Notice to Company shareholders in the United States

The Offer will be made for the Shares of the Company, a public limited company incorporated under the laws of Luxembourg with its Shares listed on Euronext Amsterdam. It is important that U.S. shareholders of the Company understand that the Offer and any related offer documents are subject to Dutch disclosure and procedural requirements and Luxembourg corporate law, which are different from those of the United States. U.S. shareholders of the Company are advised that the Company's Shares are not listed on a U.S. securities exchange and that the Company is not subject to the periodic reporting requirements of the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act"), and is not required to, and does not, file any reports with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") thereunder.

The Offer will be made in the United States in compliance with, and in reliance on, the exemption provided by Rule 14d-1(d), known as "Tier II" exemption, under the Exchange Act and otherwise in accordance with the requirements of Dutch law. Accordingly, the Offer will be subject to certain disclosure and other procedural requirements, including with respect to the Offer timetable and settlement procedures that are different from those applicable under U.S. domestic tender offer procedures and laws.

The receipt of cash pursuant to the Offer by a U.S. holder of the Company's Shares may be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes and under applicable state and local, as well as foreign and other tax laws. Each holder of the Shares is urged to consult their independent professional advisor immediately regarding the tax consequences of acceptance of the Offer.

It may be difficult for U.S. holders of Shares to enforce any rights and claims arising out of the U.S. federal securities laws, since the Company is located in a country other than the United States, and some or all of its officers and directors may be residents of a country other than the United States. U.S. holders of Shares may not be able to sue a non-U.S. company or its officers or directors in a non-U.S. court for violations of U.S. securities laws. Further, it may be difficult to compel a non-U.S. company and its affiliates to subject themselves to a U.S. court's judgment.

Neither the SEC nor any U.S. state securities commission has approved or disapproved or passed judgment upon the merits or fairness of the Transaction or determined whether this press release is adequate, accurate or complete. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offence in the United States.
