

THIS NOTICE APPEARS FOR REGULATORY PURPOSES AND IS NOT ADDRESSED TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF ARCELORMITTAL

Luxembourg, 25 August 2014

This notice is addressed to the shareholders of ArcelorMittal Luxembourg only and is published by ArcelorMittal having its registered office at 19, avenue de la Liberté, L-2930, Luxembourg solely in its capacity as majority shareholder of ArcelorMittal Luxembourg within the meaning of the Squeeze Out Law (as defined below).

IMPORTANT NOTICE

This notice relates to the mandatory squeeze out initiated by ArcelorMittal concerning the securities in ArcelorMittal Luxembourg in accordance with the provisions of the law of 21st July 2012 relating to the squeeze out and mandatory sell out of securities admitted or having been admitted to negotiation on a regulated market or having been offered to the public (the "Squeeze Out Law").

The holders of securities have the right to oppose the mandatory squeeze out project in accordance with the terms and the deadline provided by article 4 (6) of the Squeeze Out Law.

Opposition must be filed by registered letter with acknowledgment of receipt addressed to the Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier (the "CSSF") setting out the reasons of the opposition and sent within a period of one month starting from the date of the publication of the proposed price in accordance with article 4 (5) of the Squeeze Out Law. A copy of the letter shall be sent within the same time period by registered letter with acknowledgment of receipt to the majority shareholder and to the concerned company.

Any opposition within the meaning of article 4 (6) of the Squeeze Out Law filed by registered letter with acknowledgment of receipt addressed to the CSSF and sent within the period of one month starting from the date of publication of the proposed price in accordance with article 4(5) of the Squeeze Out Law must be received by the CSSF at the latest 5 days after the expiration of the period of opposition.

Subject to compliance with the provisions of the Squeeze Out Law, at the end of the mandatory squeeze out procedure, the securities which have not been presented at the latest on the final payment date shall be deemed automatically transferred by operation of law to the majority shareholder without the prior consent of the holders of the remaining securities.

By press release dated 17 June 2014, ArcelorMittal informed the shareholders of ArcelorMittal Luxembourg (hereafter "AM Luxembourg") that ArcelorMittal, as majority shareholder of AM Luxembourg, has received a request from a minority shareholder of AM Luxembourg to mandatorily repurchase the entirety of his shares in AM Luxembourg in accordance with article 10 (5) of the Squeeze Out Law.

By this press release, ArcelorMittal informs the shareholders of AM Luxembourg that ArcelorMittal has decided to exercise its right of mandatory squeeze out on the shares of AM Luxembourg which are being held by minority shareholders in accordance with articles 4, 5 (8) and 10 (4) of the Squeeze Out Law. The shares concerned by the mandatory squeeze out were formerly traded on multiple stock exchanges until the end of 2002, including the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (Bourse de Luxembourg), Euronext Bruxelles, Euronext Paris and Frankfurt Stock Exchange (Deutsche Börse) and listed under ISIN number LU0006047129.

In accordance with article 5 (8) of the Squeeze Out Law, the exercise by ArcelorMittal of its right of mandatory squeeze-out cancels the mandatory sell out and the procedure relating thereto.

1. Name of the independent expert

ArcelorMittal has mandated KPMG Luxembourg, société à responsabilité limitée having its registered office at 9, allée Scheffer, L-2520 Luxembourg, R.C.S. Luxembourg B 149.133 (« KPMG ») as independent expert within the meaning of the Squeeze Out Law in order to value the shares of AM Luxembourg and to draw up a valuation report in accordance with the Squeeze Out Law.

KPMG shall determine the fair price of the shares concerned by the mandatory squeeze out on the basis of objective and adequate methods applying to asset disposals (article 4(4) of the Squeeze Out Law) and shall certify in its valuation report its independence from any party concerned and the absence of any conflict of interests.

About ArcelorMittal

ArcelorMittal is the world's leading steel and mining company, with a presence in more than 60 countries and an industrial footprint in over 20 countries. Guided by a philosophy to produce safe, sustainable steel, we are the leading supplier of quality steel in the major global steel markets including automotive, construction, household appliances and packaging, with world-class research and development and outstanding distribution networks.

Through our core values of sustainability, quality and leadership, we operate responsibly with respect to the health, safety and wellbeing of our employees, contractors and the communities in which we operate.

For us, steel is the fabric of life, as it is at the heart of the modern world from railways to cars and washing machines. We are actively researching and producing steel-based technologies and solutions that make many of the products and components we use in our everyday lives more energy-efficient.

We are one of the world's five largest producers of iron ore and metallurgical coal and our mining business is an essential part of our growth strategy. With a geographically diversified portfolio of iron ore and coal assets, we are strategically positioned to serve our network of steel plants and the external global market. While our steel operations are important customers, our supply to the external market is increasing as we grow.

In 2013, ArcelorMittal had revenues of $79.4 billion and crude steel production of 91.2 million tonnes, while own iron ore production reached 58.4 million tonnes.

ArcelorMittal is listed on the stock exchanges of New York (MT), Amsterdam (MT), Paris (MT), Luxembourg (MT) and on the Spanish stock exchanges of Barcelona, Bilbao, Madrid and Valencia (MTS).
