1. Reporting obligations

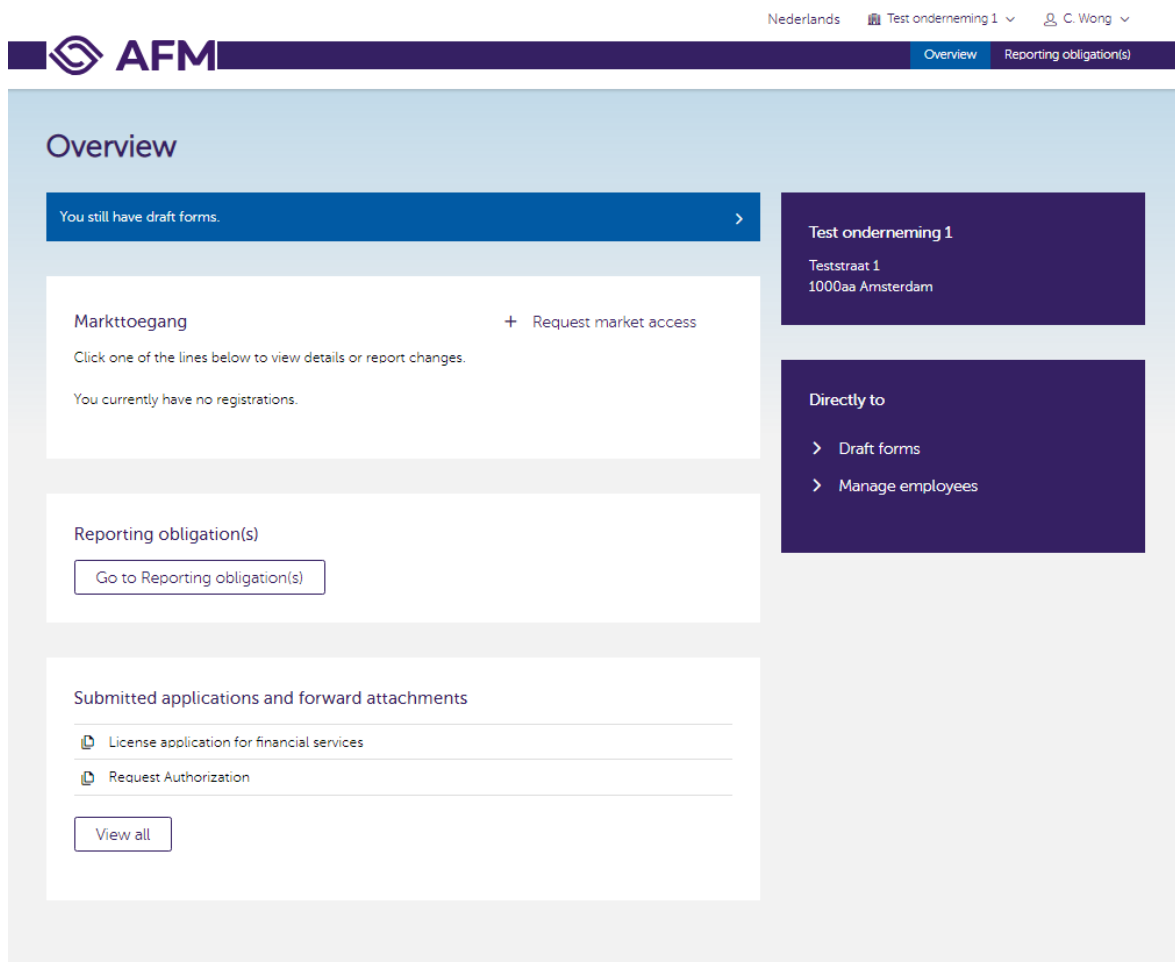

This manual explains how to file reports via the AFM portal. The AFM portal is available in both Dutch and English: you can set the preferred language in each screen (at the top right). This manual is also available in Dutch.

1.1 Consulting overview of reporting obligations

Go to the AFM portal (<https://Portaal.afm.nl>). You should preferably use the Google Chrome browser for this.

Log in to your account. Please refer to the instructions on the portal for registering and linking your account.

After you log in, this screen will appear.

Click on 'Go to Reporting obligation(s)' or on the option in the top right corner 'Reporting obligation(s)'.

This screen will then appear, displaying an overview of your reporting obligations to the AFM. The reporting obligation shown is an example. Depending on the report type, a different screen is shown for submitting the report, but the operation is similar. Under “Type” you will only see those reporting obligations that apply to your organization.

