

Qurius Global Alliance expands and lists four new members

Zaltbommel, The Netherlands, 20 November 2008 – Today Qurius announced four new members of the Qurius Global Alliance: All e Technologies (India); IBIZ Consulting Services (Singapore); OMNi Technology (Turkey); and Tribridge (USA). A partner subsidiary of Qurius, the Qurius Global Alliance is a worldwide association of Microsoft Dynamics® solution providers that supports customers with international deployments of primarily Microsoft Dynamics AX, NAV and CRM projects.

With a current roster of more than 20 partner organisations, the Qurius Global Alliance offers a uniform engagement model, a single point-of-contact and a consistent service-delivery methodology based on the high-level standards of Microsoft and Qurius for customers worldwide. The alliance's goal is to ensure that customers experience a global and seamless project execution and post go-live support.

"By listing these new members, the Qurius driven Alliance is now supported by the strongest and premier Microsoft partners around the globe," says Fred Hermans, CEO of Qurius.

All four new member organisations are highly experienced and recognized Microsoft Dynamics partners: All e Technologies and OMNi Technology specialize in Dynamics NAV, besides their AX and CRM practise; IBIZ Consulting Services specializes in Dynamics AX and NAV and covers besides Singapore also Malaysia, Indonesia, Vietnam and Thailand; and Tribridge specializes in Dynamics AX, NAV and CRM implementations. US-based Tribridge is Qurius' successor in receiving the 2008 worldwide Microsoft Dynamics Partner of the Year award.

"Membership into the prestigious Qurius Global Alliance enables us to provide our customers with expert services outside of North America," says Tony DiBenedetto, Tribridge chairman and CEO. "By aligning ourselves with other partners of the same calibre, we can compete on a global scale while maintaining our business focus here. We are honoured to be part of a select group of partners across the globe focused on delivering innovative Microsoft solutions and outstanding customer service."
