsible Persons") accepts responsibility for the information given in this Prospectus and confirms that, having taken all reasonable care to ensure that such is the case, the information contained in this Prospectus is, to the best of its knowledge, in accordance with the facts and does not omit anything likely to affect its import. Where information relating to the Reference Asset has been sourced from a third party, such information has been accurately reproduced and as far as the Issuer is aware and is able to ascertain from information published by such third party, no facts have been omitted which would render such information inaccurate or misleading.

Notwithstanding the above paragraph or anything else in this Prospectus, neither the Issuer nor the Guarantor will accept responsibility for the information given in this Prospectus or the Contractual Terms in relation to offers of Securities made by an offeror not authorised by the Issuer and Guarantor to make such offers. Generally, each person named as "Dealer" or "Manager" and any party named as a "Distributor" (if any) or other "placer" (if any) in the Contractual Terms will be so authorised, but any other party generally will not. Investors should therefore enquire whether the relevant offeror is so authorised by the Issuer and Guarantor and, if it is not, the investor should be aware that neither the Issuer nor the Guarantor will be responsible for this Prospectus or the Contractual Terms for the purposes of the relevant securities laws. Further, whether or not the relevant offeror has been so authorised, no person is authorised to give any information or to make any representation not contained in, or not consistent with, this Prospectus and, if given or made, such information or representation must not be relied upon as having been authorised by the Issuer and the Guarantor. If an investor is in any doubt about whether it can rely on this Prospectus and the Contractual Terms and/or who is responsible for the contents thereof it should take legal advice.

An investment in Securities is subject to a very high degree of complex risks which may arise without warning. Securities may at times be volatile and losses may occur quickly and in unanticipated magnitude. Securities are extremely speculative and investors bear the risk that they could lose all of their investment. No person should acquire the Securities unless that person understands the nature of the relevant transaction and the extent of that person's exposure to potential loss and any investment in the Securities is consistent with such person's overall investment strategy. Each investor in the Securities should consider carefully whether the Securities it considers acquiring are suitable for it in the light of such investor's investment objectives, financial capabilities and expertise. Investors in the Securities should consult their own business, financial, investment, legal, accounting, regulatory, tax and other professional advisers to assist them in determining the suitability of the Securities for them as an investment. See the section entitled "Risk Factors".

No person has been authorised to give any information or to make any representation other than as contained in this Prospectus in connection with the issue or sale of the Securities and, if given or made, such information or representation must not be relied upon as having been authorised by the Issuer, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as a Guarantor or J.P. Morgan Securities Ltd. as dealer (the "Dealer"). Neither the delivery of this Prospectus nor any sale made in connection herewith shall, under any circumstances, create any implication that there has been no change in the affairs of the Issuer or the Guarantor since the date hereof or the date upon which this Prospectus has been most recently supplemented or that there has been no adverse change in the financial position of the Issuer or the Guarantor, since the date hereof or the date upon which this Prospectus has been most recently supplemented or that any other information supplied in connection with the Programme is correct as of any time subsequent to the date on which it is supplied or, if different, the date indicated in the document containing the same.

The distribution of this Prospectus and the offering or sale of the Securities in certain jurisdictions may be restricted by law. Persons into whose possession this Prospectus comes are required by the Issuer, the Guarantor and the Dealer to inform themselves about and to observe any such restriction. The publication of this Prospectus is not intended as an offer or solicitation for the purchase or sale of any financial instrument in any jurisdiction where such offer or solicitation would violate the laws of such jurisdiction.

