Each investor in the Securities (an "Investor") should consider carefully whether the Securities it considers acquiring are suitable for it in the light of such Investor's investment objectives, financial capabilities and expertise. Investors in the Securities may wish to consult their own business, financial, investment, legal, accounting, regulatory, tax and other professional advisers to assist them in determining the suitability of the Securities for them as an investment. Each Investor should determine for himself or herself the relevance of the information contained in this Prospectus and any investment in the Securities should be based upon such investigation as such Investor deems necessary. The Dealer expressly does not undertake to review the financial condition or affairs of any of the Issuer or the Guarantor during the life of the arrangements contemplated by this Prospectus nor to advise any purchaser or Investor of any information coming to the attention of the Dealer. Investors in the Securities are advised to consult their own legal, tax, accountancy and other professional advisers to assist them in determining the suitability of Securities for them as an investment. Each Investor should be fully aware of and understand the complexity and risks inherent in Securities before it makes its investment decision in accordance with the objectives of its business.

No authorisation of any person to give any information other than as set out in the Prospectus: No person has been authorised to give any information or to make any representation other than as contained in this Prospectus in connection with the issue or sale of the Securities and, if given or made, such information or representation must not be relied upon as having been authorised by the Issuer, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as a Guarantor or J.P. Credit ratings may be adjusted over time, and there is no assurance that these credit ratings will be effective after the date of this Prospectus. Guarantee or determined that this Prospectus is accurate or complete. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offence. SECTION D – RISKS
D.2	Key risks that are specific to the Issuer, the Guarantor and the Group	Investors in the Securities are exposed to the creditworthiness of the Issuer and the Guarantor: It is possible that the Issuer or the Guarantor could go bankrupt, become insolvent or enter receivership, or otherwise be unable to make the payments owing to investors under the Securities or to fulfil their respective obligations under the Securities to Holders. If that happens, investors will not have the protection of any deposit insurance scheme and will not be secured, and may lose some or all of their money. JPMorgan Chase is a major, global financial services group and, as such, faces a variety of risks that are substantial and inherent in its businesses, and which may affect the Issuer's and the Guarantor's ability to fulfil their respective payment or other obligations under the Securities. These risks include liquidity risk, market risk, credit risk, operational risk, reputational risk, the adequacy of risk management, disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting, legal, regulatory and compliance risks, litigation and other contingent liabilities, competition risks, the financial condition of clients, customers and counterparties, adverse economic, monetary, political or legal developments, cross-border and foreign exchange risk, catastrophic events, risks from estimates and valuations, and risks relating to strategy. JPMorgan Chase's results of operations have in the past been, and may in the future be, adversely affected by, among other things, unfavourable U.S. and international financial market and economic conditions, legislative and regulatory developments, judicial and regulatory proceedings, and deficiencies in disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting. The principal business of JPMSP is the raising and borrowing of money for JPMorgan Chase entities by issuing Securities and undertaking other financing activity. Generally, the proceeds of such activity will be delivered to other JPMorgan Chase entities and JPMSP will be dependent on receipt of funds or on the delivery of other obligations from hedging transactions entered into with other JPMorgan Chase entities to fulfil its respective payment or other obligations under the Securities. Accordingly, JPMSP is exposed to the same risks that affect the Guarantor. Risks that affect JPMorgan Chase & Co. can also affect JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. as there is substantial overlap in the businesses of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. and JPMorgan Chase & Co. Further, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. can be negatively affected by risks and other events affecting JPMorgan Chase & Co. even where

		JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. is not directly affected.
D.6	Key information on the key risks that are specific to the securities:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Risk that the Securities are not suitable or appropriate for you: The Securities are structured products which include embedded derivatives, and before deciding to purchase Securities you must understand their terms including (i) the potential risk of the loss of some or all of your investment and (ii) the relationship of the potential payout on the Securities to the value and performance of the Index. You should reach an investment decision only after careful consideration, with your own tax, accounting, legal and other professional advisers, of the suitability of the Securities in the light of your particular financial circumstances and investment objectives and risk profile, and the information set forth in the Prospectus. Risk of not being capital protected: If a Barrier Event occurs and if the Final Index Level is less than the Initial Index Level, you will lose some or almost all of your investment. You should not invest in the Securities unless you can withstand up to a total loss of your invested amount. Tax risk: The basis and rate of taxation in respect of the Securities and the investors and any reliefs depends on the individual circumstances of each investor and could change at any time. This could have a negative impact on the return of the Securities to an investor. You should seek your own independent tax advice prior to investing. Unscheduled early termination or adjustment risk: The Issuer may terminate the Securities prior to its scheduled maturity date due to the occurrence of certain events or amend the terms of the Securities due to the occurrence of certain changes in applicable law. In the event of such early termination, the Securities may terminate earlier than you had anticipated and the amount you receive may be lower than the issue price and could be as low as zero. Risk from having no interest in the Index: You should be aware that holders of Securities will have no interest whatsoever in the Index, and the Issuer may apply your purchase moneys for any corporate purposes. Therefore, if the Issuer and the Guarantor fail to make the required payments under the Securities, you will not be able to claim against the Index. Market Risk: The value of the Securities depends on the value and performance of the Index (as determined by the Calculation Agent). The past performance of the Index is not indicative of future performance or the value of the Index. The market value of the Securities may be highly volatile and may be adversely affected by a number of factors, such as the credit rating of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. or JPMorgan Chase & Co. (which credit ratings may move independently of each other). Lack of liquid secondary market risk: An active trading market for the Securities is not likely to develop. The Securities may have no liquidity or the market for the Securities may be limited and this may adversely impact their value or the ability of a holder of the Securities to sell them. You must be prepared to hold the Securities until the Securities are redeemed, or otherwise terminated. Secondary market price risk: The purchase price offered to you for the Securities might be less than the price at which you purchased the Securities

		and will depend on various factors. Such factors include the value and movements of the Index (as determined by the Calculation Agent), interest rates, inflation rates and the creditworthiness of the Issuer and the Guarantor. The Securities are not principal protected and investors may lose some or up to all of their investment.

RISK FACTORS

Capitalised terms used in this section and not defined herein shall have the respective meaning ascribed to each in the Contractual Terms of this Prospectus, or, if not defined in the Contractual Terms, the meaning ascribed to each in the General Conditions and Specific Product Provisions (as specified to be applicable by the Contractual Terms below and included herein at Annex 1 and Annex 2, respectively, to the Contractual Terms).

Purchase of these Securities involves substantial risks: Investors should ensure that they understand the nature of the risks posed by, and the extent of their exposure under, the Securities. Investors should make all pertinent inquiries they deem necessary without relying on the Issuer, the Guarantor, or the Dealer. Investors should consider the suitability of the Securities as an investment in light of their own circumstances, investment objectives, tax position and financial condition. Investors should consider carefully all the information set forth in this Prospectus along with all the information incorporated by reference into this Prospectus, as specified in the table set out in the "Documents Incorporated by Reference" section.

1. "Fundamental risks" of the potential loss of investment and potential lack of suitability in relation to an investment in Securities

1.1 Investors in Securities may receive back less than the original invested amount

Investors in Securities may lose up to the entire value of their investment in the Securities as a result of the occurrence of any one or more of the following events:

- (i) If the Final Index Level of the Index (the "Reference Asset") is less than the Initial Index Level and a Barrier Event has occurred (each as defined in Schedule 1 to the Contractual Terms) Investors in the Securities will lose some of their investment, and if the Closing Index Level of the Index on the Final Valuation Date is zero, will lose their entire investment;
- (ii) the Issuer and the Guarantor of the Securities are subject to insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings or some other event impairing the ability of each to meet its obligations under the Securities;
- (iii) the investor seeks to sell the Securities prior to their scheduled maturity, and the sale price of the Securities in the secondary market is less than the purchaser's initial investment; and
- (iv) the Securities are subject to certain adjustments in accordance with the terms and conditions of such Securities that may result in the scheduled amount to be paid upon redemption being reduced to or being valued at an amount less than a purchaser's initial investment.

The obligations of the Issuer and the Guarantor of the Securities are not secured. Notwithstanding that the Securities are linked to the performance of the Reference Asset, investors in such Securities do not have and shall not receive any rights in respect of the Reference Asset and shall have no right to call for the Reference Asset to be delivered to them. Neither the Issuer nor the Guarantor of the Securities shall be required to hold the Reference Asset.

1.2 The Securities may not be a suitable investment for all investors

Each investor in the Securities must determine the suitability of such investment in light of the investor's own circumstances. In particular, each investor should:

- (i) have sufficient knowledge and experience (if necessary, in consultation with the investor's own legal, tax, accountancy, regulatory, investment or other professional advisers) to evaluate the Securities, the merits and risks of investing in the Securities, all information contained or incorporated by reference into this Prospectus or any applicable supplement;
- (ii) have access to, and knowledge of, appropriate analytical tools to evaluate, in the context of the investor's particular financial situation, an investment in the Securities and the impact the Securities will have on the investor's overall investment portfolio;

- (iii) have sufficient financial resources and liquidity to bear all of the risks of an investment in the Securities, including where the settlement currency is different from the currency in which such investor's principal financial activities are principally denominated;
- (iv) understand thoroughly (if necessary, in consultation with the investor's own legal, tax, accountancy, regulatory, investment or other professional advisers) the terms of the Securities, including certain agreements and representations that any person who purchases Securities at any time is required to make, or is deemed to have made, as a condition to purchasing such Security or any legal or beneficial interest therein, and be familiar with any relevant financial markets;
- (v) understand thoroughly (if necessary, in consultation with the investor's own legal, tax, accountancy, regulatory, investment or other professional advisers) the nature of the Reference Asset and how the performance thereof may affect the pay-out and value of the Securities; and
- (vi) be able to evaluate (either alone or with the help of a financial adviser and/or other professional adviser) possible scenarios for economic, interest rate and other factors that may affect the investment and the investor's ability to bear the applicable risks.

The Securities are complex financial instruments. An investor should not invest in Securities unless it has the expertise (either alone or with a financial adviser and/or professional adviser) to evaluate how such Securities will perform under changing conditions, the resulting effects on the value of those Securities and the impact that such Securities will have on the investor's overall investment portfolio.

None of the Issuer, the Guarantor, the Dealer or any J.P. Morgan affiliate has given, and none of them will give, to any investor in Securities (either directly or indirectly) any assurance or guarantee as to the merits, performance or suitability of such Securities, and the investor should be aware that each of them is acting as an arm's-length counterparty and not as an advisor or fiduciary.

2. Risk factors that are generic to Securities to be issued under the Programme

2.1 The Issue Price of the Securities may be more than the market value of such Securities as at the Issue Date and the price of the Securities in secondary market transactions

The Issue Price in respect of the Securities may be more than the market value of such Securities as at the Issue Date, and more than the price, if any, at which the Dealer or any other person is willing to purchase such Securities in secondary market transactions. In particular, where permitted by applicable law, the Issue Price in respect of any Securities may take into account amounts with respect to commissions relating to the issue and sale of such Securities and amounts relating to the hedging of the Issuer's obligations under such Securities.

2.2 The market value and the amount payable on redemption of the Securities may be adversely affected by a number of factors, and the price at which a Holder of those Securities may be able to sell Securities prior to maturity may be at a substantial discount to the market value of such Securities on the Issue Date, and a Holder may suffer a loss of some or the entire invested amount of the Securities on redemption

(a) The Securities are subject to the credit risk of the Issuer and the Guarantor

The Securities are subject to the credit risk of the Issuer and the Guarantor, and changes in their respective credit ratings and credit spreads may adversely affect the market value of the Securities. Investors are dependent on the Issuer's and Guarantor's ability to pay all amounts due on the Securities, and therefore investors are subject to the credit risk of such JPMorgan Chase entities and to changes in the market's view of the creditworthiness of such JPMorgan Chase entities. Any decline in such credit ratings or increase in the credit spreads charged by the market for taking credit risk on such JPMorgan Chase entities is likely to adversely affect the value of the Securities. If the Issuer and the Guarantor were to default on its payment or other obligations, an investor may not receive any amounts owed to it under the Securities and could lose its entire investment.

- (b) The market value of the Securities is expected to be affected, in part, by the credit rating of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. or JPMorgan Chase & Co.

The value of the Securities is expected to be affected, in part, by investors' general appraisal of the creditworthiness of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. or JPMorgan Chase & Co. Such perceptions may be influenced by the ratings accorded to outstanding securities of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. or JPMorgan Chase & Co. by well-recognised rating agencies, such as Moody's Investors Service Inc., Fitch, Inc. and Standard & Poor's, a division of The McGraw Hill Companies, Inc. A reduction in the rating, if any, accorded to outstanding securities of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. or JPMorgan Chase & Co., by one of these rating agencies could result in a reduction in the trading value of the Securities.

- (c) The credit rating of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. and JPMorgan Chase & Co. may move independently of each other JPMorgan Chase & Co. is the holding company of JPMorgan Chase. JPMorgan Chase & Co. and its subsidiaries (other than JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A.) are generally permitted to undertake a wider range of activities than JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. and its subsidiaries. As a result, while the credit rating of JPMorgan Chase & Co. and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. are closely related, those credit ratings are usually different and, in the event of any change in those credit ratings, those ratings may move independently of each other. JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. is typically rated more highly than JPMorgan Chase & Co. but there is no assurance that this will always be the case and investors should check the relevant rating at the time of considering any investment in Securities.

The creditworthiness of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. is more likely to affect the trading value of Securities issued by JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. and Securities issued by JPMSP, which are guaranteed by JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A.

- (d) The market value of the Securities at any time and/or the amount payable on redemption of the Securities is dependent on the performance of the Reference Asset

The Securities are linked to the Reference Asset and represent an investment linked to the economic performance of the Reference Asset and investors should note that any return on their investment in such Securities will depend upon the performance of such Reference Asset. Investors should not invest in any Securities if they do not fully understand how the performance of the Reference Asset may affect the pay-out and value of the Securities (if necessary, in consultation with the investor's own legal, tax, accountancy, regulatory, investment or other professional advisers), including (i) the potential to lose all their investment and (ii) any limit on potential profits.

The return on the Securities will be dependent on the performance of the Reference Asset and the payout formula of the Securities. Therefore, prior to purchasing any Securities, the investor (if necessary, in consultation with the investor's own legal, tax, accountancy, regulatory, investment and other professional advisers) will need to take a view as to the expected performance of the Reference Asset (as may be measured by the direction, timing and/or magnitude of its change in the value) and in light of the payout formula of the Securities. However, it is impossible to take a view on the expected performance of the Reference Asset with any degree of certainty, and the Reference Asset may perform very differently than expected, with the result being that the investor may receive a poor return on the Securities and potentially experience a loss on the investment. Investors in Securities must be aware that the historical performance of the Reference Asset should not be taken as an indication of future performance of such Reference Asset during the term of such Security. Actual results will be different, and such differences may be material.

In contrast to a direct investment in the Reference Asset, the Securities represent the right to receive payment of amounts which will be determined by reference to the performance of the Reference Asset. Potential purchasers should also note that whilst the market value of such Securities linked to such Reference Asset will be influenced (positively or negatively) by such Reference Asset, any change may not be comparable or directly proportionate to the change in value of such Reference Asset.

INVESTORS MUST REVIEW THIS PROSPECTUS TO ASCERTAIN HOW THE PERFORMANCE OF THE REFERENCE ASSET WILL AFFECT THE AMOUNT PAYABLE ON THE SECURITIES.

(e) The market value of the Securities at any time is dependent on other matters in addition to the credit risk of the Issuer and the Guarantor and the performance of the Reference Asset

The market value of the Securities at any time will be affected by a number of factors independent of the creditworthiness of the Issuer and the Guarantor and the performance of the Reference Asset, including:

- (i) market interest and yield rates;
- (ii) the time remaining to the Maturity Date; and
- (iii) numerous other economic, political and other factors.

The amount payable in respect of the Securities at any time prior to redemption is typically expected to be less than the trading price of such Securities at that time. The difference between the trading price and such amount will reflect, among other things, a "time value" for the Securities. The "time value" of the Securities will depend partly upon the length of the period remaining to final redemption and expectations concerning the value of the Reference Asset.

Before selling the Securities, Holders should carefully consider, among other things, (i) the trading price of the Securities, (ii) the value and volatility of the Reference Asset, (iii) the time remaining to expiration, (iv) the probable range of amounts payable on the Securities, (v) any changes in interim interest rates and dividend yields, (vi) any changes in currency exchange rates, (vii) the depth of the market or liquidity of the Reference Asset, (viii) any related transaction costs and (ix) any restrictions applicable to the Securities, including certain agreements and representations that any person who purchases Securities at any time is required to make, or is deemed to have made, as a condition to purchasing such Security or any legal or beneficial interest therein.

(f) The market value of Securities may be highly volatile

The Holders of the Securities are exposed to the performance of the Reference Asset. The price, performance or investment return of the Reference Asset may be subject to sudden, large and unpredictable changes over time and this degree of change is known as "volatility". The volatility of a Reference Asset may be affected by national and international financial, political, military or economic events, including governmental actions, or by the activities of participants in the relevant markets. Any of these events or activities could adversely affect the value of the Securities.

2.3 An active trading market for the Securities is not likely to develop

Unless otherwise communicated by the Issuer or any J.P. Morgan affiliate to the investor in the Securities, or to the extent that the rules of any stock exchange on which the Securities are listed and admitted to trading require the Issuer or any J.P. Morgan affiliate to provide liquidity in respect of such Securities, the Securities may have no liquidity or the market for such Securities may be limited and this may adversely impact their value or the ability of the investor to dispose of them. Subject to the rules of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange, the Issuer or Guarantor may seek the delisting of any Securities without notice to the Holders of such Securities.

A secondary market for the Securities is unlikely to develop and, even if a secondary market does develop, it is not possible to predict the price at which the Securities will trade in such secondary market. Neither the Issuer nor any J.P. Morgan affiliate is under any obligation, and none of the Issuer, the Guarantor or any J.P. Morgan affiliate makes any commitment, to make a market in or to repurchase the Securities. If the Issuer, the Guarantor or any J.P. Morgan affiliate does make a market for the Securities, it may cease to do so at any time without notice.

2.4 There may be price discrepancies with respect to the Securities as between various dealers or other purchasers in the secondary market

If at any time a third party dealer quotes a price to purchase Securities or otherwise values the Securities, that price may be significantly different (higher or lower) from any price quoted by any J.P. Morgan affiliate. Furthermore, if any Holder sells its Securities, the Holder will likely be charged a commission for secondary market transactions, or the price may reflect a dealer discount.

2.5 The Securities may be redeemed or terminated (as applicable) prior to their scheduled final maturity

Securities may be redeemed or terminated (as applicable) prior to maturity for any of the following reasons:

- (i) the occurrence of a mandatory early redemption event (which will occur if the Closing Index Level of the Index on any Valuation Date (other than the Final Valuation Date) is greater than or equal to the Initial Index Level), as specified in Schedule 1 to the Contractual Terms;
- (ii) the occurrence of certain events or other circumstances in relation to a Reference Asset at the discretion of the Calculation Agent (see the Specific Product Provisions);
- (iii) the Issuer determines that its performance under any Security has become unlawful in whole or in part for any reason (see General Condition 16 (Early Redemption or Termination for Illegality));
- (iv) in certain circumstances where the Issuer determines that it will become subject to withholding tax on payments made to it as a result of Holders failing to provide information required by FATCA, there is a substantial likelihood that it will violate any requirement of, or an agreement entered into with a taxing authority with respect to, FATCA or there is a substantial likelihood that a series of Securities will be treated, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, as being in bearer form (see General Condition 17.3 (Early Redemption or Termination for Taxation - FATCA));
- (v) the occurrence of certain taxation events with respect to the Securities (see General Condition 17.4 (Early Redemption or Termination for Taxation – Additional Amounts/Underlying Hedge Transactions)); or
- (vi) following an Event of Default (see General Condition 15 (Events of Default)).

On early redemption or termination due to any of the circumstances described in (iv)-(vi) above, the Holder will receive (subject in the case of (vi) to claims of other creditors) the "Early Payment Amount" in full and final settlement of the Securities. The "Early Payment Amount" is the fair market value of the Securities, less all costs incurred by or on behalf of the Issuer in connection with such early redemption or settlement, including costs of unwinding any related funding and/or hedging arrangements of the Issuer, and all other expenses, all as determined by the Calculation Agent. The Early Payment Amount may be less than the original purchase price of the Securities and could be as low as zero. See risk factor 1.1 (Investors in Securities may receive back less than the original invested amount).

Following early redemption or termination of Securities, a Holder may not be able to reinvest the proceeds at an effective interest rate as high as the interest rate or yield on the Securities being redeemed and may only be able to do so at a significantly lower rate. Investors in Securities should consider such reinvestment risk in light of other investments available at that time.

2.6 JPMorgan Chase is subject to various potential conflicts of interest in respect of the Securities, which could have an adverse effect on the Securities

(a) JPMorgan Chase affiliates may take positions in or deal with the Reference Asset

The Issuer, the Guarantor and/or other JPMorgan Chase affiliates:

- in the ordinary course of business, effect transactions for their own account or for the account of their customers and hold long or short positions in the Reference Asset or related derivatives;
- in connection with an offering of Securities, enter into one or more hedging transactions with respect to the Reference Asset or related derivatives; and/or
- in connection with such hedging or market-making activities or with respect to proprietary or other trading activities, enter into transactions in the Reference Asset or related derivatives, which, in each case, may adversely (or positively) affect the price, liquidity or value of the Securities and which could therefore be adverse to the interests of the Holders.

- (b) The Calculation Agent, which is a JPMorgan Chase affiliate, has broad discretionary powers which may not take into account the interests of the Holders

As the Calculation Agent is a JPMorgan Chase affiliate, potential conflicts of interest may exist between the Calculation Agent and the Holders, including with respect to the exercise of the very broad discretionary powers of the Calculation Agent. For example, the Calculation Agent has the authority (i) to determine whether certain specified events and/or matters so specified in the conditions relating to the Securities have occurred and (ii) to determine any resulting adjustments and calculations or substitutions as described in such conditions. Investors should be aware that any determination made by the Calculation Agent may have an impact on the value and financial return of the Securities. Any such discretion exercised by, or any calculation made by, the Calculation Agent (in the absence of manifest or proven error) shall be binding on the Issuer and all Holders.

- (c) JPMorgan Chase may have confidential information relating to the Reference Asset and the Securities

Certain JPMorgan Chase affiliates may from time to time, by virtue of their status as underwriter, advisor or otherwise, possess or have access to information relating to the Securities, the Reference Asset and any derivative Securities referencing them. Such affiliates will not be obliged to disclose any such information to a purchaser of the Securities.

- (d) A JPMorgan Chase affiliate may act as a hedge counterparty to the Issuer's obligations under the Securities

Certain JPMorgan Chase affiliates may be the counterparty to the hedge of the Issuer's obligations under an issue of Securities. Accordingly, certain conflicts of interest may arise both among such affiliates and between the interests of such affiliates and the interests of purchasers of Securities.

- 2.7 Any consequential postponement of, or any alternative provisions for, valuation following a Market Disruption Event may have an adverse effect on the value of the Securities

If the Calculation Agent determines that a Market Disruption Event has occurred or exists on an Initial Valuation Date, Valuation Date or other date, any consequential postponement of, or any alternative provisions for, valuation provided in such Security may have an adverse effect on its value.

- 2.8 It may not be possible to use the Securities as a perfect hedge against the market risk associated with investing in a Reference Asset

Investors intending to invest in the Securities to hedge against the market risk associated with investing in the Reference Asset should recognise the complexities of utilising the Securities in this manner. For example, the value of the Securities may not exactly match the value of the Reference Asset. Due to fluctuating supply and demand for the Securities, there is no assurance that their value will match movements in the value of the Reference Asset. For these reasons, among others, it may not be possible to purchase or liquidate Securities in a portfolio at the prices used to calculate the value of the Reference Asset.

- 2.9 There may be regulatory consequences to the Holder of holding Securities linked to the Reference Asset

There may be regulatory and other consequences associated with the ownership by certain investors in certain Securities linked to the Reference Asset. Each investor in Securities must conduct its own investigation into its regulatory position with respect to the potential investment in Securities, and none of the Issuer, the Guarantor, the Dealer or the Arranger assumes any obligation or liability whatsoever to such investor in such regard.

- 2.10 The occurrence of a Payment Disruption Event may lead to a delayed and/or reduced payment

A "Payment Disruption Event" is an event which (a) prevents, restricts or delays the Issuer from converting or delivering relevant currencies, (b) imposes capital or exchange controls, (c) implements changes to laws relating to foreign investments, or (d) otherwise prohibits or prevents the Issuer from making a payment or performing an obligation required of it as a result of war, catastrophe, governmental action or other event beyond its control. Where the Calculation Agent determines that a "Payment Disruption Event" has occurred or is likely to occur, then the Maturity Date or any relevant payment date with respect to the Securities may be postponed to a date falling 14 calendar days after the date on which the Payment Disruption Event is no longer occurring. No interest shall accrue and no Event of Default will result on account of such postponement. Partial payments may be paid during such period (after deduction for any expenses). In the event that a Payment Disruption Event is still continuing on the date which is one year after the last scheduled payment date for the Securities, then the outstanding payment obligations of the Issuer shall be deemed to be reduced to zero, and the Issuer shall have no further obligations whatsoever under the Securities.

2.11 Securities may be amended without the consent of the Holders or with the consent of only some of the Holders binding all of the Holders of Securities

Subject as provided below, the terms and conditions of Securities may be amended by the Issuer without the consent of the Holders if the amendment:

- (a) is of a formal, minor or technical nature; or
- (b) is made to cure a manifest or proven error; or
- (c) is made to cure any ambiguity or is made to correct or supplement any defective provisions of the Securities or the Agency Agreement (as applicable); or
- (d) is made to correct an error or omission such that, in the absence of such correction, the terms of the Securities would not otherwise represent the intended terms of the Securities on which the Securities were sold and have since traded; or
- (e) will not materially and adversely affect the interests of the Holders of the Securities.

See General Condition 22.1(a) (Modification without Holder consent (Securities other than French Securities and German Securities)).

In addition, other changes may be made to the terms and conditions with the consent of the Holders. In order to make such changes, the Issuer requires the consent of at least 50 per cent. of the Holders (in the case of minor amendments) or at least 75 per cent. of the Holders (in the case of more fundamental amendments). If the amendment is approved, any dissenting Holders will be bound by such changes. Therefore the Issuer may be able to make a change which certain Holders have voted against if 50 per cent. or 75 per cent. (as the case may be) of the Holders of the entire series of Securities have approved the change. See General Condition 22.1(c) (Modification and waiver with Holder consent (Securities other than French Securities and German Securities)).

2.12 The Issuer of Securities may be substituted without the consent of the Holders

The Issuer of Securities may be substituted as the Issuer of Securities in favour of JPMorgan Chase & Co. or any of its subsidiaries, without the consent of the Holders or any right of the Holders to object to such substitution. In the case of the Securities, the right of substitution is subject to: (i) the Issuer or the Guarantor having become obliged (due to a change in law) to pay Additional Amounts in accordance with General Condition 17.1 (Obligation to Pay Additional Amounts) or (ii) the Issuer or any affiliate(s) of the Issuer or any entity (or entities) acting on behalf of the Issuer incurring a materially increased tax cost in performing its obligations in relation to underlying hedging transactions (due to a change in law)). The right of substitution is conditional on certain terms, including that (a) the new issuer provide an indemnity in favour of the Holders of such Securities in relation to any additional tax or duties that become payable solely as a result of such substitution and (b) the Securities will remain guaranteed by the Guarantor. See General Condition 26 (Substitution).

2.13 Additional Amounts on account of withholding tax will not be payable on the Securities in certain circumstances

The Issuer will not pay "Additional Amounts" (as defined in General Condition 17.1 (Obligation to pay Additional Amounts) below) to Holders of Securities should withholding taxes become payable on payments of principal or interest by or within a Relevant Jurisdiction where:

- (i) the Holder is a resident within that Relevant Jurisdiction; or
- (ii) one or more customary or other exceptions (as detailed in General Condition 17.2 (Circumstances in which Additional Amounts will not be paid) below) to "Gross up" obligation applies.

In addition, the Issuer will not pay "Additional Amounts" to Holders of Securities:

- (iii) in respect of any withholding taxes imposed pursuant to FATCA; or
- (iv) in respect of U.S. withholding taxes on payments treated as "dividend equivalent" payments under Section 871(m) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code (see "Taxation – United States Federal Income Taxation – Taxation of Securities issued by JPMorgan Chase & Co., JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. or J.P. Morgan Indies SRL – Taxation of Non-U.S. Holders - U.S. Withholding Taxes - U.S. Federal Income Tax Withholding on Dividend Equivalent Payments" in the 2013 Base Prospectus) where:
 - (A) in the reasonable determination of the Issuer, such withholding tax would not have been imposed but for the Holder or beneficial owner (or a related party thereof) (x) engaging in a transaction other than the mere purchase of the Security (whether or not in connection with the acquisition, holding or disposition of the Security) that establishes the withholding obligation, (y) failing to take reasonable measures to secure a refund of the withholding taxes to which it is entitled or (z) failing to establish an exemption or reduced rate of withholding, including, under the benefits of an applicable treaty; or
 - (B) one or more customary exceptions (as detailed in General Condition 17.2 (Circumstances in which Additional Amounts will not be paid) below) to the "Gross up" obligation applies.

In all other circumstances, the Issuer will pay Additional Amounts should withholding taxes become payable on payments of principal or interest by or within a Relevant Jurisdiction.

2.14 Payments to Holders in respect of the Securities and payments received by JPMSP may be subject to withholding taxes, which may give rise to a right for JPMSP to redeem or terminate the Securities early

Under any of (i) U.S. tax legislation commonly known as the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act, (ii) analogous provisions of non-U.S. laws, (iii) an intergovernmental agreement in furtherance of such legislation or laws, or (iv) an individual agreement entered into with a taxing authority pursuant to such legislation or laws (collectively, "FATCA"), the Issuer or an intermediary may be required to withhold a U.S. withholding tax of 30 per cent. on payments, including principal and gross proceeds, made on or after 1 July 2014 to certain Holders in respect of the Securities. In particular, the withholding tax may apply to payments in respect of Securities made to (i) (unless exempt or otherwise deemed to be compliant) a non-U.S. Holder or beneficial owner that is a foreign financial institution (an "FFI") that does not have in place an effective reporting and withholding agreement with the U.S. Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") (such an FFI, a "non-compliant FFI"), and (ii) other Holders or beneficial owners that do not comply with the Issuer's or any intermediary's requests for ownership certifications and identifying information or, if applicable, for waivers of any law prohibiting the disclosure of such information to a taxing authority (such Holders and beneficial owners, "Recalcitrant Holders"). In the event that the Issuer or an intermediary is required to deduct a withholding tax under FATCA, no additional amounts will be paid to the Holder or beneficial owner of the Security.

Under FATCA, JPMSP (a "Non-U.S. Issuer") may also be subject to a withholding tax of 30 per cent. on certain payments made to such Issuer on or after 1 July 2014 if it does not comply with the relevant requirements under FATCA. In the event such Non-U.S. Issuer determines that there is a substantial likelihood that payments made to it would be subject to withholding tax under FATCA or if the Issuer otherwise determines in good faith that there is a substantial likelihood that it will violate any requirement of, or an agreement entered into with a taxing authority with respect to, FATCA, it is possible that a portion or all the Securities issued by such Non-U.S. Issuer will be redeemed or terminated at the Early Payment Amount (which amount may be less than the purchase price paid by the Holder, depending on the fair market value of the Securities at the relevant time and associated costs of the Issuer to be deducted).

It is anticipated that the Issuer will comply with any due diligence, reporting and withholding requirements under FATCA. The Issuer may be required, among other things, to withhold 30 per cent. on payments made to Holders that are non-compliant FFIs or to Recalcitrant Holders. Should the Issuer or intermediary withhold on payments pursuant to FATCA, there will be no "gross up" (or any other additional amount) payable by way of compensation to such Holders or beneficial owners for the amounts deducted.

See also "Taxation – United States Federal Income Taxation - FATCA" in the 2013 Base Prospectus.

3. Risk factors that are generic to Securities that are linked to the Reference Asset

3.1 No rights of ownership in the Reference Asset

Investors in Securities should be aware that the Reference Asset will not be held by the Issuer for the benefit of the investors in such Securities, and as such, investors will not obtain any rights of ownership, including, without limitation, any voting rights, any rights to receive dividends or other distributions or any other rights with respect to the Reference Asset. No J.P. Morgan affiliate is under any obligation whatsoever to acquire and hold the Reference Asset.

3.2 The performance of the Securities is linked to the performance of the Reference Asset

As the Securities reference the Reference Asset, the investors in such Securities are exposed to the performance of such Reference Asset.

3.3 The past performance of the Reference Asset is not indicative of future performance

Any information about the past performance of the Reference Asset at the time of the issuance of the Security should not be regarded as indicative of the range of, or trends in, fluctuations in the Reference Asset that may occur in the future. Actual results will be different, and such differences may be material.

3.4 Postponement or alternative provisions for the valuation of the Reference Asset may have an adverse effect on the value of the Securities

If the Calculation Agent determines that any scheduled valuation date (i) falls on a day which is not a Scheduled Trading Day or any other day which is subject to adjustment in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Securities and/or (ii) any form of disruption event in relation to the Reference Asset has occurred which affects the valuation of such Reference Asset, the Calculation Agent has broad discretion to institute any consequential postponement of, or any alternative provisions for, valuation of such Reference Asset provided in the terms and conditions of the Securities, including a determination of the value of such Reference Asset by the Calculation Agent in its reasonable commercial discretion, each of which may have an adverse effect on the value of the Securities.

3.5 The Calculation Agent has broad discretion to make certain determinations and adjustments, to replace the original Reference Asset with another and/or to cause early redemption of the Securities, any of which may be adverse to Holders

The Calculation Agent may in certain circumstances adjust the terms and conditions of the Securities (without the consent of the Holders) or may procure the early redemption of such Securities prior to their scheduled maturity date where particular adjustment events specified to be applicable to such Securities occur, in each case, in accordance with such terms and conditions. In the event of such early termination the Issuer will repay such Securities at the Early Payment Amount, which will be determined on the basis of an amount determined by the Calculation Agent equal to the fair market value of such Securities immediately prior to such early redemption less any cost to the Issuer, or any affiliate of the Issuer which is hedging the Securities on the Issuer's behalf, of unwinding such hedging transaction. Investors in Securities should be aware that it is likely that such Early Payment Amount will be less than the investor's initial investment. See risk factor 1.1 (Investors in Securities may receive back less than the original invested amount) above. Following any such early redemption of Securities, the investors in such Securities may not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds at an effective interest rate as high as the interest rate or yield on the Securities being redeemed and may only be able to do so at a significantly lower rate. Investors in Securities should consider such reinvestment risk in light of other investments available at that time.

3.6 Risks associated with an Index as the Reference Assets

An investment in Index Linked Securities entails significant risks in addition to those associated with investments in a conventional debt security.

(a) Factors affecting the performance of Indices may adversely affect the value of the Securities

The Index is comprised of a synthetic portfolio of shares, and as such, the performance of the Index is dependent upon the macroeconomic factors relating to the shares that comprise such Index, which may include interest and price levels on the capital markets, currency developments, political factors and company-specific factors such as earnings position, market position, risk situation, market liquidity for the shares, shareholder structure and dividend policy.

(b) Exposure to the risk that returns on the Securities do not reflect a direct investment in the underlying shares comprising the Index

The return payable on Securities that reference Indices may not reflect the return an investor would realise if he or she actually owned the relevant assets comprising the components of the Index. For example, Holders will not receive any dividends paid on the shares comprising the components of the Index and will not participate in the return on those dividends unless the Index takes such dividends into account for purposes of calculating the relevant level. Similarly, Holders will not have any voting rights in the underlying shares which comprise the components of the Index. Accordingly, an investor in the Securities, which reference the Index as the Reference Asset, may receive a lower payment upon redemption of such Securities than such investor would have received if he or she had invested in the components of such Index directly.

(c) Loss of return of dividends in respect of most Securities linked to an equity Index

The rules governing the composition and calculation of the Index stipulate that dividends distributed on its components are not included in the calculation of the index level, which may result in a decrease in the index level if all other circumstances remain the same. In such cases the Holders of the Securities will not participate in dividends or other distributions paid on the components comprising the Index.

(d) A change in the composition or discontinuance of the Index could adversely affect the market value of the Securities

The sponsor of the Index may add, delete or substitute the components of such Index or make other methodological changes that could change the level of one or more components. The changing of components of the Index may affect the level of such Index as a newly added component may perform significantly worse or better than the component it replaces, which in turn may affect the payments made by the Issuer to the investors in the Securities. The sponsor of the Index may also alter, discontinue or suspend calculation or dissemination of such Index. The sponsor of an Index will have no involvement in the offer and sale of the Securities and will have no obligation to any investor in such Securities. The sponsor of an Index may take any actions in respect of such Index without regard to the interests of the investor in the Securities, and any of these actions could adversely affect the market value of the Securities.

(e) Exposure to Index Modification, Index Cancellation, Index Disruption and Correction of Index levels

The Calculation Agent has broad discretion to make certain determinations and adjustments, to replace the original Reference Asset with another and/or to cause early redemption or termination of the Securities in connection with Index Modification, Index Cancellation and Index Disruption, any of which may be adverse to Holders. The Calculation Agent may determine that the consequence of any such event is to make adjustments to the Securities, or to replace such Index with another or to cause early redemption of the Securities. The Calculation Agent may (subject to the terms and conditions of the Securities) also amend the Index level due to corrections in the level reported by the Index Sponsor.

4. The potential for the value of the Securities to increase may be limited

If the Final Index Level is greater than or equal to the Initial Index Level (each as defined in Schedule 1 to the Contractual Terms) then the final redemption amount shall be a fixed amount per Security. The Holder's ability to participate in the increase in value of the Reference Asset will be limited and the Holder's return on the Securities may be significantly less than if the Holder had purchased the Reference Asset directly.

5. Risk factors that may affect the Issuer's and the Guarantor's ability to fulfil their respective obligations under the Securities

JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. and its subsidiaries are also subject to each of the risks below, in addition to further risks. Risks that affect JPMorgan Chase & Co. can also affect JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. as there is substantial overlap in the businesses of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. and JPMorgan Chase & Co. Further, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. can be negatively affected by risks and other events affecting JPMorgan Chase & Co. even where JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. is not directly affected. For example, where JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s reputation is damaged, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A.'s reputation would likely also be damaged which could negatively affect JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A.

JPMSP is an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of JPMorgan Chase & Co. It is anticipated that JPMSP will, for each issuance, enter into hedging arrangements with other J.P. Morgan affiliates, and that such arrangements will be sufficient to hedge their respective market risk for each such issuance. The ability of JPMSP to perform its obligations under the Securities may be affected by any inability or failure to perform, pursuant to their respective hedging arrangements, by any other J.P. Morgan affiliate. Accordingly, JPMSP is exposed to the same risks that affect the Guarantor.

