Share Buy Back

Boussard and Gavaudan Holding Limited ("BGHL" or the "Company") today announced that following its Annual General Meeting held on 9 July 2015 its shareholders renewed BGHL's authority to repurchase shares.

This reauthorization demonstrates the Board's continued efforts to actively offer a liquidity to the shareholders.

Since 2008, BGHL has operated a share buy back programme approved in each annual meeting by its shareholders.

As of 30 06 15, BGHL has bought back 67.30% of its shares issued. On most days, the Company has bought back up to legal and regulatory maximums. BGHL plans to continue to buy back shares directly from shareholders in off-market block transactions.

The Company currently partners with Exane to repurchase BGHL's Euro shares on the Euronext Amsterdam up to 14.99% per annum of each share class in issue. BGHL is also in regular contact with closed-end fund specialist firms in London to help market the fund to a broader audience.

Every reasonable, long-term and cost-effective endeavour will continue to be made to increase the liquidity of the shares.