This Prospectus has been prepared on the basis that, except to the extent sub-paragraph (ii) below may apply, any offer of Securities in any Member State of the European Economic Area which has implemented the Prospectus Directive (each, a "Relevant Member State") will be made pursuant to an exemption under the Prospectus Directive, as implemented in that Relevant Member State, from the requirement to publish a prospectus for offers of Securities. Accordingly any person making or intending to make an offer in that Relevant Member State of Securities may only do so (i) in circumstances in which no obligation arises for the Issuer or the Dealer to publish a prospectus pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus Directive or supplement a prospectus pursuant to Article 16 of the Prospectus Directive, in each case, in relation to such offer, or (ii) if a prospectus for such offer has been approved by the competent authority in that Relevant Member State or, where appropriate, approved in another Relevant Member State and notified to the competent authority in that Relevant Member State and (in either case) published, all in accordance with the Prospectus Directive. Neither the Issuer nor the Dealer has authorised, nor do they authorise, the making of any offer of Securities in circumstances in which an obligation arises for the Issuer or the Dealer to publish or supplement a prospectus for such offer. See also "Subscription and Sale" in the 2012 Base Prospectus (defined below) incorporated by reference into this Prospectus.

The Dealer has not separately verified the information contained in this Prospectus. The Dealer does not make any representation, express or implied, or accept any responsibility, with respect to the accuracy or completeness of any of the information in this Prospectus. This Prospectus is not intended to provide the basis of any credit or other evaluation and should not be considered as a recommendation by the Issuer, the Guarantor or the Dealer that any recipient of this Prospectus should invest in the Securities. Each investor in the Securities should determine for himself or herself the relevance of the information contained in this Prospectus and any investment in the Securities should be based upon such investigation as such investor deems necessary. The Dealer expressly does not undertake to review the financial condition or affairs of any of the Issuer or the Guarantor during the life of the arrangements contemplated by this Prospectus nor to advise any purchaser or investor in the Securities of any information coming to the attention of the Dealer.

The Commission is protected by the Control of Borrowing (Jersey) Law 1947, as amended, against liability arising from the discharge of its functions under that law.

It must be distinctly understood that, in giving these consents, the Commission does not take any responsibility for the financial soundness of the Issuer or for the correctness of any statements made, or opinions expressed, with regard to them.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

JPMorgan Chase is subject to various potential conflicts of interest in respect of the Securities, which could have an adverse effect on the Securities

JPMorgan Chase & Co. or any of its consolidated subsidiaries (each a "J.P. Morgan affiliate") may take positions in or deal with the Reference Asset

The Issuer, the Guarantor and/or other J.P. Morgan affiliates may:

- in the ordinary course of business, effect transactions for their own account or for the account of their customers and hold long or short positions in the Reference Asset (or the Underlying Index or its constituents) or related derivatives;
- in connection with an offering of Securities, enter into one or more hedging transactions with respect to the Reference Asset (or the Underlying Index or its constituents) or related derivatives; and/or
- in connection with such hedging or market-making activities or with respect to proprietary or other trading activities, enter into transactions in the Reference Asset (or the Underlying Index or its constituents) or related derivatives which may adversely (or positively) affect the price, liquidity or value of the Securities and which could therefore be adverse to the interests of the Holders.

The Calculation Agent of the Securities, which is a JPMorgan Chase affiliate, has broad discretionary powers which may not take into account the interests of the Holders

As the Calculation Agent is a JPMorgan Chase affiliate, potential conflicts of interest may exist between the Calculation Agent and the Holders, including with respect to the exercise of the very broad discretionary powers of the Calculation Agent. For example, the Calculation Agent has the authority (i) to determine whether certain specified events and/or matters so specified in the conditions relating to a Series of Securities have occurred and (ii) to determine any resulting adjustments and calculations or substitutions as described in such conditions. Investors should be aware that any determination made by the Calculation Agent may have an impact on the value and financial return of the Securities. Any such discretion exercised by, or any calculation made by, the Calculation Agent (in the absence of manifest or proven error) shall be binding on the Issuer and all Holders.

JPMorgan Chase and its affiliates may have confidential information relating to the Reference Asset and the Securities

Certain JPMorgan Chase affiliates may from time to time, by virtue of their status as underwriter, advisor or otherwise, possess or have access to information relating to the Securities, the Reference Asset, the Underlying Index and any derivative securities referencing them. Such JPMorgan Chase affiliates will not be obliged to disclose any such information to a purchaser of the Securities.