5.1 Regulatory Risk

(a) JPMorgan Chase operates within a highly regulated industry, and JPMorgan Chase's businesses and results are significantly affected by the laws and regulations to which it is subject

As a global financial services firm, JPMorgan Chase is subject to extensive and comprehensive regulation under federal and state laws in the United States and the laws of the various jurisdictions outside the United States in which JPMorgan Chase does business. These laws and regulations significantly affect the way that JPMorgan Chase does business, and can restrict the scope of its existing businesses and limit its ability to expand its product offerings or to pursue acquisitions, or can make its products and services more expensive for clients and customers.

The U.S. Department of the Treasury, the Financial Stability Oversight Council ("FSOC"), the SEC, the CFTC, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the "Federal Reserve"), the OCC, the Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection ("CFPB") and the FDIC are all engaged in extensive rule-making mandated by the Dodd-Frank Act, and a substantial amount of the rule-making remains to be done. As a result, the complete impact of the Dodd-Frank Act on JPMorgan Chase's business, operations and earnings remains uncertain. Certain aspects of the Dodd-Frank Act and such rule-making are discussed in more detail below.

Debit interchange. JPMorgan Chase believes that, as a result of the "Durbin Amendment" provisions of the Dodd-Frank Act, which limit the amount that JPMorgan Chase can charge for each debit card transaction, JPMorgan Chase's annualised net income has been reduced by approximately $600 million per year. Although JPMorgan Chase continues to consider various actions to mitigate this reduction in net income, it is unlikely that any such actions will wholly offset such reduction.

Volcker Rule. Until the final regulations under the Volcker Rule are adopted, the precise definition of prohibited "proprietary trading", the scope of any exceptions, including those related to market-making and hedging activities, and the scope of permitted hedge fund and private equity fund investments remain uncertain. It is unclear under the proposed rules whether some portion of JPMorgan Chase's market-making-related and risk mitigation activities, as currently conducted, will be required to be curtailed or will be otherwise adversely affected. In addition, the rules, if enacted as proposed, could prohibit JPMorgan Chase's participation and investment in certain securitisation structures and could bar JPMorgan Chase from sponsoring or investing in certain non-U.S. funds. Also, should regulators not exercise their authority to permit JPMorgan Chase to hold certain investments, including those in illiquid private equity funds, beyond the minimum statutory divestment period, JPMorgan Chase could incur substantial losses when it disposes of such investments. JPMorgan Chase may be forced to sell such investments at a substantial discount in the secondary market as a result of both the constrained timing of such sales and the possibility that other financial institutions are likewise liquidating investments at the same time.

Derivatives. In addition to imposing comprehensive regulation on JPMorgan Chase's derivatives businesses, the Dodd-Frank Act also requires banking entities, such as JPMorgan Chase, to significantly restructure their derivatives businesses, including changing the legal entities through which such businesses are conducted. Further, some of the rules for swaps will apply extraterritorially to U.S. firms doing business with clients outside of the United States. Clients of non-U.S. firms doing business outside the United States may not be required to comply with the same rules in similar transactions. This disparity in the application of the different rules could place JPMorgan Chase at a significant competitive disadvantage to its non-U.S. competitors, which could have a material adverse effect on the earnings and profitability of JPMorgan Chase's wholesale businesses.

Heightened prudential standards for systemically important financial institutions. Under the Dodd-Frank Act, JPMorgan Chase is considered to be a systemically important financial institution and is subject to heightened prudential standards and supervision. If the proposed rules issued by the Federal Reserve in December 2011 are adopted as currently proposed, they are likely to increase JPMorgan Chase's operational, compliance and risk management costs, and could have an adverse effect on JPMorgan Chase's business, results of operations or financial condition.

CFPB. The CFPB has issued final regulations regarding mortgages which will become effective in January 2014 and which will prohibit mortgage servicers from beginning foreclosure proceedings until a mortgage loan is 120 days delinquent, and will impose an "ability to repay" requirement for residential mortgage loans. Other new regulatory requirements or changes to existing requirements that the CFPB may promulgate could require changes in JPMorgan Chase's consumer businesses, result in increased compliance costs and impair the profitability of such businesses. In addition, as a result of the Dodd-Frank Act's potential expansion of the authority of state attorneys general to bring actions to enforce federal consumer protection legislation, JPMorgan Chase could potentially be subject to additional state lawsuits and enforcement actions, thereby further increasing its legal and compliance costs.

Resolution. The FDIC and the Federal Reserve have issued a final rule that requires JPMorgan Chase to submit periodically to the Federal Reserve and the FDIC a resolution plan under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code in the event of material financial distress or failure (a "resolution plan"). The FDIC also issued a final rule that requires JPMorgan Chase to submit periodic contingency plans to the FDIC under the Federal Deposit Insurance Act outlining its resolution plan in the event of its failure. JPMorgan Chase's initial resolution plan submissions were filed in July 2012, and updates are due annually. If the FDIC and the Federal Reserve determine that JPMorgan Chase's resolution plan is not credible or would not facilitate an orderly resolution under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, the FDIC and the Federal Reserve may jointly impose more stringent capital, leverage or liquidity requirements on JPMorgan Chase, or restrictions on the growth, activities or operations of JPMorgan Chase, or require JPMorgan Chase to restructure, reorganise or divest certain assets or operations in order to facilitate an orderly resolution. Any such measures, particularly those aimed at the disaggregation of JPMorgan Chase, may reduce JPMorgan Chase's capital, adversely affect JPMorgan Chase's operations and profitability, increase JPMorgan Chase's systems, technology and managerial costs, lessen efficiencies and economies of scale and potentially impede JPMorgan Chase's business strategies.

In addition, holders of subordinated debt or preferred stock issued by JPMorgan Chase may be fully subordinated to interests held by the U.S. government in the event that JPMorgan Chase enters into a receivership, insolvency, liquidation or similar proceeding.

Concentration Limits. The Dodd-Frank Act restricts acquisitions by financial companies if, as a result of the acquisition, the total liabilities of the financial company would exceed 10 per cent. of the total liabilities of all financial companies in the United States. The Federal Reserve is expected to issue rules related to these provisions in 2013. This concentration limit could restrict JPMorgan Chase's ability to make acquisitions in the future, thereby adversely affecting its growth prospects.

The total impact of the Dodd-Frank Act cannot be fully assessed without taking into consideration how non-U.S. policymakers and regulators respond to the Dodd-Frank Act and the implementing regulations under the Act, and how the cumulative effects of both U.S. and non-U.S. laws and regulations will affect the businesses and operations of JPMorgan Chase. Additional legislative or regulatory actions in the United States, as well as in the other countries in which JPMorgan Chase operates, could result in a significant loss of revenue for JPMorgan Chase, limit JPMorgan Chase's ability to pursue business opportunities in which it might otherwise consider engaging, affect the value of assets that JPMorgan Chase holds, require JPMorgan Chase to increase its prices and therefore reduce demand for its products, impose additional costs on JPMorgan Chase, or otherwise adversely affect JPMorgan Chase's businesses. Accordingly, any such new or additional legislation or regulations could have an adverse effect on JPMorgan Chase's business, results of operations or financial condition.

(b) Non-U.S. regulations and initiatives may be inconsistent or may conflict with current or proposed regulations in the United States, which could create increased compliance and other costs and adversely affect JPMorgan Chase's business, operations or profitability

The EU has created a European Systemic Risk Board to monitor financial stability, and the Group of Twenty Finance Ministers and Central Bank Governors ("G-20") broadened the membership and scope of the Financial Stability Forum in 2008 to form the Financial Stability Board ("FSB"). These institutions, which are charged with developing ways to promote cross-border financial stability, are considering various proposals to address risks associated with global financial institutions. Some of the initiatives adopted include increased capital requirements for certain trading instruments or exposures and compensation limits on certain employees located in affected countries. In the U.K., regulators have increased liquidity requirements for local financial institutions, including regulated U.K. subsidiaries of non-U.K. bank holding companies and branches of non-U.K. banks located in the U.K.; adopted a Bank Tax Levy that applies to balance sheets of branches and subsidiaries of non-U.K. banks; proposed that non-U.K. banks either obtain equal treatment for U.K. depositors or "subsidiarise" in the U.K.; and proposed the creation of resolution and recovery plans by U.K. regulated entities, among other initiatives.

In the EU, there is an extensive and complex program of proposed regulatory enhancement which reflects, in part, the EU's commitments to policies of the G-20 together with other plans specific to the EU. This program includes the European Market Infrastructure Regulation ("EMIR") which, among other things, would require central clearing of standardised derivatives and which is likely to be phased in starting in 2013. It also includes the revision of the existing Markets in Financial Instruments Directive ("MiFID II") to deliver, among other things, the G-20 commitment to on-venue trading of derivatives. Both EMIR and MiFID II include many other regulatory requirements that may have wide-ranging and material effects on JPMorgan Chase's business operations.

The EU is also currently considering significant revisions to laws covering: depositary activities; credit rating activities; resolution of banks, investment firms and market infrastructures; anti-money-laundering controls; data security and privacy; and corporate governance in financial firms, together with implementation in the EU of the Basel III capital standards. In addition, JPMorgan Chase is monitoring any potential implications for its business of developments in relation to both bank structure (in respect of which both the EU itself and a variety of EU Member States unilaterally are considering new rules) and the EU's plans for a single supervisory mechanism for systemic banks under the European Central Bank. For example, the U.K. Independent Commission on Banking (the "Vickers Commission") proposed provisions, which are now set forth in draft legislation, that would mandate the separation (or "ring-fencing") of deposit-taking activities from securities trading and other analogous activities within banks, subject to certain exemptions. The final legislation is expected to adopt and include the supplemental recommendation of the Parliamentary Commission on Banking Standards (the "Tyrie Commission") that such ring-fences should be "electrified" by the imposition of mandatory forced separation on banking institutions that are deemed to test the limits of the safeguards. It is believed that JPMorgan Chase will have the benefit of the above-referenced exemptions from the requirement to "ring-fence", but this cannot be determined until the criteria are known with certainty.

Parallel but distinct draft provisions have been published by the French and German governments which could affect JPMorgan Chase's operations in those countries.

It is not possible to determine at the current time how these various proposals will affect JPMorgan Chase's businesses, or how each relate to the European Commission's forthcoming legislative proposals on bank structure arising out of the Report of the High Level Expert Group on Reforming the Structure of the EU Banking Sector (the "Liikanen Group"). However, as regulatory requirements that are being proposed by these various regulators may be inconsistent or conflict with regulations to which JPMorgan Chase is subject in the United States (as well as in other parts of the world), JPMorgan Chase may, if these proposals are adopted, be subjected to higher compliance and legal costs, as well as the possibility of higher operational, capital and liquidity costs, all of which could have an adverse effect on JPMorgan Chase's business, results of operations and profitability in the future.

(c) The Basel III capital standards will impose additional capital, liquidity and other requirements on JPMorgan Chase that could decrease its competitiveness and profitability

The Basel Committee on Banking Supervision (the "Basel Committee") announced in December 2010 revisions to its Capital Accord; such revisions are commonly referred to as "Basel III". Basel III will require higher capital ratio requirements for banks, narrow the definition of capital, expand the definition of risk-weighted assets, and introduce short-term liquidity and term funding standards, among other things. In June 2012, the U.S. federal banking agencies published proposed capital rules to implement Basel III.

Capital Surcharge. In June 2011, the Basel Committee and the FSB proposed that global systemically important banks ("GSIBs") be required to maintain additional capital above the Basel III Tier 1 common equity minimum. Based on JPMorgan Chase's current understanding of these new capital requirements, JPMorgan Chase expects that it will be in compliance with all of the standards to which it will be subject as they become effective. However, compliance with these capital standards may reduce JPMorgan Chase's return on equity or cause JPMorgan Chase to alter the types of products it offers to its customers and clients, thereby causing JPMorgan Chase's products to become less attractive or placing JPMorgan Chase at a competitive disadvantage to financial institutions, both within and outside the United States, that are not subject to the same capital surcharge.

Liquidity Coverage and Net Stable Funding Ratios. The Basel Committee has also proposed two new measures of liquidity risk: the "liquidity coverage ratio" and the "net stable funding ratio", which are intended to measure, during an acute stress, over different time spans, the amount of the liquid assets held by JPMorgan Chase in relation to liquidity required. If the ratios are finalised as currently proposed, JPMorgan Chase may need to incur additional costs to raise liquidity and to take certain mitigating actions, such as ceasing to offer certain products to its customers and clients or charging higher fees for extending certain lines of credit, in order to be in compliance with such ratios. Accordingly, compliance with these liquidity coverage standards could adversely affect JPMorgan Chase's funding costs or reduce its profitability in the future.

Elimination of Use of External Credit Ratings. The Federal Reserve, the OCC and the FDIC have issued final rules for risk-based capital guidelines which eliminate the use of external credit ratings for the calculation of risk-weighted assets. This will result in a significant increase in the calculation of JPMorgan Chase's risk-weighted assets, which will require JPMorgan Chase to hold more capital, increase its cost of doing business and place JPMorgan Chase at a competitive disadvantage to non-U.S. competitors.

(d) Expanded regulatory oversight of JPMorgan Chase's consumer businesses will increase JPMorgan Chase's compliance costs and risks and may negatively affect the profitability of such businesses

JPMorgan Chase's consumer businesses are subject to increasing regulatory oversight and scrutiny with respect to its compliance with consumer laws and regulations, including changes implemented as part of the Dodd-Frank Act. JPMorgan Chase has entered into Consent Orders with its banking regulators relating to its Bank Secrecy Act ("BSA") and Anti-Money Laundering ("AML") policies, procedures and controls and with respect to its residential mortgage servicing, foreclosure and loss-mitigation activities. JPMorgan Chase also agreed in 2012 to a global settlement with a number of federal and state government agencies relating to the servicing and origination of mortgages. The mortgage-related Consent Order and global settlement require JPMorgan Chase to make cash payments and provide certain refinancing and other borrower relief, as well as to adhere to certain enhanced mortgage servicing standards, and the BSA/AML Consent Order will require JPMorgan Chase to make enhancements to its procedures, make investments in its technology and hire additional personnel, all of which will increase JPMorgan Chase's operational and compliance costs.

New regulatory requirements or changes to existing requirements that the CFPB may promulgate could require changes in the product offerings and practices of JPMorgan Chase's consumer businesses and affect the profitability of such businesses.

Finally, as a result of increasing federal and state scrutiny of JPMorgan Chase's consumer practices, JPMorgan Chase may face a greater number or wider scope of investigations, enforcement actions and litigation, thereby increasing its costs associated with responding to or defending such actions. In addition, increased regulatory inquiries and investigations, as well as any additional legislative or regulatory developments affecting JPMorgan Chase's consumer businesses, and any required changes to JPMorgan Chase's business operations resulting from these developments, could result in significant loss of revenue, limit the products or services JPMorgan Chase offers, require JPMorgan Chase to increase its prices and therefore reduce demand for its products, impose additional compliance costs on JPMorgan Chase, cause harm to JPMorgan Chase's reputation or otherwise adversely affect JPMorgan Chase's consumer businesses. If JPMorgan Chase does not appropriately comply with current or future legislation and regulations that apply to its consumer operations, JPMorgan Chase may be subject to fines, penalties or judgments, or material regulatory restrictions on its businesses, which could adversely affect JPMorgan Chase's operations and, in turn, its financial results.

(e) Implementation of JPMorgan Chase's resolution plan under the U.S. resolution plan rules could materially impair the claims of JPMorgan Chase debt holders

As noted above, in July 2012 JPMorgan Chase submitted to the Federal Reserve and the FDIC its initial plan for resolution of JPMorgan Chase. JPMorgan Chase's resolution plan includes strategies to resolve JPMorgan Chase under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, and also recommends to the FDIC and the Federal Reserve JPMorgan Chase's proposed optimal strategy to resolve JPMorgan Chase under the special resolution procedure provided in Title II of the Dodd-Frank Act ("Title II").

JPMorgan Chase's recommendation for its optimal Title II strategy would involve a "single point of entry" recapitalization model in which the FDIC would use its power to create a "bridge entity" for JPMorgan Chase, transfer the systemically important and viable parts of JPMorgan Chase's business, principally the stock of JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s main operating subsidiaries and any intercompany claims against such subsidiaries, to the bridge entity, recapitalize those businesses by contributing some or all of such intercompany claims to the capital of such subsidiaries, and by exchanging debt claims against JPMorgan Chase & Co. for equity in the bridge entity. If JPMorgan Chase were to be resolved under this strategy, no assurance can be given that the value of the stock of the bridge entity distributed to the holders of debt obligations of JPMorgan Chase & Co. would be sufficient to repay or satisfy all or part of the principal amount of, and interest on, the debt obligations for which such stock was exchanged.

5.2 Market Risk

(a) JPMorgan Chase's results of operations have been, and may continue to be, adversely affected by U.S. and international financial market and economic conditions

JPMorgan Chase's businesses are materially affected by economic and market conditions, including the liquidity of the global financial markets; the level and volatility of debt and equity prices, interest rates and currency and commodities prices; investor sentiment; events that reduce confidence in the financial markets; inflation and unemployment; the availability and cost of capital and credit; the occurrence of natural disasters, acts of war or terrorism; and the health of U.S. or international economies.

In JPMorgan Chase's wholesale businesses, the above-mentioned factors can affect transactions involving JPMorgan Chase's underwriting and advisory businesses; the realisation of cash returns from its private equity business; the volume of transactions that JPMorgan Chase executes for its customers and, therefore, the revenue that JPMorgan Chase receives from commissions and spreads; and the willingness of financial sponsors or other investors to participate in loan syndications or underwritings managed by JPMorgan Chase.

JPMorgan Chase generally maintains extensive positions in the fixed income, currency, commodities and equity markets to facilitate client demand and provide liquidity to clients. JPMorgan Chase may have market-making positions that lack pricing transparency or liquidity. The revenue derived from these positions is affected by many factors, including JPMorgan Chase's success in effectively hedging its market and other risks, volatility in interest rates and equity, debt and commodities markets, credit spreads, and availability of liquidity in the capital markets, all of which are affected by economic and market conditions. JPMorgan Chase anticipates that revenue relating to its market-making and private equity businesses will continue to experience volatility, which will affect pricing or the ability to realise returns from such activities, and that this could materially adversely affect JPMorgan Chase's earnings.

The fees that JPMorgan Chase earns for managing third-party assets are also dependent upon general economic conditions. For example, a higher level of U.S. or non-U.S. interest rates or a downturn in securities markets could affect the valuations of the third-party assets that JPMorgan Chase manages or holds in custody, which, in turn, could affect JPMorgan Chase's revenue. Macroeconomic or market concerns may also prompt outflows from JPMorgan Chase's funds or accounts.

Changes in interest rates will affect the level of assets and liabilities held on JPMorgan Chase's balance sheet and the revenue that JPMorgan Chase earns from net interest income. A low interest rate environment or a flat or inverted yield curve may adversely affect certain of JPMorgan Chase's businesses by compressing net interest margins, reducing the amounts JPMorgan Chase earns on its investment securities portfolio, or reducing the value of its mortgage servicing rights ("MSR") asset, thereby reducing JPMorgan Chase's net interest income and other revenues.

JPMorgan Chase's consumer businesses are particularly affected by domestic economic conditions, including U.S. interest rates; the rate of unemployment; housing prices; the level of consumer confidence; changes in consumer spending; and the number of personal bankruptcies. If the current positive trends in the U.S. economy are not sustained, this could diminish demand for the products and services of JPMorgan Chase's consumer businesses, or increase the cost to provide such products and services. In addition, adverse economic conditions, such as declines in home prices or persistent high levels of unemployment, could lead to an increase in mortgage, credit card and other loan delinquencies and higher net charge-offs, which can reduce JPMorgan Chase's earnings.

Widening of credit spreads makes it more expensive for JPMorgan Chase to borrow on both a secured and unsecured basis. Credit spreads widen or narrow not only in response to JPMorgan Chase-specific events and circumstances, but also as a result of general economic and geopolitical events and conditions.

Changes in JPMorgan Chase's credit spreads will impact, positively or negatively, JPMorgan Chase's earnings on liabilities that are recorded at fair value.

- (b) Despite improved financial market conditions, many of the structural issues facing the Eurozone remain and problems could resurface which could have significant adverse effects on JPMorgan Chase's business, results of operations, financial condition and liquidity

Notwithstanding improved financial market conditions, many of the structural issues facing the Eurozone remain and problems could resurface which could have significant adverse effects on JPMorgan Chase's business, results of operations, financial condition and liquidity, particularly if they lead to sovereign debt default, significant bank failures or defaults and/or the exit of one or more countries from the European Monetary Union ("EMU").

The ECB's Outright Monetary Transaction program continues to underpin an improved risk environment, shifting the focus of the crisis from immediate financing strains to the more structural challenges of fiscal retrenchment and stimulation of GDP growth. However, financial market conditions could materially worsen if, for example, consecutive Eurozone countries were to default on their sovereign debt, significant bank failures or defaults in these countries were to occur, and/or one or more of the members of the Eurozone were to exit the EMU. Yields on government bonds of certain Eurozone countries, including Greece, Ireland, Italy, Portugal and Spain, have remained volatile, despite various stabilization packages and facilities that have been implemented to assist various distressed Eurozone countries. Concerns have been and continue to be raised as to the financial effectiveness of the assistance measures taken to date and such concerns could intensify. Concerns could also be triggered by political developments, with key elections in Italy and Germany during 2013, and ongoing uncertainty about the tolerance of austerity across the Eurozone.

Continued economic turmoil in the Eurozone could lead to a further deterioration of global economic conditions and thereby adversely affect JPMorgan Chase's business and results of operations in Europe and elsewhere. There can be no assurance that the various steps that JPMorgan Chase has taken to protect its businesses, results of operations and financial condition against the results of the Eurozone crisis will be sufficient.

Further, the effects of the Eurozone debt crisis could be even more significant if they lead to a partial or complete break-up of the EMU. The partial or full break-up of the EMU would be unprecedented and its impact highly uncertain. The exit of one or more countries from the EMU or the dissolution of the EMU could lead to redenomination of certain obligations of obligors in exiting countries. Any such exit and redenomination would cause significant uncertainty with respect to outstanding obligations of counterparties and debtors in any exiting country, whether sovereign or otherwise, and lead to complex and lengthy disputes and litigation. The resulting uncertainty and market stress could also cause, among other things, severe disruption to equity markets, significant increases in bond yields generally, potential failure or default of financial institutions, including those of systemic importance, a significant decrease in global liquidity, a freeze-up of global credit markets and a potential worldwide recession. Any combination of such events could negatively impact JPMorgan Chase's businesses, financial condition and results of operations. In addition, one or more EMU exits and currency redenominations could be accompanied by imposition of capital, exchange and similar controls, which could further negatively impact JPMorgan Chase's cross-border risk and other aspects of its businesses and its earnings.

(c) Changes are being considered in the method for determining LIBOR and it is not apparent how any such changes could affect the value of LIBOR-linked obligations of JPMorgan Chase, or how such changes could affect JPMorgan Chase's financial condition or results of operations

Beginning in 2008, concerns have been raised about the accuracy of the calculation of the daily London Inter-Bank Offered Rate ("LIBOR"), which is currently overseen by the British Bankers' Association ("BBA"). The BBA has taken steps to change the process for determining LIBOR by increasing the number of banks surveyed to set LIBOR and to strengthen the oversight of the process. The final report of the Wheatley Review of LIBOR, published in September 2012, set forth recommendations relating to the setting and administration of LIBOR, including the gradual phasing out of certain currencies and maturities. In December 2012 the U.K. government adopted legislation enacting one of those recommendations, making it a criminal offence to attempt to manipulate the setting of benchmark rates. The U.K. government also announced that the U.K. Financial Conduct Authority ("FCA") intends to incorporate the rest of the Wheatley Review recommendations in new regulations relating to the LIBOR process.

At the present time it is uncertain the extent of changes, if any, that may be required or made by the FCA or other governmental or regulatory authorities in the method for determining LIBOR. Accordingly, at the present time it is not apparent whether or to what extent any such changes would have an adverse impact on the value of any LIBOR-linked debt securities issued by JPMorgan Chase or any loans, derivatives and other financial obligations or extensions of credit for which JPMorgan Chase is an obligor, or whether or to what extent any such changes would have an adverse effect on the value of any LIBOR-linked securities, loans, derivatives and other financial obligations or extensions of credit held by or due to JPMorgan Chase, or on JPMorgan Chase's financial condition or results of operations.

5.3 Credit Risk

(a) The financial condition of JPMorgan Chase's customers, clients and counterparties, including other financial institutions, could adversely affect JPMorgan Chase

If the current positive trends globally are not sustained, more of JPMorgan Chase's customers may become delinquent on their loans or other obligations to JPMorgan Chase which, in turn, could result in a higher level of charge-offs and provisions for credit losses, or in requirements that JPMorgan Chase purchase assets from or provide other funding to its clients and counterparties, any of which could adversely affect JPMorgan Chase's financial condition. Moreover, a significant deterioration in the credit quality of one of JPMorgan Chase's counterparties could lead to concerns in the market about the credit quality of other counterparties in the same industry, thereby exacerbating JPMorgan Chase's credit risk exposure, and increasing the losses (including mark-to-market losses) that JPMorgan Chase could incur in its market-making and clearing businesses.

Financial services institutions are interrelated as a result of market-making, trading, clearing, counterparty, or other relationships. JPMorgan Chase routinely executes transactions with counterparties in the financial services industry, including brokers and dealers, commercial banks, investment banks, mutual and hedge funds, and other institutional clients. Many of these transactions expose JPMorgan Chase to credit risk and, in some cases, disputes and litigation in the event of a default by the counterparty or client.

During periods of market stress or illiquidity, JPMorgan Chase's credit risk also may be further increased when JPMorgan Chase cannot realise the fair value of the collateral held by it or when collateral is liquidated at prices that are not sufficient to recover the full amount of the loan, derivative or other exposure due to JPMorgan Chase. Further, disputes with obligors as to the valuation of collateral significantly increase in times of market stress and illiquidity. Periods of illiquidity could produce losses if JPMorgan Chase is unable to realise the fair value of collateral or manage declines in the value of collateral.

(b) Concentration of credit and market risk could increase the potential for significant losses

JPMorgan Chase has exposure to increased levels of risk when customers are engaged in similar business activities or activities in the same geographic region, or when they have similar economic features that would cause their ability to meet contractual obligations to be similarly affected by changes in economic conditions. As a result, JPMorgan Chase regularly monitors various segments of its portfolio exposures to assess potential concentration risks. JPMorgan Chase's efforts to diversify or hedge its credit portfolio against concentration risks may not be successful.

In addition, disruptions in the liquidity or transparency of the financial markets may result in JPMorgan Chase's inability to sell, syndicate or realise the value of its positions, thereby leading to increased concentrations. The inability to reduce JPMorgan Chase's positions may not only increase the market and credit risks associated with such positions, but also increase the level of risk-weighted assets on JPMorgan Chase's balance sheet, thereby increasing its capital requirements and funding costs, all of which could adversely affect the operations and profitability of JPMorgan Chase's businesses.

(c) JPMorgan Chase's role as a clearing and custody bank in the U.S. tri-party repurchase business exposes it to credit risks, including intra-day credit risk

JPMorgan Chase is a market leader in providing clearing, custodial and prime brokerage services for financial services companies. In addition, JPMorgan Chase acts as a clearing and custody bank in the U.S. tri-party repurchase transaction market. Many of these transactions expose JPMorgan Chase to credit risk in the event of a default by the counterparty or client and, in the case of its role in the U.S. tri-party repurchase business, can expose JPMorgan Chase to intra-day credit risk of the cash borrowers, usually broker-dealers; however, this exposure is secured by collateral and typically extinguished through the settlement process by the end of the day. JPMorgan Chase actively participated in the Tri-Party Repo Infrastructure Reform Task Force sponsored by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, which issued recommendations to modify and improve the infrastructure of tri-party repurchase transactions in order to, among other things, mitigate intra-day credit exposure. JPMorgan Chase has implemented many of the recommendations and intends to implement the intra-day credit recommendations by the end of 2013. As a result, JPMorgan Chase expects its intra-day credit exposure after implementation of all the Task Force recommendations to be substantially reduced. Nevertheless, if a broker-dealer that is party to a repurchase transaction cleared by JPMorgan Chase becomes bankrupt or insolvent, JPMorgan Chase may become involved in disputes and litigation with the broker-dealer's bankruptcy estate and other creditors, or involved in regulatory investigations, all of which can increase JPMorgan Chase's operational and litigation costs and may result in losses if the securities in the repurchase transaction decline in value.

5.4 Liquidity Risk

(a) If JPMorgan Chase does not effectively manage its liquidity, its business could suffer

JPMorgan Chase's liquidity is critical to its ability to operate its businesses. Some potential conditions that could impair JPMorgan Chase's liquidity include markets that become illiquid or are otherwise experiencing disruption, unforeseen cash or capital requirements (including, among others, commitments that may be triggered to special purpose entities ("SPEs") or other entities), difficulty in selling or inability to sell assets, unforeseen outflows of cash or collateral, and lack of market or customer confidence in JPMorgan Chase or financial markets in general. These conditions may be caused by events over which JPMorgan Chase has little or no control. The widespread crisis in investor confidence and resulting liquidity crisis experienced in 2008 and into early 2009 increased JPMorgan Chase's cost of funding and limited its access to some of its traditional sources of liquidity such as securitised debt offerings backed by mortgages, credit card receivables and other assets, and there is no assurance that these conditions could not occur in the future.

If JPMorgan Chase's access to stable and low cost sources of funding, such as bank deposits, are reduced, JPMorgan Chase may need to raise alternative funding which may be more expensive or of limited availability.

As a holding company, JPMorgan Chase & Co. relies on the earnings of its subsidiaries for its cash flow and, consequently, its ability to pay dividends and satisfy its debt and other obligations. These payments by subsidiaries may take the form of dividends, loans or other payments. Several of JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s principal subsidiaries are subject to dividend distribution or capital adequacy requirements or other regulatory restrictions on their ability to provide such payments. Limitations in the payments that JPMorgan Chase & Co. receives from its subsidiaries could reduce its liquidity position.

Some regulators have proposed legislation or regulations requiring large banks to incorporate a separate subsidiary in countries in which they operate, and to maintain independent capital and liquidity for such subsidiaries. If adopted, these requirements could hinder JPMorgan Chase's ability to efficiently manage its funding and liquidity in a centralised manner.

(b) Reductions in the JPMorgan Chase's credit ratings may adversely affect its liquidity and cost of funding, as well as the value of debt obligations issued by JPMorgan Chase

JPMorgan Chase & Co. and certain of its subsidiaries, including JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., are currently rated by credit rating agencies. In 2012, Moody's and Fitch downgraded the ratings of JPMorgan Chase & Co. In addition, as of year-end 2012, Moody's had JPMorgan Chase & Co., and S&P had JPMorgan Chase & Co., JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. and certain other subsidiaries, on "negative" outlook, indicating the possibility of a further downgrade in ratings. Although JPMorgan Chase closely monitors and manages factors influencing its credit ratings, there is no assurance that such ratings will not be lowered in the future. For example, the rating agencies, have indicated that further control failures by JPMorgan Chase (such as was evidenced in the Chief Investment Office ("CIO") matter discussed below), deterioration in capital, liquidity and asset quality levels, or a significant increase in risk appetite could put downward pressure on JPMorgan Chase's ratings. Additionally, the rating agencies have indicated that they intend to re-evaluate the credit ratings of systemically important financial institutions in light of the provisions of the Dodd-Frank Act that seek to eliminate any implicit government support for such institutions.

Furthermore, the rating agencies continue to evaluate economic and geopolitical trends, including sovereign creditworthiness, elevated economic uncertainty and higher funding spreads, all of which could lead to downgrades in the credit ratings of global banks, including JPMorgan Chase. There is no assurance that any such downgrades from rating agencies, if they affected JPMorgan Chase's credit ratings, would not occur at times of broader market instability when JPMorgan Chase's options for responding to events may be more limited and general investor confidence is low.

Further, a reduction in JPMorgan Chase's credit ratings could reduce JPMorgan Chase's access to debt markets, materially increase the cost of issuing debt, trigger additional collateral or funding requirements, and decrease the number of investors and counterparties willing or permitted, contractually or otherwise, to do business with or lend to JPMorgan Chase, thereby curtailing JPMorgan Chase's business operations and reducing its profitability. In addition, any such reduction in credit ratings may increase the credit spreads charged by the market for taking credit risk on JPMorgan Chase & Co. and its subsidiaries and, as a result, could adversely affect the value of debt obligations that they have issued or may issue in the future.

5.5 Legal Risk

JPMorgan Chase faces significant legal risks, both from regulatory investigations and proceedings and from private actions brought against JPMorgan Chase

JPMorgan Chase is named as a defendant or is otherwise involved in various legal proceedings, including class actions and other litigation or disputes with third parties. There is no assurance that litigation with private parties will not increase in the future. Actions currently pending against JPMorgan Chase may result in judgments, settlements, fines, penalties or other results adverse to JPMorgan Chase, which could materially adversely affect JPMorgan Chase's business, financial condition or results of operations, or cause serious reputational harm to JPMorgan Chase. As a participant in the financial services industry, it is likely that JPMorgan Chase will continue to experience a high level of litigation related to its businesses and operations.

JPMorgan Chase's businesses and operations are also subject to increasing regulatory oversight and scrutiny, which may lead to additional regulatory investigations or enforcement actions. In 2012, JPMorgan Chase was the subject of Consent Orders from its banking regulators and entered into a global settlement with federal and state governmental agencies relating to its mortgage servicing and origination activities. In January 2013, JPMorgan Chase also entered into Consent Orders with its banking regulators related to risk management, model governance and other control functions related to CIO and certain other trading activities at JPMorgan Chase and with respect to JPMorgan Chase's and certain of its bank subsidiaries' policies, procedures and controls relating to compliance with BSA and AML requirements. As the regulators continue to examine the operations of JPMorgan Chase and its bank subsidiaries, there is no assurance that additional consent orders or other enforcement actions will not be issued by them in the future. These and other initiatives from federal and state officials may subject JPMorgan Chase to further judgments, settlements, fines or penalties, or cause JPMorgan Chase to be required to restructure its operations and activities, all of which could lead to reputational issues, or higher operational costs, thereby reducing JPMorgan Chase's revenue.

5.6 Business and Operational Risks

(a) JPMorgan Chase's operations are subject to risk of loss from unfavourable economic, monetary and political developments in the United States and around the world.

JPMorgan Chase's businesses and earnings are affected by the fiscal and other policies that are adopted by various U.S. and non-U.S. regulatory authorities and agencies. The Federal Reserve regulates the supply of money and credit in the United States and its policies determine in large part the cost of funds for lending and investing in the United States and the return earned on those loans and investments. Changes in Federal Reserve policies (as well as the fiscal and monetary policies of non-U.S. central banks or regulatory authorities and agencies) are beyond JPMorgan Chase's control and, consequently, the impact of changes in these policies on JPMorgan Chase's activities and results of operations is difficult to predict.

JPMorgan Chase's businesses and revenue are also subject to risks inherent in investing and market-making in securities of companies worldwide. These risks include, among others, risk of loss from unfavourable political, legal or other developments, including social or political instability, in the countries in which such companies operate, as well as the other risks and considerations as described further below.

Several of JPMorgan Chase's businesses engage in transactions with, or trade in obligations of, U.S. and non-U.S. governmental entities, including national, state, provincial, municipal and local authorities. These activities can expose JPMorgan Chase to enhanced sovereign, credit-related, operational and reputational risks, including the risks that a governmental entity may default on or restructure its obligations or may claim that actions taken by government officials were beyond the legal authority of those officials, which could adversely affect JPMorgan Chase's financial condition and results of operations.

Further, various countries in which JPMorgan Chase operates or invests, or in which JPMorgan Chase may do so in the future, have in the past experienced severe economic disruptions particular to those countries or regions. As noted above, concerns regarding the fiscal condition of certain countries within the Eurozone continue and there is no assurance such concerns will not lead to "market contagion" beyond those countries in the Eurozone or beyond the Eurozone. Accordingly, it is possible that economic disruptions in certain countries, even in countries in which JPMorgan Chase does not conduct business or have operations, will adversely affect JPMorgan Chase.

(b) JPMorgan Chase's international growth strategy may be hindered by local political, social and economic factors, and will be subject to additional compliance costs and risks

JPMorgan Chase has expanded, and plans to continue to grow, its international wholesale businesses in Europe/Middle East/Africa ("EMEA"), Asia/Pacific and Latin America/Caribbean. As part of its international growth strategy, JPMorgan Chase seeks to provide a wider range of financial services to its clients that conduct business in those regions and to expand its international operations.

Many of the countries in which JPMorgan Chase intends to grow its wholesale businesses have economies or markets that are less developed and more volatile, and may have legal and regulatory regimes that are less established or predictable, than the United States and other developed markets in which JPMorgan Chase currently operates. Some of these countries have in the past experienced severe economic disruptions, including extreme currency fluctuations, high inflation, or low or negative growth, among other negative conditions, or have imposed restrictive monetary policies such as currency exchange controls and other laws and restrictions that adversely affect the local and regional business environment. In addition, these countries have historically been more susceptible to unfavourable political, social or economic developments which have in the past resulted in, and may in the future lead to, social unrest, general strikes and demonstrations, outbreaks of hostilities, overthrow of incumbent governments, terrorist attacks or other forms of internal discord, all of which can adversely affect JPMorgan Chase's operations or investments in such countries. Political, social or economic disruption or dislocation in countries or regions in which JPMorgan Chase seeks to expand its wholesale businesses can hinder the growth and profitability of those operations, and there can be no assurance that JPMorgan Chase will be able to successfully execute its international growth initiatives.

Less developed legal and regulatory systems in certain countries can also have adverse consequences on JPMorgan Chase's operations in those countries, including, among others, the absence of a statutory or regulatory basis or guidance for engaging in specific types of business or transactions, or the inconsistent application or interpretation of existing laws and regulations; uncertainty as to the enforceability of contractual obligations; difficulty in competing in economies in which the government controls or protects all or a portion of the local economy or specific businesses, or where graft or corruption may be pervasive; and the threat of arbitrary regulatory investigations, civil litigations or criminal prosecutions.

Revenue from international operations and trading in non-U.S. securities and other obligations may be subject to negative fluctuations as a result of the above considerations, as well as due to governmental actions including expropriation, nationalisation, confiscation of assets, price controls, capital controls, exchange controls, and changes in laws and regulations. The impact of these fluctuations could be accentuated as some trading markets are smaller, less liquid and more volatile than larger markets. Also, any of the above-mentioned events or circumstances in one country can, and has in the past, affected JPMorgan Chase's operations and investments in another country or countries, including JPMorgan Chase's operations in the United States. As a result, any such unfavourable conditions or developments could have an adverse impact on JPMorgan Chase's business and results of operations.

Conducting business in countries with less developed legal and regulatory regimes often requires JPMorgan Chase to devote significant additional resources to understanding, and monitoring changes in, local laws and regulations, as well as structuring its operations to comply with local laws and regulations and implementing and administering related internal policies and procedures. There can be no assurance that JPMorgan Chase will always be successful in its efforts to conduct its business in compliance with laws and regulations in countries with less predictable legal and regulatory systems. In addition, JPMorgan Chase can also incur higher costs, and face greater compliance risks, in structuring its operations outside the United States to comply with U.S. anti-corruption and anti-money laundering laws and regulations.

