- (ii) the imposition of withholding tax on payments in respect of the Notes (at the discretion of the Issuer); and
- (iii) if 90 per cent. or more in nominal amount of the Notes issued have already been redeemed (at the discretion of the Issuer).

If the Notes are to be redeemed in the circumstances described in (i), (ii) or (iii) above, the Issuer shall redeem each Note at an amount (in euro) equal to the fair market value of a Note determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole and absolute discretion.

Other terms

The Notes include other terms relevant to investors, including the following:

- certain dates for payment of principal on the Notes and determination of the prices of the Shares to which payments on the Notes are linked will be delayed if, among other things, the exchange on which the Shares are listed or a Related Exchange (as defined in the “Terms and Conditions of the Notes” section of the Securities Note) does not open for trading or if there is market disruption on any such exchange on that day.
- the Issuer may amend the terms of the Notes (including amounts payable under them) and/or (in certain circumstances) redeem them early in the event of certain events affecting the Shares (for example, (a) a Potential Adjustment Event (as defined in the “Terms and Conditions of the Notes” section of the Securities Note), (b) a merger, (c) a tender offer, (d) an insolvency, (e) a de-listing of the Shares, (f) a subsequent correction of the Price of the Shares as announced by the exchange on which the Shares are listed, (g) a change in the

Costs

The costs associated with the issue of the Notes (for marketing, legal work, administration, and distribution of the Notes) are reflected in the pricing of the Notes and will not be separately charged to investors. A subscription fee of up to 0.5% of the Specified Denomination per Note may be payable by investors.

RISK FACTORS

Investing in the Notes involves risks. The Notes are not principally protected and prospective investors risk losing their entire investment or part of it. See Parts 1 and 2 of the “Risk factors” section of Chapter 1 of the Base Prospectus and the risk factors below for information on the risk factors to be taken into account when considering an investment in the Notes. If in doubt, potential investors are strongly recommended to consult with their financial advisers before making any investment decision.

The Notes may not be a suitable investment for all investors

A prospective investor should conduct its own thorough analysis (including its own accounting, legal and tax analysis) prior to deciding whether to invest in the Notes. Any evaluation of the suitability for an investor of an investment in the Notes depends upon a prospective investor's particular financial and other circumstances, as well as on the specific terms of the Notes. If a prospective investor does not have experience in financial, business and investment matters sufficient to permit it to make such a determination, the investor should consult with its financial adviser prior to deciding to make an investment as to the suitability of the Notes. Prospective investors risk losing their entire investment or part of it.

The Notes are complex financial instruments. A potential investor should not invest in the Notes unless it has the expertise (either alone or with a financial adviser) to evaluate how the Notes will perform under changing conditions, the resulting effects on the value of the Notes and the impact this investment will have on the potential investor's overall investment portfolio.

The return on the Notes is linked to the performance of the underlying Shares

The return on the Notes is linked to the performance of the underlying Shares. The prices of the Shares may go down as well as up throughout the life of the Notes. Fluctuations in the prices of the Shares will affect the value of the Notes. Prospective investors risk losing their entire investment or part of it.

Accordingly, before investing in the Notes, prospective investors should carefully consider the performance of the Shares.

Potential Conflicts of Interest; Information and Past Performance

The Issuer and its affiliates may engage in trading activities (including hedging activities) related to the Shares and other instruments or derivative products related to the Shares for their proprietary accounts or for other accounts under their management. The Issuer and its affiliates may also issue other derivative instruments in respect of the Shares. The Issuer and its affiliates may also act as underwriter in connection with future offerings of the Shares or may act as financial adviser to the issuer of the Shares or in a commercial banking capacity for the issuer of the Shares. Such activities could present certain conflicts of interest, could influence the prices of the Shares and could adversely affect the value of the Notes.

The Issuer may have acquired, or during the term of Notes may acquire, non-public information with respect to the Shares (or their Issuer) which will not be provided to holders of such Notes. The Issuer makes no representation or warranty about, and gives no guarantee of, the performance of the Shares. Past performance of the Shares cannot be considered to be a guarantee of, or guide to, future performance.

No gross-up

All payments made by the Issuer in respect of the Notes shall be made subject to any tax, duty, withholding or other payment which may be required to be made, paid, withheld or deducted. Noteholders will not be entitled to receive grossed-up amounts to compensate for any such tax, duty, withholding or other payment.
