

Nordgold Publishes 2013 Integrated Report

Amsterdam, Netherlands, April 22, 2014 – Nord Gold N.V. (“Nordgold” or the “Company”, LSE: NORD), the internationally diversified, pure-play gold producer strategically focused on emerging markets, is pleased to announce that its Integrated Report for the year ended December 31, 2013, which includes Financial Statements, Annual Report and Sustainability Report, is now available on the Company's website at www.nordgold.com.

Nordgold has submitted the 2013 Integrated Report to the UK National Storage Mechanism and the Irish Stock Exchange.

Nordgold's dividend policy is to target a payout ratio of 30% of the pro-forma underlying profit attributable to shareholders. The application of this policy would have generated a payout of US$29.3 million for the year ended December 31, 2013. As Nordgold has already declared and paid US$29.7 million in interim dividends to shareholders in respect of 2013, the Board of Directors has decided not to recommend any further or final dividend for the year ended December 31, 2013 at the Annual General Meeting.

Nordgold also announces that, having served a number of years as Chief Financial Officer and member of the Board of the Company, Mr. Sergey Zinkovich has notified the Company that he has decided to step down from the Board in order to take up another executive appointment and will resign from Nordgold with effect from May 14, 2014.

The Board would like to thank Sergey for the outstanding contribution he has made to Nordgold since the company was established in 2007 and wish him every success in his future career.

Whilst the Board is seeking to make a permanent appointment, Mr. Dmitry Guzeev, who is currently the Head of Corporate Reporting at Nordgold, will be appointed Acting Chief Financial Officer of Nordgold, as of May 14, 2014.

Dmitry joined Nordgold in July 2013. Prior to joining Nordgold, Dmitry was the Head of Corporate Reporting of SIBUR, Russia's largest gas processing business and a leader in the Russian petrochemicals industry, where he established and developed the IFRS function and was a leading IFRS expert supporting complex corporate transactions. He also gained previous experience with Deloitte and Arthur Andersen. Dmitry holds a Degree in International Economics from the State Finance Academy (Russia).

Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

Certain information contained in this press release, including any information as to Nordgold's estimates, strategy, projects, plans, prospects, future outlook, anticipated events or results or future financial or operating performance and production may constitute "forward-looking information" within the meaning of applicable securities laws. All statements, other than statements of historical fact, constitute forward-looking information. Forward-looking information can often, but not always, be identified by the use of words such as "plans", "expects", "is expected", "budget", "scheduled", "estimates", "forecasts", "intends", "anticipates", "predicts", "potential", "continue" or "believes", or variations (including negative variations) of such words, or statements that certain actions, events or results "may", "could", "would", "should", "might", "potential to", or "will" be taken, occur or be achieved or other similar expressions concerning matters that are not historical facts. The purpose of forward-looking information is to provide the reader with information about management's expectations and plans. Readers are cautioned that forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance.

All forward-looking statements made or incorporated in this press release are qualified by these cautionary statements.

Forward-looking information involves significant risks, assumptions, uncertainties and other factors that may cause actual future realities or anticipated events to differ materially from those expressed or implied in any forward-looking information and, accordingly, should not be read as guarantees of future performance or realities. Material factors or assumptions that were applied in formulating the forward-looking information contained herein include the assumption that the business and economic conditions affecting Nordgold's operations will continue substantially in their current state, including, without limitation, with respect to industry conditions, general levels of economic activity, market prices for gold, competition for and scarcity of gold mine assets, achievement of anticipated mineral reserve and mineral resource tonnages or grades, ability to develop additional mineral reserves, acquisition of funding for capital expenditures, adequacy and availability of production, processing and product delivery infrastructure, electricity costs, continuity and availability of personnel and third party service providers, local and international laws and regulations, foreign currency exchange rates and interest rates, inflation, taxes, and that there will be no unplanned material changes to Nordgold's facilities, equipment, customer and employee relations and credit arrangements. Nordgold cautions that the foregoing list of material factors and assumptions is not exhaustive. Many of these assumptions are based on factors and events that are not within the control of Nordgold and there is no assurance that they will prove correct. The risks and other factors that may cause actual future realities or anticipated events to differ materially from those expressed or implied in any forward-looking information include, but are not limited to Nordgold's ability to execute its development and exploration programs; the financial and operational performance of Nordgold; civil disturbance, armed conflict or security issues at the mineral projects of Nordgold; political factors; the capital requirements associated with operations; dependence on key personnel; compliance with environmental regulations; estimated production; and competition.

Actual performance or achievement could differ materially from that expressed in, or implied by, any forward-looking information in this press release and, accordingly, investors should not place undue reliance on any such forward-looking information. Further, any forward-looking information speaks only as of the date on which such statement is made, and Nordgold does not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking information to reflect information, events, results, circumstances or realities after the date on which such statement is made or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events, except as required by applicable securities laws. All forward-looking information contained in this press release is qualified by such cautionary statements. New risk factors emerge from time to time, and it is not possible for management to predict all of such risk factors and to assess in advance the impact of each such factor on Nordgold's business or the extent to which any factor, or combination of factors, may cause actual realities to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking information.