(c) JPMorgan Chase's results of operations may be adversely affected by loan repurchase and indemnity obligations

In connection with the sale and securitisation of loans (whether with or without recourse), the originator is generally required to make a variety of representations and warranties regarding both the originator and the loans being sold or securitised. JPMorgan Chase and some of its subsidiaries have made such representations and warranties in connection with the sale and securitisation of loans, and JPMorgan Chase will continue to do so when it securitises loans it has originated. If a loan that does not comply with such representations or warranties is sold or securitised, JPMorgan Chase may be obligated to repurchase the loan and incur any associated loss directly, or JPMorgan Chase may be obligated to indemnify the purchaser against any such losses. Since 2010, the costs of repurchasing mortgage loans that had been sold to U.S. government-sponsored entities ("GSEs"), such as Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac, have been elevated, and there is no assurance that such costs will not continue to be elevated in the future. Accordingly, repurchase or indemnity obligations to the GSEs or to private third-party purchasers could materially and adversely affect JPMorgan Chase's results of operations and earnings in the future.

The repurchase liability that JPMorgan Chase records with respect to its loan repurchase obligations to the GSEs is estimated based on several factors, including the level of current and estimated probable future repurchase demands made by purchasers, JPMorgan Chase's ability to cure the defects identified in the repurchases demands, the severity of loss upon repurchase or foreclosure, JPMorgan Chase's potential ability to recover certain losses from third-party originators, and the terms of agreements with certain mortgage insurers and other parties. While JPMorgan Chase believes that its current repurchase liability reserves are adequate, the factors referred to above are subject to change based on the GSEs' future behaviour, the economic environment and other uncertainties. Accordingly, there is no assurance that such reserves will not be increased in the future.

JPMorgan Chase also faces litigation related to securitisations, primarily related to securitisations not sold to the GSEs. JPMorgan Chase separately evaluates its exposure to such litigation in establishing its litigation reserves. While JPMorgan Chase believes that its current reserves in respect of such litigation matters are adequate, there can be no assurance that such reserves will not need to be increased in the future.

(d) JPMorgan Chase may incur additional costs and expenses in ensuring that it satisfies requirements relating to mortgage servicing and foreclosures

JPMorgan Chase has, as described above, entered into the Consent Orders with its banking regulators relating to its residential mortgage servicing, foreclosure and loss-mitigation activities, and agreed to the global settlement with federal and state government agencies relating to the servicing and origination of mortgages. JPMorgan Chase expects to incur additional costs and expenses in connection with its efforts to enhance its mortgage origination, servicing and foreclosure procedures, including the enhancements required under the Consent Orders and the global settlement. In addition, the GSEs impose compensatory fees on their mortgage servicers, including JPMorgan Chase, if such servicers are unable to comply with the foreclosure timetables mandated by the GSEs, and such fees may continue to be imposed on JPMorgan Chase in the future.

(e) JPMorgan Chase's commodities activities are subject to extensive regulation, potential catastrophic events and environmental risks and regulation that may expose JPMorgan Chase to significant cost and liability

JPMorgan Chase engages in the storage, transportation, marketing or trading of several commodities, including metals, agricultural products, crude oil, oil products, natural gas, electric power, emission credits, coal, freight, and related products and indices. JPMorgan Chase is also engaged in power generation and has invested in companies engaged in wind energy and in sourcing, developing and trading emission reduction credits. As a result of all of these activities, JPMorgan Chase is subject to extensive and evolving energy, commodities, environmental, and other governmental laws and regulations. JPMorgan Chase expects laws and regulations affecting its commodities activities to expand in scope and complexity, and to restrict some of JPMorgan Chase's activities, which could result in lower revenues from JPMorgan Chase's commodities activities. In addition, JPMorgan Chase may incur substantial costs in complying with current or future laws and regulations, and the failure to comply with these laws and regulations may result in substantial civil and criminal fines and penalties.

Furthermore, liability may be incurred without regard to fault under certain environmental laws and regulations for remediation of contaminations.

JPMorgan Chase's commodities activities also further expose JPMorgan Chase to the risk of unforeseen and catastrophic events, including natural disasters, leaks, spills, explosions, release of toxic substances, fires, accidents on land and at sea, wars, and terrorist attacks that could result in personal injuries, loss of life, property damage, damage to JPMorgan Chase's reputation and suspension of operations. JPMorgan Chase's commodities activities are also subject to disruptions, many of which are outside of JPMorgan Chase's control, from the breakdown or failure of power generation equipment, transmission lines or other equipment or processes, and the contractual failure of performance by third-party suppliers or service providers, including the failure to obtain and deliver raw materials necessary for the operation of power generation facilities. JPMorgan Chase's actions to mitigate its risks related to the above-mentioned considerations may not prove adequate to address every contingency. In addition, insurance covering some of these risks may not be available, and the proceeds, if any, from insurance recovery may not be adequate to cover liabilities with respect to particular incidents. As a result, JPMorgan Chase's financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected by such events.

(f) JPMorgan Chase relies on its systems, employees and certain counterparties, and certain failures could materially adversely affect JPMorgan Chase's operations

JPMorgan Chase's businesses are dependent on JPMorgan Chase's ability to process, record and monitor a large number of complex transactions. If JPMorgan Chase's financial, accounting, or other data processing systems fail or have other significant shortcomings, JPMorgan Chase could be materially adversely affected. JPMorgan Chase is similarly dependent on its employees. JPMorgan Chase could be materially adversely affected if one or more of its employees causes a significant operational breakdown or failure, either as a result of human error or where an individual purposefully sabotages or fraudulently manipulates JPMorgan Chase's operations or systems. Third parties with which JPMorgan Chase does business could also be sources of operational risk to JPMorgan Chase, including with respect to breakdowns or failures of the systems or misconduct by the employees of such parties. In addition, as JPMorgan Chase changes processes or introduces new products and services, JPMorgan Chase may not fully appreciate or identify new operational risks that may arise from such changes. Any of these occurrences could diminish JPMorgan Chase's ability to operate one or more of its businesses, or result in potential liability to clients, increased operating expenses, higher litigation costs (including fines and sanctions), reputational damage, regulatory intervention or weaker competitive standing, any of which could materially adversely affect JPMorgan Chase.

If personal, confidential or proprietary information of customers or clients in JPMorgan Chase's possession were to be mishandled or misused, JPMorgan Chase could suffer significant regulatory consequences, reputational damage and financial loss. Such mishandling or misuse could include circumstances where, for example, such information was erroneously provided to parties who are not permitted to have the information, either through the fault of JPMorgan Chase's systems, employees, or counterparties, or where such information was intercepted or otherwise inappropriately taken by third parties.

JPMorgan Chase may be subject to disruptions of its operating systems arising from events that are wholly or partially beyond JPMorgan Chase's control, which may include, for example, security breaches (as discussed further below); electrical or telecommunications outages; failures of computer servers or other damage to JPMorgan Chase's property or assets; natural disasters; health emergencies or pandemics; or events arising from local or larger scale political events, including terrorist acts. JPMorgan Chase maintains a global resiliency and crisis management program that is intended to ensure that JPMorgan Chase has the ability to recover its critical business functions and supporting assets, including staff, technology and facilities, in the event of a business interruption. While JPMorgan Chase believes that its current resiliency plans are both sufficient and adequate, there can be no assurance that such plans will fully mitigate all potential business continuity risks to JPMorgan Chase. Any failures or disruptions of JPMorgan Chase's systems or operations could give rise to losses in service to customers and clients, adversely affect JPMorgan Chase's business and results of operations by subjecting JPMorgan Chase to losses or liability, or require JPMorgan Chase to expend significant resources to correct the failure or disruption, as well as by exposing JPMorgan Chase to litigation, regulatory fines or penalties or losses not covered by insurance.

(g) A breach in the security of JPMorgan Chase's systems could disrupt its businesses, result in the disclosure of confidential information, damage its reputation and create significant financial and legal exposure for JPMorgan Chase

Although JPMorgan Chase devotes significant resources to maintain and regularly upgrade its systems and processes that are designed to protect the security of JPMorgan Chase's computer systems, software, networks and other technology assets and the confidentiality, integrity and availability of information belonging to JPMorgan Chase and its customers, there is no assurance that all of JPMorgan Chase's security measures will provide absolute security. JPMorgan Chase and other financial services institutions and companies engaged in data processing have reported breaches in the security of their websites or other systems, some of which have involved sophisticated and targeted attacks intended to obtain unauthorised access to confidential information, destroy data, disable or degrade service, or sabotage systems, often through the introduction of computer viruses or malware, cyber attacks and other means. JPMorgan Chase and several other U.S. financial institutions have also experienced several significant distributed denial-of-service attacks from technically sophisticated and well-resourced third parties which were intended to disrupt consumer online banking services.

Despite JPMorgan Chase's efforts to ensure the integrity of its systems, it is possible that JPMorgan Chase may not be able to anticipate or to implement effective preventive measures against all security breaches of these types, especially because the techniques used change frequently or are not recognised until launched, and because security attacks can originate from a wide variety of sources, including third parties outside JPMorgan Chase such as persons who are involved with organised crime or associated with external service providers or who may be linked to terrorist organizations or hostile foreign governments. Those parties may also attempt to fraudulently induce employees, customers or other users of JPMorgan Chase's systems to disclose sensitive information in order to gain access to JPMorgan Chase's data or that of its customers or clients. These risks may increase in the future as JPMorgan Chase continues to increase its mobile-payment and other internet-based product offerings and expands its internal usage of web-based products and applications.

A successful penetration or circumvention of the security of JPMorgan Chase's systems could cause serious negative consequences for JPMorgan Chase, including significant disruption of JPMorgan Chase's operations, misappropriation of confidential information of JPMorgan Chase or that of its customers, or damage to computers or systems of JPMorgan Chase and those of its customers and counterparties, and could result in violations of applicable privacy and other laws, financial loss to JPMorgan Chase or to its customers, loss of confidence in JPMorgan Chase's security measures, customer dissatisfaction, significant litigation exposure, and harm to JPMorgan Chase's reputation, all of which could have a material adverse effect on JPMorgan Chase.

(h) JPMorgan Chase's acquisitions and the integration of acquired businesses may not result in all of the benefits anticipated

JPMorgan Chase has in the past and may in the future seek to expand its business by acquiring other businesses. There can be no assurance that JPMorgan Chase's acquisitions will have the anticipated positive results, including results relating to: the total cost of integration; the time required to complete the integration; the amount of longer-term cost savings; the overall performance of the combined entity; or an improved price for JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s common stock. Integration efforts could divert management attention and resources, which could adversely affect JPMorgan Chase's operations or results. JPMorgan Chase cannot provide assurance that any such integration efforts would not result in the occurrence of unanticipated costs or losses.

Acquisitions may also result in business disruptions that cause JPMorgan Chase to lose customers or cause customers to move their business to competing financial institutions. It is possible that the integration process related to acquisitions could result in the disruption of JPMorgan Chase's ongoing businesses or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies that could adversely affect JPMorgan Chase's ability to maintain relationships with clients, customers, depositors and other business partners. The loss of key employees in connection with an acquisition could adversely affect JPMorgan Chase's ability to successfully conduct its business.

5.7 Risk Management

(a) JPMorgan Chase's framework for managing risks and its risk management procedures and practices may not be effective in mitigating risk and loss to JPMorgan Chase

JPMorgan Chase's risk management framework seeks to mitigate risk and loss to JPMorgan Chase. JPMorgan Chase has established processes and procedures intended to identify, measure, monitor, report and analyse the types of risk to which JPMorgan Chase is subject, including liquidity risk, credit risk, market risk, interest rate risk, country risk, principal risk, operational risk, legal and fiduciary risk, and reputational risk, among others. However, as with any risk management framework, there are inherent limitations to JPMorgan Chase's risk management strategies because there may exist, or develop in the future, risks that JPMorgan Chase has not appropriately anticipated or identified. If JPMorgan Chase's risk management framework proves ineffective, JPMorgan Chase could suffer unexpected losses and could be materially adversely affected. As JPMorgan Chase's businesses change and grow and the markets in which they operate continue to evolve, JPMorgan Chase's risk management framework may not always keep sufficient pace with those changes. As a result, there is the risk that the credit and market risks associated with new products or new business strategies may not be appropriately identified, monitored or managed. In addition, in a difficult or less liquid market environment, JPMorgan Chase's risk management strategies may not be effective because other market participants may be attempting to use the same or similar strategies to deal with the challenging market conditions. In such circumstances, it may be difficult for JPMorgan Chase to reduce its risk positions due to the activity of such other market participants.

JPMorgan Chase's products, including loans, leases, lending commitments, derivatives, trading account assets and assets held-for-sale, as well as cash management and clearing activities, expose JPMorgan Chase to credit risk. As one of the nation's largest lenders, JPMorgan Chase has exposures arising from its many different products and counterparties, and the credit quality of JPMorgan Chase's exposures can have a significant impact on its earnings. JPMorgan Chase establishes allowances for probable credit losses that are inherent in its credit exposure, including unfunded lending commitments. JPMorgan Chase also employs stress testing and other techniques to determine the capital and liquidity necessary to protect JPMorgan Chase in the event of adverse economic or market events. These processes are critical to JPMorgan Chase's financial results and condition, and require difficult, subjective and complex judgments, including forecasts of how economic conditions might impair the ability of JPMorgan Chase's borrowers and counterparties to repay their loans or other obligations. As is the case with any such assessments, there is always the chance that JPMorgan Chase will fail to identify the proper factors or that JPMorgan Chase will fail to accurately estimate the impact of factors that it identifies.

JPMorgan Chase's market-making businesses may expose JPMorgan Chase to unexpected market, credit and operational risks that could cause JPMorgan Chase to suffer unexpected losses. Severe declines in asset values, unanticipated credit events, or unforeseen circumstances that may cause previously uncorrelated factors to become correlated (and vice versa) may create losses resulting from risks not appropriately taken into account in the development, structuring or pricing of a financial instrument such as a derivative. Certain of JPMorgan Chase's derivative transactions require the physical settlement by delivery of securities, commodities or obligations that JPMorgan Chase does not own; if JPMorgan Chase is unable to obtain such securities, commodities or obligations within the required timeframe for delivery, this could cause JPMorgan Chase to forfeit payments otherwise due to it and could result in settlement delays, which could damage JPMorgan Chase's reputation and ability to transact future business. In addition, in situations where trades are not settled or confirmed on a timely basis, JPMorgan Chase may be subject to heightened credit and operational risk, and in the event of a default, JPMorgan Chase may be exposed to market and operational losses. In particular, disputes regarding the terms or the settlement procedures of derivative contracts could arise, which could force JPMorgan Chase to incur unexpected costs, including transaction, legal and litigation costs, and impair JPMorgan Chase's ability to manage effectively its risk exposure from these products.

Many of JPMorgan Chase's risk management strategies or techniques have a basis in historical market behaviour, and all such strategies and techniques are based to some degree on management's subjective judgment. For example, many models used by JPMorgan Chase are based on assumptions regarding correlations among prices of various asset classes or other market indicators. In times of market stress, or in the event of other unforeseen circumstances, previously uncorrelated indicators may become correlated, or conversely, previously correlated indicators may make unrelated movements. These sudden market movements or unanticipated or unidentified market or economic movements have in some circumstances limited the effectiveness of JPMorgan Chase's risk management strategies, causing JPMorgan Chase to incur losses. JPMorgan Chase cannot provide assurance that its risk management framework, including JPMorgan Chase's underlying assumptions or strategies, will at all times be accurate and effective.

In connection with JPMorgan Chase's internal review of the reported losses in the synthetic credit portfolio managed by CIO, management concluded that during the first quarter of 2012 CIO's risk management had been ineffective in dealing with the growth in the size and complexity of the portfolio during the first quarter of 2012. Among other matters, JPMorgan Chase's internal review found that CIO lacked a robust risk committee structure; that CIO's risk limits were insufficiently granular and should have been reassessed in light of the positions being added to the synthetic credit portfolio in the first quarter of 2012; that CIO risk management was insufficiently engaged in the approval and implementation during the first quarter of 2012 of a new CIO Value-at-Risk ("VaR") model related to the portfolio (before that model was discontinued and the previous model was restored); and that there was inadequate escalation to JPMorgan Chase's management of certain risk issues relating to the portfolio. JPMorgan Chase has taken steps to correct such lapses, including, among other things, appointing a new Chief Risk Officer for CIO/Treasury/Corporate ("CTC"); adding resources and talent in CIO risk management; instituting new CTC risk committees to improve governance and controls and ensure tighter linkages between CIO, Treasury and other activities in the Corporate sector; and introducing more granular risk limits for CIO.

In January 2013, JPMorgan Chase & Co. entered into a Consent Order with the Federal Reserve and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. entered into a Consent Order with the OCC relating to the banking regulators' reviews of the CIO matter. These Consent Orders relate to risk management, model governance and other control functions related to CIO and certain other trading activities at JPMorgan Chase. Many of the actions required by the Consent Orders have already been, or are in the process of being, implemented by JPMorgan Chase.

While JPMorgan Chase has taken, and is taking, steps to correct the lapses in the CIO risk management framework, there is no assurance that new or additional lapses in JPMorgan Chase's risk management framework and governance structure could not occur in the future. Any such lapses or other inadequacies in the design or implementation of JPMorgan Chase's risk management framework, governance, procedures or practices could, individually or in the aggregate, cause unexpected losses for JPMorgan Chase, materially and adversely affect JPMorgan Chase's financial condition and results of operations, require significant resources to remediate any risk management deficiency, attract heightened regulatory scrutiny, expose JPMorgan Chase to regulatory investigations or legal proceedings, subject JPMorgan Chase to fines, penalties or judgments, harm JPMorgan Chase's reputation, or otherwise cause a decline in investor confidence.

(b) Lapses in disclosure controls and procedures or internal control over financial reporting could materially and adversely affect JPMorgan Chase's operations, profitability or reputation

JPMorgan Chase is committed to maintaining high standards of internal control over financial reporting and disclosure controls and procedures. Nevertheless, in a firm as large and complex as JPMorgan Chase, lapses or deficiencies in disclosure controls and procedures or in JPMorgan Chase's internal control over financial reporting may occur from time to time. On 13 July 2012, JPMorgan Chase reported that it had determined that a material weakness existed in its internal control over financial reporting at 31 March 2012. This determination related to the valuation control function for the synthetic credit portfolio managed by CIO during the first quarter of 2012. As a result of the material weakness, management also concluded that JPMorgan Chase's disclosure controls and procedures were not effective at 31 March 2012. Management has taken steps to remediate the internal control deficiency, including enhancing management supervision of valuation matters. The control deficiency was substantially remediated by 30 June 2012, and was closed-out by 30 September 2012.

There can be no assurance that JPMorgan Chase's disclosure controls and procedures will be effective in the future or that a material weakness or significant deficiency in internal control over financial reporting could not occur again. Any such lapses or deficiencies may materially and adversely affect JPMorgan Chase's business and results of operations or financial condition, restrict its ability to access the capital markets, require JPMorgan Chase to expend significant resources to correct the lapses or deficiencies, expose JPMorgan Chase to regulatory or legal proceedings, subject it to fines, penalties or judgments, harm JPMorgan Chase's reputation, or otherwise cause a decline in investor confidence.

5.8 Other Risks

(a) The financial services industry is highly competitive, and JPMorgan Chase's inability to compete successfully may adversely affect its results of operations

JPMorgan Chase operates in a highly competitive environment and JPMorgan Chase expects competitive conditions to continue to intensify as the financial services industry produces better-capitalised and more geographically diverse companies that are capable of offering a wider array of financial products and services at more competitive prices.

Competitors include other banks, brokerage firms, investment banking companies, merchant banks, hedge funds, commodity trading companies, private equity firms, insurance companies, mutual fund companies, credit card companies, mortgage banking companies, trust companies, securities processing companies, automobile financing companies, leasing companies, e-commerce and other Internet-based companies, and a variety of other financial services and advisory companies. Technological advances and the growth of e-commerce have made it possible for non-depository institutions to offer products and services that traditionally were banking products, and for financial institutions and other companies to provide electronic and Internet-based financial solutions, including electronic securities trading. JPMorgan Chase's businesses generally compete on the basis of the quality and variety of its products and services, transaction execution, innovation, reputation and price. Ongoing or increased competition in any one or all of these areas may put downward pressure on prices for JPMorgan Chase's products and services or may cause JPMorgan Chase to lose market share. Increased competition also may require JPMorgan Chase to make additional capital investments in its businesses in order to remain competitive. These investments may increase expense or may require JPMorgan Chase to extend more of its capital on behalf of clients in order to execute larger, more competitive transactions. JPMorgan Chase cannot provide assurance that the significant competition in the financial services industry will not materially adversely affect its future results of operations. Competitors of JPMorgan Chase's non-U.S. wholesale businesses are typically subject to different, and in some cases, less stringent, legislative and regulatory regimes. For example, the regulatory objectives underlying several provisions of the Dodd-Frank Act, including the prohibition on proprietary trading under the Volcker Rule and the derivatives "push-out" rules, have not been embraced by governments and regulatory agencies outside the United States and may not be implemented into law in most countries. The more restrictive laws and regulations applicable to U.S. financial services institutions, such as JPMorgan Chase, can put JPMorgan Chase at a competitive disadvantage to its non-U.S. competitors, including prohibiting JPMorgan Chase from engaging in certain transactions, making JPMorgan Chase's pricing of certain transactions more expensive for clients or adversely affecting JPMorgan Chase's cost structure for providing certain products, all of which can reduce the revenue and profitability of JPMorgan Chase's wholesale businesses.

(b) JPMorgan Chase's ability to attract and retain qualified employees is critical to the success of its business, and failure to do so may materially adversely affect JPMorgan Chase's performance

JPMorgan Chase's employees are JPMorgan Chase's most important resource, and in many areas of the financial services industry, competition for qualified personnel is intense. The imposition on JPMorgan Chase or its employees of restrictions on executive compensation may adversely affect JPMorgan Chase's ability to attract and retain qualified senior management and employees. If JPMorgan Chase is unable to continue to retain and attract qualified employees, JPMorgan Chase's performance, including its competitive position, could be materially adversely affected.

(c) JPMorgan Chase's financial statements are based in part on assumptions and estimates which, if incorrect, could cause unexpected losses in the future

Pursuant to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, JPMorgan Chase is required to use certain assumptions and estimates in preparing its financial statements, including in determining allowances for credit losses, mortgage repurchase liability and reserves related to litigation, among other items. Certain of JPMorgan Chase's financial instruments, including trading assets and liabilities, available-for-sale securities, certain loans, MSRs, private equity investments, structured notes and certain repurchase and resale agreements, among other items, require a determination of their fair value in order to prepare JPMorgan Chase's financial statements. Where quoted market prices are not available, JPMorgan Chase may make fair value determinations based on internally developed models or other means which ultimately rely to some degree on management estimation and judgment. In addition, sudden illiquidity in markets or declines in prices of certain loans and securities may make it more difficult to value certain balance sheet items, which may lead to the possibility that such valuations will be subject to further change or adjustment. If assumptions or estimates underlying JPMorgan Chase's financial statements are incorrect, JPMorgan Chase may experience material losses.

(d) Damage to JPMorgan Chase's reputation could damage its businesses

Maintaining trust in JPMorgan Chase is critical to JPMorgan Chase's ability to attract and maintain customers, investors and employees. Damage to JPMorgan Chase's reputation can therefore cause significant harm to JPMorgan Chase's business and prospects. Harm to JPMorgan Chase's reputation can arise from numerous sources, including, among others, employee misconduct, compliance failures, litigation or regulatory outcomes or governmental investigations. In addition, a failure to deliver appropriate standards of service and quality, or a failure or perceived failure to treat customers and clients fairly, can result in customer dissatisfaction, litigation and heightened regulatory scrutiny, all of which can lead to lost revenue, higher operating costs and harm JPMorgan Chase's reputation. Adverse publicity regarding JPMorgan Chase, whether or not true, may result in harm to JPMorgan Chase's prospects. Actions by the financial services industry generally or by certain members of or individuals in the industry can also affect JPMorgan Chase's reputation. For example, the role played by financial services firms in the financial crisis, including concerns that consumers have been treated unfairly by financial institutions, has damaged the reputation of the industry as a whole. Should any of these or other events or factors that can undermine JPMorgan Chase's reputation occur, there is no assurance that the additional costs and expenses that JPMorgan Chase may need to incur to address the issues giving rise to the reputational harm could not adversely affect JPMorgan Chase's earnings and results of operations.

Management of potential conflicts of interests has become increasingly complex as JPMorgan Chase continues to expand its business activities through more numerous transactions, obligations and interests with and among JPMorgan Chase's clients. The failure to adequately address, or the perceived failure to adequately address, conflicts of interest could affect the willingness of clients to deal with JPMorgan Chase, or give rise to litigation or enforcement actions, as well as cause serious reputational harm to JPMorgan Chase.

(e) Status of the JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. Guarantee

The JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. Guarantee (i) is unsecured and unsubordinated general obligations of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., and not of any of its respective affiliates, (ii) is not a savings account or deposit of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. or any bank or non-bank subsidiary of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. and (iii) will rank pari passu with all other unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. except obligations, including U.S. domestic deposits of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., that are subject to any priorities or preferences by law.

The JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. Guarantee is not a deposit insured by the FDIC, the U.S. Deposit Insurance Fund or any other governmental agency or instrumentality.

In particular, U.S. federal legislation adopted in 1993 provides for a preference in right of payment of certain claims made in the liquidation or other resolution of any FDIC-insured depository institution, which includes JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. The statute requires claims to be paid in the following order:

- first, administrative expenses of the receiver;
- second, any deposit liability of the institution;
- third, any other general or senior liability of the institution not described below;
- fourth, any obligation subordinated to depositors or general creditors not described below; and
- fifth, any obligation to shareholders or members (including any depository institution holding company or any shareholder or creditor of such company).

Deposit liabilities has been interpreted by the FDIC to include any deposit payable at an office of the insured depository institution in the United States, and not to include international banking facility deposits or deposits payable at an office of the insured depository institution outside the United States.

(f) Limitations of the JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. Guarantee

The guarantee of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. under the JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. Guarantee is limited to a guarantee of the payment and other obligations which the Issuer has under the terms and conditions of the Securities, and the Guarantor may therefore apply all exclusions, exceptions and defences available to the Issuer under the terms and conditions of the Securities and at law. Accordingly, where the Issuer has failed to perform an obligation under the Securities but its failure to do so is excused under the terms and conditions of the Securities, then the Guarantor will not be obliged under the terms of the JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. Guarantee to satisfy such failed obligation of the Issuer. For example, if the Issuer is prohibited, unable, or otherwise fails to make any payment, or any portion thereof or to perform any other obligation, because or arising out of an act of war, insurrection or civil strife; an action by any government or governmental authority or instrumentality thereof (whether de jure or de facto), legal constraint, terrorism, riots, or catastrophe, and the Calculation Agent therefore determines that a "Payment Disruption Event" has occurred (under General Condition 13.1 (Occurrence of a Payment Disruption Event) below), then the Guarantor will be under no obligation under the terms of the JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. Guarantee to satisfy the Issuer's payment obligation for so long as the Issuer has postponed the making of such payment or ultimately written the obligation down to zero as a consequence of such "Payment Disruption Event".

PERFORMANCE SCENARIOS

The scenarios presented below are examples and are purely indicative and are presented for illustrative purposes only. The examples shown below will not have an equal likelihood of occurrence. The redemption amount in respect of the Securities will be calculated in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Securities as set out in this Prospectus.

The following scenarios should be read in conjunction with Schedule 1 to the Contractual Terms on pages 68 to 69 of this Prospectus and all defined terms used below shall be as so defined in Schedule 1 to the Contractual Terms.

The terms of the Securities provide that the Issuer shall redeem each Security (of the Specified Denomination) on an Early Redemption Date or the Maturity Date, as the case may be, pursuant to paragraphs (i) or (ii) below, as applicable:

(i) Redemption on an Early Redemption Date

If the Calculation Agent determines that the Closing Index Level of the Index on any Valuation Date (other than the Final Valuation Date) is greater than or equal to the Initial Index Level (in which case, an "Early Redemption Event" shall be deemed to have occurred on such Valuation Date), then, unless the Securities have previously been redeemed, or purchased and cancelled, in accordance with the Conditions, the Issuer shall redeem each Security (of the Specified Denomination) on the Early Redemption Date corresponding to such Valuation Date by payment, in respect of each Security (of the Specified Denomination), of an amount in the Specified Currency, determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the following formula:

$$SD \times [1 + (0.0817 \times n)]$$

(ii) Final Redemption Amount on the Maturity Date

Unless previously redeemed or purchased and cancelled in accordance with the Conditions, the Issuer shall redeem each Security (of the Specified Denomination) on the Maturity Date by payment of the Final Redemption Amount, which shall be an amount in the Specified Currency determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with paragraph (a) or (b) below (as applicable):

- (a) if the Final Index Level is greater than or equal to the Initial Index Level, as determined by the Calculation Agent, then the Final Redemption Amount in respect of each Security (of the Specified Denomination) shall be GBP 1.49; or
- (b) if the Final Index Level is less than the Initial Index Level, as determined by the Calculation Agent, and:
 - (I) if the Calculation Agent determines that the Closing Index Level of the Index is greater than or equal to the Barrier Level on each Observation Date (Closing Valuation) during the Observation Period, then the Final Redemption Amount in respect of each Security (of the Specified Denomination) shall be GBP 1.00; or
 - (II) if the Calculation Agent determines that the Closing Index Level of the Index is less than the Barrier Level on any Observation Date (Closing Valuation) during the Observation Period (such an event being a "Barrier Event"), as determined by the Calculation Agent, the Final Redemption Amount in respect of each Security (of the Specified Denomination) shall be an amount in the Specified Currency (rounded to two (2) decimal places, with 0.005 rounded upwards) determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the following formula:

The Specified Denomination per Security is GBP 1.00 and the Initial Index Level is 6,654.34. The Barrier Level is 3,327.17, being 50 per cent. of the Initial Index Level (rounded to two decimal places, with 0.005 rounded upwards).

Scenario 1

The official closing level of the Index on the Valuation Date scheduled to fall on 27 May 2014 (the First Valuation Date) is greater than or equal to the Initial Index Level.

The Securities will be redeemed on the first early redemption date, which is scheduled to fall on 10 June 2014. The redemption amount payable per Security (of the Specified Denomination) will be an amount equal to the product of (i) the Specified Denomination, multiplied by (ii) the sum of (a) one (1), plus (b) the product (I) 0.0817, multiplied by (II) the number of the Valuation Date on which the Early Redemption Event occurs (being one), i.e., GBP 1.08 (being GBP 1.0817 rounded to two decimal places, with 0.005 rounded upwards).

The official closing level of the Index on each Valuation Date preceding the Valuation Date scheduled to fall on 24 May 2017 (the Fourth Valuation Date) is less than the Initial Index Level. The official closing level of the Index on the Valuation Date scheduled to fall on 24 May 2017 is greater than or equal to the Initial Index Level.

The Securities will be redeemed on the fourth early redemption date, which is scheduled to fall on 7 June 2017. The redemption amount payable per Security (of the Specified Denomination) will be an amount equal to the product of (i) the Specified Denomination, multiplied by (ii) the sum of (a) one (1), plus (b) the product (I) 0.0817, multiplied by (II) the number of the Valuation Date on which the Early Redemption Event occurs (being four), i.e., GBP 1.33 (being GBP 1.3268 rounded to two decimal places, with 0.005 rounded upwards).

The official closing level of the Index on each Valuation Date preceding the Valuation Date scheduled to fall on 24 May 2019 (the Final Valuation Date) is less than the Initial Index Level. The official closing level of the Index on the Valuation Date scheduled to fall on 24 May 2019 is greater than or equal to the Initial Index Level.

The Securities will be redeemed on the maturity date (scheduled to fall on 7 June 2019) and the final redemption amount payable per Security (of the Specified Denomination) will be GBP 1.49. In this scenario the return is capped.

Scenario 4

The official closing level of the Index on each Valuation Date preceding the Valuation Date scheduled to fall on 24 May 2019 (the Final Valuation Date) is less than the Initial Index Level. The official closing level of the Index on the Valuation Date scheduled to fall on 24 May 2019 is less than the Initial Index Level and the official closing level of the Index is greater than or equal to the Barrier Level on each scheduled trading day that is not a disrupted day for the Index during the period from, and including, 24 May 2013 to, and including, 24 May 2019.

The Securities will be redeemed on the maturity date (scheduled to fall on 7 June 2019) and the final redemption amount payable per Security (of the Specified Denomination) will be GBP 1.00.

Scenario 5

The official closing level of the Index on each Valuation Date preceding the Valuation Date scheduled to fall on 24 May 2019 (the Final Valuation Date) is less than the Initial Index Level. The official closing level of the Index on the Valuation Date scheduled to fall on 24 May 2019 is 98.50 per cent. of the Initial Index Level and the official closing level of the Index has been less than the Barrier Level on one or more scheduled trading days that are not disrupted days for the Index during the period from, and including, 24 May 2013 to, and including, 24 May 2019.

The Securities will be redeemed on the maturity date (scheduled to fall on 7 June 2019) and the final redemption amount payable per Security (of the Specified Denomination) will be an amount in GBP equal to the product of

(i) the Specified Denomination, multiplied by (ii) the greater of (a) 0.0001 and (b) the quotient of (I) the Final Index Level, divided by the Initial Index Level (being 0.985), i.e., GBP 0.99 (being GBP 0.985 rounded to two decimal places, with 0.005 rounded upwards).

Scenario 6

The official closing level of the Index on each Valuation Date preceding the Valuation Date scheduled to fall on 24 May 2019 (the Final Valuation Date) is less than the Initial Index Level. The Securities will be redeemed on the maturity date (scheduled to fall on 7 June 2019) and the final redemption amount payable per Security (of the Specified Denomination) will be an amount in GBP equal to product of (i) GBP 1.00, multiplied by (ii) the greater of (a) 0.0001 and (b) the quotient of (I) the Final Index Level, divided by the Initial Index Level (being 0.60), i.e., GBP 0.60. In this scenario, an investor in the Securities who purchased the Securities at the Issue Price will sustain a partial loss of the amount invested in the Securities.

Scenario 7

The official closing level of the Index on each Valuation Date preceding the Valuation Date scheduled to fall on 24 May 2019 (the Final Valuation Date) is less than the Initial Index Level. The official closing level of the Index on the Valuation Date scheduled to fall on 24 May 2019 is zero.

The Securities will be redeemed on the maturity date (scheduled to fall on 7 June 2019) and the final redemption amount payable per Security (of the Specified Denomination) will be an amount in GBP equal to the product of (i) GBP 1.00, multiplied by (ii) the greater of (a) 0.0001 and (b) the quotient of (I) the Final Index Level, divided by the Initial Index Level (being zero), i.e., zero (being GBP 0.0001 rounded to two decimal places, with 0.005 rounded upwards). In this scenario, an investor in the Securities who purchased the Securities at the Issue Price will sustain a total loss of the amount invested in the Securities.

C. PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO NOTES ONLY

4. Interest and other Calculations under the Notes

4.1 Interest on Fixed Rate Notes

Each Fixed Rate Note bears interest on its outstanding nominal amount from the Interest Commencement Date at the rate per annum (expressed as a percentage) equal to the Rate of Interest, such interest being payable in arrear on each Interest Payment Date(s) and the amount of interest payable on each Interest Payment Date shall be the Fixed Coupon Amount or, if applicable, the Broken Amount.

If interest is required to be calculated for a Fixed Rate Note for a period other than an Interest Period, such interest shall be calculated by multiplying the Rate of Interest by the Specified Denomination and multiplying the product by the Day Count Fraction, and rounding the resultant figure in accordance with General Condition 21 (Rounding). In all other circumstances the Day Count Fraction shall not be applicable to Fixed Rate Notes.

4.2 Interest on Floating Rate Notes

a) Interest Payment Dates

Each Floating Rate Note bears interest on its outstanding nominal amount from the Interest Commencement Date at the rate per annum (expressed as a percentage) equal to the Rate of Interest, such interest being payable in arrear on each Interest Payment Date.

b) Rate of Interest for Floating Rate Notes

The Rate of Interest in respect of Floating Rate Notes for each Interest Period shall be determined in the manner specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement and the provisions below relating to either ISDA Determination or Screen Rate Determination shall apply, depending upon which is specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement.

(i) ISDA Determination for Floating Rate Notes: where ISDA Determination is specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement as the manner in which the Rate of Interest is to be determined, the Rate of Interest for each Interest Period shall be determined by the Calculation Agent as a rate equal to the relevant ISDA Rate plus or minus (as indicated in the relevant Pricing Supplement) the Margin (if any). For the purposes of this sub-paragraph (i), "ISDA Rate" for an Interest Period means a rate equal to the Floating Rate that would be determined by the Calculation Agent (as defined in the ISDA Definitions) under a Swap Transaction under the terms of an agreement incorporating the ISDA Definitions, and under which:

- (A) the Floating Rate Option is as specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement;
- (B) the Designated Maturity is a period as specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement; and
- (C) the relevant Reset Date is the first day of that Interest Period unless otherwise specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement.

For the purposes of this sub-paragraph (i), "Floating Rate", "Floating Rate Option", "Designated Maturity", "Reset Date" and "Swap Transaction" have the meanings given to those terms in the ISDA Definitions.

- (ii) Screen Rate Determination for Floating Rate Notes: where Screen Rate Determination is specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement as the manner in which the Rate of Interest is to be determined, the Rate of Interest for each Interest Period shall be determined by the Calculation Agent at or about the Relevant Time on the Interest Determination Date in respect of such Interest Period in accordance with the following:

- (A) if the Primary Source for the Rate of Interest is a Page, subject as provided below, the Rate of Interest shall be:

- (1) the Relevant Rate (where such Relevant Rate on such Page is a composite quotation or is customarily supplied by one entity); or
- (2) the arithmetic mean of the Relevant Rates of the entities whose Relevant Rates appear on that Page, in each case appearing on such Page at the Relevant Time on the Interest Determination Date;

- (B) if the Primary Source for the Rate of Interest is Reference Banks or if sub-paragraph (A)(1) above applies and no Relevant Rate appears on the Page at the Relevant Time on the Interest Determination Date or if sub-paragraph (A)(2) above applies and fewer than two Relevant Rates appear on the Page at the Relevant Time on the Interest Determination Date, subject as provided below, the Rate of Interest shall be the arithmetic mean of the Relevant Rates that each of the Reference Banks is quoting to leading banks in the Relevant Financial Centre at the Relevant Time on the Interest Determination Date, as determined by the Calculation Agent; and

- (C) if paragraph (B) above applies and the Calculation Agent determines that fewer than two Reference Banks are so quoting Relevant Rates, subject as provided below, the Rate of Interest shall be the arithmetic mean of the rates per annum (expressed as a percentage) that the Calculation Agent determines to be the rates (being the nearest equivalent to the Benchmark) in respect of a Representative Amount of the Specified Currency that at least two out of the five leading banks selected by the Calculation Agent in the principal financial centre of the country of the Specified Currency or, if the Specified Currency is euro, in the Euro-zone as selected by the Calculation Agent (the "Principal Financial Centre") are quoting at or about the Relevant Time on the date on which such banks would customarily quote such rates for a period commencing on the Effective Date for a period equivalent to the Specified Duration (i) to leading banks carrying on business in Europe, or (if the Calculation Agent determines that fewer than two of such banks are so quoting to leading banks in Europe) (ii) to leading banks carrying on business in the Principal Financial Centre; except that, if fewer than two of such banks are so quoting to leading banks in the Principal Financial Centre, the Rate of Interest shall be the Rate of Interest determined on the previous Interest Determination Date (after readjustment for any difference between any Margin or Maximum Rate of Interest or Minimum Rate of Interest applicable to the preceding Interest Period and to the relevant Interest Period). If no Rate of Interest has been determined on any of the previous Interest Determination Dates, the Rate of Interest shall be the rate as determined by the Calculation Agent in its reasonable discretion.

