

Conversus Capital Releases 31 October 2010 Estimated Net Asset Value

GUERNSEY, CHANNEL ISLANDS, 10 November 2010 – Conversus Capital, L.P. (Euronext Amsterdam: CCAP) (“Conversus”) today reported its estimated net asset value (“NAV”) as of 31 October 2010.

As of 31 October, Conversus had an estimated NAV of $25.75 per unit reflecting an increase of 1.7% from the 30 September NAV of $25.32 per unit. Funded assets were $1,851.7 million while unfunded commitments were $598.1 million as of 31 October. By comparison, as of 30 September funded assets were $1,847.6 million and unfunded commitments were $611.2 million.

A monthly report and investor presentation detailing Conversus’ October 2010 financial results and estimated NAV can be found on Conversus’ website at www.conversus.com in the Investor Relations section under the heading “Monthly Updates.” Please use the following link to directly access the monthly report: <http://www.conversus.com/investor+relations/monthly+updates>.

Unit Repurchase Activity

During the month of October, a total of 7,500 Conversus units were repurchased pursuant to a Liquidity Enhancement Agreement (the “Agreement”) with The Royal Bank of Scotland (“RBS”) at an average price per unit of $16.92. Over the life of the Agreement, a total of 1.2 million units have been repurchased at an average price per unit of $16.49. Under the Agreement, RBS has authority to repurchase a total of 3.7 million units.

Repurchased units are held on Conversus’ balance sheet as Treasury units. Conversus currently holds 3.2 million units in treasury. As it deems appropriate, Conversus expects to continue to repurchase its units pursuant to the Agreement at attractive prices relative to NAV.

About Conversus Capital