A JPMorgan Chase affiliate may act as a hedge counterparty to the Issuer's obligations under the Securities

Certain JPMorgan Chase affiliates may be the counterparty to the hedge of the Issuer's obligations under an issue of Securities. Accordingly, certain conflicts of interest may arise both among such affiliates and between the interests of such affiliates and the interests of purchasers of Securities.

The Reference Asset is the preference share of a J.P. Morgan affiliate

J.P. Morgan International Derivatives Ltd. is an affiliate of the Issuer and the Guarantor and therefore all are J.P. Morgan entities which are subject to a conflict of interest in terms of the performance of the Reference Asset and the amount payable under the Securities.

The calculation agent of the Reference Asset, which is a J.P. Morgan affiliate, has broad discretionary powers which may not take into account the interests of the holders of the Reference Asset and the Holders

As the calculation agent of the Reference Asset (the "Reference Asset Calculation Agent") will generally be a J.P. Morgan affiliate, potential conflicts of interest may exist between the Reference Asset Calculation Agent and the Holders, including with respect to the exercise of the very broad discretionary powers of the Reference Asset Calculation Agent. For example, the Reference Asset Calculation Agent has the authority (i) to determine whether certain specified events and/or matters so specified in the conditions relating to the Reference Asset and the Underlying Index have occurred and (ii) to determine any resulting adjustments and calculations or substitutions as described in such conditions. Investors should be aware that any determination made by the Reference Asset Calculation Agent may have an impact on the value and financial return of the Securities. Any such discretion exercised by, or any calculation made by, the Reference Asset Calculation Agent (in the absence of manifest or proven error) shall be binding on the Holders.

Redemption

The Preference Shares of each Class shall, subject to the provisions of this paragraph and Article 55 of the Statute, be redeemed upon and subject to the following terms and conditions:

It is intended that the Preference Shares of each Class will be represented by a single certificate in registered form for the total number of the Preference Shares of the relevant Class.

Voting rights

The Holders of Preference Shares of each Class shall not be entitled to receive notice of, or attend, or vote at any general meeting of JPMIDL. No shares ranking in priority to the Preference Shares of any Class shall be issued unless the issue and the terms thereof are previously approved in writing by the Holders of not less than a majority in nominal amount of the issued Preference Shares of each of the Classes affected. The rights attaching to the Preference Shares of any Class may only be varied with the consent in writing of the Holders of two-thirds in nominal amount of the issued Preference Shares of that Class, or with the sanction of a Special Resolution passed at a separate meeting of the Holders of the Preference Shares of that Class. No resolution may be proposed for adoption by the holders of Ordinary Shares providing for the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of JPMIDL, unless a majority of the Holders of each outstanding Class of Preference Shares have approved such resolution. Such approval may only be given by the consent in writing of the Holders of a majority of the Preference Shares of each outstanding Class or with the sanction of a resolution passed by a majority of such Holders at a meeting of the Holders of each outstanding Class of Preference Shares, present and voting at each such meeting.

SCHEDULE TO THE STATEMENT OF RIGHTS OF THE CLASS 2011-AD FTSE™ 100 INDEX LINKED AUTOCALL REDEEMABLE PREFERENCE SHARES

Provisions Relating to the Index

The following provisions shall apply in respect of the Preference Shares and the Index. Capitalised terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings given to them in the Statement of Rights.