4.3 Interest on Share Linked Interest Notes, Index Linked Interest Notes, Commodity Linked Interest Notes, FX Linked Interest Notes and Other Variable Linked Interest Notes

Each Share Linked Interest Note, Index Linked Interest Note, Commodity Linked Interest Note, FX Linked Interest Note and Other Variable Linked Interest Note bears interest from the Interest Commencement Date, such interest to be payable on each Interest Payment Date.

The Rate of Interest or the Interest Amount (as applicable) relating to the Notes will be calculated as set out in the relevant Pricing Supplement (and in accordance with General Condition 4.8 (Interest Calculations (Notes other than Fixed Rate Notes))).

4.4 Zero Coupon Notes

Where a Zero Coupon Note is repayable prior to the Maturity Date and is not paid when due, the amount due and payable prior to the Maturity Date shall be the Early Payment Amount (as described in General Condition 5.5 (Early Redemption of Zero Coupon Notes)) of such Note. As from the Maturity Date, the Rate of Interest for any overdue principal of such a Note shall be a rate per annum (expressed as a percentage) equal to the Amortisation Yield.

4.5 Dual Currency Notes

In the case of Dual Currency Notes, if the rate or amount of interest falls to be determined by reference to a Rate of Exchange or a method of calculating a Rate of Exchange, the rate or amount of interest payable shall be determined in the manner specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement.

4.6 Partly Paid Notes

In the case of Partly Paid Notes (other than Partly Paid Notes which are Zero Coupon Notes), interest will accrue as aforesaid on the paid-up nominal amount of the Notes and otherwise as specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement.

4.7 Accrual of Interest

Interest shall cease to accrue on each Note on the due date for redemption unless, upon due presentation, payment is improperly withheld or refused, in which event interest shall continue to accrue (as well after as before judgement) at the Rate of Interest in the manner provided in this General Condition 4 to the Relevant Date.

4.8 Interest Calculations (Notes other than Fixed Rate Notes)

The amount of interest (the "Interest Amount") that shall accrue in respect of any Note other than a Fixed Rate Note for any period shall be calculated by applying the Rate of Interest for such period to the Specified Denomination, multiplying the product by the Day Count Fraction and rounding the result in accordance with General Condition 21 (Rounding), unless an Interest Amount (or a formula for its calculation) is specified in respect of such period, in which case the amount of interest payable in respect of such Note for such period shall equal such Interest Amount (or be calculated in accordance with such formula).

If any Margin is specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement (either (i) generally or (ii) in relation to one or more Interest Periods), an adjustment shall be made to all Rates of Interest, in the case of (i), or the Rates of Interest for the specified Interest Periods, in the case of (ii), calculated in accordance with General Condition 4.2b (Rate of Interest for Floating Rate Notes) or the relevant Pricing Supplement (in the case of Index Linked Interest Notes, Share Linked Interest Notes, Commodity Linked Interest Notes, FX Linked Interest Notes or Other Variable Linked Interest Notes) by adding (if a positive number) or subtracting the absolute value (if a negative number) of such Margin, subject always to the next paragraph.

If any Maximum Rate of Interest or Minimum Rate of Interest is specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement, then any Rate of Interest shall be subject to such maximum or minimum, as the case may be.

4.9 Determination and publication of Rates of Interest

As soon as practicable after any relevant time (which, in respect of an Interest Determination Date shall be the applicable Relevant Time) on such date as the Calculation Agent may be required to calculate any rate or amount, obtain any quotation or make any determination or calculation or adjustment to the terms of the Notes with respect to the calculation of the Interest Amount or the Rate of Interest, as applicable, it shall determine such rate or amount and calculate the Interest Amounts in respect of each Specified Denomination of the Notes for the relevant Interest Period, obtain such quotation or make such determination or calculation, as the case may be, and cause the Rate of Interest and/or the Interest Amounts for each Interest Period and the relevant Interest Payment Date or any other amount specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement to be notified to the Relevant Programme Agent, the Issuer, each of the Paying Agents, any other Calculation Agent or Delivery Agent appointed in respect of the Notes that is to make a further calculation or delivery upon receipt of such information and, if the Notes are listed on a stock exchange and the rules of such exchange or other relevant authority so require, such exchange or other relevant authority as soon as possible after their determination but in no event later than (i) the commencement of the relevant Interest Period, if determined prior to such time, in the case of notification to such exchange of a Rate of Interest and Interest Amount, or (ii) in all other cases, as soon as reasonably practicable after such determination.

Where any Interest Payment Date or Interest Period is subject to adjustment in accordance with the applicable Business Day Convention, the Interest Amounts and the Interest Payment Date so published may subsequently be amended (or appropriate alternative arrangements made by way of adjustment) without notice in the event of an extension or shortening of the Interest Period. If the Notes become due and payable under General Condition 15 (Events of Default), the accrued interest and the Rate of Interest payable in respect of the Notes shall nevertheless continue to be calculated as previously in accordance with this General Condition but no publication of the Rate of Interest or the Interest Amount so calculated need be made.

5. Redemption of Notes

5.1 Redemption at the Option of the Issuer

If Call Option is specified to be applicable in the relevant Pricing Supplement, the Issuer may, on giving not less than 15 nor more than 30 calendar days' irrevocable notice to the Holders in accordance with General Condition 25 (Notices) (or such other notice period as may be specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement) redeem, all or, if so provided, some, of the Notes on any Optional Redemption Date. If the Early Payment Amount payable is

Each Certificate in respect of which the "Certificate Coupon Provisions" are expressed to be applicable in the relevant Pricing Supplement will pay a coupon in respect of the notional amount per Certificate specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement (the "Notional Amount") at the rate per annum (expressed as a percentage) equal to the Fixed Rate Coupon, such coupon being payable in arrear on each Coupon Payment Date. If no Coupon Payment Date(s) is/are shown in the relevant Pricing Supplement, Coupon Payment Date shall mean each date which falls the number of months or other period shown in the relevant Pricing Supplement as the Specified Coupon Period after the preceding Coupon Payment Date or, in the case of the first Coupon Payment Date, after the Issue Date.

Any amounts so calculated will be rounded in accordance with General Condition 21 (Rounding).

If the coupon is to be calculated by reference to a Fixed Rate Coupon, the coupon amount in respect of each Coupon Period shall be calculated by multiplying the Notional Amount by the Fixed Rate Coupon for such period, further multiplying the product by the Day Count Fraction, and rounding the result in accordance with General Condition 21 (Rounding).

8.3 Floating Rate Coupon

a) Floating Rate Coupon Payment Dates

Each Certificate in respect of which the "Certificate Floating Rate Coupon Provisions" are expressed to be applicable in the relevant Pricing Supplement bears interest on its Notional Amount from the Floating Rate Coupon Commencement Date at the rate per annum (expressed as a percentage) equal to the Floating Rate Coupon, such interest being payable in arrear on each Floating Rate Coupon Payment Date.

b) Floating Rate Coupon

The coupon rate in respect of each Certificate in respect of which the "Certificate Floating Rate Coupon Provisions" are specified to be applicable in the relevant Pricing Supplement for each Floating Rate Coupon Period shall be determined in the manner specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement and the provisions below relating to either ISDA Determination or Screen Rate Determination shall apply, depending upon which is specified to be applicable in the relevant Pricing Supplement.

- (i) ISDA Determination for Floating Rate Coupon: where ISDA Determination is specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement as the manner in which the Floating Rate Coupon is to be determined, the Floating Rate Coupon for each Floating Rate Coupon Period shall be determined by the Calculation Agent as a rate equal to the relevant ISDA Rate plus or minus (as indicated in the relevant Pricing Supplement) the Margin (if any). For the purposes of this sub-paragraph (i), "ISDA Rate" for a Floating Rate Coupon Period means a rate equal to the Floating Rate that would be determined by the Calculation Agent (as defined in the ISDA Definitions) under a Swap Transaction under the terms of an agreement incorporating the ISDA Definitions, and under which:

- (A) the Floating Rate Option is as specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement;
- (B) the Designated Maturity is a period as specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement; and
- (C) the relevant Reset Date is the first day of that Floating Rate Coupon Period unless otherwise specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement.

For the purposes of this sub-paragraph (i), "Floating Rate", "Floating Rate Option", "Designated Maturity", "Reset Date" and "Swap Transaction" have the meanings given to those terms in the ISDA Definitions.

- (ii) Screen Rate Determination for Floating Rate Coupon: where Screen Rate Determination is specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement as the manner in which the Floating Rate Coupon is to be determined, the Floating Rate Coupon for each Floating Rate Coupon Period shall be determined by the Calculation Agent at or about the Relevant Time on the Floating Rate Coupon Determination Date in respect of such Floating Rate Coupon Period in accordance with the following:

- (A) if the Primary Source for the Floating Rate Coupon is a Page, subject as provided below, the Floating Rate Coupon shall be:

- (1) the Relevant Rate (where such Relevant Rate on such Page is a composite quotation or is customarily supplied by one entity); or
- (2) the arithmetic mean of the Relevant Rates of the entities whose Relevant Rates appear on that Page, in each case appearing on such Page at the Relevant Time on the Floating Rate Coupon Determination Date;

- (B) if the Primary Source for the Floating Rate Coupon is Reference Banks or if sub-paragraph (A)(1) above applies and no Relevant Rate appears on the Page at the Relevant Time on the Floating Rate Coupon Determination Date or if sub-paragraph (A)(2) above applies and fewer than two Relevant Rates appear on the Page at the Relevant Time on the Floating Rate Coupon Determination Date, subject as provided below, the Floating Rate Coupon shall be the arithmetic mean of the Relevant Rates that each of the Reference Banks is quoting to leading banks in the Relevant Financial Centre at the Relevant Time on the Floating Rate Coupon Determination Date, as determined by the Calculation Agent; and
- (C) if paragraph (B) above applies and the Calculation Agent determines that fewer than two Reference Banks are so quoting Relevant Rates, subject as provided below, the Floating Rate Coupon shall be the arithmetic mean of the rates per annum (expressed as a percentage) that the Calculation Agent determines to be the rates (being the nearest equivalent to the Benchmark) in respect of a Representative Amount of the Specified Currency that at least two out of the five leading banks selected by the Calculation Agent in the principal financial centre of the country of the Specified Currency or, if the Specified Currency is euro, in the Euro-zone as selected by the Calculation Agent (the "Principal Financial Centre") are quoting at or about the Relevant Time on the date on which such banks would customarily quote such rates for a period commencing on the Effective Date for a period equivalent to the Specified Duration (i) to leading banks carrying on business in Europe, or (if the Calculation Agent determines that fewer than two of such banks are so quoting to leading banks in Europe) (ii) to leading banks carrying on business in the Principal Financial Centre; except that, if fewer than two of such banks are so quoting to leading banks in the Principal Financial Centre, the Floating Rate Coupon shall be the Floating Rate Coupon determined on the previous Floating Rate Coupon Determination Date (after readjustment for any difference between any Margin or Maximum Rate of Floating Rate Coupon or Minimum Rate of Floating Rate Coupon applicable to the preceding Floating Rate Coupon Period and to the relevant Floating Rate Coupon Period). If no Floating Rate Coupon has been determined on any of the previous Floating Rate Coupon Determination Dates, the Floating Rate Coupon shall be the rate as determined by the Calculation Agent in its reasonable discretion.

c) Accrual of interest on Certificates in respect of which the Certificate Floating Rate Coupon Provisions are applicable

Interest shall cease to accrue on each Certificate in respect of which the "Certificate Floating Rate Coupon Provisions" are specified to be applicable in the relevant Pricing Supplement on the due date for redemption unless, upon due presentation, payment is improperly withheld or refused, in which event interest shall continue to accrue (as well after as before judgement) at the Floating Rate Coupon in the manner provided in this General Condition 8.3 to the Relevant Date.

d) Floating Rate Coupon Calculations

The amount of interest that shall accrue in respect of each Certificate in respect of which the "Certificate Floating Rate Coupon Provisions" are specified to be applicable in the relevant Pricing Supplement for any period shall be calculated by applying the Floating Rate Coupon for such period to the Notional Amount, multiplying the product by the Day Count Fraction and rounding the result in accordance with General Condition 21 (Rounding), unless a Coupon Amount (or a formula for its calculation) is specified in respect of such period, in which case the amount of interest payable in respect of such Certificate for such period shall equal such Coupon Amount (or be calculated in accordance with such formula).

If any Margin is specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement (either (i) generally or (ii) in relation to one or more Floating Rate Coupon Periods), an adjustment shall be made to all Floating Rate Coupons, in the case of (i), or the Floating Rate Coupons for the specified Floating Rate Coupon Periods, in the case of (ii), calculated in accordance with General Condition 8.3b) (Floating Rate Coupon) or the relevant Pricing Supplement by adding (if a positive number) or subtracting the absolute value (if a negative number) of such Margin, subject always to the next paragraph.

If any Maximum Rate of Floating Rate Coupon or Minimum Rate of Floating Rate Coupon is specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement, then any Floating Rate Coupon shall be subject to such maximum or minimum, as the case may be.

e) Determination and publication of Floating Rate Coupon

As soon as practicable after any relevant time (which, in respect of an Floating Rate Coupon Determination Date shall be the applicable Relevant Time) on such date as the Calculation Agent may be required to calculate any rate or amount, obtain any quotation or make any determination or calculation or adjustment to the terms of the Certificates with respect to the calculation of the Coupon Amount or the Floating Rate Coupon, as applicable, it shall determine such rate or amount and calculate the Coupon Amounts in respect of the Notional Amount of the Certificates for the relevant Floating Rate Coupon Period, obtain such quotation or make such determination or calculation, as the case may be, and cause the Floating Rate Coupon and/or the Coupon Amounts for each Floating Rate Coupon Period and the relevant Floating Rate Coupon Payment Date or any other amount specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement to be notified to the Relevant Programme Agent, the Issuer, each of the Paying Agents, any other Calculation Agent or Delivery Agent appointed in respect of the Certificates that is to make a further calculation or delivery upon receipt of such information and, if the Certificates are listed on a stock exchange and the rules of such exchange or other relevant authority so require, such exchange or other relevant authority as soon as possible after their determination but in no event later than (i) the commencement of the relevant Floating Rate Coupon Period, if determined prior to such time, in the case of notification to such exchange of a Floating Rate Coupon and Coupon Amount, or (ii) in all other cases, as soon as reasonably practicable after such determination.

Where any Floating Rate Coupon Payment Date or Floating Rate Coupon Period is subject to adjustment in accordance with the applicable Business Day Convention, the Coupon Amounts and the Floating Rate Coupon Payment Date so published may subsequently be amended (or appropriate alternative arrangements made by way of adjustment) without notice in the event of an extension or shortening of the Floating Rate Coupon Period. If the Certificates become due and payable under General Condition 15 (Events of Default), the accrued interest and the Floating Rate Coupon payable in respect of the Certificates shall nevertheless continue to be calculated as previously in accordance with this General Condition 8 but no publication of the Floating Rate Coupon or the Coupon Amount so calculated need be made.

11. Exercise of Warrants

11.1 Exercise Rights

a) Exercise Style and Period

Warrants designated in the relevant Pricing Supplement as:

- (i) "American Style" Warrants are exercisable on any Scheduled Trading Day (or other such types of days as may be specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement) during the applicable period specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement;
- (ii) "European Style" Warrants are only exercisable on the Expiration Date;
- (iii) "Bermudan Style" Warrants are exercisable on any one of one or more Potential Exercise Dates and on the Expiration Date, subject to (i) General Condition 11.3a) (Exercise Notice) and (ii) prior termination of the Warrants as provided in General Condition 16 (Early Redemption or Termination for Illegality) and 17.3 (Early Redemption or Termination for Taxation – FATCA).

If Automatic Exercise is applicable to the Warrants, then (unless the Warrants have been previously terminated in accordance with General Condition 16 (Early Redemption or Termination for Illegality) or 17.3 (Early Redemption or Termination for Taxation – FATCA) or purchased and cancelled), the Warrants shall be deemed to be automatically exercised on the Expiration Date.

b) Entitlement

The rights attaching to each Warrant on exercise will be as set out in the relevant Pricing Supplement.

c) Failure to Exercise - European Style Warrants

Any Warrant designated in the relevant Pricing Supplement as "European Style" with respect to which no Exercise Notice has been delivered to the Relevant Clearing System(s) and copied to the Relevant Programme Agent or (in the case of Warrants in definitive form and Warrants which are Swiss Securities or German Securities) to the Relevant Programme Agent only, in the manner set out in General Condition 11.3a) (Exercise Notice), at or prior to 10.00 a.m. (Local Time) on the relevant Expiration Date, shall become void unless the relevant Pricing Supplement states that "Automatic Exercise" is applicable, in which case such Warrant shall be deemed to have been automatically exercised on the Expiration Date.

d) Failure to Exercise - American or Bermudan Style Warrants

Any Warrant designated in the relevant Pricing Supplement as "American Style" or "Bermudan Style" with respect to which no duly completed Exercise Notice has been delivered to the Relevant Clearing System(s) and copied to the Relevant Programme Agent or (in the case of Warrants in definitive form and Warrants which are Swiss Securities or German Securities) to the Relevant Programme Agent only, in the manner set out in General Condition 11.3a) (Exercise Notice), at or prior to 10.00 a.m. (Local Time) on the relevant Expiration Date shall become void unless the relevant Pricing Supplement states that "Automatic Exercise" is applicable, in which case such Warrant shall be deemed to have been automatically exercised on the Expiration Date.

11.2 Automatic Exercise Warrant Notice Requirement

In respect of Warrants which are automatically exercised, the relevant Holder shall, to the extent specified by the Issuer in a notice to the Holders given in the manner set out in General Condition 25 (Notices), deliver to the Relevant Clearing System(s) copied to the Relevant Programme Agent (or deliver to the Relevant Programme Agent only in the case of Warrants in definitive form and Warrants which are Swiss Securities or German Securities) a notice (an "Automatic Exercise Warrant Notice") (substantially in the form provided by the Relevant Programme Agent to the Relevant Clearing System, which shall include in the case of Warrants to be settled by Physical Settlement, the Non-U.S. Certification, or, in the case of Rule 144A Securities or Regulation S/Rule 144A Warrants, the Eligible Investor Certification) within 30 days of the Expiration Date providing the information and certification specified in the Exercise Notice. Unless expressly provided otherwise, such Automatic Exercise Warrant Notice shall be deemed to be the Exercise Notice for the purposes of the General Conditions.

Where an Automatic Exercise Warrant Notice is required by the Issuer, then the Settlement Amount of the Warrants, the Exercise Amount of the Warrants or the Reference Asset Amount in respect of the Warrants will only be paid or delivered, as the case may be, to the Holder if the Relevant Clearing System(s) and/or Relevant Programme Agent, as provided herein or in the relevant Pricing Supplement, receives an Automatic Exercise Warrant Notice in such form as the Relevant Clearing System(s) and/or Relevant Programme Agent considers in its discretion to be satisfactory, within 30 days of the Expiration Date and if no such Automatic Exercise Warrant Notice is received in respect of those Warrants initially subject to Physical Settlement, such Warrants shall be subject to Cash Settlement in all circumstances with such reductions to the Settlement Amount for the Expenses arising as a result of such Holder's failure to deliver such required Automatic Exercise Warrant Notice. Settlement of Warrants will be made in accordance with this General Condition 11 except that the Issuer shall, for each Warrant being exercised, transfer or procure the transfer of the Settlement Amount or the Exercise Amount on the Alternative Settlement Date, which shall occur only upon receipt and approval of such Automatic Exercise Warrant Notice, as the case may be.

11.3 Exercise Procedure

a) Exercise Notice

Warrants may be exercised in the following manner:

- (i) in respect of Warrants (other than Warrants which are German Securities) represented by a Global Warrant which is held on behalf of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg only, by the sending of an authenticated instruction by SWIFT message or by any other authorised communication channel, in accordance with Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg's rules and operating procedures, to Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, which shall include all the information set out in the form provided by the Principal Programme Agent and which will constitute an Exercise Notice in respect of such Warrants and, following receipt, Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg will send copies of any Exercise Notices so received to the Principal Programme Agent; or
- (ii) in respect of any Warrants other than Warrants represented by a Global Warrant which is held on behalf of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg (including Warrants which are German Securities), by delivery of a duly completed Exercise Notice (substantially in the form provided by the Relevant Programme Agent) to the Relevant Clearing System(s) with a copy to the Relevant Programme Agent or to the Relevant Programme Agent only (in the case of Warrants in definitive form and Warrants which are Swiss Securities or German Securities), in each case prior to the Latest Exercise Time on any Scheduled Trading Day (in the case of "American Style" Warrants) or the Latest Exercise Time on any Potential Exercise Date (in the case of "Bermudan Style" Warrants) during the relevant Exercise Period; provided that, in respect of Warrants designated in the relevant Pricing Supplement as "European Style", such Exercise Notice may be delivered at any time after 10.00 a.m. (Local Time) on the Business Day immediately preceding the Expiration Date but prior to the Latest Exercise Time on the Expiration Date as provided above.

b) Verification of the Holder

Upon receipt of an Exercise Notice (if any) in respect of Warrants other than Warrants which are German Securities, the Relevant Programme Agent (or such other person designated by the then applicable VPS Rules, the Swedish CSD Rules or Euroclear Finland Rules, as applicable, to be responsible for such actions) will request the Relevant Clearing System(s) to verify that the person exercising the Warrants specified therein was, as at 10.00 a.m. (Local Time) on the relevant Exercise Date, the Holder thereof according to the books of the Relevant Clearing System(s). If the Relevant Clearing System(s) is/are unable so to verify, such Exercise Notice shall be deemed not to have been given. In the event that the Warrants are Registered Warrants in definitive form, the Registrar will verify that the person exercising the Warrants is the Holder thereof and will inform the Issuer of the details thereof, and the inability of the Registrar to so verify shall cause such Exercise Notice to be deemed not given. In respect of Warrants other than Warrants which are German Securities, the Relevant Clearing System(s) will, on or before the Settlement Date, debit the Warrants being exercised from the account of the Holder specified in the Exercise Notice (but without prejudice to the accrued rights of the relevant Holder). In respect of Finnish Warrants, Norwegian Warrants and Swedish Warrants, such verification and debiting of the relevant securities accounts shall be pursuant to the then applicable Euroclear Finland Rules, VPS Rules or Swedish CSD Rules (as applicable) and the Relevant Programme Agent shall request and/or effect the transfer by the Holder of the relevant Finnish Warrants, Norwegian Warrants, or Swedish Warrants (as the case may be) to an account blocked for further transfers until such debiting may occur.

In the case of exercised Warrants in definitive form where Issuer Physical Settlement is applicable, the relevant Reference Assets (if any) shall be delivered outside the United States to the Holder by the Delivery Agent.

c) Cash Settlement - Warrants

- (i) The Issuer shall, for each Warrant being exercised and which is to be settled by Cash Settlement, on the Settlement Date transfer or procure the transfer of the Settlement Amount, less any Expenses due by reason of such exercise or deemed exercise of such Warrant (including any Expenses which are required by law to be deducted or withheld from any payments from the Issuer to the Holder of such Warrant, provided that if the deduction of Expenses would otherwise reduce the amount payable to the Holder to zero, such amount shall be deemed to be zero), which the Issuer is authorised to deduct under the Exercise Notice as applicable, to the Holder's account (located outside the United States) as specified in the relevant Exercise Notice for value on the Settlement Date, provided that, if no Exercise Notice is delivered for the exercise of such Warrants and Automatic Exercise is applicable to such Warrants:
 - (A) if the Warrants are represented by a Global Warrant or are Swiss Securities in uncertificated form (other than Warrants which are German Securities), then the Issuer shall pay the Settlement Amount in respect of such Warrants, less any Expenses to the Relevant Clearing System(s) for the credit of the accounts of the relevant Holders;
 - (B) if the Warrants are German Securities represented by a Global Warrant then the Issuer shall pay the Settlement Amount in respect of such Warrants less any Expenses against presentation or surrender of the Global Warrant at the specified office of the Relevant Programme Agent, to the Relevant Clearing System, for the credit of the account of the relevant account holder with the Relevant Clearing System;
 - (C) if the Warrants are in definitive form (other than Warrants which are Swiss Securities), then the Issuer shall pay the Settlement Amount in respect of such Warrants in definitive form, less any Expenses by a cheque payable in the relevant currency drawn on, or, at the option of the Holder by transfer to an account denominated in such currency with a Bank; or
 - (D) if the Warrants are in definitive form and are Swiss Securities, by transfer to an account denominated in the relevant currency drawn on with a Bank against presentation and surrender of the relevant Warrants in definitive form at the specified office of the Swiss Programme Agent, in each case, subject to, if so required by the Issuer, the provision by such Holder of an Automatic Exercise Warrant Notice.

- (ii) Norwegian Warrants and Swedish Warrants: In addition, in respect of Norwegian Warrants and Swedish Warrants, Cash Settlement will occur in accordance with the VPS Rules or the Swedish CSD Rules respectively, and payments will be effected to the Holder recorded as such on the Relevant Record Date.
- (iii) Finnish Warrants: In respect of Finnish Warrants, Cash Settlement will occur in accordance with the Euroclear Finland Rules, and payments will be effected to the Holder recorded as such three days prior to the due date of such settlement.

d) Issuer Physical Settlement

- (i) The Issuer shall, for each Warrant being exercised and which is to be settled by Issuer Physical Settlement, on the Settlement Date (but only if the Exercise Amount (if any) and any other amounts payable by the Holder in connection with such exercise, including the additional amount (if any) in accordance with the Holder's undertakings given in the Exercise Notice, have been received by the Issuer in accordance with the relevant Pricing Supplement and all Expenses have been paid by the Holder in accordance with General Condition 11.3h) (Expenses)), deliver or procure delivery of Reference Assets as contemplated by the relevant Pricing Supplement to the account (located outside the United States) or person specified in the relevant Exercise Notice, as applicable. For the purposes hereof, delivery of Reference Assets will be made in accordance with usual market practice for delivery of such Reference Assets.
- (ii) Norwegian Warrants and Swedish Warrants: In addition, in respect of Norwegian Warrants and Swedish Warrants, Physical Settlement will occur in accordance with the VPS Rules or the Swedish CSD Rules respectively, and transfers will be effected to the Holder recorded as such on the Relevant Record Date.
- (iii) Finnish Warrants: In addition, in respect of Finnish Warrants, Physical Settlement will occur in accordance with the Euroclear Finland Rules, and transfers will be effected to the Holder recorded as such three days prior to the due date of such settlement.

e) Holder Physical Settlement

The Issuer shall, for each Warrant being exercised and which is to be settled by Holder Physical Settlement, on the Settlement Date (but only if the Reference Assets required to be delivered by the Holder in connection with such exercise have been received by the Issuer in accordance with the relevant Pricing Supplement) transfer or procure the transfer of the Exercise Amount, less any Expenses which the Issuer is authorised to deduct under the Exercise Notice as applicable, to the Holder's account (located outside the United States) as specified in the relevant Exercise Notice as applicable, for value on the Settlement Date. For the purposes hereof, the Issuer shall, if necessary, upon receipt of an Exercise Notice, give the Holder sufficient information to enable it to deliver the Reference Assets to the Issuer.

f) Determination

Any determination as to whether an Exercise Notice contains all the relevant information and is validly delivered shall be made by the Relevant Programme Agent (as applicable) in its sole and absolute discretion and shall be conclusive and binding on the Issuer, the relevant Guarantor (if any) in respect of Warrants issued by JPMSP, JPMBD and JPMI, the Registrar, the Calculation Agent and the Holder. Any Exercise Notice so determined to be incomplete or not in proper form, or which is not, in the case of a Warrant sent or otherwise copied to the Relevant Programme Agent immediately after being sent to the Relevant Clearing System(s) (in the case of Global Warrants) or to the Relevant Programme Agent (in the case of Warrants in definitive form and Warrants which are Swiss Securities or German Securities), as applicable, shall be void. If such Exercise Notice is subsequently corrected to the satisfaction of the Relevant Programme Agent as applicable, it shall be deemed to be a new Exercise Notice submitted at the time the correction is delivered. The Relevant Programme Agent will endeavour to notify the Holder of an incomplete Exercise Notice as soon as possible after it becomes aware of the improper exercise. An Exercise Notice shall not be considered to be duly completed if it does not contain the Non-U.S. Certification or, as the case may be, the Eligible Investor Certification, in the required form.

g) Effect of Exercise of Warrants

Delivery of an Exercise Notice or, in the case of automatically exercised Warrants, the occurrence of the Exercise Date, shall constitute an irrevocable election by the relevant Holder to exercise the relevant Warrants. After delivery of such Exercise Notice or occurrence of such Exercise Date (as applicable), such exercising Holder may not otherwise transfer such Warrants. Notwithstanding this, if any Holder does so transfer or attempts so to transfer such Warrants, the Holder will be liable to the Issuer for any Expenses suffered or incurred by the Issuer or any of its affiliates through whom it has hedged its position, including those suffered or incurred as a consequence of the Issuer or any of its affiliates through whom it has hedged its position having terminated or commenced any related hedging operations in reliance on the relevant Exercise Notice or Exercise Date (as applicable) and subsequently (i) entering into replacement hedging operations in respect of such Warrants or (ii) paying any amount on the subsequent exercise of such Warrants without having entered into any replacement hedging operations.

h) Expenses

A Holder exercising a Warrant shall pay (i) all Expenses, if any, payable in connection with the exercise of the Warrant, (ii) all Expenses in relation to any transfer of the Reference Asset made as a result of such exercise, (iii) all Expenses arising on the exercise of the Warrants in the place in which the Exercise Notice is delivered, (iv) all Expenses involved in delivering the Exercise Notice and (v) all Expenses, if any, involved in complying with the Non-U.S. Certification or, as the case may be, the Eligible Investor Certification.

i) Minimum Number of Warrants Exercisable

If Warrants are designated as "American Style" or "Bermudan Style" and a Minimum Exercise Number is specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement, then, save in respect of when the Exercise Date is the Expiration Date, the Warrants of such Series or Tranche may only be exercised in the Minimum Exercise Number or such multiples in which such Series or Tranche may be exercised in accordance with the relevant Pricing Supplement.

j) Maximum Number of Warrants Exercisable

If Warrants are designated as "American Style" or "Bermudan Style" and a Maximum Exercise Number is specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement, then if, following any Exercise Date other than the Expiration Date, the Issuer determines in its sole and absolute discretion that more than the Maximum Exercise Number of Warrants of a Series or Tranche were purportedly exercised on such Exercise Date by a single Holder or a group of Holders acting in concert, then the Issuer may deem the Exercise Date for the first such Quota of such Warrants thus exercised to be such date, and the Exercise Date for each Quota of Warrants (or part of a Quota thereof, in the case of the last amount) thus exercised to be each succeeding day thereafter, until all such Warrants exercised on such first Exercise Date by such Holder or group of Holders have been allocated an Exercise Date through this procedure. In any case, where more than the Quota of Warrants of a Series or Tranche are so exercised on the same day by a Holder or group of Holders acting in concert, the order of settlement in respect of such Warrants shall be at the sole and absolute discretion of the Issuer. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Issuer may, at any time, in its reasonable commercial discretion, accept more than the Quota of Warrants of a Series or Tranche for exercise on any Exercise Date.

k) Record Date

Each payment in respect of:

- (i) a Registered Warrant represented by a Global Security will be paid to the person shown as the Holder in the Register as at the close of business on the clearing system business day before the due date for the payment thereof, unless otherwise specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement (in respect of such Registered Warrant represented by a Global Security, the "Record Date"). In this General Condition 11.3k)(i), "clearing system business day" means, in relation to Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, each day which is not a Saturday or a Sunday, 25 December or 1 January, and, in relation to any other Relevant Clearing System, each day on which such Relevant Clearing System is open for business;

- (ii) a Registered Warrant in definitive form will be paid to the person shown as the Holder in the Register at the close of business on the fifteenth day before the due date for the payment thereof (in respect of such Registered Warrant in definitive form, the "Record Date"). Where payment in respect of a Registered Warrant in definitive form is to be made by cheque, the cheque will be mailed to the address of the Holder appearing in the Register (or to the first-named of joint holders);
- (iii) a Swedish Warrant shall be made to the Holders registered as such on the fourth business day (as defined by the then applicable Swedish CSD Rules) before the due date for such payment, or on such other business day falling closer to the due date as then may be stipulated in the Swedish CSD Rules (in respect of Swedish Warrants, the "Swedish Record Date") and will be made in accordance with the Swedish CSD Rules and shall in all cases be made outside the United States; and
- (iv) a Swiss Warrant (other than Swiss Warrants in definitive form) shall be made to the Holder on the due date for such payment.

F. PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO NOTES, WARRANTS AND CERTIFICATES

12. Business Day

12.1 Business Day Convention

If any date referred to in these General Conditions or the relevant Pricing Supplement that is specified to be subject to adjustment in accordance with a Business Day Convention would otherwise fall on a day that is not a Business Day, then, if the Business Day Convention specified is (A) the Floating Rate Business Day Convention, such date shall be postponed to the next day that is a Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which event (i) such date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day and (ii) each subsequent such date (if any) shall be the last Business Day of the month in which such date would have fallen had it not been subject to adjustment, (B) the Following Business Day Convention, such date shall be postponed to the next day that is a Business Day, (C) the Modified Following Business Day Convention, such date shall be postponed to the next day that is a Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which event such date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day or (D) the Preceding Business Day Convention, such date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day.

12.2 Payments on Payment Days

If the date for payment of any amount in respect of any Security is not a Payment Day, the Holder shall not be entitled to payment until the next following Payment Day and shall not be entitled to any interest or other sum in respect of such postponed payment. For these purposes, "Payment Day" means any day which is:

- a) a day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in each Additional Financial Centre (if any) specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement; and
- b) either (1) in relation to any sum payable in a Specified Currency other than euro, a day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in the principal financial centre of the country of the relevant Specified Currency (if other than the place of presentation and any Additional Financial Centre and which if the Specified Currency is Australian dollars or New Zealand dollars shall be Sydney or Auckland, respectively) or (2) in relation to any sum payable in euro, a day on which TARGET2 is open.

13. Payment Disruption

13.1 Occurrence of a Payment Disruption Event

In the event that the Calculation Agent, at any time and from time to time, determines in its reasonable commercial discretion that a Payment Disruption Event has occurred or is likely to occur, then the Calculation Agent shall as soon as practicable notify the Holders of the relevant Securities of the occurrence of a Payment Disruption Event in accordance with General Condition 25 (Notices).

13.2 Consequences of a Payment Disruption Event

Upon the occurrence of a Payment Disruption Event:

a) Extension of relevant dates

The Interest Payment Date, the Maturity Date, the Exercise Date, the Redemption Date, the Coupon Payment Date, the Settlement Date or any other date on which the Securities may be exercised or redeemed or any amount shall be due and payable in respect of the relevant Securities shall, subject to General Condition 13.2d) (Payment Event Cut-off Date), be extended to a date falling 14 calendar days (or such other date as may be determined by the Calculation Agent and notified to the Holders in accordance with General Condition 25 (Notices)) after the date on which the Payment Disruption Event is no longer occurring and notice thereof shall be given to the relevant Holders in accordance with General Condition 25 (Notices).

b) Obligation to pay postponed

The Issuer's obligation to pay the Settlement Amount, Exercise Amount, Interest Amount, Coupon Amount, Final Redemption Amount, Redemption Amount or any such other amounts in respect of the relevant Securities or deliver any relevant Reference Asset, subject to General Condition 13.2d) (Payment Event Cut-off Date), shall be postponed until 14 calendar days (or such other date as may be determined by the Calculation Agent and notified to the Holders in accordance with General Condition 25 (Notices)) after the date on which the Payment Disruption Event is no longer operating. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Issuer may, in its reasonable commercial discretion, elect to satisfy in part its obligation to pay the amounts as may be due and payable under the relevant Securities by making a partial payment(s) or partial deliveries, as the case may be (the "Partial Distributions"). Any Partial Distribution made by the Issuer to the Holders will be calculated and/or determined by the Calculation Agent in its reasonable commercial discretion and shall be paid and/or delivered to the Holders pro rata to the proportion of the Securities of the same series held by the relevant Holder. In the event that any Partial Distribution is made by the Issuer, the Calculation Agent may, in its reasonable commercial discretion, make any such corresponding adjustment to any variable relevant to the settlement, redemption or payment terms of the relevant Securities as it deems necessary and shall notify the relevant Holders thereof in accordance with General Condition 25 (Notices).

c) Payments net of expenses

Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary, (a) any payments made in accordance with this General Condition 13.2 shall be made after deduction of any costs, expenses or liabilities incurred or to be incurred by the Calculation Agent or Issuer in connection with or arising from the resolution of the relevant Payment Disruption Event(s) and (b) a Holder shall not be entitled to any payment, whether of interest or otherwise, on the Securities in the event of any delay which may occur in the payment of any amounts due and payable under the Securities as a result of the operation of this General Condition 13.2 and no liability in respect thereof shall attach to the Issuer.

d) Payment Event Cut-off Date

In the event that a Payment Disruption Event is still occurring on the Payment Event Cut-off Date, then the Interest Payment Date, the Maturity Date, the Exercise Date, the Redemption Date, the Settlement Date, the Coupon Payment Date or any other date for the relevant Securities in respect of which Reference Assets would otherwise be due to be delivered or redemption amounts in relation to any of the Securities would otherwise be due and payable but for the occurrence of such Payment Disruption Event (as the case may be) shall be deemed to fall on the Payment Event Cut-off Date. In such circumstances, the Holder will not receive any amounts or Reference Assets. Thereafter, the Issuer shall have no obligations whatsoever under the Securities.

14. Physical Settlement

14.1 Physical Settlement in respect of Securities

If the relevant Pricing Supplement specifies "Physical Settlement" to be applicable, in order to obtain delivery of the Reference Asset Amount(s) in respect of such Security, the relevant Holder must deliver, in writing or by tested telex and not later than the close of business in each place of receipt on the relevant Physical Settlement Cut-Off Date, to (i) if the Securities are represented by a Global Security, the Relevant Clearing System, or (ii) if the Securities are in definitive form, any Paying Agent, with a copy to each of the Issuer, the Relevant Programme Agent and the Delivery Agent, a duly completed Reference Asset Transfer Notice. The foregoing requirement shall not apply to Swiss Securities or to German Securities save, in the case of German Securities, where Reference Asset Transfer Notice is specified to be applicable in the relevant Pricing Supplement.

