

Media release

March 7, 2019

Passion for paint takes pride of place in AkzoNobel's integrated Report 2018

AkzoNobel has launched its digital Report 2018, highlighting all the key developments during what proved to be an historic year.

The dedicated site includes the company's financial results and detailed business analysis. Several case studies also feature prominently, focusing on some of the biggest success stories.

In his CEO statement, Thierry Vanlancker talks about the progress made during 2018: "We continued to build the company into an industry leader" he says. "Our goal is clear – to be recognized as the reference in our industry."

Full of interactive content and infographics, the digital report opens with a redesigned home page, while intuitive functionality makes it easy to access information.

Designed to showcase the ongoing transformation of AkzoNobel, visitors can also access a series of videos that give fresh insight into some of the year's main highlights.

"In many ways, 2018 was all about sharing – and showing – our passion for paint" continues Vanlancker. "We're proud to have once again contributed our expertise to so many exciting projects across the globe."

To visit the Report 2018 website, click here.

About AkzoNobel

AkzoNobel has a passion for paint. We're experts in the proud craft of making paints and coatings, setting the standard in color and protection since 1792. Our world class portfolio of brands – including Dulux, International, Sikkens and Interpon – is trusted by customers around the globe. Headquartered in the Netherlands, we are active in over 150 countries and employ around 34,500 talented people who are passionate about delivering the high-performance products and services our customers expect.

Not for publication – for more information

Media Relations
T +31 (0)88 – 969 7833
Contact: Joost Ruempol
Media.relations@akzonobel.com