1. Consequences of Non-Scheduled Trading Days and/or Disrupted Days

If in respect of the Index the Calculation Agent determines that any Scheduled Valuation Date or the Scheduled Initial Valuation Date, as the case may be, is not a Scheduled Trading Day or is a Disrupted Day in respect of the Index:

- (i) the relevant Valuation Date or the Initial Valuation Date, as the case may be, shall be the first succeeding Scheduled Trading Day that the Calculation Agent determines is not a Disrupted Day in respect of the Index, unless the Calculation Agent determines that each of the consecutive Scheduled Trading Days equal in number to the Maximum Days of Disruption immediately following the Scheduled Valuation Date or the Scheduled Initial Valuation Date, as the case may be, is a Disrupted Day. In that case, subject to paragraph (ii) below, (a) that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day shall be deemed to be the relevant Valuation Date or the Initial Valuation Date, as the case may be, notwithstanding the fact that such day is a Disrupted Day, and (b) the Calculation Agent shall determine the Closing Index Level as of the Valuation Time on that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in accordance with the formula for and method of calculating the Index last in effect prior to the occurrence of the first Disrupted Day using:
 - (I) in respect of Components which are share securities, the Exchange traded or quoted price as of the relevant Valuation Time on that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day of each such Component comprised in the Index (or, if an event giving rise to a Disrupted Day has occurred in respect of any such Component on that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day, its good faith estimate of the value for the relevant Component as of the relevant Valuation Time on that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day); or
 - (II) in respect of Components which are not share securities, the latest available quotation or such other levels or values of each such Component as the Calculation Agent determines to be appropriate, as of the relevant Valuation Time on that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day

(and such determination by the Calculation Agent pursuant to this paragraph (i) shall be deemed to be the Closing Index Level in respect of the relevant Valuation Date or the Initial Valuation Date, as the case may be); and

- (ii) notwithstanding the terms of paragraph (i) above, if following adjustment pursuant to the terms thereof in relation to the Index (for the purposes of this paragraph (ii), an "Affected Index"), any Valuation Date or the Initial Valuation Date, as the case may be, for such Affected Index would otherwise fall after the applicable Fallback Valuation Date for such date in respect of such Affected Index, such Fallback Valuation Date shall be deemed to be the relevant Valuation Date or the Initial Valuation Date, as the case may be, for the Affected Index, and if such Fallback Valuation Date is not a Scheduled Trading Day or is a Disrupted Day in respect of such Index, as the case may be, the provisions of paragraph (i) above shall apply as if references in that paragraph (a) to "that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day" were instead references to "such Fallback Valuation Date".

2. Adjustments to the Index

- (i) Adjustments to Index
 - (a) If the Index is (I) not calculated and announced by the Index Sponsor but is calculated and announced by a successor sponsor acceptable to the Calculation Agent (the "Successor Index Sponsor"), or (II) replaced by a successor index using, in the determination of the Calculation Agent, the same or a substantially similar formula for and method of calculation as used in the calculation of that Index, then that Index (the "Successor Index") will be deemed to be the Index. The Calculation Agent shall make such adjustment(s) that it determines, in its sole and absolute discretion, to be appropriate, if any, to any variable, calculation methodology, valuation, settlement, payment terms or any other terms in respect of the Preference Shares to account for such replacement.

- (b) If (I) on or prior to any Valuation Date or other relevant date, as the case may be, the Index Sponsor or (if applicable) Successor Index Sponsor announces that it will make a material change in the formula for or the method of calculating the Index or in any other way materially modifies the Index (other than a modification prescribed in the formula or method to maintain the Index in the event of changes in constituent stock and capitalisation and other routine events) (an "Index Modification") or permanently cancels the Index and no Successor Index exists (an "Index Cancellation") or (II) on any Valuation Date or other relevant date, as the case may be, the Index Sponsor or (if applicable) Successor Index Sponsor does not calculate and announce the Index (an "Index Disruption", and together with an Index Modification and an Index Cancellation, each an "Index Adjustment Event"), then the Calculation Agent shall determine if such Index Adjustment Event has a material effect on the value of the Preference Shares and, if so, shall calculate the relevant Preference Share Redemption Amount using, in lieu of a published level for the Index, the level for the Index as at the relevant date as determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole and absolute discretion in accordance with the formula for and method of calculating the Index last in effect prior to that change, failure or cancellation, but using only those Components that comprised the Index immediately prior to that Index Adjustment Event.