The delivery of the Reference Asset Amount(s) shall be made (i) if practicable and in respect of Securities represented by a Global Security, to the Relevant Clearing System for the credit of the account of the Holder (or, in the case of German Securities or Swiss Securities, the relevant accountholder in the Relevant Clearing System), (ii) in the manner specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement or (iii) in such other commercially reasonable manner as the Issuer shall determine to be appropriate for such delivery and shall notify to the Holders in accordance with General Condition 25 (Notices).

No delivery and/or transfer of any Reference Asset Amount(s) shall be made until all Delivery Expenses arising from the delivery and/or transfer of any Reference Asset Amount(s) have been paid to the satisfaction of the relevant Issuer by the relevant Holder.

14.2 Reference Asset Transfer Notice

a) Verification of details in a Reference Asset Transfer Notice

Upon receipt of a Reference Asset Transfer Notice, in the case of (i) Securities represented by a Global Security, the Relevant Clearing System or (ii) Securities in definitive form, the Relevant Programme Agent, shall verify that the person specified therein as the Holder is the holder of the specified principal amount of Notes or, as the case may be, number of Warrants or Certificates according to its books.

b) No Withdrawal of Reference Asset Transfer Notice

No Reference Asset Transfer Notice may be withdrawn after (i) in the case of Global Securities, receipt thereof by the Relevant Clearing System or (ii) in the case of Securities in definitive form, receipt thereof by the Relevant Programme Agent. After delivery of a Reference Asset Transfer Notice, the relevant Holder may not transfer the Securities which are the subject of such notice.

c) Failure to properly to complete a Reference Asset Transfer Notice

Failure properly to complete and deliver a Reference Asset Transfer Notice may result in such notice being treated as null and void. Any determination as to whether such notice has been properly completed and delivered as provided in these General Conditions shall be made (i) in the case of Securities represented by a Global Security, by the Relevant Clearing System, after consultation with the Issuer, and shall be conclusive and binding on the Issuer and the relevant Holder and (ii) in the case of Securities in definitive form, by the Relevant Programme Agent after consultation with the Issuer, and shall be conclusive and binding on the Issuer and the relevant Holder. The relevant Issuer may determine, in its reasonable commercial discretion, whether to waive the requirement to deliver a properly completed Reference Asset Transfer Notice prior to the Physical Settlement Cut-Off Date in order for such Holder to receive the Interest Amount, Coupon Amount, Final Redemption Amount, Redemption Amount or Settlement Amount, as applicable, by obtaining delivery of the Reference Asset Amount in respect of such Securities and shall give notice of such waiver to the Relevant Clearing System (if applicable), and to each of the Paying Agents, the Relevant Programme Agent, the Calculation Agent and the Delivery Agent.

d) Failure to provide a Certification or the applicable representations in a Reference Asset Transfer Notice

If the Equity Certification to be given where the Holder may receive shares in a company, a Non-U.S. Certification or, as the case may be, an Eligible Investor Certification (in each case in the form set out in the Reference Asset Transfer Notice) are not provided by the relevant Physical Settlement Cut-Off Date, the Issuer may, instead of delivering, or having delivered on its behalf, the Reference Asset Amount, satisfy its obligations in respect of the relevant Security by payment to the relevant Holder of a cash amount, calculated by the Calculation Agent in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner to represent the fair market value of the Reference Assets comprising such Reference Asset Amount on such day as shall be selected by the Issuer in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner adjusted to take account fully for any losses, expenses and costs to the Issuer and/or any affiliate of the Issuer of unwinding or adjusting any underlying or related hedging arrangements (including but not limited to any options or selling or otherwise realising any relevant Share or other instruments or assets of any type whatsoever which the Issuer and/or any of its affiliates may hold as part of such hedging arrangements).

14.3 Delivery of Reference Asset Amount

Subject as provided in this General Condition 14, in relation to each Security which is to be redeemed or satisfied by delivery of a Reference Asset Amount, provided, if required, that the Reference Asset Transfer Notice is duly delivered not later than the close of business in each place of receipt on the relevant Physical Settlement Cut-Off Date, the Reference Asset Amount will be delivered on behalf of the Issuer by the Delivery Agent at the risk of the relevant Holder in the manner provided above on, or as soon as reasonably practicable after, the Interest Payment Date, Coupon Payment Date, Settlement Date or the Maturity Date (or, if any such date is not a business day, on the next following business day), as the case may be (each such date, subject to adjustment in accordance with this General Condition 14, a "Delivery Date").

Subject as provided in this General Condition 14, in relation to each Security which is to be redeemed or satisfied by delivery of a Reference Asset Amount, if a Reference Asset Transfer Notice is duly delivered later than the close of business on the relevant Physical Settlement Cut-Off Date in each place of receipt, then the Issuer may deliver the Reference Asset Amount as soon as practicable after the relevant Interest Payment Date, Coupon Payment Date, Settlement Date or the Maturity Date, as the case may be (in which case, such date of delivery shall be the relevant Delivery Date). In such circumstances, the Holder shall not be entitled to any payment, whether of interest or otherwise, in the event that it receives delivery of the Reference Asset Amount after the Delivery Date, and no liability in respect thereof shall attach to the Issuer or to the Delivery Agent.

14.4 Dividends or other distributions

Where the Reference Asset Amount comprises Shares, any dividend or other distribution in respect of such Reference Asset Amount will be payable to the party that would receive such dividend or other distribution according to market practice for a sale of the Share executed on the Interest Payment Date, Coupon Payment Date, Settlement Date or the Maturity Date, as the case may be, and to be delivered in the same manner as the Reference Asset Amount. Any such dividend or other distribution to be paid to a Holder shall be paid to the account specified in the relevant Reference Asset Transfer Notice or, in the case of Swiss Securities or German Securities (in respect of German Securities, unless a Reference Asset Transfer Notice is specified to be applicable in the relevant Pricing Supplement), to the Relevant Clearing System for the credit of the account of the relevant accountholder in the Relevant Clearing System.

14.5 Residual Cash Amount

Where the Reference Asset Amount comprises, in the sole and absolute determination of the Issuer, fractions of Reference Assets, the Holders will receive a Reference Asset Amount comprising of the nearest number (rounded down) of Reference Assets capable of being delivered by the Issuer (taking into account that a Holder's entire holding may be aggregated at the Issuer's discretion for the purpose of delivering the Reference Asset Amounts, unless otherwise specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement), and, if specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement, the Holders will also receive a Residual Cash Amount (if any) in respect of each Security capable of being paid by the Issuer (taking into account that a Holder's entire holding may be aggregated at the Issuer's discretion for the purpose of paying the Residual Cash Amounts, unless otherwise provided in the relevant Pricing Supplement).

14.6 Settlement Disruption Event

a) Postponement of Delivery Date

If a Settlement Disruption Event prevents delivery of a Reference Asset Amount on a Delivery Date, then the Delivery Date will be the first succeeding date on which delivery of the Reference Asset Amount can take place through the Relevant Clearing System unless a Settlement Disruption Event prevents settlement on each of the eight Clearing System Business Days immediately following the original date that, but for the occurrence of the Settlement Disruption Event, would have been the Delivery Date. In that case, (i) if such Reference Asset Amount can be delivered in any other commercially reasonable manner (in the opinion of the Calculation Agent, acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner), then the Delivery Date will be the first date on which settlement of a sale of the Reference Assets comprising the Reference Asset Amount executed on that eighth Clearing System Business Day customarily would take place using such other commercially reasonable manner of delivery (which other manner of delivery will be deemed the Relevant Clearing System for the purposes of delivery of the relevant Reference Asset Amount), and (ii) if such Reference Asset Amount cannot be delivered in any other commercially reasonable manner (in the opinion of the Calculation Agent, acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner), then the Delivery Date will be postponed until delivery can be effected through the Relevant Clearing System or in any other commercially reasonable manner.

b) Application of Settlement Disruption Event in respect of Securities referencing a basket of Shares

Where the Securities relate to a basket of Shares, if as a result of a Settlement Disruption Event some but not all of the Shares comprised in the basket of Shares are affected, the Delivery Date for Shares not affected by the Settlement Disruption Event will be the original Delivery Date and the Delivery Date for the Shares that are affected by the Settlement Disruption Event shall be determined as provided above. In the event that a Settlement Disruption Event will result in the delivery on a Delivery Date of some but not all of the Shares comprised in a basket of Shares, the Calculation Agent shall determine the appropriate pro rata portion of the amount payable to be paid to each Holder in respect of that partial settlement (provided that the obligation to make any such payment, including the date on which such payment is made and whether such payment is made, shall be subject to General Condition 13 (Payment Disruption)).

c) No liability for delayed settlement

A Holder shall not be entitled to any payment, whether of interest or otherwise, on the Security in the event of any delay in the delivery of the Reference Asset Amount pursuant to this General Condition 14.6 and no liability in respect thereof shall attach to the Issuer or the Delivery Agent.

d) Disruption Cash Settlement Price

For so long as delivery of the Reference Asset Amount is not practicable by reason of a Settlement Disruption Event pursuant to the terms of this General Condition 14.6, then notwithstanding that Physical Settlement is specified to be applicable in the relevant Pricing Supplement, or any other provision hereof, the Issuer may elect in its reasonable commercial discretion to satisfy its obligations in respect of the relevant Security by payment to the relevant Holder of the Disruption Cash Settlement Price not later than on the third Clearing System Business Day following the date that the notice of such election is given to the Holders in accordance with General Condition 25 (Notices) (provided that the obligation to make any such payment, including the date on which such payment is made and whether such payment is made, shall be subject to the provisions of General Condition 13 (Payment Disruption)). Payment of the relevant Disruption Cash Settlement Price will be made (i) in such manner as shall be notified to the Holders in accordance with General Condition 25 (Notices) or (ii) in respect of Securities which are represented by a Global Security or Swiss Securities issued in uncertificated form and if practicable, to the Relevant Clearing System for the credit of the account of the relevant accountholder in the Relevant Clearing System.

e) Intervening Period

If during the period of time after the Interest Payment Date, Coupon Payment Date, Settlement Date or Maturity Date, as the case may be, and the Delivery Date (the "Intervening Period"), the Issuer or any subsidiary or affiliate of the Issuer or any other entity acting on behalf of the Issuer is the legal owner of any securities that may comprise a part of any Reference Assets whether owned in connection with such entity's hedge of its obligations, directly or indirectly, under the Securities or otherwise held in its normal course of business, neither the Issuer nor any of its subsidiaries or affiliates or such other entities shall be under any obligation or liability to any Holder in respect of such Reference Assets, including (i) any obligation to deliver or procure delivery to the relevant Holder or any subsequent beneficial owner of such Securities, any letter, certificate, notice, circular or any other document or payment (including any interest, dividend or any other distribution) in respect of any Reference Asset(s) whatsoever received by the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates or any such other entities in its capacity as the holder of such Reference Asset(s), (ii) any obligation to exercise or procure exercise of any or all rights (including voting rights) attaching to such Reference Asset(s) during the Intervening Period or (iii) any liability to the relevant Holder, as the case may be, or any subsequent beneficial owner of such Securities in respect of any loss or damage which the relevant Holder, as the case may be, or subsequent beneficial owner may sustain or suffer as a result, whether directly or indirectly, of that person being the legal owner of such Securities during such Intervening Period.

The Issuer may, at its option, redeem or terminate the Securities early (on giving not less than seven nor more than 30 days' irrevocable notice to the Holders (or such other notice period as may be specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement)) in the event that it determines in good faith in its sole and absolute discretion that (i) its performance of its obligations under the terms of the Securities or (ii) (if applicable) the performance by the Guarantor under the Guarantee, has become unlawful in whole or in part as a result of (x) any change in financial, political or economic conditions or currency exchange rates, or (y) compliance in good faith by the Issuer or any relevant subsidiaries or affiliates with any applicable present or future law, rule, regulation, judgement, order or directive of any governmental, administrative or judicial authority or power or in interpretation thereof (such event, a "Termination Event").

In the event of an early redemption or termination of the Securities following a Termination Event, the Issuer will cause to be paid to each Holder in respect of each such Security held by it the Early Payment Amount.

17. Taxation and Early Redemption or Termination for Taxation

17.1 Obligation to pay Additional Amounts

Subject to the deduction of any Delivery Expenses or Expenses in accordance with these General Conditions, payments of principal and interest on the Securities will be made without deduction or withholding for or on account of any present or future tax, assessment or other governmental charge, of whatever nature, imposed or levied on such payment by or within the Relevant Jurisdiction, except as required by law or under an agreement with the relevant taxing authority or in connection with an intergovernmental agreement. In that case, unless the relevant Pricing Supplement specifies "Gross Up" not to be applicable or the relevant Pricing Supplement specifies "Exclude Section 871(m) Taxes from Gross Up" to be applicable in respect of taxes imposed pursuant to Section 871(m) of the Code, the Issuer or, as the case may be, the Guarantor will, subject to certain limitations and exceptions set forth below in General Condition 17.2 (Circumstances in which Additional Amounts will not be paid), pay to a Holder of Securities such additional amounts ("Additional Amounts") as may be necessary so that every net payment by the Issuer or the Guarantor or any of their Paying Agents of principal or interest with respect to the Securities after deduction or withholding for or on account of any such present or future tax, assessment or other governmental charge on such payment imposed by or within a Relevant Jurisdiction upon such Holder (other than with respect to a Holder that is a resident of such Relevant Jurisdiction), will not be less than the amount provided for in such Securities to be then due and payable.

17.2 Circumstances in which Additional Amounts will not be paid

Neither the Issuer nor the Guarantor will be required to make any payment of Additional Amounts for or on account of:

- a) any tax, assessment or other governmental charge or withholding required by law or under an agreement with a taxing authority which would not have been so imposed but for (A) the existence of any present or former connection between such Holder (or between a fiduciary, settlor, beneficiary, member or shareholder of, or possessor of a power over, such Holder, if such Holder is an estate, a trust, a partnership or a corporation) and the Relevant Jurisdiction including, without limitation, such Holder (or such fiduciary, settlor, beneficiary, member, shareholder or possessor) being or having been present therein, being or having been a citizen or resident thereof, being or having been engaged in a trade or business therein or having had a permanent establishment therein, or (B) the failure of such Holder, any agent in the chain of custody over the payment, or the beneficial owner to comply with any certification, identification or information reporting requirements to establish entitlement to exemption from or reduction of such tax, assessment or other governmental charge;
- b) any estate, inheritance, gift, sales, transfer, personal property, or any similar tax, assessment or governmental charge;
- c) any tax, assessment or other governmental charge which is payable other than by withholding from payments of principal of or interest on such Security;
- d) in respect of any Securities issued by JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. or JPMorgan Chase & Co., any tax, assessment or other governmental charge imposed by reason of such Holder's past or present status as a personal holding company, private foundation or other tax exempt organisation, passive foreign investment company, controlled foreign corporation with respect to the United States; a dealer in securities, commodities or currency or a corporation that accumulates earnings to avoid United States federal income tax;
- e) in respect of any Rule 144A Security issued by JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. or JPMorgan Chase & Co., any U.S. withholding taxes imposed on such Security;
- f) in respect of any Security issued by JPMI, any withholding taxes imposed by the United States or a political subdivision thereof;
- g) any tax, assessment or other governmental charge which is required to be withheld by a Paying Agent from payments of principal or of interest on any Security, if such payment can be made without such withholding by at least one other Paying Agent;
- h) in respect of any Securities issued by JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. or JPMorgan Chase & Co., any tax, assessment or other governmental charge imposed by reason of (i) such Holder's past or present status as the actual or constructive owner of ten per cent. or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock of such Issuer that is entitled to vote, (ii) such Holder being a bank receiving interest described in Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code, (iii) such Holder being a controlled foreign corporation that is treated as a "related person" (within the meaning of the Code) with respect to the Issuer, or (iv) such Holder being within a foreign country in which the United States Secretary of the Treasury determines that the exchange of information between the United States and such foreign country is inadequate under Section 871(h)(6) of the Code to permit the interest paid to such person to constitute portfolio interest under either Section 871(h) or Section 881(c) of the Code;
- i) in respect of any Securities, any tax, assessment, or other governmental charge payable by a Holder, or by a third party on behalf of a Holder, who is liable for such taxes, assessments or governmental charges in respect of any Security by reason of the Holder or the third party's having some connection with the Relevant Jurisdiction other than the mere holding of the Security;

- j) any tax assessment, or other governmental charge payable by way of withholding or deduction by a Holder, or by a third party on behalf of a Holder, who could lawfully avoid (but has not so avoided) such deduction or withholding by complying or procuring that any third party complies with any statutory requirements or by making or procuring that any third party makes a declaration of non-residence or other similar claim for exemption to any tax authority in the place where the relevant Security (or the registered certificate representing it) is presented for payment;
- k) the presentation (where presentation is required) of a Security for payment on a date more than ten days after the Relevant Date or the date on which such payment is fully provided for, whichever occurs later;
- l) where such withholding or deduction is imposed on a payment to an individual or other entity and is required to be made pursuant to European Council Directive 2003/48/EC on the taxation of savings income implementing the conclusions of the ECOFIN Council meeting of 26-27 November 2000 or any law implementing or complying with, or introduced in order to conform to, such Directive;
- m) any tax required to be withheld or deducted from a payment pursuant to laws enacted by Switzerland providing for the taxation of payments according to principles similar to those laid down in the European Council Directive 2003/48/EC or in the draft legislation proposed by the Swiss Federal Council on 22 December 2010, in particular the principle to have a person other than the Issuer or Guarantor withhold or deduct tax, including, without limitation, any paying agent;
- n) any Security presented for payment by or on behalf of a Holder who would be able to avoid such withholding or deduction by presenting the relevant Security to another Paying Agent in a European Union Member State;
- o) in the case of German Securities, any taxes, duties, or other governmental charges payable by any person acting as a custodian bank or collecting agent on behalf of a Holder, or otherwise in any manner which does not constitute a deduction or withholding by the Issuer or the Guarantor (if any) from payments of principal or interest made by it;
- p) any withholding or deduction imposed, pursuant to FATCA, on payments to a Holder, beneficial owner, or any agent having custody or control over a payment made by the Issuer, Guarantor or any agent in the chain of payment;
- q) any withholding or deduction imposed under Section 871(m) of the Code, if, in the reasonable judgment of the Issuer, withholding would not have been imposed but for the Holder or beneficial owner (or a related party thereof) (a) engaging in a transaction (other than the mere purchase of the Security (whether or not in connection with the acquisition, holding or disposition of the Security)) that establishes the withholding obligation, (b) failing to take reasonable measures to secure a refund of the withholding taxes to which it is entitled or (c) failing to establish an exemption or reduced rate of withholding, including, under the benefits of an applicable treaty; or
- r) any combination of the above (as applicable),

nor shall Additional Amounts be paid with respect to a payment of principal or interest on any Security to a Holder that is not the beneficial owner of such Security to the extent that the beneficial owner thereof would not have been entitled to the payment of such Additional Amounts had such beneficial owner been the Holder of such Security.

17.3 Early Redemption or Termination for Taxation – FATCA

The relevant Issuer may, at its option, redeem or terminate (as applicable) some or all of the Securities (on giving not less than seven or more than 30 days' irrevocable notice to Holders (or such other notice period as may be specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement)) in the event that the Issuer determines in good faith that:

- a) it has, or there is a substantial likelihood that it will, become subject to withholding imposed on a payment made to it on account of the Issuer's inability to comply with the reporting requirements imposed by FATCA, provided that (1) such inability to comply with the reporting requirements is attributable to non-compliance by any Holder of such Securities (or a withholding agent (if any) in the chain of custody of payments made to the Holders) with the Issuer's requests for certifications, beneficial ownership information or identifying information and (2) (in the reasonable determination of the Issuer) compliance with the reporting requirements would (or there is a substantial likelihood that it would) preclude such withholding;
- b) there is a substantial likelihood that it will otherwise violate any requirement of, or an agreement entered into with a taxing authority with respect to, FATCA; or
- c) there is a substantial likelihood that the Securities will be treated, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, as being in bearer form, each such event, a "Tax Termination Event".

Upon the occurrence of a Tax Termination Event described in paragraphs (a) or (b), Securities held by compliant Holders, in addition to those held by non-compliant Holders, may be redeemed or terminated. Upon a Tax Termination Event described in paragraph (c), all of the Securities of such Series will be redeemed or terminated.

In the event of an early redemption or termination of the Securities following a Tax Termination Event, the Issuer will cause to be paid to each such Holder in respect of each such Security held by it the Early Payment Amount.

17.4 Early Redemption or Termination for Taxation – Additional Amounts/Underlying Hedge Transactions

The Securities may be redeemed or terminated (as applicable) at the option of the Issuer in whole, but not in part, at any time on giving not less than 30 nor more than 60 calendar days' notice to the Holders (which notice shall be irrevocable), at their Early Payment Amount, where:

- a) the Issuer (or the Guarantor, as the case may be) has or will (or there is a substantial likelihood that it will) become obliged to pay Additional Amounts as provided or referred to in General Condition 17.1 (Obligation to Pay Additional Amounts); or
- b) in respect of Securities issued by JPMSP or JPMBD, if "Early Redemption for Tax on Underlying Hedge Transactions" is specified as applicable in the relevant Pricing Supplement, an Underlying Hedge Entity has incurred or will (or there is a substantial likelihood that it will) incur a materially increased tax cost in performing its obligations in relation to the Underlying Hedge Transactions (including, without limitation, due to any increase in tax liability, decrease in tax benefit or other adverse effect on its tax position with respect to an Underlying Hedge Tax Jurisdiction), in each case (x) as a result of (I) any action taken by a Relevant Jurisdiction, Underlying Hedge Tax Jurisdiction or any political subdivision or any authority thereof or therein having power to tax or brought in a court of competent jurisdiction on or after the Issue Date; or (II) the proposal, adoption, finalisation or expiration of any laws, regulations, or administrative guidance of a Relevant Jurisdiction, Underlying Hedge Tax Jurisdiction or any political subdivision or any authority thereof or therein having power to tax, or any change in, or amendment to (or proposed change or amendment to) proposed or final laws, regulations, or administrative guidance, or any change in the application or official interpretation of proposed or final laws, regulations or administrative guidance (including by inaction, such as the failure to finalise proposed regulations or administrative guidance), which proposal, adoption, finalisation, expiration, change or amendment becomes effective on or after the Issue Date or with respect to payments made on or after the Issue Date; and (y) such obligation or tax cost cannot be avoided by the Issuer, Guarantor or Underlying Hedge Entity (as applicable) taking reasonable measures available to it,

PROVIDED THAT the Securities may be redeemed by giving less than 30 calendar days' or more than 60 calendar days' notice to the Holders (which notice shall be irrevocable) if compliance with the 30 calendar day minimum or 60 calendar day maximum notice period would (or there is a substantial likelihood that compliance would) cause the Issuer or Guarantor (as applicable) to become obligated to pay Additional Amounts or cause an Underlying Hedge Entity to incur a materially increased tax cost in performing its obligations in relation to the Securities.

Before the publication of any notice of redemption pursuant to this General Condition 17.4, the Issuer shall deliver to the Relevant Programme Agent a certificate duly signed by the Issuer stating that the Issuer is entitled to effect such redemption and setting forth a statement of facts showing that the conditions precedent to the right of the Issuer so to redeem have occurred, and an opinion of independent legal advisers of recognised standing to the effect that the Issuer (or the Guarantor, as the case may be) has or will (or there is a substantial likelihood that it will) become obliged to pay Additional Amounts or that an Underlying Hedge Entity has incurred or will (or there is a substantial likelihood that it will) incur a materially increased tax cost in performing its obligations in relation to the Underlying Hedge Transactions, in each case as a result of such action, proposal, adoption, finalisation, expiration, change, or amendment.

For the purposes of this General Condition 17.4, the term "Relevant Jurisdiction" shall also include any jurisdiction that enters into an intergovernmental agreement with the United States in furtherance of FATCA.

The Agency Agreement contains provisions permitting any entity into which an Agent is merged or converted or with which it is consolidated as to which it transfers all or substantially all of its assets to become the successor agent.

Notice of any such change or any change of any specified office shall promptly be given to the Holders of the affected Securities in accordance with General Condition 25 (Notices).

19. Calculation Agent, Determination, Disclaimer of Liability and other terms

19.1 Status of Calculation Agent

The Calculation Agent acts solely as agent of the Issuer and the Guarantor and does not assume any obligations or duty to, or relationship of agency or trust for or with, any Holder. In making any determination or exercising any discretion, the Calculation Agent is not obliged to consider the interests of any Holder.

19.2 Standard of care

Any matter that falls to be determined, considered or otherwise decided upon by the Calculation Agent or any other person (including, where a matter is to be decided by reference to the Calculation Agent's or such other person's opinion), shall be decided upon by the Calculation Agent or such other person as the case may be in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner (unless otherwise explicitly provided), taking into account any market factors and other factors as the Calculation Agent or such other person deems relevant including, without limitation, the cost of unwinding any hedge or related underlying position of the Issuer or its affiliates in respect of its obligations under the Securities.

19.3 Disclaimer of liability

No liability shall attach to the Calculation Agent, any of the Holders, the Issuer, the Guarantor or the other Agents for good faith errors or omissions in the Calculation Agent's calculations and determinations as provided in the Conditions of the Securities, whether caused by negligence or otherwise, and no liability shall attach to any of the Issuer or the Guarantor or any of the other Agents for any calculation or determination made by the Calculation Agent in respect of the Securities.

19.4 Delegation

The calculation functions and other discretionary actions (including, but not limited to duties to make determinations) required of the Calculation Agent may be delegated to any such person as the Calculation Agent, in its sole and absolute discretion, may decide.

19.5 Calculations and determinations all binding

All calculations and determinations made by the Calculation Agent in respect of the Securities shall be final and binding on the Issuer and Holders in the absence of manifest error.

19.6 Two or more Calculation Agents

Where more than one Calculation Agent is appointed in respect of the Securities, references in these General Conditions to the Calculation Agent shall be construed as each Calculation Agent performing its respective duties under the Conditions of the Securities.

19.7 Replacement of Calculation Agent

If the Calculation Agent is unable to act as such or if the Calculation Agent fails duly to establish any rate or any amount, whether in cash or in kind, specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement, to make any other required determination or to comply with any of its other obligations, the Issuer shall appoint a leading bank or investment banking firm engaged in the interbank market (or, if appropriate, money, swap or over-the-counter options market) that is most closely connected with the calculation or determination to be made by the Calculation Agent (acting through its principal London office or any other office actively involved in such market) to act as such in its place provided that if an Event of Default specified in General Condition 15.1c), d), e) or f) (as applicable) has occurred with respect to the Issuer, the Holders may appoint such a replacement in accordance with General Condition 22.1c)(i) (Majority Consent) in respect of Securities other than German Securities, and General Condition 22.1e) (Modification of German Securities with Holder consent) in respect of German Securities.

20. European Monetary Union

20.1 Redenomination of Notes

Where "Redenomination, Renominalisation and Reconventioning Provisions" is specified to be applicable in the relevant Pricing Supplement, the Issuer may, without the consent of the Holders on giving prior notice to the Relevant Programme Agent, any Relevant Clearing System and at least 30 days' prior notice to the Holders in accordance with General Condition 25 (Notices), elect that, with effect from the Redenomination Date specified in the notice, the Notes shall be redenominated in euro.

The election will have effect as follows:

- a) the Notes shall be deemed to be redenominated in euro in the denomination of euro 0.01 with a nominal amount for each Note equal to the nominal amount of that Note in the Specified Currency, converted into euro at the Established Rate, provided that, if the Issuer determines that the then market practice in respect of the redenomination in euro of internationally offered securities is different from the provisions specified above, such provisions shall be deemed to be amended so as to comply with such market practice and the Issuer shall promptly notify the Holders, the stock exchange (if any) on which the Notes may be listed and the Paying Agents of such deemed amendments;
- b) save to the extent that an Exchange Notice has been given in accordance with paragraph (d), the amount of interest due in respect of the Notes will be calculated by reference to the aggregate nominal amount of Notes presented for payment by the relevant Holder and the amount of such payment shall be rounded down to the nearest euro 0.01;
- c) if Notes in definitive form are required to be issued after the Redenomination Date, they shall be issued at the expense of the Issuer in the denominations of euro 1,000, euro 10,000, euro 100,000 and (but only to the extent of any remaining amounts less than euro 1,000 or such smaller denominations as the Relevant Programme Agent may approve) euro 0.01 and such other denominations as the Relevant Programme Agent shall determine and notify to the Holders;
- d) if issued prior to the Redenomination Date, the payment obligations of all Notes will become void with effect from the date on which the Issuer gives notice (the "Exchange Notice") that replacement euro-denominated Notes are available for exchange (provided that such securities are so available) and no payments will be made in respect of them, although those Notes will continue to constitute valid exchange obligations of the Issuer. New euro-denominated Notes will be issued in exchange for Notes denominated in the Specified Currency in such manner as the Relevant Programme Agent may specify and as shall be notified to the Holders in the Exchange Notice. No Exchange Notice may be given less than 15 days prior to any date for payment of principal or interest on the Notes;

- e) after the Redenomination Date, all payments in respect of the Notes other than payments of interest in respect of periods commencing before the Redenomination Date, will be made solely in euro as though references in the Notes to the Specified Currency were to euro. Payments will be made in euro by credit or transfer to a euro account (or any other account to which euro may be credited or transferred) specified by the payee or, at the option of the payee, by a euro cheque;
- f) if the Notes are Fixed Rate Notes and interest for any period ending on or after the Redenomination Date is required to be calculated for a period ending other than on an Interest Payment Date, it will be calculated:
 - (i) in the case of the Notes represented by a Global Note, by applying the Rate of Interest to the aggregate outstanding nominal amount of the Notes represented by such Global Note; and
 - (ii) in the case of Notes in definitive form, by applying the Rate of Interest to the Specified Denomination, and, in each case, multiplying such sum by the applicable Day Count Fraction, and rounding the resultant figure to the nearest sub-unit of the relevant Specified Currency, half of any such sub-unit being rounded upwards or otherwise in accordance with applicable market convention;

- g) if the Notes are Notes other than Floating Rate Notes, the relevant Pricing Supplement will specify any relevant changes to the provisions relating to interest; and
- h) such other changes shall be made to this General Condition 20.1 as the Issuer may decide, after consultation with the Relevant Programme Agent, and as may be specified in the notice, to conform it to conventions applicable to instruments denominated in euro.

20.2 Adjustments to Warrants or Certificates for European Monetary Union

The Issuer may, without the consent of the Holders, on giving notice to the Holders in accordance with General Condition 25 (Notices):

- a) elect that, with effect from the Adjustment Date specified in the notice, certain terms of the Warrants or, as the case may be, the Certificates shall be redenominated in euro.

The election will have effect as follows:

- (i) where the Specified Currency of the Warrants or, as the case may be, Certificates is the National Currency Unit of a country which is participating in the third stage of European Economic and Monetary Union, such Specified Currency shall be deemed to be an amount of euro converted from the original Specified Currency into euro at the Established Rate, subject to such provisions (if any) as to rounding as the Calculation Agent may decide and as may be specified in the notice, and after the Adjustment Date, all payments of the Settlement Amount in respect of the Warrants or the Redemption Amount in respect of Certificates, as the case may be, will be made solely in euro as though references in the Warrants or Certificates, as the case may be, to the Specified Currency were to euro; and
 - (ii) such other changes shall be made to these General Conditions as the Issuer may decide, in its reasonable commercial discretion to conform them to conventions then applicable to instruments expressed in euro; and/or
- b) require that the Calculation Agent make such adjustments to the exercise, settlement, payment and/or any other terms of these General Conditions as the Calculation Agent, in its reasonable commercial discretion, may determine to be appropriate to preserve the economic terms of the Warrants or, as the case may be, Certificates following implementation of the third stage of European Economic and Monetary Union.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither the Issuer, any of its affiliates or agents, the Calculation Agent nor any Relevant Programme Agent shall be liable to any Holder or other person for any commissions, costs, losses or expenses in relation to or resulting from the transfer of euro or any currency conversion or rounding effected in connection therewith.

21. Rounding

For the purposes of any calculations required pursuant to these Conditions (unless otherwise specified in any applicable Specific Product Provision or the relevant Pricing Supplement):

- a) all percentages resulting from such calculations shall be rounded, if necessary, to the nearest one hundred-thousandth of a percentage point (with halves being rounded up);
- b) (subject to (c) below) all figures shall be rounded to the seventh decimal place (with halves being rounded up); and
- c) all currency amounts that fall due and payable shall be rounded to the nearest unit of such currency (with halves being rounded up), save in the case of yen, which shall be rounded down to the nearest yen. For these purposes "unit" means the lowest amount of such currency that is available as legal tender in the country of such currency and in the case of euro means euro 0.01.

22. Meeting of Holders and Modifications

22.1 Modifications and Waivers

a) Modification without Holder consent (Securities other than French Securities and German Securities)

The Issuer may from time to time modify and amend the Securities (other than French Securities and German Securities) (including the Conditions) or the Agency Agreement in each case without the consent of the Holders in accordance with, respectively, this General Condition 22.1a) or the Agency Agreement, in such manner as the Issuer deems necessary or desirable, if the modification or amendment:

- (i) is of a formal, minor or technical nature; or
- (ii) is made to cure a manifest or proven error; or
- (iii) is made to cure any ambiguity, or is made to correct or supplement any defective provisions of the Securities or the Agency Agreement (as applicable); or
- (iv) is made to correct an error or omission such that, in the absence of such correction, the terms of the Securities would not otherwise represent the intended terms of the Securities on which the Securities were sold and have since traded; or
- (v) will not materially and adversely affect the interests of the Holders of the Securities in respect of the Securities.

Any such modification or amendment shall take effect in accordance with its terms and be binding on the Holders and shall be notified to the Holders in accordance with General Condition 25 (Notices) as soon as practicable (but failure to give such notice, or non-receipt thereof, shall not affect the validity of such modification or amendment).

b) Modification of German Securities without Holder consent

- (i) The Issuer may in its reasonable discretion, without the consent of the Holders, correct any manifest clerical or calculation errors or similar manifest incorrectness in the Conditions. A clerical or calculation error or similar incorrectness shall be deemed manifest if a Holder who is well-informed in the relevant type of Securities is able to perceive such error, especially when taking into account the Issue Price and the further factors that determine the value of the Securities. Any corrections within the meaning of this paragraph (i) shall be effective and binding upon notification to the Holders in accordance with General Condition 25 (Notices).

- (ii) In addition, the Issuer may, without the consent of the Holders, amend or supplement in its reasonable discretion (billiges Ermessen, Section 315 of the German Civil Code ("BGB")) any contradictory or incomplete provisions of the Conditions, provided that only amendments and supplements which are reasonably acceptable to the Holder having regard to its interests shall be permitted, i.e. those which do not materially prejudice the interests of the Holders or which, when read together with the other information included in the Offering Circular dated 3 May 2013 of the Issuer and other J.P. Morgan affiliates relating to the Programme (as supplemented from time to time) and the relevant Pricing Supplement, are manifest within the meaning of paragraph (i). Any corrections within the meaning of this paragraph (ii) shall be effective and binding upon notification to the Holders in accordance with General Condition 25 (Notices).
 - (iii) In the event of a correction pursuant to paragraph (i) or an amendment or supplement pursuant to paragraph (ii), that adversely affects the Holder, such Holder may terminate its Securities with immediate effect by written termination notice to the Relevant Programme Agent at any time during the period of six weeks following notification of such correction, amendment or supplement. In the notice pursuant to paragraph (i) or paragraph (ii), as applicable, the Issuer shall advise the Holder of its potential termination right at the Early Payment Amount. The termination by the Holder requires the following to be effective: the receipt of a termination notice bearing a legally binding signature and (A) the transfer of the Securities to the account of the Relevant Programme Agent or (B) the irrevocable instruction to the Relevant Programme Agent to withdraw the Securities from a securities account maintained with the Relevant Programme Agent (by transfer posting or assignment), in each case within such six-week period. The termination notice must contain the following information: (A) the name of the Holder, (B) the designation and number of the Securities terminated, and (C) a specification of the bank account to which the Early Payment Amount shall be credited. The termination date for the purposes of this paragraph (iii) shall be the day on which the termination notice or the Securities is/are received by the Relevant Programme Agent, whichever occurs later.
 - (iv) Notwithstanding paragraphs (i) and (ii), the Issuer may call the Securities for redemption in whole, but not in part, by giving notice in accordance with General Condition 25 (Notices) if the conditions for avoidance pursuant to Section 119 et seq. BGB are fulfilled in relation to the Holders. The termination date for the purposes of this paragraph (iv) shall be the day on which the notice is given. Notice of termination must be given immediately after the Issuer has gained knowledge of the reason for termination.
 - (v) If an effective termination pursuant to paragraphs (iii) or (iv) has been made, the Issuer will pay the Early Payment Amount per Security to the Holders. The Issuer shall transfer the Early Payment Amount to the Relevant Clearing System for the credit of the account of the relevant holder in the Relevant Clearing System or, in case of termination by the Holder, to the account specified in the termination notice. The provisions of General Condition 12.2 (Payments on Payment Days) shall apply mutatis mutandis. Upon payment of the Early Payment Amount, all rights arising from the surrendered Securities shall be extinguished. The foregoing shall not affect any rights of the Holder to claim damages (Ersatz eines Vertrauensschadens) pursuant to Section 122 para. 1 BGB unless such claims are excluded due to knowledge or negligent lack of knowledge of the reason of termination on the part of the Holder pursuant to Section 122 para. 2 BGB.
 - (vi) The provisions of the BGB on the interpretation (Auslegung) and avoidance (Anfechtung) of declarations of intent shall remain unaffected. This General Condition 22.1b) shall be without prejudice to any avoidance rights which a Holder may have under general provisions of law.
- c) Modification and waiver with Holder consent (Securities other than French Securities and German Securities)

This General Condition 22.1c) shall not apply to French Securities and German Securities.

