

Amsterdam Airport Schiphol will maintain charges unchanged on
1 April 2010

Press Release

Amsterdam Airport Schiphol, 14 September 2009

In view of the current economic situation, Amsterdam Airport Schiphol will leave its airport charges unchanged on 1 April 2010. Airport charges are aircraft, passenger and security related charges. By keeping charges at the current level, the airport aims to help airlines maintain and expand their network of destinations to and from Schiphol. Passengers can fly directly from Amsterdam Airport Schiphol to more than 260 destinations worldwide.
