Number
016pe

Today, Royal KPN N.V. ("KPN") announces further changes to its management structure, in addition to the changes announced on 28 August 2018 and 1 October 2018.

Babak Fouladi will be appointed to the newly created executive management role of Chief Technology & Digital Officer (CTDO). The CTDO role is created to respond to ever rapidly changing technologies and digitalization of processes and services. Babak Fouladi, currently Group Chief Technology and Information Officer at MTN Group, has a proven track record in technology and the telecommunications industry. He will assume responsibility for all technology developments and performance of KPN's systems and network infrastructure. The appointment will be effective as of 4 December 2018, subject to works council advice.

Hilde Garssen will be appointed to the position of Chief People Officer, effective as of 10 December 2018. She will succeed Erik van 't Hof, who temporarily assumed this role and now will be appointed to the position of EVP Leadership, Talent & Culture. Hilde brings in a wealth of experience in creating a high performing culture, building a people strategy focused on developing talents at all levels, and driving employee engagement.

Babak Fouladi and Hilde Garssen will join KPN's executive committee and both will report to Maximo Ibarra, CEO of KPN.

Maximo Ibarra, CEO of KPN:

"We are excited to welcome Hilde and Babak to KPN. I am confident that their extensive track record in technology, networks and people management, and their leadership, strategic, and operational expertise will drive fresh thinking. Their expertise is of a great value as we continue to attract, develop and retain a talented and diverse workforce to support the evolving needs of our company. This creates a solid foundation to accelerate the successful execution of our strategy."

KPN also anticipates an increasing need for co-ordinating and managing relations with all external stakeholders at the Board of Management level. As a result, Joost Farwerck, Member of the Board of Management and COO, will now assume responsibilities for Regulatory & Public Affairs. In this position, Joost will represent the interests of KPN towards the government, political and regulatory audiences and other relevant stakeholders in the Netherlands, such as large customers and vendors. Joost will also assume responsibilities for New Business while continuing to be responsible for Wholesale as well as Joint Ventures & Strategic Partnerships. Previously, Joost was responsible for implementing KPN's operational and network strategy, and for KPN's wholesale strategy. These changes are effective as of 4 December 2018.