- (i) Majority Consent: Subject as provided in paragraph (ii) below (and in each case subject to the consent of the Issuer and the Guarantor (if any)), in order to modify and amend the Agency Agreement and the Securities (including the General Conditions), or to waive past Issuer defaults, a resolution in writing signed by the Holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Securities at the time outstanding or Holders of a majority in number, or of such lesser percentage as may attend and vote at a meeting of Holders of the Securities held in accordance with the Agency Agreement shall be required.
- (ii) Consent by Extraordinary Resolution: Any modification which will:
 - (A) extend the stated maturity of the principal of or any instalment of interest on any such Security or extend the date for expiration, settlement or payment of any coupon in relation to such Security;
 - (B) reduce the principal amount, redemption price of, or settlement price of, or interest on (as applicable), any such Security;
 - (C) change the obligation of the Issuer to pay Additional Amounts;
 - (D) change the currency of payment of such Security or interest thereon;
 - (E) impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or with respect to any such Security;
 - (F) reduce the percentage in aggregate principal amount of Securities outstanding necessary to modify or amend the Agency Agreement, or to waive any past default; or
 - (G) reduce the voting or quorum requirements or the percentage of aggregate principal amount, redemption price or settlement price of Securities outstanding (in the case of Notes) or number held (in the case of Warrants or Certificates) required to take any other action authorised to be taken by the Holders of a specified principal amount (in the case of Notes) or number held (in the case of Warrants or Certificates) of Securities, may only be made if sanctioned by an Extraordinary Resolution. A resolution in writing signed or electronically approved using the systems and procedures in place from time to time of a Relevant Clearing System by or on behalf of 75 per cent. or more of Holders of Securities, by reference to their original aggregate principal amount (in the case of Notes) or the number of Securities outstanding (in the case of Warrants and Certificates), who for the time being are entitled to receive notice of a meeting shall for all purposes be as valid and effective as an Extraordinary Resolution passed at a meeting of the Holders of the Securities. Such resolution in writing may be contained in one document or in several documents in like form each signed by or on behalf of one or more of the relevant Holders of Securities or may be in the form of SWIFT or other electronic instructions as permitted by the rules and procedures of the Relevant Clearing System, and in each case the date of such resolution shall be the date that such 75 per cent. majority is reached.

d) Modification of French Securities

The Issuer may from time to time amend the Conditions of any French Notes in accordance with General Condition 22.3 (Meetings of Holders of French Notes (Masse)) and of French Securities other than French Notes in accordance with General Condition 22.4 (Meeting of Holders of French Securities (other than French Notes)).

e) Modification of German Securities with Holder consent

- (i) In accordance with the German Bond Act of 2009 (Schuldverschreibungsgesetz – "SchVG") and the provisions set out in the Appendix (Provisions regarding Resolutions of Holders of German Securities) to the General Conditions, the Holders may agree, by resolution with the majority specified in paragraph (ii), with the Issuer on amendments of the Conditions with regard to matters permitted by the SchVG. Majority resolutions shall be binding on all Holders. Resolutions which do not provide for identical conditions for all Holders shall be void, unless Holders who are disadvantaged have expressly consented to their being treated disadvantageously.

- (ii) Resolutions relating to material amendments to the Conditions, in particular consents to the measures set out in Section 5 paragraph 3, no. 1 to 9 of the SchVG, shall be passed by a majority of not less than 75 per cent. of the votes cast. Resolutions relating to amendments of the Conditions which are not material, require a simple majority of the votes cast. Each Holder participating in any vote shall cast votes in accordance with the nominal amount or the notional share of its entitlement to the outstanding Securities.
- (iii) All votes will be taken exclusively by vote taken without a meeting (Abstimmung ohne Versammlung) in accordance with Section 18 of the SchVG. A meeting of Holders and the assumption of the fees by the Issuer for such a meeting will only take place in the circumstances of Section 18 paragraph 4 sentence 2 of the SchVG.
- (iv) The vote will be chaired by a notary appointed by the Issuer or, if the Joint Representative (as defined below) has convened the vote, by the Joint Representative.
- (v) If no Joint Representative is designated in the relevant Pricing Supplement, the Holders may by majority resolution appoint a common representative (the "Joint Representative") to exercise the rights of the Holders on behalf of each Holder.

In all other cases, the common representative of the Holders shall be the Joint Representative appointed as such in the relevant Pricing Supplement. The liability of the Joint Representative shall be limited to ten times the amount of its annual remuneration, unless the Joint Representative has acted wilfully or with gross negligence.

The Joint Representative shall have the duties and powers conveyed by law or granted by majority resolution of the Holders. The Joint Representative shall comply with the instructions of the Holders. To the extent that the Joint Representative has been authorised to assert rights of Holders, the Holders shall not be entitled to assert such rights themselves, unless explicitly provided for in the relevant majority resolution. The Joint Representative shall provide reports to the Holders on its activities. The regulations of the SchVG apply with regard to the removal and the other rights and obligations of the Joint Representative.

- (vi) In the case of Securities issued by JPMSP or JPMBD, the provisions set out above applicable to the Securities shall apply mutatis mutandis to the Guarantee of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N. A. or JPMorgan Chase & Co., respectively.

22.2 Meetings of Holders (other than Holders of French Securities and German Securities)

The Agency Agreement contains provisions for convening meetings of Holders to consider matters affecting their interests, including the sanctioning by Extraordinary Resolution of a modification of any of these General Conditions or any provisions of the Agency Agreement, as applicable. Such a meeting may be convened by the Issuer (either at its own instigation or on the request of Holders holding at least ten per cent. in aggregate principal amount (in the case of Notes) or number held (in the case of Warrants or Certificates) of Securities outstanding). At a meeting of the Holders of the Securities for the purpose of approving a modification or amendment to, or obtaining a waiver of, any covenant, Condition, Specific Product Provision or the Agency Agreement, the Holders of a clear majority in aggregate principal amount (in the case of Notes) or number held (in the case of Warrants or Certificates) at the time outstanding shall constitute a quorum. In the absence of a quorum at any such meeting, within 30 minutes of the time appointed for such meeting, the meeting may be adjourned for a period of not less than ten days; in the absence of a quorum at any such adjourned meeting, such adjourned meeting may be further adjourned for a period of not less than ten days; at the reconvening of any meeting further adjourned for lack of a quorum, the persons entitled to 25 per cent. in aggregate principal amount (in the case of Notes) or number held (in the case of Warrants or Certificates) of the Securities at the time outstanding shall constitute a quorum for the taking of any action set forth in the notice of the original meeting. At a meeting or an adjourned meeting duly convened and at which a quorum is present as aforesaid, any resolution to modify or amend the Conditions or any provisions of the Agency Agreement (other than those items specified in General Condition 22.1c)(ii)(A) to 22.1c)(ii)(G), or to waive compliance with, any of the Conditions shall be effectively passed if passed by the persons entitled to the lesser of (i) a clear majority in aggregate principal amount (in the case of Notes) or number held (in the case of Warrants or Certificates) of the Securities then outstanding or (ii) 75 per cent. in aggregate principal amount (in the case of Notes) or number held (in the case of Warrants or Certificates) of the Securities represented and voting at the meeting.

22.3 Meetings of Holders of French Notes (Masse)

- (i) If the Pricing Supplement specifies "Not Applicable" with respect to "Representation of Holders of Notes / Masse", the Holders will not, in respect of all Tranches in any Series, be grouped for the defence of their common interests in a masse (in each case, the "Masse") and the provisions of this General Condition 22.3 and the provisions of the French Code de commerce relating to the Masse shall not apply.
- (ii) If the Pricing Supplement specifies "General Condition 22.3 replaced by the full provisions of French Code de commerce relating to the Masse" with respect to "Representation of Holders of Notes / Masse", the Holders will, in respect of all Tranches in any Series, be grouped automatically for the defence of their common interests in a Masse in accordance with the full provisions of the French Code de commerce relating to the Masse.
- (iii) If the Pricing Supplement specifies "Applicable" with respect to "Representation of Holders of Notes / Masse", Holders of French Notes will, in respect of all Tranches in any Series, be grouped automatically for the defence of their common interests in a Masse in accordance with this General Condition 22.3. The Masse will be governed by the provisions of the French Code de commerce relating to the Masse (with the exception of the provisions of Articles L. 228-48, L. 228-59, R. 228-63, R. 228-67, and R. 228-69 thereof) as summarised and supplemented by the conditions set forth below.

b) Legal Personality

The Masse will be a separate legal entity and will act in part through a representative (the "Representative") and in part through a general meeting of the Holders (the "General Meeting").

The Masse alone, to the exclusion of all individual Holders, shall exercise the common rights, actions and benefits which now or in the future may accrue respectively with respect to the French Notes.

c) Representative

The office of Representative may be conferred on a person of any nationality who agrees to perform such a function.

However, the following persons may not be chosen as Representatives:

- (i) the Issuer, the members of its Board of Directors (Conseil d'administration), their Supervisory Board (Conseil de surveillance), its general managers (directeurs généraux), its statutory auditors, its employees as well as its ascendants, descendants and spouse; or
- (ii) the Guarantor, and more generally companies guaranteeing all or part of the obligations of the Issuer, their respective managers (gérants), general managers (directeurs généraux), members of their Board of Directors (Conseil d'administration), Executive Board (Directoire), or Supervisory Board (Conseil de surveillance), their statutory auditors, or employees as well as their ascendants, descendants and spouse; or
- (iii) companies holding ten per cent. or more of the share capital of the Issuer or companies having ten per cent. or more of their share capital held by the Issuer; or
- (iv) persons to whom the practice of banker is forbidden or who have been deprived of the right of directing, administering or managing an enterprise in whatever capacity.

The names and addresses of the initial Representative of the Masse and its alternate will be set out in the relevant Pricing Supplement. The Representative appointed in respect of the first Tranche of any Series of Notes will be the Representative of the single Masse of all Tranches in such Series.

The Representative will be entitled to such remuneration in connection with its functions or duties as set out in the relevant Pricing Supplement.

In the event of death, retirement or revocation of appointment of the Representative, such Representative will be replaced by another Representative. In the event of death, retirement or revocation of appointment of the alternate Representative, an alternate will be elected by the General Meeting.

All interested parties will at all times have the right to obtain the names and addresses of the Representative and the alternate Representative at the head office of the Issuer and the specified offices of any of the Relevant Programme Agents.

d) Powers of Representative

The Representative shall (in the absence of any decision to the contrary of the General Meeting) have the power to take all acts of management necessary in order to defend the common interest of the Holders.

All legal proceedings against the Holders or initiated by them, must be brought by or against the Representative.

The Representative may not be involved in the management of the affairs of the Issuer.

e) General Meeting

As further set out in General Condition 22.3j), a General Meeting may be held at any time, on convocation by, in particular, the Issuer or the Representative. One or more Holders of French Notes, holding together at least one-thirtieth of the principal amount of the French Notes outstanding, may address to the Issuer and the Representative a demand for convocation of the General Meeting.

Notice of the date, time, place and agenda of any General Meeting will be published as provided under General Condition 25.4 (Notices to Holders of French Securities).

Each Holder of French Notes has the right to participate in a General Meeting in person, by proxy, correspondence, or, if the articles of incorporation of the Issuer so specify, videoconference or any other means of telecommunication allowing the identification of the participating Holders of French Notes. Each French Note carries the right to one vote, in the case of French Notes issued with more than one Specified Denomination, one vote in respect of each multiple of the lowest Specified Denomination comprised in the principal amount of the Specified Denomination of such French Note.

f) Powers of the General Meetings

The General Meeting is empowered to deliberate on the dismissal and replacement of the Representative and the alternate Representative and also may act with respect to any other matter that relates to the common rights, actions and benefits which now or in the future may accrue with respect to the French Notes, including authorising the Representative to act at law as plaintiff or defendant.

The General Meeting may further deliberate on any proposal relating to the modification of the Conditions including any proposal, whether for arbitration or settlement, relating to rights in controversy or which were the subject of judicial decisions, it being specified, however, that the General Meeting may not increase amounts payable by Holders of French Notes, nor establish any unequal treatment between the Holders of French Notes, nor decide to convert French Notes into shares, except in accordance with Article L. 228-106 of the French Code de commerce.

General Meetings may deliberate validly on first convocation only if Holders of French Notes present or represented hold at least a fifth of the principal amount of the French Notes then outstanding. On second convocation, no quorum shall be required. Decisions at meetings shall be taken by a two-third majority of votes cast by Holders of French Notes attending such General Meetings or represented thereat.

In accordance with Article R. 228-71 of the French Code de commerce, the rights of each Holder of French Notes to participate in General Meetings will be evidenced by the entries in the books of the relevant Euroclear France Account Holder of the name of such Holders of French Notes on the third business day in Paris preceding the date set for the meeting of the relevant General Meeting at 0:00, Paris time.

Decisions of General Meetings must be published in accordance with the provisions set forth in General Condition 25.4 (Notices to Holders of French Securities).

g) Information to Holders

Each Holder or Representative thereof will have the right, during the 15-day period preceding the holding of each General Meeting, to consult or make a copy of the text of the resolutions which will be proposed and of the reports which will be presented at the General Meeting, all of which will be available for inspection by the relevant Holders at the registered office of the Issuer, at the specified offices of any of the Relevant Programme Agent during usual business hours and at any other place specified in the notice of the General Meeting.

h) Expenses

The Issuer will pay all expenses relating to the operation of the Masse, including expenses relating to the calling and holding of General Meetings and, more generally, all administrative expenses resolved upon by the General Meeting, it being expressly stipulated that no expenses may be imputed against interest payable under the French Notes.

i) Single Masse

The Holders of French Notes of the same Series, and the Holders of French Notes of any other Tranche which have been consolidated (assimilées) with the French Notes of another Series in accordance with General Condition 24 (Further Issues), shall, for the defence of their respective common interests, be grouped in a single Masse. The Representative appointed in respect of the first Tranche of any Series of French Notes will be the Representative of the single Masse of all such Series.

j) Convening of the General Meeting

The General Meeting shall be convened in accordance with Article L. 228-58 et seq. of the French Code de commerce, i.e. (without prejudice to any law change subsequent to the date of the Agency Agreement) by the relevant representative of the Issuer, by the Representatives of the Masse or by the liquidators or natural or physical persons performing equivalent functions during any possible winding-up or equivalent insolvency period. One or more Holder of French Notes, together holding at least one-thirtieth of the French Notes of the General Meeting, may submit to the Issuer and to the Representatives of the Masse a request for a meeting to be convened. In the latter case, if the Issuer or the relevant Representatives do not convene the Masse within two months (or within such longer or shorter period of time as may be specified from time by décret en Conseil d'Etat or otherwise), the Holder of French Notes requesting the convening of the meeting may bring legal proceedings for the appointment of a representative who shall convene the meeting.

22.4 Meeting of Holders of French Securities (other than French Notes)

The Issuer may convene (either at its own instigation or on the request of Holders of French Warrants or French Certificates holding at least ten per cent. of the number of Warrants or Certificates outstanding by giving notice to Holders of French Warrants or French Certificates in accordance with General Condition 25 (Notices)) a meeting of Holders of French Warrants and French Certificates under French law for the purpose of approving a modification or amendment to, or obtaining a waiver of, any covenant, General Condition or Specific Product Provision. The Holders of a clear majority of the number of French Warrants or French Certificates held at the time outstanding shall constitute a quorum. In the absence of a quorum at any such meeting, within 30 minutes of the time appointed for such meeting, the meeting may be adjourned for a period of not less than ten days; in the absence of a quorum at any such adjourned meeting, such adjourned meeting may be further adjourned for a period of not less than ten days; at the reconvening of any meeting further adjourned for lack of a quorum, the persons entitled to hold 25 per cent. of the number of French Warrants or French Certificates outstanding shall constitute a quorum for the taking of any action set forth in the notice of the original meeting. At a meeting or an adjourned meeting duly convened and at which a quorum is present as aforesaid, any resolution to modify or amend the Conditions, or to waive compliance with, any of the Conditions shall be effectively passed if passed by the persons entitled to the lesser of (i) a clear majority of the number of French Warrants or French Certificates then outstanding or (ii) 75 per cent. of the number of French Warrants or French Certificates represented and voting at the meeting.

In addition, a resolution in writing signed by or on behalf of all Holders of French Warrants or French Certificates who are for the time being entitled to receive notice of a meeting of Holders of French Warrants or French Certificates will take effect as if it were an Extraordinary Resolution. Such a resolution in writing may be contained in one document or in several documents in the same form, each signed by or on behalf of one or more Holders of French Warrants or French Certificates.

23. Purchase and Cancellation

23.1 Purchase

The Issuer, the Guarantor in respect of Securities issued by JPMSP, JPMBD or JPMI, and any of their subsidiaries or affiliates may at any time purchase Securities. Purchases may be made at any price in the open market or by tender or private treaty. Any Securities so purchased may be held or resold or surrendered for cancellation, other than French Securities which must be surrendered for cancellation, except if the French Securities are purchased in accordance with and fulfil the requirements of Article L. 213-1A of the French Code monétaire et financier. In the latter case, the French Securities may be held for a maximum period of one year after their purchase and shall be cancelled at the expiry of such period.

23.2 Cancellation

The obligations of the Issuer and the Guarantor (if any) in respect of Securities surrendered for cancellation shall be discharged following redemption and cancellation of the Securities by the Issuer (together, in the case of Registered Securities in definitive form, by surrendering the registered certificate representing such Securities to the Registrar). French Securities shall be cancelled by being transferred to an account in accordance with the rules of procedures of Euroclear France.

24. Further Issues

The relevant Issuer may from time to time without the consent of the Holders create and issue further securities of any Series or Tranche, having the same terms and conditions as the relevant Securities (with the exception of the first Interest Payment Date, the first Coupon Payment Date and the Issue Price of the further securities) (so that, for the avoidance of doubt, references in the conditions of such securities to "Issue Date" shall be to the first issue date of the Securities) and so that the same shall be consolidated (with respect to French Securities, assimilées) and form a single series with the applicable Securities of that Series or Tranche and references in these General Conditions to "Securities" shall be construed accordingly.

25. Notices

25.1 Notices to the Holders of Registered Securities in definitive form

Notices to the Holders of Registered Securities in definitive form shall be mailed to them at their respective addresses in the Register and deemed to have been given on the fourth weekday (being a day other than a Saturday or a Sunday) after the date of mailing.

25.2 Notices to Holders of interests in Global Securities

For Global Securities representing the Securities that are held in their entirety on behalf of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, Clearstream Frankfurt, Euroclear France or DTC notices to the Holders of the Securities may be made by delivery of the relevant notice to Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, Clearstream Frankfurt, Euroclear France or DTC for communication by them to the Holders of the Securities. Any such notice shall be deemed to have been given to the Holders of the Securities on the day after the day on which such notice was given to Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, Clearstream Frankfurt, Euroclear France or DTC.

25.3 Notices to Holders of Swiss Securities that are not listed on the SIX Swiss Exchange

Notices to Holders of interests in Swiss Securities that are not listed on the SIX Swiss Exchange shall be validly given if published on the website or in the newspaper specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement.

25.4 Notices to Holders of French Securities

1. Consequences of Disrupted Days
 - 1.1 Single Index and Reference Dates

Where the Securities relate to a single Index, and if the Calculation Agent determines that any Reference Date is a Disrupted Day, then the Reference Date shall be the first succeeding Scheduled Trading Day in respect of the Index that the Calculation Agent determines is not a Disrupted Day, unless the Calculation Agent determines that each of the consecutive Scheduled Trading Days in respect of the Index equal in number to the Maximum Days of Disruption immediately following the Scheduled Reference Date is a Disrupted Day. In that case:

- (a) the last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in respect of the Index shall be deemed to be the Reference Date, notwithstanding the fact that such day is a Disrupted Day; and
- (b) the Calculation Agent shall determine the level of the Index as of the Valuation Time on or in respect of that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in respect of the Index in accordance with Index Linked Provision 1.5 (Formula for and method of calculating an Index level after the Maximum Days of Disruption), and such determination by the Calculation Agent pursuant to this paragraph (b) shall be deemed to be the Closing Index Level in respect of the Reference Date.

- 1.2 Single Index and Averaging Reference Dates

Where the Securities relate to a single Index, and if the Calculation Agent determines that any Averaging Reference Date is a Disrupted Day and, in the relevant Pricing Supplement the consequence specified is:

- (a) "Omission", then the Averaging Reference Date will be deemed not to be a relevant Averaging Reference Date, provided that, if through the operation of this provision there would be no Averaging Reference Dates then the sole Averaging Reference Date for the Index shall be the first succeeding Scheduled Trading Day in respect of the Index following the final Scheduled Averaging Reference Date that the Calculation Agent determines is not a Disrupted Day, unless the Calculation Agent determines that each of the consecutive Scheduled Trading Days in respect of the Index equal in number to the Maximum Days of Disruption immediately following such final Scheduled Averaging Reference Date is a Disrupted Day. In that case:
- (i) the last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in respect of the Index shall be deemed to be the sole Averaging Reference Date for the Index, notwithstanding the fact that such day is a Disrupted Day; and
 - (ii) the Calculation Agent shall determine the level of the Index as of the Valuation Time on or in respect of that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in respect of the Index in accordance with Index Linked Provision 1.5 (Formula for and method of calculating an Index level after the Maximum Days of Disruption), and such determination by the Calculation Agent pursuant to this paragraph (ii) shall be deemed to be the Closing Index Level in respect of the sole Averaging Reference Date;
- (b) "Postponement", then the Averaging Reference Date shall be the first succeeding Scheduled Trading Day in respect of the Index following the Scheduled Averaging Reference Date that the Calculation Agent determines is not a Disrupted Day (irrespective of whether that deferred Averaging Reference Date is already or is deemed to be another Averaging Reference Date), unless the Calculation Agent determines that each of the consecutive Scheduled Trading Days in respect of the Index equal in number to the Maximum Days of Disruption immediately following the Scheduled Averaging Reference Date is a Disrupted Day. In that case:
- (i) the last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in respect of the Index shall be deemed to be the Averaging Reference Date (irrespective of whether that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in respect of the Index is already or is deemed to be another Averaging Reference Date or is a Disrupted Day); and
 - (ii) the Calculation Agent shall determine the level of the Index as of the Valuation Time on or in respect of that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in respect of the Index in accordance with Index Linked Provision 1.5 (Formula for and method of calculating an Index level after the Maximum Days of Disruption), and such determination by the Calculation Agent pursuant to this paragraph (ii) shall be deemed to be the Closing Index Level in respect of the relevant Averaging Reference Date; or
- (c) "Modified Postponement", then the Averaging Reference Date shall be the first succeeding Valid Date. If the first succeeding Valid Date has not occurred as of the Valuation Time on the last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in respect of the Index equal in number to the Maximum Days of Disruption immediately following the final Scheduled Averaging Reference Date, then:
- (i) that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in respect of the Index shall be deemed to be the Averaging Reference Date (irrespective of whether that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in respect of the Index is already or is deemed to be another Averaging Reference Date or is a Disrupted Day); and
 - (ii) the Calculation Agent shall determine the level of the Index as of the Valuation Time on or in respect of that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in respect of the Index in accordance with Index Linked Provision 1.5 (Formula for and method of calculating an Index level after the Maximum Days of Disruption), and such determination by the Calculation Agent pursuant to this paragraph (ii) shall be deemed to be the Closing Index Level in respect of the relevant Averaging Reference Date.

In that case:
 - (i) the last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in respect of such Index shall be deemed to be the Reference Date for the Index, notwithstanding the fact that such day is a Disrupted Day; and
 - (ii) the Calculation Agent shall determine the level of such Index as of the Valuation Time on or in respect of that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in respect of such Index in accordance with Index Linked Provision 1.5 (Formula for and method of calculating an Index level after the Maximum Days of Disruption), and such determination by the Calculation Agent pursuant to this paragraph (ii) shall be deemed to be the relevant Closing Index Level in respect of the Reference Date.

1.4 Index Basket and Averaging Reference Dates

Where the Securities relate to a basket of Indices, and if the Calculation Agent determines that any Averaging Reference Date is a Disrupted Day and, in the relevant Pricing Supplement the consequence specified is:

- (a) "Omission", then the Averaging Reference Date will be deemed not to be an Averaging Reference Date, provided that, if through the operation of this provision there would be no Averaging Reference Dates, then:
 - (i) the sole Averaging Reference Date for each Index which the Calculation Agent determines is not affected by the occurrence of a Disrupted Day shall be the final Scheduled Averaging Reference Date; and
 - (ii) the sole Averaging Reference Date for each Index which the Calculation Agent determines is affected by the occurrence of a Disrupted Day shall be the first succeeding Scheduled Trading Day in respect of such Index following the final Scheduled Averaging Reference Date that the Calculation Agent determines is not a Disrupted Day relating to such Index, unless the Calculation Agent determines that each of the consecutive Scheduled Trading Days in respect of such Index equal in number to the Maximum Days of Disruption immediately following the final Scheduled Averaging Reference Date is a Disrupted Day relating to that Index. In that case:
 - (A) that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in respect of such Index shall be deemed to be the sole Averaging Reference Date for such Index, notwithstanding the fact that such day is a Disrupted Day; and
 - (B) the Calculation Agent shall determine the level of such Index as of the Valuation Time on or in respect of that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in respect of such Index in accordance with Index Linked Provision 1.5 (Formula for and method of calculating an Index level after the Maximum Days of Disruption), and such determination by the Calculation Agent pursuant to this paragraph (B) shall be deemed to be the relevant Closing Index Level in respect of the sole Averaging Reference Date;
- (b) "Postponement", then:

- (i) the Averaging Reference Date for each Index which the Calculation Agent determines is not affected by the occurrence of a Disrupted Day shall be the Scheduled Averaging Reference Date; and
 - (ii) the Averaging Reference Date for each Index which the Calculation Agent determines is affected by the occurrence of a Disrupted Day shall be the first succeeding Scheduled Trading Day in respect of such Index following the Scheduled Averaging Reference Date that the Calculation Agent determines is not a Disrupted Day relating to that Index (irrespective of whether that deferred Averaging Reference Date is or is deemed to be another Averaging Reference Date), unless the Calculation Agent determines that each of the consecutive Scheduled Trading Days in respect of such Index equal in number to the Maximum Days of Disruption immediately following the Scheduled Averaging Reference Date is a Disrupted Day relating to such Index. In that case:
 - (A) the last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in respect of such Index shall be deemed to be such Averaging Reference Date for the Index (irrespective of whether that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in respect of such Index is already or is deemed to be another Averaging Reference Date or is a Disrupted Day); and
 - (B) the Calculation Agent shall determine the level of such Index as of the Valuation Time on or in respect of that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in respect of such Index in accordance with Index Linked Provision 1.5 (Formula for and method of calculating an Index level after the Maximum Days of Disruption), and such determination by the Calculation Agent pursuant to this paragraph (B) shall be deemed to be the relevant Closing Index Level in respect of the relevant Averaging Reference Date; or
- (c) "Modified Postponement", then:
- (i) the Averaging Reference Date for each Index which the Calculation Agent determines is not affected by the occurrence of a Disrupted Day shall be the Scheduled Averaging Reference Date; and
 - (ii) the Averaging Reference Date for each Index which the Calculation Agent determines is affected by the occurrence of a Disrupted Day shall be the first succeeding Valid Date relating to such Index. If the first succeeding Valid Date has not occurred as of the relevant Valuation Time on the last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in respect of such Index equal in number to the Maximum Days of Disruption immediately following the final Scheduled Averaging Reference Date:
 - (A) that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in respect of such Index shall be deemed to be the Averaging Reference Date for such Index (irrespective of whether that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in respect of such Index is already or is deemed to be another Averaging Reference Date or is a Disrupted Day); and
 - (B) the Calculation Agent shall determine the relevant level of such Index as of the Valuation Time on or in respect of that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in respect of such Index in accordance with Index Linked Provision 1.5 (Formula for and method of calculating an Index level after the Maximum Days of Disruption), and such determination by the Calculation Agent pursuant to this paragraph (B) shall be deemed to be the relevant Closing Index Level in respect of the relevant Averaging Reference Date.

If the Calculation Agent determines that any Averaging Reference Date is a Disrupted Day and, if in the relevant Pricing Supplement no consequence is specified, then it shall be deemed that the consequence specified in "Modified Postponement" will apply.

1.5 Formula for and method of calculating an Index level after the Maximum Days of Disruption

The Calculation Agent shall determine the level of the Index as of the relevant Valuation Time on or in respect of the relevant last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day, pursuant to Index Linked Provisions 1.1(b), 1.2(a)(ii), 1.2(b)(ii), 1.2(c)(ii), 1.3(b)(ii), 1.4(a)(ii)(B), 1.4(b)(ii)(B) and 1.4(c)(ii)(B), in accordance with the formula for and method of calculating the Index last in effect prior to the occurrence of the relevant first Disrupted Day, using:

- (a) in respect of a Unitary Index or Multi-Exchange Index, the Exchange traded or quoted price as of the Valuation Time on the last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day of each Component comprised in the Index (or, if an event giving rise to a Share Disrupted Day has occurred in respect of any relevant Component that is a Share (or an analogous event has occurred in respect of any relevant Component that is not a Share) on such last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day for any relevant Component, or such last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day is not a Scheduled Trading Day for any relevant Component, as determined by the Calculation Agent, its good faith estimate of the value for the relevant Component as of the Valuation Time on the last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day); and
- (b) in respect of a Proprietary Index, such levels or values as the Calculation Agent determines to be appropriate as of the Valuation Time on or in respect of that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day of each Component comprised in the Index.

2. Fallback Valuation Date

Notwithstanding any other terms of the Index Linked Provisions, if a Fallback Valuation Date is specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement to be applicable to any Reference Date or Averaging Reference Date (any such date being, a "Relevant Date"), and if:

- (a) following adjustment of the original date on which such Relevant Date is scheduled to fall pursuant to adjustment of the Relevant Date pursuant to either or both of (i) Index Linked Provision 1 (Consequences of Disrupted Days) or (ii) Index Linked Provision 7 (Definitions), the Relevant Date in respect of an Index would otherwise fall after the Fallback Valuation Date in respect of the Index; or
- (b) the Maximum Days of Disruption for the Relevant Date is specified to be "Zero" or "None", then the Fallback Valuation Date shall be deemed to be the Relevant Date for the Index. If the Fallback Valuation Date is not a Scheduled Trading Day or is a Disrupted Day relating to that Index, as the case may be, then the Calculation Agent shall determine the Closing Index Level as of the Valuation Time on the Fallback Valuation Date in accordance with the formula for and method of calculating the Index last in effect prior to the occurrence of the first day that is not a Scheduled Trading Day or is a Disrupted Day, using:

- (y) in respect of any Unitary Index or Multi-Exchange Index, the Exchange traded or quoted price as of the Valuation Time on the Fallback Valuation Date of each Component comprised in the Index (or, if an event giving rise to a Share Disrupted Day has occurred in respect of any relevant Component that is a Share (or an analogous event has occurred in respect of any relevant Component that is not a Share) on such Fallback Valuation Date or such Fallback Valuation Date is not a Scheduled Trading Day for any relevant Component, as determined by the Calculation Agent, its good faith estimate of the value for the relevant Component as of the relevant Valuation Time on the Fallback Valuation Date); and
- (z) in respect of any Proprietary Index, such levels or values as the Calculation Agent determines to be appropriate as of the Valuation Time on the Fallback Valuation Date of each Component comprised in the Index, and such determination by the Calculation Agent pursuant to this Index Linked Provision 2 shall be deemed to be the relevant Closing Index Level in respect of the Relevant Date.

If the level of a Proprietary Index in respect of a Relevant Date is scheduled to be published on a day other than such Relevant Date, and such level of the Proprietary Index is not published as of the Valuation Time on the Fallback Valuation Date, then the Calculation Agent shall determine the level of the Proprietary Index as of the Valuation Time on or in respect of the Fallback Valuation Date in accordance with the formula for and method of calculating the Proprietary Index last in effect prior to the occurrence of the first day that is not a Scheduled Trading Day or is a Disrupted Day, using such levels or values as the Calculation Agent determines to be appropriate as of the Valuation Time on the Fallback Valuation Date of each Component comprised in such Proprietary Index. Such determination by the Calculation Agent pursuant to this Index Linked Provision 2 shall be deemed to be the relevant level of the Proprietary Index in respect of the Relevant Date.

3. Correction of Index levels

In the event that any relevant level of an Index published by the Index Sponsor on any date which is utilised for any calculation or determination in connection with the Securities is subsequently corrected and the correction is published by the Index Sponsor:

- (a) by the second Business Day prior to the next date on which any relevant payment may have to be made by the Issuer or in respect of which any relevant determination in respect of the Securities may have to be made; or
- (b) if earlier and if the Index is a Unitary Index or Multi-Exchange Index, one Settlement Cycle after the original publication, then the Calculation Agent may determine the amount that is payable or deliverable or make any determination in connection with the Securities, after taking into account such correction, and, to the extent necessary, may adjust any relevant terms of the Securities to account for such correction.

4. Consequences of Successors and Index Adjustment Events

4.1 Consequences of a Successor Index Sponsor or a Successor Index

If an Index is (i) not calculated and announced by the Index Sponsor but is calculated and announced by a successor sponsor acceptable to the Calculation Agent (a "Successor Index Sponsor") or (ii) replaced by a successor index using, in the determination of the Calculation Agent, the same or a substantially similar formula for and method of calculation as used in the calculation of such Index, then in each case such index (the "Successor Index") will be deemed to be the Index.

The Calculation Agent may make such adjustment(s) that it determines to be appropriate, if any, to any variable, calculation methodology, valuation, settlement, payment terms or any other terms of the Securities to account for such successor.

4.2 Consequences of an Index Adjustment Event

If an Index Adjustment Event has occurred, as determined by the Calculation Agent, the Calculation Agent will determine if such Index Adjustment Event has a material effect on the Securities and, if so, shall calculate the relevant level of the Index using, in lieu of a published level for such Index, the level for such Index as at or in respect of the relevant Reference Date or Averaging Reference Date, or any other relevant date as determined by the Calculation Agent, as the case may be, as determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the formula for and method of calculating such Index last in effect prior to the relevant Index Adjustment Event, but using only those Components that comprised such Index immediately prior to such Index Adjustment Event.

If the Calculation Agent determines, in its reasonable commercial discretion, that it is not reasonably practicable (taking into account the costs involved) to calculate or continue to calculate the Index pursuant to the preceding paragraph, the Calculation Agent may rebase the Securities against another index or basket of indices, as applicable, determined by the Calculation Agent to be comparable to the relevant Index, and, following such rebasing, the Calculation Agent will make such adjustment(s) that it determines to be appropriate, if any, to any variable, calculation methodology, valuation, settlement, payment terms or any other terms of the Securities to account for such rebasing.

If the Calculation Agent determines, in its reasonable commercial discretion, that there is not such an index or basket of indices comparable to the relevant Index, and/or that application of the preceding paragraphs would not achieve a commercially reasonable result, the Calculation Agent may determine that the Securities shall be redeemed, in which event the Issuer will cause to be paid to each Holder in respect of each Security held by it an amount equal to the Early Payment Amount (as defined in General Condition 30.1 (Definitions)), provided that the words "(but ignoring the event which resulted in such early redemption)" shall be deemed to be deleted).

On making any such adjustment(s) or determination(s), the Calculation Agent shall give notice as soon as practicable to the Holders stating the adjustment to any amount payable under the Securities, the determination and/or any of the other relevant terms and giving brief details of the Index Adjustment Event, provided that any failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of the Index Adjustment Event or any action taken.

5. Consequences of an Additional Disruption Event

Following the determination by the Calculation Agent that an Additional Disruption Event has occurred, the Calculation Agent may, in its reasonable commercial discretion:

- (a) determine to make such adjustment to the exercise, settlement, payment or any other terms of the Securities as the Calculation Agent determines appropriate to account for such Additional Disruption Event; and/or
- (b) determine and give notice to Holders that the Securities shall be redeemed, in which event the Issuer will cause to be paid to each Holder in respect of each Security held by it an amount equal to the Early Payment Amount (as defined in General Condition 30.1 (Definitions), provided that the words "(but ignoring the event which resulted in such early redemption)" shall be deemed to be deleted).

6. Index Disclaimer

The Securities are not sponsored, endorsed, sold, or promoted by the Index or the Index Sponsor and no Index Sponsor makes any representation whatsoever, whether express or implied, either as to the results to be obtained from the use of the Index and/or the levels at which the Index stands at any particular time on any particular date or otherwise. No Index or Index Sponsor shall be liable (whether in negligence or otherwise) to any person for any error in the Index and the Index Sponsor is under no obligation to advise any person of any error therein. No Index Sponsor is making any representation whatsoever, whether express or implied, as to the advisability of purchasing or assuming any risk in connection with the Securities. The Issuer and the Guarantor (if any) shall have no liability to the Holders for any act or failure to act by the Index Sponsor in connection with the calculation, adjustment, or maintenance of the Index. Except as may be disclosed prior to the Issue Date and specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement, none of the Issuer, the Guarantor (if any), the Calculation Agent or any of their respective affiliates has any affiliation with or control over the Index or Index Sponsor or any control over the computation, composition, or dissemination of the Index. Although the Calculation Agent will obtain information concerning the Index from publicly available sources it believes reliable, it will not independently verify this information. Accordingly, no representation, warranty, or undertaking (express or implied) is made and no responsibility is accepted by the Issuer, the Guarantor (if any), their affiliates, or the Calculation Agent as to the accuracy, completeness, and timeliness of information concerning the Index. In addition, no representation or warranty of any type, as to condition, satisfactory quality, performance or fitness for purpose are given, or duty or liability is assumed, by the Issuer, the Guarantor (if any), their affiliates, or the Calculation Agent in respect of the Index or any data included in or omissions from the Index, or the use of the Index in connection with the Securities and all those representations and warranties are excluded, save to the extent that such exclusion is prohibited by law.

JPMorgan Chase's activities are organised, for management reporting purposes, into four major business segments, as well as a Corporate/Private Equity segment. The consumer business is the Consumer & Community Banking segment. The Corporate & Investment Bank, Commercial Banking and Asset Management segments comprise the wholesale businesses. A description of these business segments, and the products and services they provide to their respective client bases, follows.

Consumer & Community Banking

Consumer & Community Banking serves consumers and businesses through personal service at bank branches and through automated teller machines ("ATMs"), online, mobile and telephone banking. Consumer & Community Banking is organised into Consumer & Business Banking, Mortgage Banking (including Mortgage Production, Mortgage Servicing and Real Estate Portfolios) and Card, Merchant Services & Auto. Consumer & Business Banking offers deposit and investment products and services to consumers, and lending, deposit, and cash management and payment solutions to small businesses. Mortgage Banking includes mortgage origination and servicing activities, as well as portfolios comprised of residential mortgages and home equity loans, including the purchased credit impaired portfolio acquired in the Washington Mutual transaction. Other centrally managed expense includes JPMorgan Chase's occupancy and pension-related expense that are subject to allocation to the businesses.

Trend Information / Business Outlook

The following forward-looking statements are based on the current beliefs and expectations of JPMorgan Chase's management and are subject to significant risks and uncertainties. These risks and uncertainties could cause JPMorgan Chase's actual results to differ materially from those set forth in such forward-looking statements. See "Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" in the 2013 Base Prospectus and "Risk Factors" in this Prospectus.

This information has been extracted from the JPMorgan Chase & Co. 2012 Form 10-K, which is incorporated by reference in this Prospectus, and speaks only as of the date of such report.

2013 Business Outlook

JPMorgan Chase's outlook for the full year 2013 should be viewed against the backdrop of the global and U.S. economies, financial markets activity, the geopolitical environment, the competitive environment, client activity levels, and regulatory and legislative developments in the United States and other countries where JPMorgan Chase does business. Each of these linked factors will affect the performance of JPMorgan Chase and its lines of business.

In the Consumer & Business Banking business within Consumer & Community Banking, JPMorgan Chase estimates that, given the current low interest rate environment, continued deposit spread compression could negatively impact annual net income by approximately $400 million in 2013. This decline may be offset by the impact of deposit balance growth, although the exact extent of any such deposit growth cannot be determined at this time.

In the Mortgage Banking business within Consumer & Community Banking, management expects to continue to incur elevated default- and foreclosure-related costs, including additional costs associated with JPMorgan Chase's mortgage servicing processes, particularly its loan modification and foreclosure procedures. In addition, management believes that the high production margins experienced in recent quarters likely peaked in 2012 and will decline over time. Management also expects there will be continued elevated levels of repurchases of mortgages previously sold, predominantly to U.S. government-sponsored entities ("GSEs"). However, based on current trends and estimates, management believes that the existing mortgage repurchase liability is sufficient to cover such losses.