(ii) Alternative Index

In the event that the Calculation Agent determines, in its sole and absolute discretion, that it is not reasonably practicable (taking into account the costs involved) to calculate or continue to calculate the Index on the basis of paragraph 2(i)(b) above, the Calculation Agent may rebase the Preference Shares against another index determined by the Calculation Agent, in its sole and absolute discretion, to be a comparable index and, following such rebasing, the Calculation Agent shall make such adjustment(s) that it determines, in its sole and absolute discretion, to be appropriate, if any, to any variable, calculation methodology, valuation, settlement, payment terms or any other terms in respect of the Preference Shares to account for such rebasing.

If the Calculation Agent determines in its sole and absolute discretion that there is not such a comparable index, the Issuer may elect to redeem the Preference Shares by giving notice to the Holders of such situation and the fair market value (adjusted to account fully for any reasonable expenses and costs of unwinding any underlying and/or related hedging and funding arrangements (including, without limitation, on any investment in any share or investment of any type whatsoever, hedging the Issuer's obligations under the Preference Shares)) as determined by the Calculation Agent in its discretion, and the fair market value (as adjusted) so determined to be payable in respect of a Preference Share, or an amount otherwise determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole and absolute discretion, shall be payable on the date specified in such notice.

(iii) Correction of Index Levels

In the event that any price or level published by the Index Sponsor on any date and which is utilised for any calculation or determination is subsequently corrected and the correction is published by the Index Sponsor within one Settlement Cycle after the original publication and in any event, on or before the next following Fallback Valuation Date, the Calculation Agent will determine the amount that is payable or deliverable as a result of that correction, and, to the extent necessary, will adjust any relevant terms of the Preference Shares to account for such correction and will notify the Holders thereof.

3. Definitions relevant to Market Disruption Events

- (i) Disrupted Day Any Scheduled Trading Day on which a relevant Exchange or any Related Exchange fails to open for trading during its regular trading session or on which a Market Disruption Event has

- occurred.

 - (iii) Exchange
The London Stock Exchange, or any successor to such exchange or quotation system or any substitute exchange or quotation system to which trading in the shares underlying the Index has temporarily relocated (provided that the Calculation Agent has determined that there is comparable liquidity relative to the shares underlying the Index on such temporary substitute exchange or quotation system as on the original Exchange).

 - (vi) Index Sponsor

 - (vii) Market Disruption Event
The occurrence or existence of (a) a Trading Disruption, (b) an Exchange Disruption, which in either case the Calculation Agent determines is material, at any time during the one hour period that ends at the relevant Valuation Time, or (c) an Early Closure. For the purposes of determining whether a Market Disruption Event in respect of an Index exists at any time, if a Market Disruption Event occurs in respect of a Component included in the Index at any time, then the relevant percentage contribution of that Component to the level of the Index shall be based on a comparison of (x) the portion of the level of the Index attributable to that Component and (y) the overall level of the Index, in each case immediately before the occurrence of such Market Disruption Event.
 - (viii) Related Exchange
NYSE Liffe.

- (ix) Scheduled Trading Day Any day on which each Exchange and each Related Exchange are scheduled to be open for trading for their respective regular trading sessions.

- (xi) Valuation Time (a) For the purposes of determining whether a Market Disruption Event has occurred in respect of (x) any Component, the Scheduled Closing Time on the Exchange in respect of such Component (provided that, if the relevant Exchange closes prior to its Scheduled Closing Time, then the Valuation Time shall be such actual closing time), and (y) any options contracts or futures contracts on the Index, the close of trading on the Related Exchange, and (b) in all other circumstances, the time at which the official closing level of the Index is calculated and published by the Index Sponsor.
