BANK OF AMERICA CORPORATION FILED A FORM 8-K

CHARLOTTE, N.C.– (BUSINESS WIRE) – July 23, 2015 – Bank of America Company (the "Corporation") today informed its securities holders that it has filed a Current Report on Form 8-K with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") on July 23, 2015, announcing certain management team changes.

Chief Financial Officer Bruce Thompson has decided to step down after 5½ years as chief risk officer and chief financial officer.

Global Human Resources Executive Andrea Smith will assume a newly created position as chief administrative officer.

Vice Chairman David Darnell has decided to retire by the fourth quarter, after more than 35 years with the company.

Paul Donofrio, who has been with Bank of America since 1999 and has 25 years of global corporate and investment banking experience, will become CFO, effective August 1.

Replacing Smith as Global Human Resources executive is Sheri Bronstein, who will join the management team and report to Chief Executive Officer Brian Moynihan.

Darnell, who currently oversees Global Wealth and Investment Management ("GWIM"), plans to retire in the fourth quarter of this year. Upon Darnell's retirement and after the company's 2015 CCAR submission work is completed, Terry Laughlin will assume responsibilities as leader of GWIM and be appointed vice chairman.

In addition to the management changes announced above, Moynihan announced three senior executives will receive new titles in line with the evolution of their responsibilities.

- Anne Finucane is appointed vice chairman and continues as the company's global chief strategy and marketing officer.
- Cathy Bessant remains head of the company's technology and operations areas. The position is re-designated chief operations and technology officer, effective immediately.
- Gary Lynch continues to serve as global general counsel and is appointed vice chairman.