For Real Estate Portfolios within Mortgage Banking, management believes that total quarterly net charge-offs may be approximately $550 million, subject to economic conditions. If the positive credit trends in the residential real estate portfolio continue or accelerate and economic uncertainty declines, the related allowance for loan losses may be reduced over time. Given management's current estimate of portfolio runoff levels, the residential real estate portfolio is expected to decline by approximately 10 per cent. to 15 per cent. in 2013 from year-end 2012 levels. The runoff in the residential real estate portfolio can be expected to reduce annual net interest income by approximately $600 million in 2013. Over time, the reduction in net interest income should be offset by an improvement in credit costs and lower expenses.

In Card Services within Consumer & Community Banking, JPMorgan Chase expects that, if current positive credit trends continue, the card-related allowance for loan losses could be reduced by up to $1 billion over the course of 2013.

The currently anticipated results for Consumer & Community Banking described above could be adversely affected if economic conditions, including U.S. housing prices or the unemployment rate, do not continue to improve. Management continues to closely monitor the portfolios in these businesses.

In Private Equity, within the Corporate/Private Equity segment, earnings will likely continue to be volatile and influenced by capital markets activity, market levels, the performance of the broader economy and investment specific issues.

For Treasury and the CIO, within the Corporate/Private Equity segment, management expects a quarterly net loss of approximately $300 million with that amount likely to vary driven by the implied yield curve and management decisions related to the positioning of the investment securities portfolio.

For Other Corporate, within the Corporate/Private Equity segment, management expects quarterly net income, excluding material litigation expense and significant items, if any, to be approximately $100 million, but this amount is also likely to vary each quarter.

Management expects JPMorgan Chase's net interest income to be generally flat during 2013, as modest pressure on the net yield on interest-earning assets is expected to be generally offset by anticipated growth in interest-earning assets.

JPMorgan Chase continues to focus on expense discipline and is targeting expense for 2013 to be approximately $1 billion lower than in 2012 (not taking into account, for such purposes, any expenses in each year related to corporate litigation and foreclosure-related matters).

CIO synthetic credit portfolio

On 9 August 2012, JPMorgan Chase & Co. restated its previously-filed interim financial statements for the quarterly period ended 31 March 2012. The restatement related to valuations of certain positions in the synthetic credit portfolio of JPMorgan Chase's CIO. The restatement had the effect of reducing JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s reported net income for the three months ended 31 March 2012, by $459 million. The restatement had no impact on any of JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s Consolidated Financial Statements as of 30 June 2012, and 31 December 2011, or for the three and six months ended 30 June 2012 and 2011.

Management also determined that a material weakness existed in JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s internal control over financial reporting at 31 March 2012. Management has taken steps to remediate the material weakness, including enhancing management supervision of valuation matters. These remedial steps were substantially implemented by 30 June 2012; however, in accordance with JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s internal control compliance program, the material weakness designation could not be closed until the remedial processes were operational for a period of time and successfully tested. The testing was successfully completed during the third quarter of 2012 and the control deficiency was closed at 30 September 2012.

On 2 July 2012, the majority of the synthetic credit portfolio was transferred from the CIO to JPMorgan Chase's Corporate & Investment Bank, which has the expertise, trading platforms and market franchise to manage these positions to maximise their economic value. An aggregate position of approximately $12 billion notional was retained in CIO. By the end of the third quarter of 2012, CIO effectively closed out the index credit derivative positions that had been retained by it following the transfer. CIO incurred losses of $5.8 billion from the synthetic credit portfolio for the six months ended 30 June 2012, and losses of $449 million from the retained index credit derivative positions for the three months ended 30 September 2012, which were recorded in the principal transactions revenue line item of the income statement. The Corporate & Investment Bank continues to actively manage and reduce the risks in the remaining synthetic credit portfolio that had been transferred to it on 2 July 2012. This portion of the portfolio experienced modest losses in each of the two quarters of 2012 following the transfer; these losses were included in Fixed Income Markets Revenue for the Corporate & Investment Bank (and also recorded in the principal transactions revenue).

On 16 January 2013, JPMorgan Chase announced that JPMorgan Chase's Management Task Force and the independent Review Committee of JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s Board of Directors ("Board Review Committee") had each concluded their reviews relating to the 2012 losses by the CIO and had released their respective reports. The Board Review Committee's Report sets forth recommendations relating to the Board's oversight of JPMorgan Chase's risk management processes, all of which have been approved by the full Board of Directors and have been, or are in the process of being, implemented.

The Management Task Force Report, in addition to summarising the key events and setting forth its observations regarding the losses incurred in CIO's synthetic credit portfolio, describes the broad range of remedial measures taken by JPMorgan Chase to respond to the lessons it has learned from the CIO events, including:

- revamping the governance, mandate and reporting and control processes of CIO;
- implementing numerous risk management changes, including improvements in model governance and market risk; and
- effecting a series of changes to the Risk function's governance, organisational structure and interaction with the Board.

The Board of Directors formed the Board Review Committee in May 2012 to oversee the scope and work of the Management Task Force review, assess JPMorgan Chase's risk management processes related to the issues raised in the Management Task Force review, and to report to the Board of Directors on the Review Committee's findings and recommendations. In performing these tasks, the Board Review Committee, with the assistance of its own counsel and expert advisor, conducted an independent review, including analysing the voluminous documentary record and conducting interviews of Board members and numerous current and former employees of JPMorgan Chase. Based on its review, the Board Review Committee concurred in the substance of the Management Task Force Report. The Management Task Force Report and the Board Review Committee Report set out facts that in their view were the most relevant for their respective purposes. Others (including regulators conducting their own investigations) may have a different view of the facts, or may focus on other facts, and may also draw different conclusions regarding the facts and issues.

The Board Review Committee Report recommends a number of enhancements to the Board's own practices to strengthen its oversight of JPMorgan Chase's risk management processes. The Board Review Committee noted that some of its recommendations were already being followed by the Board or the Risk Policy Committee or have recently been put into effect.

The Board Review Committee's recommendations include:

- better focused and clearer reporting of presentations to the Board's Risk Policy Committee, with particular emphasis on the key risks for each line of business, identification of significant future changes to the business and its risk profile, and adequacy of staffing, technology and other resources;
- clarifying to management the Board's expectations regarding the capabilities, stature, and independence of JPMorgan Chase's risk management personnel;
- more systematic reporting to the Risk Policy Committee on significant model risk, model approval and model governance, on setting of significant risk limits and responses to significant limit excessions, and with respect to regulatory matters requiring attention;
- further clarification of the Risk Policy Committee's role and responsibilities, and more coordination of matters presented to the Risk Policy Committee and the Audit Committee;
- concurrence by the Risk Policy Committee in the hiring or firing of the Chief Risk Officer and that it be consulted with respect to the setting of such Chief Risk Officer's compensation; and
- staff with appropriate risk expertise be added to JPMorgan Chase's Internal Audit function and that Internal Audit more systematically include the risk management function in its audits.

The Board of Directors will continue to oversee JPMorgan Chase's remediation efforts to ensure they are fully implemented.

Also, on 14 January 2013, JPMorgan Chase & Co. and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., entered into Consent Orders with, respectively, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System ("Federal Reserve") and the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency ("OCC") that relate to risk management, model governance and other control functions related to CIO and certain other trading activities at JPMorgan Chase. Many of the actions required by the Consent Orders are consistent with those recommended by the Management Task Force and the Board Review Committee and, as such, a number of them have been, or are in the process of being, implemented. JPMorgan Chase is committed to the full remediation of all issues identified in the Consent Orders.

The CIO synthetic credit portfolio losses have resulted in litigation against JPMorgan Chase, as well as heightened regulatory scrutiny and may lead to additional regulatory or legal proceedings, in addition to the consent orders noted above. Such regulatory and legal proceedings may expose JPMorgan Chase to fines, penalties, judgments or losses, harm JPMorgan Chase's reputation or otherwise cause a decline in investor confidence.

Regulatory developments

JPMorgan Chase is subject to regulation under state and federal laws in the United States, as well as the applicable laws of each of the various other jurisdictions outside the United States in which JPMorgan Chase does business. JPMorgan Chase is currently experiencing an unprecedented increase in regulation and supervision, and such changes could have a significant impact on how JPMorgan Chase conducts business. For example, under the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act ("Dodd-Frank Act"), U.S. federal banking and other regulatory agencies are instructed to conduct approximately 285 rulemakings and 130 studies and reports. These agencies include the Federal Reserve, the OCC, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC"), the Commodity Futures Trading Commission, the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and the Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection ("CFPB"). JPMorgan Chase continues to work diligently in assessing and understanding the implications of the regulatory changes it is facing, and is devoting substantial resources to implementing all the new regulations while, at the same time, best meeting the needs and expectations of its clients.

During 2012, for example, JPMorgan Chase submitted to the Federal Reserve and the FDIC its "resolution plan" in the event of a material distress or failure, registered several of its subsidiaries with the CFTC as swap dealers, and continued its planning and implementation efforts with respect to new regulations affecting its derivatives, trading and money market mutual funds businesses. JPMorgan

Chase also faces regulatory initiatives relating to its structure, including push-out of certain derivatives activities from its subsidiary banks under Section 716 of the Dodd-Frank Act, a proposed requirement from the U.K. Prudential Regulatory Authority ("PRA") requiring JPMorgan Chase to either obtain equal treatment for the U.K. depositors of its U.S. bank who make deposits in the U.K., or "subsidiarise" in the U.K., and various other proposed U.K. and EU initiatives that could affect its ability to allocate capital and liquidity efficiently among its global operations. Additional efforts are underway to comply with the higher capital requirements of the new Basel Accords (both the "Basel 2.5" requirements effective 1 January 2013 as well as the additional capital requirements of "Basel III"). JPMorgan Chase is also preparing to comply with Basel III's new liquidity measures – the liquidity coverage ratio ("LCR") and the net stable funding ratio ("NSFR") - which require JPMorgan Chase to hold specified types of "high quality" liquid assets to meet assumed levels of cash outflows following a stress event. Management's current objective is for JPMorgan Chase to reach, by the end of 2013, an estimated Basel III Tier I common ratio of 9.5 per cent. (including the impact of the Basel 2.5 rules and the estimated impact of the other applicable requirements set forth in the Federal Reserve's Advanced Notice for Proposed Rulemaking issued in June 2012). JPMorgan Chase is currently targeting reaching a 100 per cent. LCR, based on its current understanding of these requirements, by the end of 2013.

Furthermore, JPMorgan Chase is experiencing heightened scrutiny by its regulators of its compliance with new and existing regulations, including those issued under the Bank Secrecy Act, the Unfair and Deceptive Acts or Practices laws, the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act ("RESPA"), the Truth in Lending Act, laws governing JPMorgan Chase's consumer collections practices and the laws administered by the Office of Foreign Assets Control, among others. JPMorgan Chase is also under scrutiny by its supervisors with respect to its controls and operational processes, such as those relating to model development, review, governance and approvals. On 14 January 2013, JPMorgan Chase & Co. and three of its subsidiary banks, including JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. entered into Consent Orders with the Federal Reserve and the OCC relating principally to JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s and such banks' BSA/AML policies and procedures. Also on 14 January 2013, JPMorgan Chase & Co. and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. entered into Consent Orders arising out of their reviews of JPMorgan Chase's CIO. These latter Consent Orders relate to risk management, model governance and other control functions related to CIO and certain other trading activities at JPMorgan Chase. JPMorgan Chase expects that its banking supervisors will in the future continue to take more formal enforcement actions against JPMorgan Chase rather than issuing informal supervisory actions or criticisms.

While the effect of the changes in law and the heightened scrutiny of its regulators is likely to result in additional costs, JPMorgan Chase cannot, given the current status of regulatory and supervisory developments, quantify the possible effects on its business and operations of all the significant changes that are currently underway.

Corporate governance

General

Governance is a continuing focus at JPMorgan Chase, starting with the Board of Directors and extending throughout JPMorgan Chase. Several of JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s key governance policies and practices are summarised below. Additional information concerning the corporate governance of JPMorgan Chase is contained in the JPMorgan Chase & Co. 2013 Proxy Statement.

Corporate Governance Principles of the Board

The Board of Directors first adopted Corporate Governance Principles in 1997, and has revised them periodically since then to reflect evolving best practices and regulatory requirements, including the corporate governance listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE"). The Corporate Governance Principles establish a framework for the governance of JPMorgan Chase & Co.

Board leadership structure

The Board of Directors is responsible for the oversight of management on behalf of JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s shareholders. The Board accomplishes this function acting directly and through its committees. Directors discharge their duties at Board and committee meetings and also through telephone contact and other communications with the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, management and others regarding matters of concern and interest to JPMorgan Chase & Co. Specific elements of the Board leadership structure include:

- Chairman of the Board – The Board of Directors has no established policy on whether or not to have a non-executive chairman and believes that it should make that judgment based on circumstances and experience. The Board has determined that the most effective leadership model for JPMorgan Chase & Co. currently is that Mr. Dimon serves as both Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, and that the independent directors annually appoint an independent director to serve as the Presiding Director. The Board believes it is functioning effectively under its current structure, and that the current structure provides appropriate oversight protections. The Board does not believe that introducing a separate Chairman at this time and with this Chief Executive Officer would provide appreciably better direction for and performance of JPMorgan Chase & Co., and instead could cause uncertainty, confusion and inefficiency in board and management function and relations.
- Independent oversight – Independent directors comprise more than 90 per cent. of the Board and 100 per cent. of the Audit Committee, the Compensation & Management Development Committee (the "Compensation Committee"), the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee (the "Governance Committee"), the Public Responsibility Committee and the Risk Policy Committee. At each regularly scheduled Board meeting, the independent directors generally meet in executive session with no members of management present and may discuss any matter they deem appropriate, including evaluation of the Chief Executive Officer and other senior officers and determination of their compensation.
- Presiding Director – JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s Presiding Director functions as a Lead Director, but the Board prefers the term Presiding Director to emphasise that all directors share equally in their responsibilities as members of the Board. The Presiding Director presides at executive sessions of independent directors (generally held as part of each regularly scheduled Board meeting) and at all Board meetings at which the Chairman is not present, and has authority to call meetings of independent directors. The Presiding Director approves Board meeting agendas and schedules for each Board meeting, may add agenda items in his or her discretion, approves Board meeting materials for distribution to and consideration by the Board, facilitates communication between the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and the independent directors, as appropriate, is available for consultation and communication with major shareholders where appropriate, upon reasonable request, and performs such other functions as the Board directs. The Presiding Director is appointed annually by and from among the independent directors.
- Committee Chairs – All are independent and are appointed annually by the Board, approve agendas and material for respective committee meetings, and act as liaison between committee members and the Board and between committee members and senior management.

Committees of the Board

The Board has five principal standing committees: the Audit Committee, the Compensation Committee, the Governance Committee, the Public Responsibility Committee and the Risk Policy Committee. Each member of the Audit Committee, the Compensation Committee and the Governance Committee has been determined by the Board to be independent for purposes of the NYSE corporate governance listing standards and within the meaning of regulations of the SEC.

As stated in the Board's Corporate Governance Principles, Board members have complete access to management, and the Board and Board committees can, if they wish to do so, seek legal or other expert advice from sources independent of management and shall be provided with the resources for such purposes.

Corporate Governance Structure

The following outlines the oversight responsibilities of the Board's principal committees. In addition to those responsibilities listed, each committee has oversight of reputational risk arising from matters within the scope of the committee.

- Audit Committee – provides oversight of the independent registered public accounting firm's qualifications and independence; the performance of the internal audit function and that of the independent registered public accounting firm; and management's responsibilities to assure that there is in place an effective system of controls reasonably designed to safeguard the assets and income of JPMorgan Chase & Co., assure the integrity of its financial statements, and maintain compliance with its ethical standards, policies, plans and procedures, and with laws and regulations. The Board of Directors has determined that Mr. Bell, Ms. Bowles and Mr. Jackson are audit committee financial experts as defined by the SEC.
- Compensation & Management Development Committee – reviews and approves JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s compensation and benefit programmes; ensures the competitiveness of these programmes; and advises the Board on the development of and succession for key executives. The Compensation Committee periodically reviews and approves a statement of JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s compensation principles and practices, and also reviews the relationship among risk, risk management and compensation in light of JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s objectives, including its safety and soundness and the avoidance of practices that would encourage excessive risk.

- Corporate Governance & Nominating Committee – exercises general oversight with respect to the governance of the Board of Directors, including reviewing the qualifications of nominees for election to the Board and making recommendations to the Board regarding director compensation. The Governance Committee leads the Board in its review and self-evaluation of the performance of the Board as a whole with a view to increasing the effectiveness of the Board.
- Public Responsibility Committee – reviews and considers JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s position and practices regarding public responsibility matters of significance to JPMorgan Chase and provides guidance on these matters to management and the Board as appropriate.
- Risk Policy Committee – provides oversight of the Chief Executive Officer's and senior management's responsibilities to: assess and manage JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s credit risk, market risk, structural interest rate risk, investment risk, liquidity risk, fiduciary risk and model risk; ensure that there is in place an effective system reasonably designed to evaluate and control such risk throughout JPMorgan Chase; and manage capital and liquidity planning and analysis.
- Board and committee interaction – Committees meet regularly in conjunction with scheduled Board meetings, and hold additional meetings as needed. The Audit Committee and the Risk Policy Committee hold joint meetings on matters of mutual interest. The Compensation Committee meets at least annually with the Chief Risk Officer and the Risk Policy Committee or its Chair to review elements of JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s organisational structure, management practices and compensation programmes that would discourage unnecessary or excessive risk-taking and to assess its incentive arrangements. The committees report their activities and discuss their recommendations with the full Board.

1 Presiding director

During 2012, the Board met 15 times; each director attended 75 per cent. or more of the total meetings of the Board and the committees on which he or she served.

Other Board Committees

In addition to the above committees, the Board has a Board-level Executive Committee and a Stock Committee. The Board-level Executive Committee consists of the Chief Executive Officer and the Chairs of the Board's principal committees. It may exercise all the powers of the Board that lawfully may be delegated, but with the expectation that it would not take material actions absent special circumstances.

The Stock Committee, acting through the Chief Executive Officer, acts in accordance with Board-approved limitations and capital plans to implement the declaration of dividends, authorise the issuance of stock, administer the dividend reinvestment plan, and implement share repurchase plans. The Board may also from time to time establish a committee for a specific purpose. During 2012, Messrs. Jackson, Raymond and Weldon served on the Board's Review Committee established in connection with the CIO matter, Messrs. Crown and Jackson served on a Mortgage Compliance Committee and Ms. Bowles and Messrs. Bell and Jackson served on an AML (Anti-Money Laundering) Enhancement Committee.

Director independence

Of the 11 directors of JPMorgan Chase's Board, ten (all but Mr. Dimon) meet the standard for independence.

Pursuant to the corporate governance listing standards of the NYSE, a majority of the Board of Directors (and each member of the Audit, Compensation and Governance Committees) must be independent. The Board of Directors may determine a director to be independent if the director has no disqualifying relationship as defined in the NYSE corporate governance rules and if the Board has affirmatively determined that the director has no material relationship with JPMorgan Chase & Co., either directly or as a partner, shareholder or officer of an organisation that has a relationship with JPMorgan Chase.

The Board of Directors reviewed the relationships between JPMorgan Chase & Co. and each director, and determined that in accordance with the NYSE corporate governance listing standards and JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s independence standards, each non-management nominee (James A. Bell, Crandall C. Bowles, Stephen B. Burke, David M. Cote, James S. Crown, Timothy P. Flynn, Ellen V. Futter, Laban P. Jackson, Jr., Lee R. Raymond and William C. Weldon) has only immaterial relationships with JPMorgan Chase and accordingly each is an independent director under these standards.

Other governance practices

Independent director meetings

Independent directors generally meet in executive session as part of each regularly scheduled Board meeting, with discussion led by the Presiding Director.

Majority voting for directors

JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s By-laws provide a majority voting standard for election of directors in uncontested elections, with resignation tendered by any incumbent director who is not re-elected, and plurality voting in any election that is contested.

Board's role in risk oversight

JPMorgan Chase's risk management is described in the "Management's discussion and analysis" section of the JPMorgan Chase & Co. 2012 Form 10-K which is incorporated by reference into this Prospectus. As stated there, risk is an inherent part of JPMorgan Chase's business activities and JPMorgan Chase's overall risk appetite is established in the context of its capital, earnings power and diversified business model. JPMorgan Chase's risk management framework and governance structure are intended to provide comprehensive controls and ongoing management of the major risks taken in its business activities.

In May 2012, the JPMorgan Chase announced that there had been significant trading losses in a synthetic credit portfolio within JPMorgan Chase's Chief Investment Office. JPMorgan Chase appointed a Management Task Force to review the trading losses and the Board of Directors established an independent Review Committee of the Board (the "Board Review Committee") to oversee the scope and work of the Management Task Force review, to assess JPMorgan Chase's risk management processes related to the issues raised in the Management Task Force review, and to report to the Board of Directors on the Board Review Committee's findings and recommendations. On 16 January 2013, JPMorgan Chase announced that the Management Task Force and the Board Review Committee had each concluded their reviews and had released their respective reports. The Board Review Committee concurred in the substance of the Management Task Force Report. The Board Review Committee's Report sets forth recommendations relating to the Board's oversight of JPMorgan Chase's risk management processes, all of which have been approved by the full Board of Directors and have been, or are in the process of being, implemented.

The following outlines the Board's ongoing role in risk oversight.

Risk appetite — JPMorgan Chase employs a formalised risk appetite framework to clearly link risk appetite and return targets, controls and capital management.

- The Chief Executive Officer is responsible for setting the overall risk appetite for JPMorgan Chase, and the line of business Chief Executive Officers are responsible for setting the risk appetite for their respective line of business subject to approval by the Chief Executive Officer.
- The Risk Policy Committee approves the risk appetite policy on behalf of the entire Board of Directors.

Risk management framework — JPMorgan Chase's risk governance structure starts with each line of business being responsible for managing its own risks, with its own risk committee and a chief risk officer. Overlaying the line of business risk management are corporate functions with risk management-related responsibilities.

- Risk Management operates independently to provide oversight of firmwide risk management and controls, and is headed by JPMorgan Chase's Chief Risk Officer, who is a member of the Operating Committee and reports to the Chief Executive Officer and is accountable to the Board of Directors, primarily through the Board's Risk Policy Committee.
- The Chief Investment Office and Corporate Treasury are responsible for managing JPMorgan Chase's liquidity, interest rate and foreign exchange risk, and other structural risks.
- Legal has oversight for legal risk and Compliance has oversight for compliance risk.
- Each line of business has a risk committee which includes in its mandate oversight of the reputational risks in its business.

Board oversight — The Board of Directors exercises its oversight of risk management principally through the Board's Risk Policy Committee and Audit Committee.

- The Risk Policy Committee provides oversight of the Chief Executive Officer's and senior management's responsibilities to: assess and manage JPMorgan Chase's credit risk, market risk, structural interest rate risk, investment risk, liquidity risk, fiduciary risk and model risk; ensure that there is in place an effective system reasonably designed to evaluate and control such risk throughout JPMorgan Chase; and manage capital and liquidity planning and analysis.
- The Audit Committee provides oversight of management's responsibilities to assure that there is in place an effective system of controls reasonably designed to safeguard the assets and income of JPMorgan Chase, assure the integrity of JPMorgan Chase's financial statements, and maintain compliance with JPMorgan Chase's ethical standards, policies, plans and procedures, and with laws and regulations.
- The Compensation Committee is responsible for reviewing JPMorgan Chase's compensation practices and the relationship among risk, risk management and compensation in light of JPMorgan Chase's objectives.

- Each of the committees oversees reputation risk issues within its scope of responsibility.
- The Board of Directors also reviews selected risk topics directly as circumstances warrant.

Shareholder outreach

JPMorgan Chase & Co. recognises the importance of shareholder communications to help its investors understand JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s performance and strategies. JPMorgan Chase & Co. reaches out to shareholders in many different ways, including through quarterly earnings presentations, SEC filings, web communications, and investor meetings. Special shareholder meetings and action by written consent

JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s By-laws permit shareholders holding at least 20 per cent. of the outstanding shares of common stock (net of hedges) to call special meetings. The Board is proposing for shareholder approval, at its Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held on 21 May 2013, an amendment to JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s Certificate of Incorporation that would permit shareholders to act by written consent on terms intended to be substantially similar to the terms applicable to call special meetings.

The JPMorgan Chase Code of Conduct is a collection of rules and policy statements governing employees' conduct in relation to JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s business. In addition, JPMorgan Chase & Co. has a Code of Ethics for Finance Professionals that applies to the Chief Executive Officer, President, Chief Financial Officer, and Chief Accounting Officer of JPMorgan Chase & Co., and to all other professionals of JPMorgan Chase & Co. worldwide serving in a finance, accounting, corporate treasury, tax or investor relations role. JPMorgan Chase & Co. believes that it is in the shareholders' best interests for it to be an effective participant in the legislative and regulatory process and that governance and transparency are important components of this process. JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s principal non-bank subsidiary is J.P. Morgan Securities LLC, a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in New York. These subsidiaries are wholly owned by JPMorgan Chase & Co. and their accounts are included in the consolidated financial statements of JPMorgan Chase & Co. The properties occupied by JPMorgan Chase are used across all of its business segments and for corporate purposes.

Litigation

The following summary of certain significant legal proceedings has been extracted from the JPMorgan Chase & Co. 2012 Form 10-K.

As of 31 December 2012, JPMorgan Chase and its subsidiaries are defendants or putative defendants in numerous legal proceedings, including private, civil litigations and regulatory/government investigations. The litigations range from individual actions involving a single plaintiff to class action lawsuits with potentially millions of class members. Investigations involve both formal and informal proceedings, by both governmental agencies and self-regulatory organisations. These legal proceedings are at varying stages of adjudication, arbitration or investigation, and involve each of JPMorgan Chase's lines of business and geographies and a wide variety of claims (including common law tort and contract claims and statutory antitrust, securities and consumer protection claims), some of which present novel legal theories.

JPMorgan Chase believes the estimate of the aggregate range of reasonably possible losses, in excess of reserves established, for its legal proceedings is from $0 to approximately $6.1 billion at 31 December 2012. This estimated aggregate range of reasonably possible losses is based upon currently available information for those proceedings in which JPMorgan Chase is involved, taking into account JPMorgan Chase's best estimate of such losses for those cases for which such estimate can be made. For certain cases, JPMorgan Chase does not believe that an estimate can currently be made. JPMorgan Chase's estimate involves significant judgment, given the varying stages of the proceedings (including the fact that many are currently in preliminary stages), the existence in many such proceedings of multiple defendants (including JPMorgan Chase) whose share of liability has yet to be determined, the numerous yet-unresolved issues in many of the proceedings (including issues regarding class certification and the scope of many of the claims) and the attendant uncertainty of the various potential outcomes of such proceedings. Accordingly, JPMorgan Chase's estimate will change from time to time, and actual losses may be more or less than the current estimate.

Set forth below are descriptions of JPMorgan Chase's material legal proceedings.

Auction-Rate Securities Investigations and Litigation. Beginning in March 2008, several regulatory authorities initiated investigations of a number of industry participants, including JPMorgan Chase, concerning possible state and federal securities law violations in connection with the sale of auction-rate securities ("ARS"). The market for many such securities had frozen and a significant number of auctions for those securities began to fail in February 2008.

JPMorgan Chase, on behalf of itself and affiliates, agreed to a settlement in principle with the New York Attorney General's Office which provided, among other things, that JPMorgan Chase would offer to purchase at par certain ARS purchased from J.P. Morgan Securities LLC, Chase Investment Services Corp. and Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc. by individual investors, charities and small-to medium-sized businesses. JPMorgan Chase also agreed to a substantively similar settlement in principle with the Office of Financial Regulation for the State of Florida and the North American Securities Administrators Association ("NASAA") Task Force, which agreed to recommend approval of the settlement to all remaining states, Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands. JPMorgan Chase has finalised the settlement agreements with the New York Attorney General's Office and the Office of Financial Regulation for the State of Florida. The settlement agreements provide for the payment of penalties totalling $25 million to all states and territories. To date, final consent agreements have been reached with all but three of NASAA's members.

JPMorgan Chase also was named in two putative antitrust class actions. The actions allege that JPMorgan Chase, along with numerous other financial institution defendants, colluded to maintain and stabilise the ARS market and then to withdraw their support for the ARS market. In January 2010, the District Court dismissed both actions. An appeal is pending in the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit.

Bank Secrecy Act/Anti-Money Laundering. In January 2013, JPMorgan Chase & Co. entered into a Consent Order with the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System ("Federal Reserve") and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., JPMorgan Bank and Trust Company, N.A. and Chase Bank USA, N.A. entered into a Consent Order with the Office of OCC relating principally to JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s and such banks' policies, procedures and controls relating to compliance with Bank Secrecy Act and Anti-Money Laundering requirements. JPMorgan Chase neither admitted nor denied the regulatory agencies' findings in the orders.

Bear Stearns Hedge Fund Matters. The Bear Stearns Companies LLC (formerly The Bear Stearns Companies Inc.) ("Bear Stearns"), certain current or former subsidiaries of Bear Stearns, including Bear Stearns Asset Management, Inc. ("BSAM") and Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc., and certain individuals formerly employed by Bear Stearns are named defendants (collectively the "Bear Stearns defendants") in multiple civil actions and arbitrations relating to alleged losses resulting from the failure of the Bear Stearns High Grade Structured Credit Strategies Master Fund, Ltd. (the "High Grade Fund") and the Bear Stearns High Grade Structured Credit Strategies Enhanced Leverage Master Fund, Ltd. (the "Enhanced Leverage Fund") (collectively the "Funds"). BSAM served as investment manager for both of the Funds, which were organised such that there were U.S. and Cayman Islands "feeder funds" that invested substantially all their assets, directly or indirectly, in the Funds. The Funds are in liquidation.

There are currently three civil actions pending in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York relating to the Funds. One of these actions involves a derivative lawsuit brought on behalf of purchasers of partnership interests in the U.S. feeder fund to the Enhanced Leverage Fund, alleging that the Bear Stearns defendants mismanaged the Funds. This action seeks, among other things, unspecified compensatory damages based on alleged investor losses. The parties have reached an agreement to settle this derivative action, pursuant to which BSAM would pay a maximum of approximately $18 million. In April 2012, the District Court granted final approval of this settlement. In May 2012, objectors representing certain interests in the U.S. feeder fund filed a notice of appeal to the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit from the District Court's final approval of the settlement. That appeal is currently pending. The second pending action, brought by the Joint Voluntary Liquidators of the Cayman Islands feeder funds, makes allegations similar to those asserted in the derivative lawsuits related to the U.S. feeder funds. This action alleges net losses of approximately $700 million and seeks compensatory and punitive damages. The parties recently reached an agreement in principle to resolve the litigation contingent on the execution of a written settlement agreement.

The third action was brought by Bank of America and Bank of America Securities LLC (together "BofA") alleging breach of contract, fraud and breach of fiduciary duty in connection with a $4 billion securitisation in May 2007 known as a "CDO-squared," for which BSAM served as collateral manager. This securitisation was composed of certain collateralised debt obligation holdings that were purchased by BofA from the Funds. BofA currently seeks damages up to approximately $540 million. Motions for summary judgment are pending.

Bear Stearns Shareholder Litigation and Related Matters. Various shareholders of Bear Stearns have commenced purported class actions against Bear Stearns and certain of its former officers and/or directors on behalf of all persons who purchased or otherwise acquired common stock of Bear Stearns between 14 December 2006, and 14 March 2008 (the "Class Period"). The actions alleged that the defendants issued materially false and misleading statements regarding Bear Stearns' business and financial results and that, as a result of those false statements, Bear Stearns' common stock traded at artificially inflated prices during the Class Period. In November 2012, the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York granted final approval of a $275 million settlement.

Bear Stearns, former members of Bear Stearns' Board of Directors and certain of Bear Stearns' former executive officers have also been named as defendants in a shareholder derivative and class action suit which is pending in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. Plaintiffs assert claims for breach of fiduciary duty, violations of federal securities laws, waste of corporate assets and gross mismanagement, unjust enrichment, abuse of control and indemnification and contribution in connection with the losses sustained by Bear Stearns as a result of its purchases of sub-prime loans and certain repurchases of its own common stock. Certain individual defendants are also alleged to have sold their holdings of Bear Stearns common stock while in possession of material non-public information. Plaintiffs seek compensatory damages in an unspecified amount. The District Court dismissed the action, in January 2011, and plaintiffs have appealed. The appeal has been withdrawn pursuant to a stipulation that gives plaintiffs until 1 March 2013 to reinstate.

CIO Investigations and Litigation. JPMorgan Chase is responding to a consolidated shareholder class action, a consolidated class action brought under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act ("ERISA"), shareholder derivative actions, shareholder demands and government investigations relating to losses in the synthetic credit portfolio managed by JPMorgan Chase's CIO. JPMorgan Chase has received requests for documents and information in connection with governmental inquiries and investigations by Congress, the OCC, the Federal Reserve, the U.S. Department of Justice ("DOJ"), the SEC, the Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("CFTC"), the U.K. Financial Conduct Authority, the State of Massachusetts and other government agencies. JPMorgan Chase is cooperating with these investigations.

Four putative class actions alleging violations of Sections 10 (b) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder were filed on behalf of purchasers of JPMorgan Chase's common stock. The cases were consolidated, lead plaintiffs were appointed pursuant to the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act, and a consolidated amended complaint was filed in November 2012 that defines the putative class as purchasers of JPMorgan Chase's common stock between 24 February 2010 and 21 May 2012. The consolidated amended complaint alleges that JPMorgan Chase and certain current and former officers made false or misleading statements concerning CIO's role, JPMorgan Chase's risk management practices and JPMorgan Chase's financial results, as well as in connection with the disclosure of losses in the synthetic credit portfolio in 2012.

Separately, two putative class actions were filed on behalf of participants who held JPMorgan Chase's common stock in JPMorgan Chase's retirement plans. These actions assert claims under ERISA for alleged breaches of fiduciary duties by JPMorgan Chase, certain affiliates and certain current and former directors and officers in connection with the management of those plans. The complaints generally allege that defendants breached the duty of prudence by allowing investment in JPMorgan Chase's common stock when they knew or should have known that such stock was unsuitable for the plans and that JPMorgan Chase and certain current and former officers made false or misleading statements concerning JPMorgan Chase's financial condition. These actions have been consolidated, and a consolidated amended complaint was filed in December 2012 which alleges a class period of 20 December 2011 to 12 July 2012. The consolidated amended complaint contains allegations similar to those in the original complaints, but now asserts claims only on behalf of participants in JPMorgan Chase's 401(k) Savings Plan.

Four shareholder derivative actions have also been filed, purportedly on behalf of JPMorgan Chase, against certain of JPMorgan Chase's current and former directors and officers for alleged breaches of their fiduciary duties. These actions generally allege that defendants failed to exercise adequate oversight over CIO and to manage the risk of CIO's trading activities, which allegedly led to CIO's losses. Two of these four actions have been consolidated, and a consolidated amended complaint was filed in December 2012. An amended complaint in one of the other derivative actions was filed in January 2013.

The consolidated securities action, consolidated ERISA action and the consolidated shareholder derivative action are pending in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, while the two other derivative actions are pending in New York State court. In October 2012, defendants moved to dismiss one of the two shareholder derivative actions pending in New York State court on the ground that plaintiff failed to make a demand on JPMorgan Chase's Board of Directors or adequately allege demand futility, as required by applicable Delaware law. Defendants have not yet responded to the complaints in any of the other actions.

In January 2013, JPMorgan Chase & Co. entered into a Consent Order with the Federal Reserve and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. entered into a Consent Order with the OCC arising out of the Federal Reserve's and the OCC's reviews of the CIO, including the synthetic credit portfolio previously held by the CIO. The Consent Orders relate to risk management, model governance and other control functions related to CIO and certain other trading activities at JPMorgan Chase. Many of the actions required by the Consent Orders have already been, or are in the process of being, implemented by JPMorgan Chase.

City of Milan Litigation and Criminal Investigation. In January 2009, the City of Milan, Italy (the "City") issued civil proceedings against (among others) JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. and J.P. Morgan Securities plc in the District Court of Milan. The proceedings relate to (a) a bond issue by the City in June 2005 (the "Bond"), and (b) an associated swap transaction, which was subsequently restructured on a number of occasions between 2005 and 2007 (the "Swap"). The City seeks damages and/or other remedies against JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. and J.P. Morgan Securities plc (among others) on the grounds of alleged "fraudulent and deceitful acts" and alleged breach of advisory obligations in connection with the Swap and the Bond, together with related swap transactions with other counterparties. JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. and J.P. Morgan Securities plc have entered into a settlement agreement with the City to resolve the City's civil proceedings.

In March 2010, a criminal judge directed four current and former JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. and J.P. Morgan Securities plc personnel and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. (as well as other individuals and three other banks) to go forward to a full trial that started in May 2010. The verdict, rendered in December 2012, acquitted two of the JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. and J.P. Morgan Securities plc personnel and found the other two guilty of aggravated fraud with sanctions of prison sentences (that were automatically suspended under applicable law), fines and a ban from dealing with Italian public bodies for one year. In addition, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. and J.P. Morgan Securities plc (along with other banks involved) was found liable for breaches of Italian administrative law, fined €1 million and was ordered to forfeit its profit from the transaction, which totalled €24.7 million. JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. and J.P. Morgan Securities plc and the individuals plan to appeal the verdict, and none of the sanctions will take effect until all appeal avenues have been exhausted.

Enron Litigation. JPMorgan Chase and certain of its officers and directors are involved in two lawsuits seeking damages arising out of JPMorgan Chase's banking relationships with Enron Corp. and its subsidiaries ("Enron"). Motions to dismiss are pending in both of these lawsuits: an individual action by Enron investors and an action by an Enron counterparty. A number of actions and other proceedings against JPMorgan Chase previously were resolved, including a class action lawsuit captioned Newby v. Enron Corp. and adversary proceedings brought by Enron's bankruptcy estate.

FERC Matters. The Federal Energy Regulatory Commission ("FERC") is investigating JPMorgan Chase's bidding practices in certain organised power markets. Additionally, in November 2012, the FERC issued an Order suspending a JPMorgan Chase energy subsidiary's market-based rate authority for six months commencing on 1 April 2013, based on its finding that statements concerning discovery obligations made in submissions related to the FERC investigation violated FERC rules regarding misleading information.

Interchange Litigation. A group of merchants and retail associations filed a series of putative class action complaints relating to interchange in several federal courts. The complaints allege, among other claims, that Visa and MasterCard, as well as certain other banks, conspired to set the price of credit and debit card interchange fees, enacted respective rules in violation of antitrust laws, and engaged in tying/bundling and exclusive dealing. All cases were consolidated in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York for pre-trial proceedings.

