Constellium launches ordinary shares and notes offerings

Amsterdam, October 30, 2017 – Constellium N.V. (NYSE and Euronext Paris: CSTM) (“Constellium”) announced today the commencement of proposed public offerings of its Class A ordinary shares, U.S. dollar denominated senior unsecured notes due 2026 and euro denominated senior unsecured notes due 2026, in each case subject to market and other conditions and as further described below.

Equity Offering

Constellium expects to offer 22,000,000 newly issued Class A ordinary shares (“ordinary shares”) in an underwritten public offering (the “Equity Offering”). Constellium also expects to grant the underwriters in the Equity Offering a 30-day option to purchase up to an additional 3,300,000 ordinary shares at the public offering price, less the underwriting discount.

Notes Offering

Constellium also announced today that it intends to offer, subject to market and other conditions (the “Notes Offering” and, together with the Equity Offering, the “Offerings”), approximately $450 million of U.S. dollar denominated senior unsecured notes due 2026 (the “Dollar Notes”) and approximately €400 million of euro denominated senior unsecured notes due 2026 (the “Euro Notes” and, together with the Dollar Notes, the “Notes”).

Use of Proceeds

The Equity Offering and the Notes Offering are being conducted as separate offerings. Neither Offering is contingent upon the other. Constellium will receive the proceeds from its direct sale of shares of its common stock in the Equity Offering and the sale of the notes in the Notes Offering, less, in each case, estimated underwriting discounts and commissions and estimated offering expenses. Constellium expects to use the net proceeds from the Offerings, together with cash on hand, to repurchase pursuant to tender offers (the “Tender Offers”), and/or redeem, satisfy and

Forward-looking Statements

Certain statements contained in this press release may constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, as amended. This press release may contain “forward looking statements” with respect to the Equity Offering, the Notes Offering, the Tender Offers, the redemption of the Tender Offer Notes, our business, results of operations and financial condition, and our expectations or beliefs concerning future events and conditions. You can identify forward-looking statements because they contain words such as, but not limited to, “believes,” “expects,” “may,” “should,” “approximately,” “anticipates,” “estimates,” “intends,” “plans,” “targets,” likely,” “will,” “would,” “could” and similar expressions (or the negative of these terminologies or expressions). All forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties. Many risks and uncertainties are inherent in our industry and markets. Others are more specific to our business and operations. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, the ability of Constellium and Wise Metals to achieve expected synergies and the timing thereof, Constellium’s increased levels of indebtedness which could limit Constellium’s operating flexibility and opportunities; the potential failure to retain key employees, the loss of customers, suppliers and other business relationships; disruptions to business operations; slower or lower than expected growth in the North American market for Body-in-White aluminium rolled products, and other risk factors set forth under the heading “Risk Factors” in our Annual Report on Form 20-F and our registration statement on Form F-3, filed on October 30, 2017, and as described from time to time in subsequent reports filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. The occurrence of the events described and the achievement of the expected results depend on many events, some or all of which are not predictable or within our control. Consequently, actual results may differ materially from the forward-looking statements contained in this press release. We undertake no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statement as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required by law.
