

PRESS RELEASE

pages:1

Barendrecht, 7 October 2011

CARLO D'AGNOLO APPOINTED CHAIRMAN AND CEO OF ICT AUTOMATISERING

ICT Automatisering N.V. (ICT) announces that Mr. C.A.G. D'Agnolo has been officially appointed as CEO of ICT effective as per 1 October 2011. On 30 May 2011, the AGM was already notified of the intended appointment by the Supervisory Board.

Mr. D'Agnolo (1953) has extensive experience at several companies in the technology sector. After his degree in Business Administration at the Eindhoven University of Technology, he started at DAF Trucks where he held various management positions from 1978 to 1994. After that, he was Managing Director of Enschedé/SdU for a period of eight years. Since 2004, Mr. D'Agnolo worked in various management positions including Senior Vice President Central Europe at Zetes. From 2010, he was a member of the Supervisory Board of ICT. Since 29 October 2010, Mr. D'Agnolo has already been active as interim CEO at ICT.

/ / / / / / / /

About ICT

ICT offers high-grade technological solutions in the field of information and communication technology in a variety of functional fields of application, in particular Automotive, Logistics, Machine & Systems, Industrial Automation, Energy & Utilities en Healthcare. The company is active in both The Netherlands and Germany. The solutions that ICT offers its clients range from secondment of experienced and well educated employees, realizing system solutions on a project basis and services to maintain ICT systems. Through holdings, ICT is also active in the fields of Traffic & Transport and Testing.

For further information

Gineke van Don, Manager PR & Communications of ICT Automatisering N.V.

Telephone: +31 (0)180-646000

Website: www.ict.nl