In October 2012, Visa, Inc., its wholly-owned subsidiaries Visa U.S.A. Inc. and Visa International Service Association, MasterCard Incorporated, MasterCard International Incorporated and various United States financial institution defendants, including JPMorgan Chase & Co., JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., Chase Bank USA, N.A., Chase Paymentech Solutions, LLC and certain predecessor institutions, entered into a settlement agreement ("Settlement Agreement") to resolve the claims of the U.S. merchant and retail association plaintiffs ("Class Plaintiffs") in the multidistrict litigation. In November 2012, the Court entered an order preliminarily approving the Settlement Agreement, which provides for, among other things, a cash payment of $6.05 billion to the Class Plaintiffs (of which JPMorgan Chase's share is approximately 20 per cent.), and an amount equal to ten basis points of credit card interchange for a period of eight months to be measured from a date within 60 days of the end of the opt-out period. The Settlement Agreement also provides for modifications to each credit card network's rules, including those that prohibit surcharging credit card transactions. The rule modifications became effective in January 2013. The Settlement Agreement is subject to final approval by the Court.

Investment Management Litigation. JPMorgan Chase is defending three pending cases that allege that investment portfolios managed by J.P. Morgan Investment Management Inc. ("JPMorgan Investment Management") were inappropriately invested in securities backed by residential real estate collateral. Plaintiffs claim that JPMorgan Investment Management is liable for losses of more than $1 billion in market value of these securities. In the case filed by Assured Guaranty (U.K.) and the case filed by Ambac Assurance UK Limited in New York state court, discovery is proceeding on claims for breach of contract, breach of fiduciary duty and gross negligence. The third case, filed by CMMF LLP in New York state court, asserts claims under New York law for breach of fiduciary duty, negligence, breach of contract and negligent misrepresentation. Trial of the CMMF action was completed in February 2013, and the Court's decision is pending.

Lehman Brothers Bankruptcy Proceedings. In May 2010, Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. ("LBHI") and its Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") filed a complaint (and later an amended complaint) against JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York that asserts both federal bankruptcy law and state common law claims, and seeks, among other relief, to recover $8.6 billion in collateral that was transferred to JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. in the weeks preceding LBHI's bankruptcy. The amended complaint also seeks unspecified damages on the grounds that JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A.'s collateral requests hastened LBHI's bankruptcy. JPMorgan Chase moved to dismiss plaintiffs' amended complaint in its entirety, and also moved to transfer the litigation from the Bankruptcy Court to the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. In April 2012, the Bankruptcy Court issued a decision granting in part and denying in part JPMorgan Chase's motion to dismiss. The Court dismissed the counts of the amended complaint seeking avoidance of the allegedly constructively fraudulent and preferential transfers made to JPMorgan Chase during the months of August and September 2008. The Court denied JPMorgan Chase's motion to dismiss as to the other claims, including claims that allege intentional misconduct. In September 2012, the District Court denied the transfer motion without prejudice to its renewal in the future, but stated that any trial would likely have to be conducted before the District Court.

JPMorgan Chase also filed counterclaims against LBHI alleging that LBHI fraudulently induced JPMorgan Chase to make large clearing advances to Lehman against inappropriate collateral, which left JPMorgan Chase with more than $25 billion in claims (the "Clearing Claims") against the estate of Lehman Brothers Inc. ("LB"), LBHI's broker-dealer subsidiary. These claims have been paid in full, subject to the outcome of the litigation. Discovery is ongoing. LBHI and the Committee have filed an objection to the deficiency claims asserted by JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. against LBHI with respect to the Clearing Claims, principally on the grounds that JPMorgan Chase had not conducted the sale of the securities collateral held for such claims in a commercially reasonable manner. JPMorgan Chase responded to LBHI's objection in November 2011. Discovery is ongoing.

LBHI and several of its subsidiaries that had been Chapter 11 debtors have filed a separate complaint and objection to derivatives claims asserted by JPMorgan Chase alleging that the amount of the derivatives claims had been overstated and challenging certain set-offs taken by JPMorgan Chase entities to recover on the claims. JPMorgan Chase has not yet responded to the amended derivatives complaint and objection, and discovery has not begun.

LIBOR Investigations and Litigation. JPMorgan Chase has received subpoenas and requests for documents and, in some cases, interviews, from federal and state agencies and entities, including the DOJ, CFTC, SEC, and various state attorneys general, as well as the European Commission, FCA, Canadian Competition Bureau, Swiss Competition Commission and other regulatory authorities and banking associations around the world. The documents and information sought relate primarily to the process by which interest rates were submitted to the British Bankers Association ("BBA") in connection with the setting of the BBA's London Interbank Offered Rate ("LIBOR") for various currencies, principally in 2007 and 2008. Some of the inquiries also relate to similar processes by which information on rates is submitted to European Banking Federation ("EBF") in connection with the setting of the EBF's Euro Interbank Offered Rates ("EURIBOR") and to the Japanese Bankers' Association for the setting of Tokyo Interbank Offered Rates ("TIBOR") as well as to other processes for the setting of other reference rates in various parts of the world during similar time periods. JPMorgan Chase is cooperating with these inquiries.

In addition, JPMorgan Chase has been named as a defendant along with other banks in a series of individual and class actions filed in various United States District Courts in which plaintiffs make varying allegations that in various periods, starting in 2000 or later, defendants either individually or collectively manipulated the U.S. dollar LIBOR, Yen LIBOR and Euroyen TIBOR rates by submitting rates that were artificially low or high. Plaintiffs allege that they transacted in loans, derivatives or other financial instruments whose values are impacted by changes in U.S. dollar LIBOR, Yen LIBOR, or Euroyen TIBOR and assert a variety of claims including antitrust claims seeking treble damages.

In 2011, a number of class actions were filed against LIBOR panel banks, including JPMorgan Chase, asserting various federal and state law claims relating to the alleged manipulation of U.S. dollar LIBOR. These purported class actions were consolidated for pre-trial purposes in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York before District Judge Buchwald, who appointed interim lead counsel for three proposed classes: (i) direct purchasers of U.S. dollar LIBOR-based financial instruments in the over-the-counter market; (ii) purchasers of U.S. dollar LIBOR-based financial instruments on an exchange; and (iii) purchasers of debt securities that pay an interest rate linked to U.S. dollar LIBOR. The defendants moved to dismiss all claims in these three putative class actions and three related individual actions pending before the Court. The Court has not yet ruled on the defendants' motions to dismiss.

Since April 2012, a number of additional U.S. dollar LIBOR putative class actions and individual actions have been filed in various courts. Defendants have moved to transfer each of these cases to the consolidated action pending in the Southern District of New York. To date, all but three of these actions have been transferred. The actions that have been transferred are stayed until the Court rules on the defendants' pending motions to dismiss.

JPMorgan Chase also has been named as a defendant in a purported class action filed in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York which seeks to bring claims on behalf of plaintiffs who purchased or sold exchange-traded Euroyen futures and options contracts. The plaintiff has been granted leave to file a Second Amended Complaint, and defendants will have 60 days after the filing of that amended pleading to respond.

Madoff Litigation. JPMorgan Chase & Co., JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., J.P. Morgan Securities LLC, and J.P. Morgan Securities plc have been named as defendants in a lawsuit brought by the trustee (the "Trustee") for the liquidation of Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities LLC ("Madoff"). The Trustee has served an amended complaint in which he has asserted 28 causes of action against JPMorgan Chase, 20 of which seek to avoid certain transfers (direct or indirect) made to JPMorgan Chase that are alleged to have been preferential or fraudulent under the federal Bankruptcy Code and the New York Debtor and Creditor Law. The remaining causes of action involve claims for, among other things, aiding and abetting fraud, aiding and abetting breach of fiduciary duty, conversion, contribution and unjust enrichment in connection with Madoff's Ponzi scheme. The complaint asserts common law claims that purport to seek approximately $19 billion in damages, together with bankruptcy law claims to recover approximately $425 million in transfers that JPMorgan Chase allegedly received directly or indirectly from Bernard Madoff's brokerage firm. In October 2011, the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York granted JPMorgan Chase's motion to dismiss the common law claims asserted by the Trustee, and returned the remaining claims to the Bankruptcy Court for further proceedings. The Trustee appealed this decision and oral argument on the appeal was held in November 2012. JPMorgan Chase is awaiting the Court's decision.

Separately, J.P. Morgan Trust Company (Cayman) Limited, JPMorgan (Suisse) SA, J.P. Morgan Securities plc, Bear Stearns Alternative Assets International Ltd., J.P. Morgan Clearing Corp., J.P. Morgan Bank Luxembourg SA, and J.P. Morgan Markets Limited (formerly Bear Stearns International Limited) have been named as defendants in lawsuits presently pending in Bankruptcy Court in New York arising out of the liquidation proceedings of Fairfield Sentry Limited and Fairfield Sigma Limited (together, "Fairfield"), so-called Madoff feeder funds. These actions are based on theories of mistake and restitution, among other theories, and seek to recover payments made to defendants by the funds totalling approximately $155 million. Pursuant to an agreement with the Trustee, the liquidators of Fairfield have voluntarily dismissed their action against J.P. Morgan Securities plc without prejudice to refile. The other actions remain outstanding. In addition, a purported class action was brought by investors in certain feeder funds against JPMorgan Chase in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, as was a motion by separate potential class plaintiffs to add claims against JPMorgan Chase & Co., JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., J.P. Morgan Securities LLC and J.P. Morgan Securities plc to an already pending purported class action in the same court. The allegations in these complaints largely track those raised by the Trustee. The Court dismissed these complaints and plaintiffs have appealed.

JPMorgan Chase is a defendant in five other Madoff-related actions pending in New York state court and one purported class action in federal District Court in New York. The allegations in all of these actions are essentially identical, and involve claims against JPMorgan Chase for, among other things, aiding and abetting breach of fiduciary duty, conversion and unjust enrichment. JPMorgan Chase has moved to dismiss both the state and federal actions.

JPMorgan Chase is also responding to various governmental inquiries concerning the Madoff matter.

MF Global. JPMorgan Chase & Co. was named as one of several defendants in a number of putative class action lawsuits brought by former customers of MF Global in federal District Courts in New York, Illinois and Montana. The lawsuits have been consolidated before the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. The actions alleged, among other things, that JPMorgan Chase aided and abetted MF Global's alleged misuse of customer money and breaches of fiduciary duty and was unjustly enriched by the transfer of certain customer segregated funds by MF Global. JPMorgan Chase has entered into a tolling agreement with counsel for the customer class plaintiffs and an individual plaintiff, pursuant to which the plaintiffs have agreed not to pursue any such claims against JPMorgan Chase in these actions for so long as the tolling agreement remains in effect.

J.P. Morgan Securities LLC has been named as one of several defendants in a number of purported class actions filed by purchasers of MF Global's publicly traded securities, including the securities issued pursuant to MF Global's June 2010 secondary offering of common stock and February 2011 and August 2011 convertible note offerings. The actions have been consolidated before the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. In August 2012, the lead plaintiffs filed an amended complaint which asserts violations of the Securities Act of 1933 against the underwriter defendants and alleges that the offering documents contained materially false and misleading statements and omissions regarding MF Global's financial position, internal controls and risk management, as such topics relate to its exposure to European sovereign debt. Defendants moved to dismiss in October 2012. Those motions remain pending.

In June 2012, the Securities Investor Protection Act ("SIPA") Trustee issued a Report of the Trustee's Investigation and Recommendations, and stated that he is considering potential claims against JPMorgan Chase with respect to certain transfers identified in the Report. Discussions regarding possible resolution of potential SIPA Trustee claims and customer claims against JPMorgan Chase are ongoing.

JPMorgan Chase has responded to and continues to respond to inquiries from the CFTC, SEC, SIPA Trustee and Bankruptcy Trustee concerning MF Global.

Mortgage-Backed Securities and Repurchase Litigation and Mortgage-Related Regulatory Investigations. JPMorgan Chase and affiliates, Bear Stearns and affiliates and Washington Mutual affiliates have been named as defendants in a number of cases in their various roles as issuer, originator or underwriter in mortgage-backed securities ("MBS") offerings. These cases include purported class action suits, actions by individual purchasers of securities or by trustees for the benefit of purchasers of securities, an action by the New York State Attorney General and actions by monoline insurance companies that guaranteed payments of principal and interest for particular tranches of securities offerings. Although the allegations vary by lawsuit, these cases generally allege that the offering documents for securities issued by numerous securitisation trusts contained material misrepresentations and omissions, including with regard to the underwriting standards pursuant to which the underlying mortgage loans were issued, or assert that various representations or warranties relating to the loans were breached at the time of origination. There are currently pending and tolled investor claims involving approximately $170 billion of such securities. In addition, and as described below, there are pending and threatened claims by monoline insurers and by and on behalf of trustees that involve some of these and other securitisations.

In the actions against JPMorgan Chase as an MBS issuer (and, in some cases, also as an underwriter of its own MBS offerings), three purported class actions are pending against JPMorgan Chase and Bear Stearns, and/or certain of their affiliates and current and former employees, in the United States District Courts for the Eastern and Southern Districts of New York. Motions to dismiss have been largely denied in these cases, although in certain cases defendants have sought to appeal aspects of the decision, and they are in various stages of litigation. A settlement of a fourth purported class action that is pending in the United States District Court for the Western District of Washington against Washington Mutual affiliates, WaMu Asset Acceptance Corp. and WaMu Capital Corp. and certain former officers or directors of WaMu Asset Acceptance Corp., has received final court approval.

In addition to class actions, JPMorgan Chase is also a defendant in individual actions brought against certain affiliates of JPMorgan Chase, Bear Stearns and Washington Mutual as issuers (and, in some cases, as underwriters) of MBS. These actions involve claims by or to benefit various institutional investors and governmental agencies. These actions are pending in federal and state courts across the United States and are in various stages of litigation.

In actions against JPMorgan Chase solely as an underwriter of other issuers' MBS offerings, JPMorgan Chase has contractual rights to indemnification from the issuers. However, those indemnity rights may prove effectively unenforceable where the issuers are now defunct, such as in pending cases where JPMorgan Chase has been named involving affiliates of IndyMac Bancorp. A settlement of a purported class action involving Thornburg Mortgage MBS offerings that was pending against JPMorgan Chase has received preliminary court approval. JPMorgan Chase may also be contractually obligated to indemnify underwriters in certain deals it issued.

EMC Mortgage LLC (formerly EMC Mortgage Corporation) ("EMC"), an indirect subsidiary of JPMorgan Chase & Co., and certain other JPMorgan Chase entities currently are defendants in nine pending actions commenced by bond insurers that guaranteed payments of principal and interest on certain classes of 19 different MBS offerings. These actions are pending in federal and state courts in New York and are in various stages of litigation. Certain JPMorgan Chase entities, in their capacities as alleged successors in interest to Bear Stearns and EMC, have been named as defendants in a civil suit filed by the New York State Attorney General in New York state court in connection with Bear Stearns' due diligence and quality control practices relating to MBS.

JPMorgan Chase or its affiliates are defendants in actions brought by trustees or master servicers of various MBS trusts and others on behalf of the purchasers of securities issued by those trusts. The first action was commenced by Deutsche Bank National Trust Company, acting as trustee for various MBS trusts, against JPMorgan Chase and the FDIC based on MBS issued by Washington Mutual Bank and its affiliates; that case is described in the Washington Mutual Litigations section below. The other actions are at various initial stages of litigation in the New York and Delaware state courts, including actions brought by MBS trustees, each specific to one or more MBS transactions, against EMC and/or JPMorgan Chase. These cases generally allege breaches of various representations and warranties regarding securitised loans and seek repurchase of those loans, as well as indemnification of attorneys' fees and costs and other remedies.

There is no assurance that JPMorgan Chase will not be named as a defendant in additional MBS-related litigation, and JPMorgan Chase has entered into agreements with a number of entities that purchased such securities that toll applicable limitations periods with respect to their claims. In addition, JPMorgan Chase has received several demands by securitisation trustees that threaten litigation, as well as demands by investors directing or threatening to direct trustees to investigate claims or bring litigation, based on purported obligations to repurchase loans out of securitisation trusts and alleged servicing deficiencies. These include but are not limited to a demand from a law firm, as counsel to a group of purchasers of MBS that purport to have 25 per cent. or more of the voting rights in as many as 191 different trusts sponsored by JPMorgan Chase or its affiliates with an original principal balance of more than $174 billion (excluding 52 trusts sponsored by Washington Mutual, with an original principal balance of more than $58 billion), made to various trustees to investigate potential repurchase and servicing claims. Further, there have been repurchase and servicing claims made in litigation against trustees not affiliated with JPMorgan Chase, but involving trusts that JPMorgan Chase sponsored.

In April 2012, the New York state court granted JPMorgan Chase's motion to dismiss a shareholder complaint against JPMorgan Chase and two affiliates, members of the boards of directors thereof and certain employees, asserting claims based on alleged wrongful actions and inactions relating to residential mortgage originations and securitisations. The plaintiff has appealed the order. A second shareholder complaint has been filed in New York state court against current and former members of JPMorgan Chase's Board of Directors and JPMorgan Chase, as nominal defendant, alleging that the Board allowed JPMorgan Chase to engage in wrongful conduct regarding the sale of residential MBS and failed to implement adequate internal controls to prevent such wrongdoing.

In addition to the above-described litigation, JPMorgan Chase has also received, and responded to, a number of subpoenas and informal requests for information from federal and state authorities concerning mortgage-related matters, including inquiries concerning a number of transactions involving JPMorgan Chase and its affiliates' origination and purchase of whole loans, underwriting and issuance of MBS, treatment of early payment defaults, potential breaches of securitisation representations and warranties, reserves and due diligence in connection with securitisations. In November 2012, JPMorgan Chase settled with the SEC over its investigations of J.P. Morgan Securities LLC and J.P. Morgan Acceptance Corporation I relating to delinquency disclosures, and of Bear Stearns entities and J.P. Morgan Securities LLC relating to disclosures concerning settlements of claims against originators involving loans included in a number of Bear Stearns securitisations. Pursuant to the settlement, the named entities, without admitting or denying the SEC's allegations, consented to the entry of a final judgment ordering certain relief, including an injunction and the payment of approximately $296.9 million in disgorgement, penalties and interest. The United States District Court for the District of Columbia approved the settlement and entered the judgment in January 2013. JPMorgan Chase continues to respond to other MBS-related regulatory inquiries.

Mortgage Foreclosure-Related Investigations and Litigation. The Attorneys General of Massachusetts and New York have separately filed lawsuits against JPMorgan Chase, other servicers and a mortgage recording company asserting claims for various alleged wrongdoings relating to mortgage assignments and use of the industry's electronic mortgage registry. The court granted in part and denied in part the defendants' motion to dismiss the Massachusetts action and JPMorgan Chase has moved to dismiss the New York action.

Six purported class action lawsuits were filed against JPMorgan Chase relating to its mortgage foreclosure procedures. Two of the class actions have been dismissed with prejudice and one settled on an individual basis. Of the remaining active actions, two are in the discovery phase and a motion to dismiss is pending in the remaining action. Additionally, a purported class action brought against Bank of America involving an EMC loan has been dismissed.

Two shareholder derivative actions have been filed in New York Supreme Court against JPMorgan Chase's Board of Directors alleging that the Board failed to exercise adequate oversight as to wrongful conduct by JPMorgan Chase regarding mortgage servicing. These actions seek declaratory relief and damages. In July 2012, the Court granted defendants' motion to dismiss the complaint in the first-filed action and gave plaintiff 45 days in which to file an amended complaint. In October 2012, the Court entered a stipulated order consolidating the actions and staying all proceedings pending the plaintiffs' decision whether to file a consolidated complaint after JPMorgan Chase completes its response to a demand submitted by one of the plaintiffs under Section 220 of the Delaware General Corporation Law.

The Civil Division of the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York is conducting an investigation concerning JPMorgan Chase's compliance with the requirements of the Federal Housing Administration's Direct Endorsement Program. JPMorgan Chase is cooperating in that investigation.

On 7 January 2013, JPMorgan Chase announced that it and a number of other financial institutions entered into a settlement agreement with the OCC and the Federal Reserve providing for the termination of the Independent Foreclosure Review programs that had been required under the Consent Orders with such banking regulators relating to each bank's residential mortgage servicing, foreclosure and loss-mitigation activities. Under this settlement, JPMorgan Chase will make a cash payment of $753 million into a settlement fund for distribution to qualified borrowers. JPMorgan Chase has also committed an additional $1.2 billion to foreclosure prevention actions under the settlement, which will be fulfilled through credits given to JPMorgan Chase for modifications, short sales and other types of borrower relief.

Municipal Derivatives Investigations and Litigation. Purported class action lawsuits and individual actions have been filed against JPMorgan Chase and Bear Stearns, as well as numerous other providers and brokers, alleging antitrust violations in the market for financial instruments related to municipal bond offerings referred to collectively as "municipal derivatives." In July 2011, JPMorgan Chase settled with federal and state governmental agencies to resolve their investigations into similar alleged conduct. The municipal derivatives actions were consolidated and/or coordinated in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. In December 2012, the District Court granted final approval of a settlement calling for payment of approximately $43 million. Certain class members opted out of the settlement, including 27 plaintiffs named in individual actions already pending against JPMorgan.

In addition, civil actions have been commenced against JPMorgan Chase relating to certain Jefferson County, Alabama ("County") warrant underwritings and swap transactions. In November 2009, J.P. Morgan Securities LLC settled with the SEC to resolve its investigation into those transactions. Following that settlement, the County filed an action against JPMorgan Chase and several other defendants in Alabama state court. An action on behalf of a purported class of sewer rate payers has also been filed in Alabama state court. The suits allege that JPMorgan Chase made payments to certain third parties in exchange for being chosen to underwrite more than $3 billion in warrants issued by the County and to act as the counterparty for certain swaps executed by the County. The complaints also allege that JPMorgan Chase concealed these third-party payments and that, but for this concealment, the County would not have entered into the transactions. The Court denied JPMorgan Chase's motions to dismiss the complaints in both proceedings. In November and December 2011, the County filed notices of bankruptcy with the trial court in each of the cases and with the Alabama Supreme Court stating that it was a Chapter 9 Debtor in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Alabama. Subsequently, the portion of the sewer rate payer action involving claims against JPMorgan Chase was removed by certain defendants to the United States District Court for the Northern District of Alabama. In its order finding that removal of this action was proper, the District Court referred the action to the District's Bankruptcy Court, where the action remains pending. Limited discovery has taken place in the County's action and additional discovery may take place in 2013.

In September 2012, a group of purported creditors of the County initiated an adversary proceeding and filed a purported class action complaint alleging that certain warrants were issued unlawfully and were thus null and void and seeking $1.6 billion in damages from JPMorgan Chase and other defendants involved in the Jefferson County financing transactions. JPMorgan Chase, along with a number of other defendants, moved to dismiss the complaint in November 2012. Plaintiffs subsequently agreed to dismiss their tort claims seeking damages and are solely pursuing their claims relating to the validity of the warrants. The motion to dismiss these claims remains pending.

Two insurance companies that guaranteed the payment of principal and interest on warrants issued by the County have filed separate actions against JPMorgan Chase in New York state court. Their complaints assert that JPMorgan Chase fraudulently misled them into issuing insurance based upon substantially the same alleged conduct described above and other alleged non-disclosures. One insurer claims that it insured an aggregate principal amount of nearly $1.2 billion and seeks unspecified damages in excess of $400 million as well as unspecified punitive damages. The other insurer claims that it insured an aggregate principal amount of more than $378 million and seeks recovery of $4 million allegedly paid under the policies to date as well as any future payments and unspecified punitive damages. In December 2010, the court denied JPMorgan Chase's motions to dismiss each of the complaints. JPMorgan Chase has filed a cross claim and a third party claim against the County for indemnity and contribution. The County moved to dismiss, which the court denied in August 2011. In consequence of its November 2011 bankruptcy filing, the County has asserted that these actions are stayed. In February 2012, one of the insurers filed a motion for a declaration that its action is not stayed as against JPMorgan Chase or, in the alternative, for an order lifting the stay as against JPMorgan Chase. JPMorgan Chase and the County opposed the motion, which remains pending.

Option Adjustable Rate Mortgage Litigation. JPMorgan Chase is defending one purported and three certified class actions, all pending in federal courts in California, which assert that several JPMorgan Chase entities violated the federal Truth in Lending Act and state unfair business practice statutes in failing to provide adequate disclosures in Option Adjustable Rate Mortgage ("ARM") loans regarding the resetting of introductory interest rates and that negative amortisation was certain to occur if a borrower made the minimum monthly payment. With respect to the former Washington Mutual and Bear Stearns defendants who purchased Option ARM loans from third-party originators, plaintiffs allege that those entities aided and abetted the original lenders' alleged violations. Classes have been certified in three of the actions. In one of the certified class actions, JPMorgan Chase has moved for decertification of the class and for summary judgment. JPMorgan Chase was unsuccessful in seeking permission to appeal the remaining class certification decisions.

Overdraft Fee/Debit Posting Order Litigation. JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. has been named as a defendant in several purported class actions relating to its practices in posting debit card transactions to customers' deposit accounts. Plaintiffs allege that JPMorgan Chase improperly re-ordered debit card transactions from the highest amount to the lowest amount before processing these transactions in order to generate unwarranted overdraft fees. Plaintiffs contend that JPMorgan Chase should have processed such transactions in the chronological order in which they were authorised. Plaintiffs seek the disgorgement of all overdraft fees paid to JPMorgan Chase by plaintiffs since approximately 2003 as a result of the re-ordering of debit card transactions. The claims against JPMorgan Chase have been consolidated with numerous complaints against other national banks in multi-District litigation pending in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida. JPMorgan Chase reached an agreement to settle this matter in exchange for JPMorgan Chase paying $110 million and agreeing to change certain overdraft fee practices. In December 2012, the Court granted final approval of the settlement.

Petters Bankruptcy and Related Matters. JPMorgan Chase and certain of its affiliates, including One Equity Partners ("OEP"), have been named as defendants in several actions filed in connection with the receivership and bankruptcy proceedings pertaining to Thomas J. Petters and certain affiliated entities (collectively, "Petters") and the Polaroid Corporation. The principal actions against JPMorgan Chase and its affiliates have been brought by a court-appointed receiver for Petters and the trustees in bankruptcy proceedings for three Petters entities. These actions generally seek to avoid, on fraudulent transfer and preference grounds, certain purported transfers in connection with (i) the 2005 acquisition by Petters of Polaroid, which at the time was majority-owned by OEP; (ii) two credit facilities that JPMorgan Chase and other financial institutions entered into with Polaroid; and (iii) a credit line and investment accounts held by Petters. The actions collectively seek recovery of approximately $450 million. Defendants have moved to dismiss the complaints in the actions filed by the Petters bankruptcy trustees and the parties have agreed to stay the action brought by the Receiver until after the Bankruptcy Court rules on the pending motions.

Securities Lending Litigation. JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. was named as a defendant in a putative class action asserting ERISA and other claims pending in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York brought by participants in JPMorgan Chase's securities lending business. The action concerns investments of approximately $500 million in Lehman Brothers medium-term notes. The Court granted JPMorgan Chase's motion to dismiss all claims in April 2012. The plaintiff filed a third amended complaint, and JPMorgan Chase's motion to dismiss this complaint is pending. Discovery has been stayed until JPMorgan Chase's motion to dismiss is decided.

Washington Mutual Litigations. Proceedings related to Washington Mutual's failure are pending before the United States District Court for the District of Columbia and include a lawsuit brought by Deutsche Bank National Trust Company, initially against the FDIC, asserting an estimated $6 billion to $10 billion in damages based upon alleged breach of various mortgage securitisation agreements and alleged violation of certain representations and warranties given by certain Washington Mutual, Inc. ("WMI") subsidiaries in connection with those securitisation agreements. The case includes assertions that JPMorgan Chase may have assumed liabilities for alleged breaches of representations and warranties in the mortgage securitisation agreements. The District Court denied as premature motions by JPMorgan Chase and the FDIC that sought a ruling on whether the FDIC retained liability for Deutsche Bank's claims. Discovery is underway.

In addition, JPMorgan Chase was sued in an action originally filed in state court in Texas (the "Texas Action") by certain holders of WMI common stock and debt of WMI and Washington Mutual Bank who seek unspecified damages alleging that JPMorgan Chase acquired substantially all of the assets of Washington Mutual Bank from the FDIC at a price that was allegedly too low. The Texas Action was transferred to the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, which ultimately granted JPMorgan Chase's and the FDIC's motions to dismiss the complaint, but the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit reversed the District Court's dismissal and remanded the case for further proceedings. Plaintiffs, who sue now only as holders of Washington Mutual Bank debt following their voluntary dismissal of claims brought as holders of WMI common stock and debt, have filed an amended complaint alleging that JPMorgan Chase caused the closure of Washington Mutual Bank and damaged them by causing their bonds issued by Washington Mutual Bank, which had a total face value of $38 million, to lose substantially all of their value. JPMorgan Chase and the FDIC moved to dismiss this action and the District Court dismissed the case except as to the plaintiffs' claim that JPMorgan Chase tortiously interfered with the plaintiffs' bond contracts with Washington Mutual Bank prior to its closure.

In addition to the various legal proceedings discussed above, JPMorgan Chase and its subsidiaries are named as defendants or are otherwise involved in a substantial number of other legal proceedings. JPMorgan Chase believes it has meritorious defences to the claims asserted against it in its currently outstanding legal proceedings and it intends to defend itself vigorously in all such matters. Additional legal proceedings may be initiated from time to time in the future.

JPMorgan Chase has established reserves for several hundred of its currently outstanding legal proceedings. JPMorgan Chase accrues for potential liability arising from such proceedings when it is probable that such liability has been incurred and the amount of the loss can be reasonably estimated. JPMorgan Chase evaluates its outstanding legal proceedings each quarter to assess its litigation reserves, and makes adjustments in such reserves, upwards or downwards, as appropriate, based on management's best judgment after consultation with counsel. During the years ended 31 December 2012, 2011 and 2010, JPMorgan Chase incurred $5.0 billion, $4.9 billion and $7.4 billion, respectively, of litigation expense. There is no assurance that JPMorgan Chase's litigation reserves will not need to be adjusted in the future.

In view of the inherent difficulty of predicting the outcome of legal proceedings, particularly where the claimants seek very large or indeterminate damages, or where the matters present novel legal theories, involve a large number of parties or are in early stages of discovery, JPMorgan Chase cannot state with confidence what will be the eventual outcomes of the currently pending matters, the timing of their ultimate resolution or the eventual losses, fines, penalties or impact related to those matters. JPMorgan Chase believes, based upon its current knowledge, after consultation with counsel and after taking into account its current litigation reserves, that the legal proceedings currently pending against it should not have a material adverse effect on JPMorgan Chase's consolidated financial condition. JPMorgan Chase notes, however, that in light of the uncertainties involved in such proceedings, there is no assurance the ultimate resolution of these matters will not significantly exceed the reserves it has currently accrued; as a result, the outcome of a particular matter may be material to JPMorgan Chase's operating results for a particular period, depending on, among other factors, the size of the loss or liability imposed and the level of JPMorgan Chase's income for that period.

THIS GUARANTEE is made by way of deed on 3 May 2013 by JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., a national banking association organised under the federal laws of the United States of America (the "Guarantor"), in favour of the Beneficiaries (as defined below).

WHEREAS:

J.P. Morgan Structured Products B.V., a private company with limited liability (besloten vennootschap met beperkte aansprakelijkheid) incorporated under the laws of The Netherlands (the "Obligor"), may from time to time issue Notes (up to a Programme limit of U.S.$50,000,000,000), Warrants and Certificates (each as defined in the Agency Agreement described below) under the Structured Products Programme for the issuance of Notes, Warrants and Certificates (the "Programme" and such Notes, Warrants and Certificates, the "Securities" and each a "Security") (each holder of Securities issued by the Obligor, a "Beneficiary" and together, the "Beneficiaries"), pursuant to (a) an amended and restated agency agreement dated 3 May 2013 among the Obligor, the Guarantor, J.P. Morgan Bank Dublin plc, J.P. Morgan Indies SRL, JPMorgan Chase & Co., The Bank of New York Mellon, The Bank of New York Mellon (Luxembourg) S.A., J.P. Morgan Securities plc ("JPMS plc"), Skandinaviska Enskilda Banken AB (publ), Svenska Handelsbanken AB (publ), Branch Operation in Finland, BNP Paribas Securities Services and Credit Suisse AG (the "Agency Agreement"), with the benefit of (b) (to the extent such Securities are governed by English law) a Deed of Covenant dated 3 May 2013 executed by the Obligor and (c) this guarantee (the "Guarantee"), under the terms and conditions set out in the Agency Agreement as completed and/or amended by (d) a Pricing Supplement (as defined in the Agency Agreement), and such Securities may be subscribed by Dealers in accordance with (e) an amended and restated programme agreement dated 3 May 2013 between, amongst others, the Obligor and JPMS plc (the "Programme Agreement") (the foregoing, together, as amended and/or supplemented and/or restated from time to time, the "Programme Documents").

NOW THIS DEED WITNESSES as follows:

1. Guarantee

Subject as provided below, the Guarantor unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees by way of deed poll to each Beneficiary that, if for any reason the Obligor does not pay any sum payable by it or perform any other obligation in respect of any Security issued by it on or after the date hereof (subject as provided in clause 7 below) on the date such payment or performance is due in accordance with the Programme Documents (and for the avoidance of doubt, after any applicable delay or extinguishment due to any event or condition set out in the Programme Documents providing or allowing for delay or extinguishment in respect of the payment or performance of such obligation) the Guarantor will, in accordance with the Programme Documents, pay that sum in the currency in which such payment is due in immediately available funds or, as the case may be, perform or procure the performance of the relevant obligations on the due date for such performance. In case of the failure of the Obligor to satisfy such obligations as and when the same become due, the Guarantor hereby undertakes to make or cause to be made such payment or satisfy or cause to be satisfied such obligations as though the Guarantor were the principal obligor in respect of such obligations after a demand has been made on the Guarantor pursuant to clause 8 hereof.

2. Guarantor as Principal Obligor

As between the Guarantor and each Beneficiary but without affecting the Obligor's obligations, the Guarantor will be liable under this Guarantee as if it were the sole principal obligor and not merely a surety, subject as provided below. Accordingly, subject as provided below, the Guarantor will not be discharged, nor will its liability be affected, by (a) any change in the amount, time, manner or place of payment of, or in any other term of, any such obligations, or any other amendment or waiver of or any consent to departure from any of the terms of any Programme Documents or any such obligations; (b) any release, surrender or amendment or waiver of, or consent to departure from, any other guaranty or support document, or any exchange, release or non-perfection of any security, collateral or other credit support, for all or any of the Programme Documents or any such obligations; (c) the status of the Obligor as the debtor or subject of a bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding; (d) the absence of any action to enforce any of the Obligor's obligations or any collateral therefor; (e) the rendering of any judgment against the Obligor or any action to enforce the same; and (f) any admission by the Obligor in writing of its inability to pay or meet its debts as they may mature or if proceedings are initiated against the Obligor under any applicable insolvency or bankruptcy laws or the Obligor convenes a meeting of its creditors or makes or proposes to make any arrangements or compositions with or any assignment for the benefit of its creditors, save that, for the avoidance of doubt, the Guarantor shall not be liable under this Guarantee where, pursuant to the Programme Documents, the payment or performance by the Obligor in respect of its obligations is not due. In addition to and not in limitation of the preceding proviso, any defences or counterclaims of the Obligor (other than any resulting solely from, or available to the Guarantor solely on account of, the insolvency of the Obligor or the status of the Obligor as the debtor or subject of a bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding) shall also be available to the Guarantor to the same extent as such defences or counterclaims are available to the Obligor and may be asserted as defences or counterclaims by the Guarantor to its obligations hereunder with respect to such obligations of the Obligor, in each case whether or not asserted by the Obligor.

3. Guarantor's Obligations Continuing

The Guarantor's obligations under this Guarantee are and will remain in full force and effect by way of continuing security until no sum remains payable and no other obligation remains to be performed under any Security issued by the Obligor on or after the date hereof (in the case where the relevant Security is a Warrant (as defined in the Programme Documents), subject to its exercise). Furthermore, those obligations of the Guarantor are additional to, and not instead of, any security or other guarantee or indemnity at any time existing in favour of any person, whether from the Guarantor or otherwise.

4. Discharge by Obligor

If any payment received by, or other obligation discharged to or to the order of, any Beneficiary is, on the subsequent bankruptcy or insolvency of the Obligor, avoided under any laws relating to bankruptcy or insolvency, such payment or obligation will not be considered as having discharged or diminished the liability of the Guarantor and this Guarantee will continue to apply as if such payment or obligation had at all times remained owing due by the Obligor.

5. Subrogation

The Guarantor (1) shall have the right, upon receipt of a demand under this Guarantee by a Beneficiary, to assume the rights and payment obligations of the Obligor to such Beneficiary, together with any right of the Obligor to cure any event of default by or relating to the Obligor, notwithstanding any notice of default/termination previously sent by such Beneficiary to the Obligor, and thereby rescind any notice of default/termination given by such Beneficiary, and (2) shall be subrogated to all rights of the Beneficiaries against the Obligor in respect of any amounts paid by the Guarantor pursuant to the provisions of this Guarantee; provided, however, that the Guarantor shall not be entitled to enforce or to receive any payments arising out of, or based upon, such right of subrogation until all amounts due and payable by the Obligor to the Beneficiaries in respect of the obligations subject to the aforesaid demand for payment, up to the time of such subrogation, have been paid in full.

6. Incorporation of Terms

The Guarantor agrees that it shall comply with and be bound by those provisions contained in the Programme Documents which relate to it.

7. Deposit of Guarantee and Application

This Guarantee shall be deposited with and held by The Bank of New York Mellon for the benefit of the Beneficiaries.

- (i) Subject to (b) and (c) below, this Guarantee (i) applies in respect of each Security issued by the Obligor under the Programme on or after the date hereof (the "Effective Date") and (ii) amends, supplants and replaces in its entirety, for all such Securities referred to in (i), the Guarantee referenced in the Base Prospectus for the Programme dated 11 May 2012 (the "11 May 2012 Guarantee"). For the avoidance of doubt, the 11 May 2012 Guarantee (and each guarantee of Securities by the Guarantor under the Programme preceding the 11 May 2012 Guarantee, as applicable) shall continue to apply to all Securities issued under the Programme before the Effective Date in accordance with their terms, as applicable.

- (ii) Securities issued on or after the Effective Date which are expressed to be consolidated and form a single series with Securities the first tranche of which was issued prior to the Effective Date, shall not have the benefit of this Guarantee but shall instead have the benefit of the same guarantee of the Guarantor under the Programme granted in respect of such first tranche of Securities.
- (iii) This Guarantee shall not apply in respect of any Securities issued on or after the date on which the Guarantor has granted a subsequent guarantee of Securities issued by the Obligor under the Programme and which subsequent guarantee is expressed to replace this Guarantee in relation to such Securities (unless expressly so provided in the terms of such subsequent guarantee).

8. Demand on Guarantor

Any demand hereunder shall be given in writing, addressed to the Guarantor and served at its office at 1111 Polaris Parkway, Columbus, Ohio 43240, United States of America, Attn: Treasury Department, Regulatory and Guarantee Group – Peter W Smith, Phone: +1 212 270 5815. 9. Not Insured

This Guarantee is not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation of the United States of America.

10. Governing Law

This Guarantee and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection herewith shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law.

11. Jurisdiction

This clause 11 is for the benefit of the Beneficiaries only.
