Hazelwood plant forced to shut down due to exceptionally heavy rainfalls in St. Louis area

Amsterdam, 26 July 2022. Cabka N.V. (“Cabka” or the “Company”), a leading integrated circular production company, listed at Euronext Amsterdam, reports that extreme rainfall in the metropolitan area of St. Louis (MO), USA, on Tuesday morning led to flash floods throughout the city including Cabka’s local premises in Hazelwood (MO) and conclusively, a shutdown of the site. All staff was able to leave the premises unharmed.

Last night extreme rainfall of up to nine inches led to several flash floods in the St. Louis area close to the Cabka production site setting the plant under water. With production halted at this time and the extreme weather still continuing, no indication of the consequences can be given. The Hazelwood plant represents approximately 15% of the total Cabka production capacity.