The screenshot shows the AFM Reporting obligation(s) interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'Nederlands', 'Stichting Autoriteit Financiële Markten', and 'C. Blom'. The main header is 'Reporting obligation(s)'. On the left, there are several filter sections: 'Searchterm' with a 'Refine results' button; 'Type' with a 'Questionnaire' checkbox; 'Status' with checkboxes for 'Open', 'In Progress' (checked), 'Resubmit', 'Submitted', 'Rejected', and 'Completed'; 'Reporting frequency' with a 'Year' dropdown and checkboxes for 'Month', 'Quarter', 'Half-year', 'Year', and 'One-off'; and 'Final delivery date' with 'Date from' and 'Date to' date pickers. On the right, there is a 'Sort' dropdown set to 'Date (ascending)' and an 'Items' dropdown set to '20'. The main content area shows a table with one row: 'Vragenlijst : Stichting Autoriteit Financiële Markten' with a status of 'In Progress' and a date of '31-03-2022'. The table also shows 'n.v.t.' and '1' in the first two columns. At the bottom, there is a 'Download results (.csv)' button.

If there are multiple reporting obligations, you can use the filters shown on the left. It is also possible to do a keyword search. If the words next to a filter value are greyed out, there are no reporting obligations corresponding to that filter value. The statuses 'Rejected' and 'Completed' are deselected by default because no further action is expected from you as regards reporting obligations with this status.

You can open a reporting obligation by clicking on it. Depending on the report type, a different screen is shown for submitting the report, but the operation is similar

Depending on the type of reporting obligation, you must complete a questionnaire or upload a report file.

1.2 Submitting a questionnaire

You can start a questionnaire by clicking the “Start survey” button. Complete and submit the questionnaire.

1.3 Submitting a report file

There are 2 steps involved in filing a report via the AFM portal:

- Step 1: selecting/uploading the file
You choose the file that your organisation has compiled in order to fulfil this reporting obligation and upload this file to the AFM portal.
- Step 2: submitting the report
You file the report with the AFM.

Once you have completed these 2 steps, the report has been filed with the AFM.

Step 1: Open your first reporting obligation and you will then see this (sample AIMF) screen.

You will see the following information on this screen.

Report: the name of the report.

DeliveryID: a unique ID of the filing for reference purposes in case of questions for the AFM.

Reporting frequency: the frequency in which reporting must be made

Reporting period: the period to be reported on.

Referencecode: the identification code of the entity for which the report must be filed. For an AIFM report, this is the AIFM National Code, and for an AIF report, this is the AIF National Code. For other reports, your company number with the AFM.

Sequence number: (only AIF en AIFM) this number indicates whether an initial report or a re-report needs to be filed. A value of 2 or higher indicates a re-report. If this number is followed by 'DQEF', the reporting obligation concerns a re-report in connection with ESMA's Data Quality Engagement Framework, which is applied periodically to filings that were previously assigned 'Completed' status but were, on closer inspection, found to contain errors.

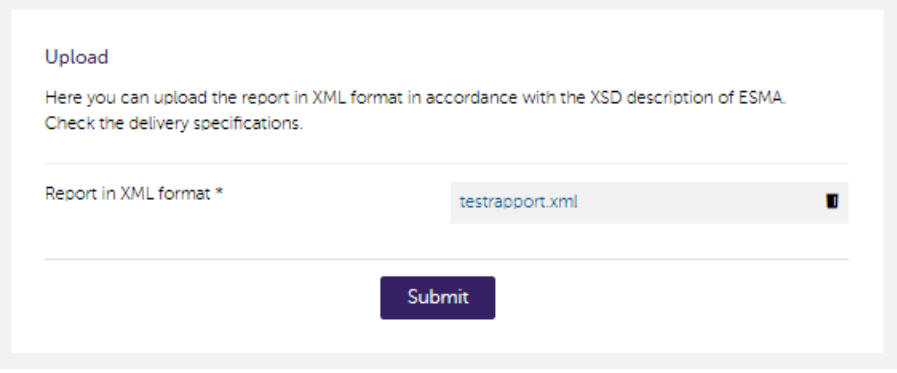

Submission deadline: The date by which you must have met your reporting obligation.

Submission date (questionnaire only): The date you submitted your questionnaire.

Status: a report can have 6 statuses:

- Open: not yet filed.
- In Progress: filed, undergoing validation by the AFM.
- Resubmit: the AFM's validation process has produced blocking errors. Resubmittal is required.
- Submitted: filed, validated by the AFM, undergoing validation by ESMA.
- Rejected: ESMA's validation process has found certain blocking errors. Resubmittal is required; a new reporting obligation with status 'Open' has been created for this purpose.
- Completed: filed and no blocking errors were found by the validation processes.

Upload your report in the specified format using the select file button. (You may use your own naming convention; there are no restrictions in this regard provided that the extension is based on the specified format like .XML).

Here you can upload the report in XML format in accordance with the XSD description of ESMA.

If multiple reports of the same type have to be submitted again, this can again be done via a ZIP file. It takes a few minutes until the validation results are visible in the AFM portal. The same applies to the feedback on linking the reports in the ZIP file to the open reporting obligations. This feedback can be found under “Previous uploads”.
