Achmea nominates EY as new auditor

Zeist, 16 August 2019 – Achmea's Supervisory Board is nominating EY as its new auditor, succeeding PwC, with effect from the start of the 2021 financial year. The general meeting of shareholders will vote on the appointment of EY as auditor in the last quarter of this year. Achmea is changing its auditor owing to the mandatory rotation of audit firms. PwC will continue to work for Achmea until the audit process for the 2020 financial year is completed.

About Achmea

Achmea is the cooperative parent company of strong insurance brands such as Centraal Beheer, Interpolis and Zilveren Kruis. Together they form the largest insurance group in the Netherlands (approximately 14,000 employees). Achmea has a cooperative background and balances the interests of customers, partners, employees and shareholders. Achmea customers contributed premiums of approximately €20 billion in 2018. Achmea is the market leader in non-life and health insurance in the Netherlands. It also offers income protection insurance and, with Centraal Beheer APF, a good income for the future. The asset manager, Achmea Investment Management, has over €129 billion in assets under management. Achmea offers mortgages via Centraal Beheer and Woonfonds, among others. In addition to the Netherlands, Achmea is also active in five other countries.
